AHEAD OF TIME!

THE DESIDERATUM AT LAST!!

It Beats Caloric!

Our Double Cylinder Chinese Press.

We have a Press of rare construction, and great power, on which we are prepared to do Extra Work!

For Heavy Work, it is not excelled by any other press in the enlightened world!

As the power is obtained more cheaply than Caloric, we can do work upon it at the lowest living rates.

We can give the proof of this declaration, to those who apply.

The public is invited to give our Double Cylinder Chinese Press a trial!

MARRIAGE IN HUSTON HALL, TO NIGHT.—At 8 o'clock Prof. Fowler will give his very interesting lecture on our social relations; the continuance of the race; to the unmarried; who should and who should not marry; the right age; likes and dislikes; marrying cousins; Jealousy, its causes and cure; beauty and fashion; the choice of congenial companions for life; adaptation; courtship and marriage. Interesting to both sexes. Several ladies and gentlemen will be examined, at the close of the lecture.

Those who wish for private examinations, with charts and full written descriptions of character, should call soon, at Parlor No. 7, Phillips House.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon Prof. Fowler will give a free lecture for the special benefit of children and parents. No postponement.

THE NEW PLACE.—Mr. Boyer has completed his removal to his commodious rooms, corner of Main and Fourth st., and has now put every thing in complete trim. His supply of furniture for excellence, elegance and durability cannot be surpassed any where. Mr. B. is a thorough mechanic himself, and personally superintends every branch of his manufactory; procures the best material that can be obtained any where; and he will employ no workmen who are not complete masters of the business His Ware Rooms now present a very attractive appearance, and he will not be excelled, in every regard, by any other establishment in the country. See his advertisement.

☞ We were a candidate for Councilman in the 4th Ward, yesterday; but being afflicted with a severe Boyle, we were unable to get around among the voters, and they, thinking we were "only in fun," voted for our competitor! Under the circumstances it is highly probable that we are defeated.

☞ Election Tickets are plentiful to-day; indeed, the "boys," who invariably have their election "the day after," have a bountiful supply, and are not obliged to have any printed. We saw a little fellow have a basket full this morning; and he said he was sure of his election, for he had the most tickets! That rule did not hold good yesterday!

☞ We are favored (!) with winter weather at this writing, with a sprinkle of snow, by way of making appearances tally with the weather. Those scientific men who are ever ready to account for the unusual phenomena of the seasons have a large opening, now, for the exercise of their abilities. Has the entrance to the Arctic Sea again blown open? Fancy dry goods are not quoted this morning!

☞ The "burnt cork" business is popular in Cincinnati. Matt. Peel and troupe are at Smith & Nixon's Hall, and Buckley's Troupe, with a female prima donna, are at Woods Theatre. Notwithstanding the opera furore, these troupes are doing a handsome business. Buckley's company go down the Ohio from Cincinnati; Matt. Peel may possibly come to Dayton.

☞ Hepford and Balsley are now prepared to supply the public with every kind of lumber, lath, shingles, etc., of the best qualities, and at prices which will induce the people to purchase. They are determined to please the public in variety, quality and price.

☞ We have just procured some very handsome and appropriate Type and Fixtures for Bill-Heads, Circulars, &c. We write our Merchants and Business Men to call and examine our superior work. Our prices are moderate.

The Election Yesterday.

We have not been able to get the tables of votes of the different wards in time to prepare them for to day's paper. We give the names of the successful candidates, and to morrow will give the tables of votes for the city. The vote between prominent candidates ran very close:

Justices of the Peace—James Turner and Geo. M. Young.

Marshal—William Heusan.

Constables—Vote very close—Sage and Kuhns no doubt elected.

City Treasurer—C. C. Keifer.

Solicitor—Luther B. Broen.

Clerk of the Market—John Kline.

Street Commissioner—William Tiebein.

Wood Measurer—Robert Allen.

Infirmary Director—Samuel Marshall.

1ST WARD.—Council, Hugh Wiggem; Assessor, no returns; Board of Education, D. Warham.

