The last sentence of Section 402.12 is amended to read as follows:

Except as provided in Section 108, any Regional or State Manager, with the advice or approval of Regional or State Counsel, as may be required, may exercise the authority herein granted, under procedure and limitations prescribed and promulgated by the General Manager with the approval of the General Counsel.

Title 25—Internal Revenue
Bureau of Internal Revenue
[T.D. 4914]
Income Tax

Corporation income tax returns to be given particular attention to determine the application of the provisions of section 102 of the Internal Revenue Code and the corresponding provisions of the Revenue Act of 1933, relating to unreasonable accumulation of earnings or profits to avoid surtax.

To Collectors of Internal Revenue and Other Officers and Employees of the Bureau of Internal Revenue Concerned:

§22.0 Introductory. (a) Attention is directed to the provisions of section 102 of the Internal Revenue Code (63 Stat. Part 1) which imposes a surtax on corporations improperly accumulating surplus, particularly section 102(c), which provides as follows:

"(c) Evidence determinative of purpose.—The fact that the earnings or profits of a corporation are permitted to accumulate beyond the reasonable needs of the business shall be determinative of the purpose to avoid surtax upon shareholders unless the corporation by the clear preponderance of the evidence shall prove to the contrary."

(b) Attention is also directed to the following provisions of article 102-2 of Regulations 101 issued under the Revenue Act of 1938, and made applicable to the Internal Revenue Code by Treasury Decision 4885, approved February 11, 1939 (Part 465, Subpart B, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations):

"If the Commissioner determines that the corporation was formed or availed of for the purpose of avoiding the individual surtax through the medium of permitting earnings or profits to accumulate, and the taxpayer contests such determination of fact by litigation, the burden of proving the determination wrong by a preponderance of evidence, together with the corresponding burden of first going forward with evidence, is on the taxpayer under principles applicable to income tax cases generally, and this is so even though the corporation is not a mere holding or investment company and does not have an unreasonable accumulation of earnings or profits. However, if the corporation is a mere holding or investment company, then the Act gives further weight to the presumption of correctness already arising from the Commissioner's determination by expressly providing an additional presumption of the existence of a purpose to avoid surtax upon shareholders, while if earnings or profits are permitted to accumulate beyond the reasonable needs of the business, then the Act adds still more weight to the Commissioner's determination by providing that irrespective of whether or not the corporation is a mere holding or investment company, the existence of such an accumulation is determinative of the purpose to avoid surtax upon shareholders unless the taxpayer proves the contrary by such a clear preponderance of all the evidence that the absence of such a purpose is unmistakable."

(c) It is to be remembered that personal holding companies are now taxed under section 351 of the Revenue Act of 1934 (48 Stat. 751, 26 U.S.C. 331) and the corresponding sections of the Revenue Acts of 1936 (49 Stat. 1732, 26 U.S.C. Sup. 2, 331) and 1938 (52 Stat. 557, 26 U.S.C. Sup. 4, 331) and the Internal Revenue Code. The provisions of law establishing high tax rates on earnings held in such corporations have eliminated the largest group of cases which previously fell within the provisions of section 102, and that section now has application only to corporations other than personal holding companies."

§22.1 Instructions. (a) Returns filed by the following classes of corporations will be given close attention to determine whether section 102 is applicable:

(1) Corporations which have not distributed at least 70 percent of their earnings as taxable dividends.

(2) Corporations which have invested earnings in securities or other properties unrelated to their normal business activities.

(3) Corporations which have advanced sums to officers or shareholders in the form of loans out of undistributed profits or surplus from which taxable dividends might have been declared.

(4) Corporations, a majority of whose stock is held by a family group or other small group of individuals, or by a trust or trusts for the benefit of such groups.

(5) Corporations the distributions of which, while exceeding 70 percent of their earnings, appear to be inadequate when considered in connection with the nature of the business or the financial position of the corporation or corporations with which it is connected or by which it is controlled, and which appear to be beyond the reasonable needs of the business.

(b) Insofar as the classes of cases referred to in (1), (2), (3) and (4) are concerned, the examining officer's report in every instance shall contain a specific recommendation for the application or nonapplication of section 102.

