Jessica:

I have been assigned to fill out the refund form. What if this entity does not have a DUNS number, it's a 100% owned single member LLC which its parent does have a DUNS number?

RE: MidlandsNet, LLC – 2022/1
Marcus, IA (ID #61429)

Dear Mr. Gannon:

It appears as if an overpayment has occurred on the above referenced statement of account. The correct royalty fee of $6,575.24 was calculated, however $7,300.24 was submitted. Please review.

If a refund is due, please complete the enclosed Library of Congress Vendor Information Request in its entirety and return to this office along with a copy of this letter. You may email this information to me at jema@copyright.gov. The refund will be considered for authorization after receipt of this form.

The Library of Congress is adopting a federal best practice by transferring its payment processes to the U.S. Treasury. As of April 3, 2017, the U.S. Treasury began issuing all checks and electronic funds transfer (EFT) payments on behalf of the Library. As a result of this change the U.S. Treasury may subject some payments to reductions under the Treasury Offset Program, through which the Treasury collects delinquent debt owed to federal and state agencies. For frequently asked questions about the Treasury Offset Program, visit https://www.fiscal.treasury.gov/fsservices/gov/debtColl/faqs/debt_questions.htm

The submission of a Statement of Account lacking the required information or fees may jeopardize the validity of your statutory license, and your secondary transmission activity may be subject to full liability under the copyright act. Without a statutory license, a cable system could be sued by copyright owners for the full range of civil remedies for copyright infringement, including injunctions, actual damages and profits, or statutory damages (of up to $150,000 in cases of willful infringement). The statute also provides for criminal penalties in cases of willful infringement for commercial purposes.

You may contact me via email if you have any questions concerning this matter.

Sincerely,

Jessica Martin

Note: On July 1, 2022, the United States Copyright Office moved to a single EFT payment method (Pay.gov) for current, past, and future royalty and filing fee payments. The Office strongly encourages you to begin using the Pay.gov method to make your electronic royalty and filing fee payments for the current filing year and period. For more information on how to make statutory license royalty payments, please read Circular 74 and view the tutorial.
