Re: Shenandoah Cable Television LLC.- Summersville, WV (ID 4249) 2022/1

Dear Jenny Hildebrand:

I am authorizing Shenandoah Cable Television LLC a $581.54 refund of royalties submitted with the above referenced Statement of Account. This refund is the result of an interest overpayment. The refund will be forwarded to the account that you identified to this Office.

The Library of Congress is adopting a federal best practice by transferring its payment processes to the U.S. Treasury. As of April 3rd, the U.S. Treasury began issuing all checks and electronic funds transfer (EFT) payments on behalf of the Library. As a result of this change the U.S. Treasury may subject some payments to reductions under the Treasury Offset Program, through which the Treasury collects delinquent debt owed to federal and state agencies. For frequently asked questions about the Treasury Offset Program, visit https://www.fiscal.treasury.gov/fsservices/gov/debtColl/faqs/debt_questions.htm.

Notice: Please be aware that any email correspondence associated with the examination of licensing documents may be considered part of the office's public record and may be subject to disclosure to other parties upon request.

The submission of a Statement of Account lacking the required information or fees may jeopardize the validity of your statutory license, and your secondary transmission activity may be subject to full liability under the copyright act. Without a statutory license, a cable system could be sued by copyright owners for the full range of civil remedies for copyright infringement, including injunctions, actual damages and profits, or statutory damages (of up to $150,000 in cases of willful infringement). The statute also provides for criminal penalties in cases of willful infringement for commercial purposes.
