Good morning Donna,

MLGC is okay with just letting the overpayment go.

In addition, in my view, the copyright office needs to move into the 21st century when it comes to filing and paying fee's

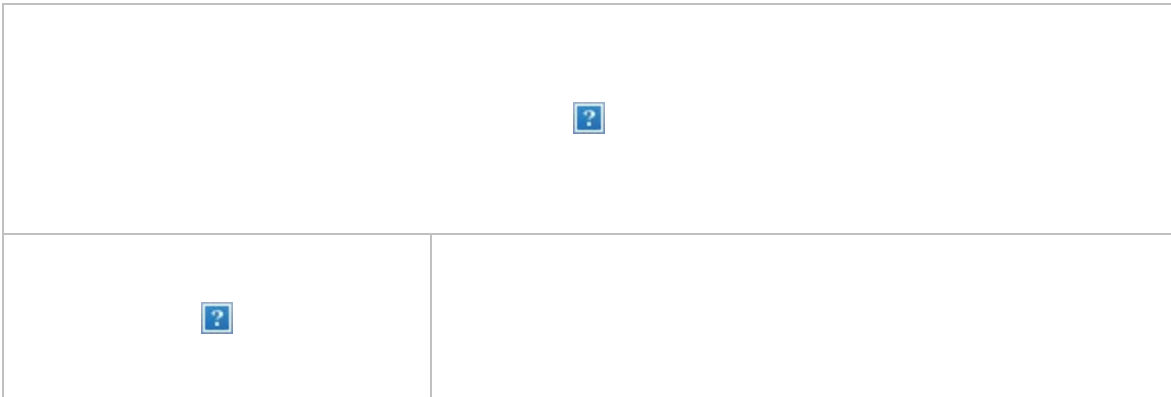

There is no reason why this can't be 100% online. Other departments like the FCC and USDA have made the change.

For a small company, the amount of time spent completing the outdated form is ridiculous. There is definitely room to improve.

Again these are only my comments, nothing personal.

Have a fantastic weekend.

Tyler

Dear Mr. Kilde:

It appears that the above referenced cable system has overpaid its royalty fee. The overpayment is a result paying 2.00% on the late fee instead of 1.00%. . Therefore, creating an overpayment in the amount of $17.49.

In addition, Next, New Licensing Division Fees Effective March 20, 2020

The Copyright Office has adopted a new fee schedule, beginning March 20, 2020, that affects fees throughout the Office, including the Licensing Division (see the Federal Register, 85 FR 9374). The fee changes affect cable, satellite, and DART filers as well as those seeking section 112 and 114 licenses.

For amended statements of account filed by cable and satellite systems and digital audio recording device (DART) importers/manufacturers, the fee has been reduced to $50; however, it is important to note that the Office intends to charge that amendment fee in a wider range of circumstances. For information on the new fees for Division services, see Circular 76. This fee is due for any material changes.

Please review and if you agree, complete the Library of Congress Vendor Information Request in its entirety and return along with a copy of this letter. The refund will be considered for authorization after receipt of this form.

You may email me at dloy@loc.gov for any questions concerning this matter.

Sincerely,

Donna M. Loy
