Red Sulphur Springs,

MONROE COUNTY, VIRGINIA.

THE PROPRIETORS OF THIS OLD WELL KNOWN WATERING PLACE respectfully inform the public that, in order to afford friends every facility to enjoy the benefits of the waters, they have determined to keep their Hotel open hereafter for the accommodation of visitors throughout the year, instead of five months as heretofore—from the first of May to the first of November. From the date first named until the 15th of June, the charge for board will be $1.50 per day; from the 15th of June until the 15th of September the charges will be the same as heretofore, $2 per day.

A large experience has convinced them that the season of the year from October to the end of the year is the most delightful in the year, and especially commending to the sick invalids, Persons, and generally refreshing to the jaded pleasure seeker. The first period is selected as the most favorable for those who desire to visit the Springs for health, and the second for those who desire to combine with the benefits of the waters the enjoyment of the season. The first period is recommended to the invalid because it is the season when that usually fatal Indian Pneumon, not generally extending to the Red Sulphur Springs
