

1st. Slowpoke Banquet Oct. 22, '55

NIAGARA FALLS GAZETTE

RANSOMVILLE CLUB AWARDS MADE—Stock car racing with safety on the roads is the aim of the Slowpoke Club which held its first annual dinner at the American Legion Hall, Ransomville. Awards were presented to winners of races held each Friday evening throughout the summer. Pictured are left to right, Edward Ortiz, club vice president, first place; Richard Cantara, president of the club and master of ceremonies; Richard Cain, second place; and Donald Reese, third. The Rev. Loyd Donnell, minister of the Free Methodist Church, was principal speaker. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Ortiz, owners of a Ransomville auto agency; Dr. and Mrs. S. J. Pizzia; Richard Courter, automobile, truck and farm equipment dealer; Harold Caldwell, local merchant and Loren Meyers. Mr. Meyers, Mr. Courter and Mr. Ortiz aided the club members with their cars during the racing season. Other officers are Donald's Ortiz, treasurer and William Cantara, secretary.