RE: Hawaiian Telcom Services Company, Inc. – 2022/2
Honolulu, HI (ID #63755)

Dear Ms. Kramer:

It appears as if an underpayment of interest for $10.54 has occurred on the above referenced statement of account. The total royalty payment was received on March 6, 2023, which was 5 days late.

If you agree that an underpayment has occurred, please submit the additional amount in the form of an EFT to this office. Please see Space Q for your interest calculations. Please email (jema@copyright.gov and licfiscal@copyright.gov) a remittance advice form to this office when making your payment so we can properly allocate it to the correct statement. For more information, please visit: Section 111 - Statutory License for Secondary Transmissions by Cable Systems | U.S. Copyright Office.

The submission of a Statement of Account lacking the required information or fees may jeopardize the validity of your statutory license, and your secondary transmission activity may be subject to full liability under the copyright act. Without a statutory license, a cable system could be sued by copyright owners for the full range of civil remedies for copyright infringement, including injunctions, actual damages and profits, or statutory damages (of up to $150,000 in cases of willful infringement). The statute also provides for criminal penalties in cases of willful infringement for commercial purposes.

If you have any questions, I can be reached via email at jema@copyright.gov.

Sincerely,

Jessica Martin

Notice: Please be aware that any email correspondence associated with the examination of licensing documents may be considered part of the office's public record and may be subject to disclosure to other parties upon request.

As of March 20, 2020, a $50 amendment fee will apply to any changes or alterations made to a previously submitted statement of account, regardless of content, or effect on royalties or refunds.

Note: On July 1, 2022, the United States Copyright Office moved to a single EFT payment method (Pay.gov) for current, past, and future royalty and filing fee payments. For more information on how to make statutory license royalty payments, please read Circular 74 and view the tutorial.
