Carroll:

Thank you for bringing this to our attention. I talked with the client and they are inclined not to formally amend the SOA but allow this email thread to document the correction.

Best regards.

Jim

Hello James,

Ultimately the decision is yours and we are not able to suggest either option. However, if you choose to not file an amended return I will include our correspondence in the file and also make a note on the worksheet attached to the statement indicating the correct accounting period.

Sincerely,

Tymica

If the email will suffice, then I'd rather not go through the expense of filing an amended return.

Hello James,

Thank-you for your quick response. A copy of your response will be included with the filing. If you wish to file and amendment, please see the information below and inform me of your decision.

Effective March 20, 2020 there is a $50 amendment fee for any and all material changes. Additional information on this fee can be found on our website at www.copyright.gov/licensing. A copy of the Licensing Division Electronic Funds Transfer Remittance Advice form, which can also be obtained on our website, should be completed and e-mailed to me and licfiscal@loc.gov prior to any EFT.

Sincerely,

Tymica

Yes, that should be for the 2022/1 time period. Do you want me to amend and resend?

Thanks.

Jim

Re: Bee Line Inc.- Farmington, ME (ID 3295) 2022/1

Dear James Dunstan:

On August 26, 2022 we received the attached statement of account. The email that we received with the statement indicated that this form was for the 2022/1 accounting period. However, the form itself indicates that it is for the 2021/2 accounting period. Please confirm the correct accounting period.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please feel free to email me.

Sincerely,
Tymica Carroll
