But still desire and will. Cambridge, Mass., Lowell-Adams House Printers, 1966.

But still desire and will . . .

Legs be still! Far enough you've walked Under, up and across Hill over hill.

What! Are you twitching still?

Heart be still! Times enough you have balked Battened on mortal dross Gobbled your fill.

What! Are you hungry still?

Tongue be still! Long enough have you talked Laying out gain and loss Wish beside will...

Would you prophesy still?

Mind be still!

KKlopp

I. A. RICHARDS

I. A. Richards

This is NO. 27 of an edition limited to sixty-five copies hand-printed in Harvard Yard by The Lowell-Adams House Printers. Block-print by Karyl Klopp. II, 1966

But still desire and will. Cambridge, Mass., Lowell-Adams House Printers, 1966. http://www.loc.gov/resource/rbpe.08302800