

Slowpokes Set to Race At Ransomville Friday

The Ransomville Slowpokes and the Ransomville Racing Affiliates announced today they have reached an agreement in regards to stock car racing at the Ransomville Speedway.

Slowpokes president, Ed Ortiz, said the Slowpokes, as a club, has agreed to join NASCAR and will participate in the NASCAR-sanctioned racing program this Friday and throughout the summer.

He also said many members of the Slowpokes have new cars and are ready to give the rest of the competition a good race for the rest of the season.

Many favorite drivers who raced last year at the Speedway, along with numerous newcomers, will be on hand for the program.

Ortiz also mentioned that there will be a good showing of Sportsmen Division cars from this area and Canada for the Friday show.

The Ransomville Racing Affiliates' president, Dick Cantara, said that the Affiliates are pleased the Slowpokes will be back once again.

Both divisions are set to run seven events, including two 25-lap feature races.

The Affiliates also would like to inform the new racing fans that the track surface is in very good condition and there are bleachers with a seating capacity for 3,000.
