Dear Ms. Manterola:

In Space E of the above referenced Statement of Account, the cable system has reported 0 as the number of subscribers. Please provide us with a number or range of subscribers. If you cannot provide this information we request that you provide us with an explanation.

Please e-mail your response to expedite the process. You may e-mail your response directly to me at tyca@copyright.gov.

Sincerely,

Tymica Carroll

Notice: Please be aware that any email correspondence associated with the examination of licensing documents may be considered part of the office's public record and may be subject to disclosure to other parties upon request.

The submission of a Statement of Account lacking the required information or fees may jeopardize the validity of your statutory license, and your secondary transmission activity may be subject to full liability under the copyright act. Without a statutory license, a cable system could be sued by copyright owners for the full range of civil remedies for copyright infringement, including injunctions, actual damages and profits, or statutory damages (of up to $150,000 in cases of willful infringement). The statute also provides for criminal penalties in cases of willful infringement for commercial purposes.