2ND. WARD.—Council, E. Bimm; Assessor, no returns; Board of Education, R. H. Steele.

3D. WARD.—Council, I. H. Kierstead; Assessor, F. Holiday; Board of Education, H. L. Brown.

4TH. WARD.—Council, James Boyle; Assessor, Jacob Stevens; Board of Education, J. Kenney.

5TH. WARD.—Council, L. Butz; Assessor, J. H. Schnebly; Board of Education, H. Elliott.

6TH. WARD.—W. Bomberger; Assessor, Jacob Gantz; Board of Education, W. N. Love.

☞ The editor of the Mac-a-cheek Press says, "We hope the editor of the Empire is an old bachelor, and will always remain one." The first section of our cotemporary's hope rather startled our "large and increasing family;" while the latter section was read under protest! We are glad that the fates "cast our lines in pleasant places" ere the wicked hope of our West Liberty cotemporary was conceived; and our gladness is shared largely at our frugal board. Our evil genius of the Press will doubtless modify or change his hope, as he will discover that a further indulgence in it will place him in the dilemma of warring against the "Divine Institution." That's a clever fellow, do.

☞ Great interest was manifested by crowds around the various polls last night, up to a late hour, to ascertain the result on prominent candidates, but without success. Early this morning, the inquiring was renewed, without any thing definite to be learned about the general result. We do not remember to have ever seen greater interest exhibited about the result of any election before. The "public mind" did not seem disposed to settle down, even after the result was learned; some seemed to think that there might be some mistake, somewhere!

☞ A friend of ours was somewhat alarmed, the other night by a peculiar noise, which as he listened more attentively, seemed to him to be occasioned by burglars attempting to break in the room in which he was! Getting up cautiously, he got hold of his revolver, and noislessly awaited the appearance of a head through the door. Getting tired of the suspense, he proceeded to investigate the matter, and after very cautiously opening the door, he ascertained that no one was there, but the confounded noise continued inside of the room! Becoming determined, he commenced a search, and at length found that what had alarmed him so greatly was the ticking of an old watch which had, of its own accord, commenced ticking after a silence of about three years!

☞ We hope the ex-member of the city Council from the Third Ward will not complain of the ex-member from the Sixth Ward; and that they will hereafter ground arms and be friends, for they have both been beaten by the same majority.

☞ The Mores, Clegg's Building, 3d st., have just received a supply of very elegant Window and Wall papers. A search all over the world would not procure you any thing better or prettier than they have.—They have, also, been receiving a variety of other very handsome goods &c. Remember the Mores deliver packages to any part of the city.

CHANGE OF TIME!—The travelling and business public will take notice that a new time table went into effect on the Sandusky, Dayton & Cincinnati Road yesterday:—The Mail Train leaves Sandusky at 7,30 A. M., and arrives at Dayton at 3,40 P. M. The Night Express leaves Sandusky and 9,00 P. M., and reaches Dayton at 7,30 A. M. Returning, leaves Dayton at 7,30 P. M., and reaches Sandusky at 4,10 A. M.

☞ A chap who was not entitled to a vote succeeded in depositing his ballot in the 1st ward polls, yesterday, we learn. On examination before the Mayor it was ascertained that he was woefully ignorant with regard to the election law, and every other law, and he was discharged.

☞ The ladies are referred to the announcement of Mr. Tucker, in another column. His opening of Spring Millinery will take place on Thursday next. It is to be hoped that the weather will be fine by that day, and that our lady readers will be able to call and see the elegant goods at Mr. Tuckers'.

☞ Milliners, and dealers in Millinery Goods, are referred to the advertisement of Messrs. Devou & Rockwood, Cincinnati, to be found in another column. They offer very superior inducements to country dealers. Don't fail to give them a call when you visit the city.

☞ Disappointed candidates are a feature in the city to-day. They present the appearance of returned volunteers, who had seen service. The agony is over for another year, which is relief to all parties. Hand-shaking has been suspended for at least nine months!

