Society

MRS. W. A. HUDGENS, Editor, Phone 37.

New Year's Wedding.

Mrs. Edwards Bobo Murray has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Felicia, and Mr. Joseph Johnstone Reed on the evening of Thursday the twenty-eighth of January at half after seven o'clock at Twenty-four North Anderson, Anderson, S. C. Miss Murray has been one of Anderson's most popular young society women and her wedding will be an event of interest to her many friends throughout the State.

Move to Florida.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs Baxter H. Hodges of Starr will learn with interest that they are planning to move to Florida the latter part of this month. Mr. Hodges has a very desirable place there and for years they have thought of moving to it. Their many friends here will feel the deepest regret that they will leave Anderson County, but they have the sincerest wishes for a very happy and prosperous life there.

Card Afternoon.

Tuesday afternoon will be the first of the card afternoons at the Rose Hill Club since the holidays and the members are planning for the first occasion of the new year to be a very delightful event. All who expect to make up a table are asked to notify Mrs. Alice Sykes.

Mrs. Donald Clarke of Detroit Mich., who is visiting at Starr, spent yesterday with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam B. Crayton have returned to their home at Georgetown after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crayton.

Lovely Dinner Party.

A lovely dinner was given yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Vandiver at their attractive home on North McDuffie street. The table was beautiful in cut glass and silver and an elegant course dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Vandiver's guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Masters, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Vandiver and children, Mrs. Corrie Watson, Mrs. H. P. McDaniels and Miss Verina McDaniels.

Calhoun Street Club.

The Calhoun Street Club was entertained on Thursday afternoon by Miss Bertha Cashin at her home on Calhoun street. Two tables of auction bridge were formed and several interesting and enthusiastic games played after which the charming hostess served dainty refreshments.

Miss Lucia Archer returned from Easley where she spent several days with friends.

Mrs. E. H. Acker has returned to her home in Atlanta after spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. Keith Prevost.

Mrs. George Townsend goes to Seneca tomorrow to attend the marriage of Miss Carrie Hunter and Mr. T. B. Jones on Tuesday evening, the 12th inst.

Mr. Robert M. Hammond of Greenville is the guest of Mr. Melvin Means.

Mr. Humbert M. Aull of Newberry was here this week the guest of relatives.

Beautiful Home Wedding.

A beautiful home wedding and one around which centered the love and interest of their friends was that of Miss Mable K. Smithe and Mr. S. H. Smith which occurred at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Robert Smithe, on Thursday afternoon. This home just five miles west of the city had been prettily decorated for the occasion with ferns and pot plants. The attendants were: Miss Lula Smithe and Miss Lola Smithe, both of whom wore pretty gowns of white crepe de chene over pink with pink girdles and carried pink carnations. The bride wore a beautiful dark blue broad cloth coat suit trimmed in fur with hat, gloves and shoes to match. She carried an armful of white carnations. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Wade Sanders, who also played "A Perfect Day," during the ceremony which was performed by Rev. W. B. Hawkins. The guests were received by Mrs. Smithe, Miss Eva Smithe and Mrs. C. Lee of Atlanta. Just after the ceremony the bride threw up her wedding bouquet, the catching of which would indicate the next bride, and this honor fell to Miss Lula Smith and Miss Lola Smithe.

In the pretty dining room Mrs. George Eagle and Mrs. Frank Murphy presided and served coffee and fruit cake. Little Carrie Smithe and Elizabeth Smith pinned on the souvenirs, tiny wedding bells tied with red ribbon. The center table was particularly pretty, with a tall cut glass vase of red carnations in the center with candelabra with red candles on each side. The wedding presents were a pretty collection of many handsome and useful gifts.

Miss Lucia Childs of Anderson was in the city yesterday.—Greenville Piedmont.

Miss Wilma Polk of Jackson, Tenn., is expected this week to spend a month with her sister, Mrs. Bond Anderson.

Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Trowbridge are entertaining the following ladies at a week-end house party: Miss Marguerite Adams of Charleston, Miss Bessie Allen and Miss Margie West of Greenville.

Miss L. N. Catlett of Newport, Tenn., is visiting her mother, Mrs. John Catlett, on South Main street.

Due West Alumnae.

The Due West Alumnae will meet next Friday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Burriss on Evans street. The members are asked to read up on Belgium as that will be the subject for the afternoon.

Priscilla Club.

Mrs. W. J. Muldrow was the charming hostess for the Priscilla Club on Saturday afternoon at her home on West Whitner street. Mrs. Muldrow is an attractive young hostess and her sweet gracious manner in her home always assures a pleasant occasion for her guests.

Miss Eubank Taylor goes to Columbia Monday to take a position in the engrossing department.

With The Church Women

Phone 37.

Vesper Service.

The usual Sunday afternoon vesper service will be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock at St. John's Methodist church. Music is an important feature of these services and the song services is always sweet and impressive. The pastor also gives a short and helpful talk, and altogether the services are interesting and inspiring.

Circles.

Circle No. One of the First Presbyterian church was delightfully entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. F. A. Wigginton on Greenville street and a very pleasant afternoon was spent by those who braved the inclemency of the wrather. She served her guests with a dainty salad course and was assisted by Miss Maggie Garlington.

In Circle No. 2 Mrs. Flora Overman was unanimousl yelected as president in the place of Mrs. B .B. Hart who has served the circle so faithfully and acceptably for the past year. The meeting was held at the hospitable home of Mrs. A. P. Johnstone and was a delightfully pleasant one. Several recitations by Mrs. Johnstone were heartily enjoyed as was also the reading by Mrs. Overman. Mrs. Johnstone served her guests with delightful refreshments

Junior Philathea.