(c) Each internal revenue agent in charge and each head of a field division of the Technical Staff will designate a qualified employee in his office, whose responsibility it will be to pass personally upon each determination that application has been made by an examining or reviewing officer with respect to.
to the application or nonapplication of section 102. The internal revenue agent in charge or head of the field division of the Technical Staff will advise the Commissioner of the names and titles of such employees.

(d) There will be maintained currently in Washington, D.C., detailed data regarding cases in which recommendations have been made with respect to the application or nonapplication of section 102, in order that the officers of the Department may be kept appropriately informed. To this end, there will be forwarded to this office by internal revenue agents in charge or heads of field divisions of the Technical Staff, as the case may be, immediately upon preparation thereof, a copy of each examining officer's report, revenue agent's report, field conference memorandum, or action memorandum in cases referred to in (1), (2), (3) and (4) of paragraph (a) of this section, in which a recommendation has been made with respect to the application or nonapplication of section 102, and a copy of each examining officer's report, revenue agent's report, field conference memorandum, or action memorandum in cases referred to in (5) of paragraph (a) of this section in which a recommendation has been made for the application of section 102.

(e) In the review of income-tax cases by the Bureau, the returns of corporations of the classes enumerated in paragraph (a) of this section will be given special consideration to determine whether field officers have compiled fully with these instructions.

(f) Correspondence, reports, and memorandums from internal revenue agents in charge in regard to this Treasury decision should refer to the number thereof and the symbols IT-F. Correspondence, reports, and memorandums from heads of the field divisions of the Technical Staff in regard to this Treasury decision should refer to the number thereof and the symbols C:TS.†

TITLE 41—PUBLIC CONTRACTS

DIVISION OF PUBLIC CONTRACTS

IN THE MATTER OF THE DETERMINATION OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGES IN THE SPECIALTY ACCOUNTING SUPPLY MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY

This matter is before me pursuant to Section 1 (b) of the Act of June 30, 1936 (49 Stat. 2056; 41 U.S.C. Sup. III 35) entitled, "An Act to provide conditions for the purchase of supplies and the making of contracts by the United States, and for other purposes." The Public Contracts Board, created in accordance with Section 4 of the said Act by Administrative Order dated October 6, 1936, held a hearing in the matter of the prevailing minimum wages in the Specialty Accounting Supply, Salesbook, and Autographic Register Manufacturing Industry on June 9, 1938.

Notice of the hearing was sent to all known members of the industry, to trade unions, to trade publications, and to trade associations in the field. Invitation to attend the hearing was also extended through the national press to other interested parties.

At the hearing testimony was presented for the record by members of the industry by a representative of the Specialty Accounting Supply Manufacturers' Association and by a representative of the International Printing Pressmen and Assistants' Union of North America.

A survey prepared by the Research Section, Division of Public Contracts, from information gathered by questionnaires sent to all members of the industry by the Secretary of the Specialty Accounting Supply Manufacturers' Association was introduced.

Addition, wage data compiled by the International Printing Pressmen and Assistants' Union of North America were introduced.

On the basis of the evidence the Board made its recommendations. Thereafter, the Administrator circulated the recommendations and gave the parties a reasonable time in which to register their objection thereto or their approval thereof before any determination in the matter should be made. The entire record and the briefs of interested parties are now before me for consideration.

The Board recommended that the industry be identified as the, "Specialty Accounting Supply Manufacturing Industry." The testimony of record shows that salesbooks and autographic registers are normally considered as specialty accounting supplies. The enumeration of specific products of the Specialty Accounting Supply Industry has a tendency to carry with it the implication that products not enumerated are excluded. For this reason, the words, "Salesbook, and Autographic Register", will be eliminated from the title of the industry although the elimination is in no wise to be considered an elimination of these products from the purview of this decision.

This survey made on the basis of information gathered from the questionnaires sent to members of the industry covers 42 plants employing 4,691 employees. The Association covers in its membership 100 per cent of the manufacturers of autographic registers, 80 per cent of the manufacturers of sales books, and 90 per cent of the manufacturers of continuous forms stationery. In addition to the reports received from members of the Association, 6 non-members reported.

