

DOMESTIC WORKERS UNITED

Interview Log: afc2015027_03481_ms04

Marie Pierre Noel interviewed by Marie Ketlaine Antoine

Marie Ketlaine Antoine interviews Marie Pierre Noel

[00:00:00]- [00:01:14]

Noel and Antoine introduce themselves and Noel discusses her current residence and her place of origin.

[00:01:14]- [00:01:46]

Noel discusses her current job status.

[00:01:46]-[00:03:33]

Noel discusses her work as an elder care provider, the qualities you need to do this type of elder care, and the type of training that is necessary to be an elder care worker.

[00:03:33]-[00:05:04]

Noel discusses and compared elder care and child care and the similarities of caring for both. In addition, she discusses tricks or tactics she uses in order to get a child to eat when they refuse.

[00:05:04]-[00:06:04]

Noel discusses remedies that she uses to help a child who is teething as well as remedies that she has used using traditional medicine from Haiti.

[00:06:04]-[00:06:34]

Noel discusses things that she teaches her employer about rearing a child.

[00:06:34]-[00:07:58]

Noel discusses the pros and cons of her job.

[00:07:58]-[00:08:27]

Noel discusses her relationship current employer and how she disciplines a child.

[00:08:27]-[00:09:53]

Noel discusses how she manages her relationships with employers, children and elders. In addition, she discusses how she communicates with the elderly that are unable to speak but only gesture.

[00:09:53]-[00:10:54]

Noel discusses how she negotiates time off of work with her current employer.

Domestic Workers United
afc2015/027

[00:10:54]-[00:11:54]

Noel discusses how immigration status can impact your employment opportunities and rate of pay.

[00:11:54]-[00:12:52]

Noel discusses how she balances her personal life and professional life.

[00:12:52]-[00:13:58]

Noel discusses her sense of community while working in the domestic work industry.

[00:13:58]-[00:15:58]

Noel discusses her association with Domestic Workers United and the role that they believe it serves for domestic workers.

[00:15:58]-[00:16:26]

Noel discusses how the domestic workers bill of rights has impacted her.

[00:16:26]-[00:17:57]

Noel discusses the aspirations for domestic workers United and her desire to work on her immigration status and clarify how to gain immigration status without having to get married. In addition, she discusses what aspirations she has in her professional life.

[00:17:57]-[00:18:57]

Noel discusses the importance of expressing the current situation of domestic work and how to make women more independent. The interview wraps up.