Mrs. J. B. Townsend was the attractive hostess for the young ladies of the Junior Philathea Class on Tuesday afternoon. After all business had been disposed of the guests enjoyed the music by Miss Kathleen Norryce and recitation by Miss Emmie Cathcart. During the social hour which is always a very important part of these monthly meetings, Mrs. Townsend served an elegant salad course with hot coffee. These monthly social meetings mean so much to the social life and fellowship of the classes and the members always look forward with pleasure to them.

Senior Philathea Class.

The Senior Philathea Class of the First Presbyterian church was entertained on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Keith Prevost and Mrs. Rosa McCully at the home of the former on Calhoun street. There was a good attendance of members and the principal business was the election of officers which resulted as follows: Mrs. F. M. Burnett, president; Mrs. Flora Overman, first vice president; Mrs. Keith Prevost, second vice president; Mrs. J. P. Trowbridge, recording secretary; Miss Margaret Archer, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Blair Crayton, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Spearman, assistant secretary and treasurer. The meeting was then converted into a social one and some time was delightfully spent, the attractive hostesses serving an elegant sweet course.

Primary Philathea Class.

The PrimaryPhilatha Class of the First Presbyterian church held their first meeting of the new year on Friday afternoon with Misses Bessie Rucker and Elizabeth Hudgens. The following officers were elected: President, Miss Elizabeth Ramsay; vice president, Miss Eunice Evans; secretary and treasurer, Miss Elizabeth Hudgens. Misses Katherine Ortman and Lucy Bell were elected as captains of the Blues and Whites to look after the Sunday school attendance of their respective sides.

Guild of Grace Church.

The Guild of Grace Episcopal church was delightfully entertained on Monday afternoon by Mrs. Nardin Webb at her home on West Whitner street. This was the first meeting of the new year and all the work and plans for the year were discussed and mapped out. During the social feature Mrs. Webb served her guests with dainty refreshments and the afternoon was pleasant and profitable.

Mission Study.

An interesting meeting of the Mission Study Class was held on Friday afternoon with Mrs. O. M. Heard. Mrs. T. C. Ligon was elected superintendent and the study of "The Child in the Midst" planned for the next six weeks. These meetings will be held weekly and are very instructive and helpful.

Elementary Union.

The Elementary Union will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Central Presbyterian church. All the teachers of the city Sunday school are urged to attend.

Central Presbyterian Church.

Realizing the highly important place which the mission of music occupies in the worship of God and in the service of His people, the Central Presbyterian church has for some time been endeavoring to better its musical programs. Its endeavors were successful last week when a special committee appointed by the officers of the church made a permanent arrangement with Miss Stranathan and Miss Nell Smith to furnish regularly at both Sunday services special music. They will be assisted by Miss Alwood and the Misses Lawrence and by Mr. Sam Orr Tribble at the night services. Miss Smith will assist in the worship with both voice and violin.

At the service this morning Miss Smith will render a violin obligato and Miss Stranathan will sing a solo. At the night service Misses Stranathan and Smith will sing a duet.

The heating plant of the church, which has been giving trouble for some weeks has been put in good condition to render excellent service from now on. It was tried out on Thursday and found to give perfect satisfaction.

Missionary Meeting.

The regular January meeting of the Missionary Society of St. John's Methodist church will meet on Monday afternoon at 3:30 with Mrs. Annie Moss on South McDuffie street.

Ladies Aid Society.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church will meet on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock promptly with Mrs. W. H. Frazer on West Whitner street.

Jule Duckworth of the Lebanon section was in the city yesterday.

A. E. Wright of Townville was in the city yesterday for a short while.

A. C. Ellison of the county visitor in the city yesterday.

OUR ANNUAL JANUARY
UNDERWEAR SALE
Commencing Monday
at 9 o'clock
Read These Specials For Monday

10 Dozen Gowns, Lace Trimmed, High and Low Neck, 100 values, Monday 49c
See Window Display.

50 Dozen Children Drawers, well made, special for Monday . . . 10c pr.

15 Dozen Ladies' 1915 Spring Waists, special for Monday 98c

21 Dozen Gowns, Lace and Embroidery Trimmed, $1.50 values, Monday 98c

Our entire first floor is snow white with the new 1915 under meslines. Be sure and be on hand Honday at 0 o'clock.

MANY BARGAINS WE DID NOT LIST

D. GEISBERG

INDUSTRY AND ECONOMY
THE ONLY CURE FOR ADVERSITY

OPPORTUNITY IS KNOCKING
INVESTMENTS ARE INVITING
Are You Prepared?
Each individual Should Save Something Each Week, Each Month

Series No. 11
Began December 15, 1914

You can get shares by paying in now your December installments. $1.00 per month per share brings you in $100.00 at maturity. $10.00 per month will bring you $1,000.00 at maturity, etc.

If You keep Up Your Payments
You Help Anderson Grow
At a Profit To Yourself

The Country's Prosperity Depends on the Economy and Savings of the Individual.

No Experiment---Calculations Proved by Experience. Invest Now.

ALL THE PROFIT
Is Distributed Among the Shareholders

WE REMIND YOU
If You Miss a Payment

WE Lend You Your Installments
When sickness comes
You can borrow to build a home
You can borrow on your shares
You can retire your shares

The Perpetual Building and Loan Association of Anderson

R. E. LIGON, President
P. E. CLINESCALES, Secretary