☞ The whole Democratic Ticket was elected in Randolph Township, yesterday. Our old Democratic friend, Wm. Zigler, was elected Justice of the Peace. This is a good selection

☞ In Wayne Township the Republicans elected their ticket, yesterday, by a small majority. The Democrats in this township were after them with a sharp stick.

☞ We are informed that James Kelley was elected Justice of the Peace in Mad River Township, yesterday!

☞ The Democrats of Harrison Township elected their entire ticket, yesterday.

The word Arizonia—the name of one of our territories—is derived from the Aztec, and means silver-bearing.

Judge Edmonds has just commenced the up hill task of proving the public all wrong, and himself all right, on spiritual beliefs.

Dr. Wm. A. Alcott, a well known author and physician, died on Tuesday, at his residence in Auburndale, Mass.

One of the severest snow storms of the winter occurred in Jefferson county, N. Y., on Saturday last week. A large quantity of snow fell, which was badly drifted, and on Monday morning still remained in immense drifts, obstructing the roads. The thermometer on Monday morning at Pierrepont Manor was only 14 degrees above zero.

A Cuban passed through Petersburg, Va., Friday; with a stable of sixteen New York bred horses, en route for Havana.

☞ Bone, of the Cleveland Herald, who knows such a number of curious things, says that the proverb "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," which is frequently attributed to the Scripture, was translated by Stone, in his Sentimental Journey, from the French.—State Journal.

It is probable that it is from the French but custom has credited it to the Bible; and no one knows better than Bone of the Herald that "what's bred in the bone can't be got out of the flesh." It's a good thing, any how; and will travel on its own credit.

"SEND US ONE OF THEM THINGS."—A prominent hardware house in Cincinnati received, a day or two since, the following order:

——, Sangamon Co., Ill., March 18.

—— & Co.:—

SIRS:—Send us one of them d——d things that makes such a h——l of a noise about a hotel. We've opened a hotel here last week, and want to make as much noise as anybody. Send bill. J. R. P. & Bro.

P. S.—A feller here says they call them gongs in Terre Haute.

BROWNLOW UPON ENDORSING PAPER.—The last Knoxville Whig contains an editorial article upon the common practice of endorsing business notes, from which we clip the following paragraph:

"For our part we have but little of this world's goods, and our endorsement is worth nothing to any one. The business of endorsing we have entirely quit, and come what may, we will endorse no more for any one, as a matter of accommodation. We have quit, too, for two sufficient reasons.—First, we have either been sued for, or had to pay nearly all the notes we had to endorse for others, and next, we have the vouchers to show we have paid more security debts than all we now have is worth in any market. Under these circumstances, if any one wishes to hear us say no with an emphasis, let him ask us to endorse his note." Them's our sentiments exactly.

☞ Wood's Theatre, Cincinnati, came near being burned on Friday. The Jenny Lind Saloon underneath it was set on fire in several places, and had not officers discovered the fire, the whole building would have been in flames. The proprietor of the saloon was locked up on the charge of arson.

☞ Aaron Jones, the English trainer of the Benicia Boy, has sent a challenge, on his own account, to Tom Sayers, the present champion of England, for $1,000 and the champion belt.

Mr. W. C. Macready, the eminent tragedian, is now, we understand, conducting a school at Sherbourne in Dorsetshire.

☞ We notice that Madam Basco is giving her entertainments at Beckett's Hall, Hamilton, this week. The papers of that place inform us that she is having a great success.

☞ Those who desire to secure first quality of potatoes for eating or planting, can get them at Brandenburgs, 300, 3d street.

☞ The regular nominated Democratic Ticket, in Miami Township, was elected, yesterday, by one to two hundred majority.

☞ The Charter Oak Place in Hartford, will soon be the site of a modern "Aristocrat residence," the old Willys house being now in process of removal, to give place thereto. This old house was erected in 1747, the frame being of imported English oak, and, it is said, now exhibits very few marks of decay.