The Union representative agreed that the survey made by the Association was complete and adequately represented the wage structure of the industry. The survey was geographically representative of all producing centers. Plants were covered in Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Ohio, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Kansas, California, Oregon and Washington. There are no members of this industry located in the South. Ohio, New York and Illinois account for at least 75 per cent in value of the industry's production. The wage data introduced by the Union covering 2,829 employees was from an employment survey. The data of record are adequately representative of the wage conditions existing in the industry.

The Board recommended that the minimum wage for the industry be found to be 42.5 cents an hour or $17.00 per week of 40 hours. The Specialty Accounting Supply Manufacturers' Association has taken exception to the finding that the wage should be 42.5 cents, stating that the minimum prevailing in the industry is below that amount. It is recommended that the wage be set at 40 cents an hour for male and 45 cents an hour for female employees with a learner tolerance of not less than 80 per cent of such minimum.

The Association took the position that not more than 3 per cent of the industry production was bought by the Government and that the imposition of a 42.5 cent minimum on those factories that supply these products to the Government would make it difficult to compete in the general commercial field with the other members of the industry who did not supply Government contracts.

The Board has considered the protest and in the light thereof, and after reconsidering the facts of record, has indicated that the minimum should be found to exist at 40 cents an hour and that there should be no tolerance for learners. This is the lowest wage that is paid by plants that compete for Government's business. There is a substantial concentration of employees in the industry is found in the interval between 40 and 45 cents where 603 employees out of the total of 4,691 are found. The interval between 35 and 40 cents contains 264 employees.

There appears no reason for granting a learner tolerance. There is a group of employees in the industry classified as learners but they do not fall exclusively within the low wage group. The learners are spread throughout the industry and are classified sometimes as beginners, helpers and unskilled workers and their wages are reflected in the determination of a 40 cent minimum.

The record shows, however, that apprentices are employed in the industry at wages lower than the prevailing minimum in the industry, and the Board has recommended that provision be made for the employment of apprentices at wages lower than the prevailing minimum wages, provided that their employment conforms with the standards of the Federal Committee on Apprenticeship.

I have examined the findings of the Board and the record of the hearing, together with the briefs filed, and in the light of the facts I hereby determine that the minimum wage for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States Government subject to the provisions of the Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. Sup. III 35) for the manufacture or supply of the products of the Specialty Accounting Supply Manufacturing Industry as herein defined, shall be 40 cents an hour or $16.00 per week of forty hours, arrived at either upon a time of piece work basis; provided that apprentices may be employed at lower rates if their employment conforms with the standards of the Federal Committee on Apprenticeship.

This determination shall be effective, and the minimum wage hereby established shall apply to all such contracts, bids for which are solicited on or after August 9, 1939.

Dated, July 25, 1939.

NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW CAUSE

The Department has been supplied with evidence showing that the wage structure prevailing in the manufacture of aircraft parts and accessories, including the manufacture of such original equipment, replacement parts, aircraft electrical products, and accessories, with the exception of aircraft instruments and products manufactured predominantly from fabrics such as parachutes, targets, and wind socks, is similar to that prevailing in the manufacture of such original equipment, aircraft engines and aircraft propellers, as determined by the Secretary of Labor on December 14, 1938. In the Matter of the Determination of the Prevailing Minimum Wages in the Manufacture of Aeroplanes, Aircraft Engines, Propellers, Accessories, and the Manufacturing and Finishing of Parts.

In the light of these facts, all interested parties are hereby given until and including August 7, 1939, within which to file briefs with the Administrator of the Division of Public Contracts, Department of Labor, showing reasons of law or fact why the Secretary's decision of July 28, 1937, in the Matter of Determination of the Prevailing Minimum Wage in the Work Glove Industry should not be amended to include the manufacture of all leather (lined or unlined) block-cut semi-dress gloves, and to show cause why in law and fact the minimum wages for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States Government subject to the provisions of the Act of June 30, 1938 (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. Sup. III 35) for the manufacture of such semi-dress gloves should not be 35 cents an hour or $14.00 per week of 40 hours, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis, for the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware, Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, Nevada, Arizona, Montana, Wyoming, Utah, Colorado, and New Mexico; and 37.5 cents an hour or $15.00 per week of 40 hours, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis, for the other 26 States and the District of Columbia.
