It appears that you have made an overpayment on the above statement of account. The actual amount that needed to be submitted was only $5.03. However, you submitted $20.03, leaving an overpayment of $15.00.

If you agree, please complete the attached vendor form and return to me so I may proceed with a refund.

Please return a copy of this letter with your response. If you should have any questions, you can email me at dloy@loc.gov
