Re: Computer Techniques – Taylorville, IL (ID 63831) 2022/2

Dear Aaron Bialas:

There appears to be an overpayment of the royalty fee for the above referenced statement. The correct royalty fee is $1,505.05 plus the $20 filing fee, but the amount submitted was $1,535. It seems the potential refund amount is $9.95. Please review, if you agree, a completed EFT form should accompany your response, this form can be found on our website at www.copyright.gov/licensing.

To expedite the process, we request that you e-mail your response. Please contact me with any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Tymica Carroll

The submission of a Statement of Account lacking the required information or fees may jeopardize the validity of your statutory license, and your secondary transmission activity may be subject to full liability under the copyright act. Without a statutory license, a cable system could be sued by copyright owners for the full range of civil remedies for copyright infringement, including injunctions, actual damages and profits, or statutory damages (of up to $150,000 in cases of willful infringement). The statute also provides for criminal penalties in cases of willful infringement for commercial purposes.
