Sec. 4. That postmasters at money-order post-offices whose annual salary is not less than three thousand dollars may be allowed by the Postmaster-General to employ such number of clerks in the transaction of their money-order business, and at such rates of compensation, respectively, as he may deem expedient; and at all other money-order post-offices the compensation for the clerical labor employed in the money-order business, including the issue and payment of postal notes, shall be three and one-half cents for each domestic or international money-order issued, paid, or repaid, and one cent for each postal note issued, and three-quarters of one cent for each postal note paid thereat, and in case any office is designated to receive on deposit surplus money-order funds from other post-offices, three and one-half cents for each certificate issued in acknowledgment of the receipt of such funds; but the total allowance made by the Postmaster-General for money-order clerks at any first-class office shall be based, as nearly as possible, upon the number of transactions, at the same rate for each transaction as is above fixed for the compensation of clerical labor at other post-offices, and the compensation of the postmasters and the clerks provided for in this section shall be paid out of the fees received for the issue of money-orders and postal notes: Provided, That in addition to an allowance for clerical service at the rates above mentioned, the Postmaster-General may allow to the postmaster at New York, New York, to the postmaster at San Francisco, California, to the postmaster at Portland, Oregon, and to the postmaster at each international exchange office, such amount in each case, out of the proceeds of the money-order business, as he may deem expedient to enable these postmasters to obtain the clerical labor necessary for the performance of such special duties as are imposed upon them by the operations of the money-order system, and are not required of other postmasters: And provided further, That credit shall not be allowed to a postmaster at a first-class office on account of any expenditure in payment of clerical service in the money-order business of his office except upon a voucher duly received by the person by whom such service shall have been performed: And provided further, That the salaries of postmasters, as fixed by law, shall be deemed and taken to be full compensation for the responsibility and risk incurred and for the personal services rendered by them as custodians of the money-order and other funds of the Post-Office Department.

Sec. 5. That the Auditor of the Treasury for the Post-Office Department shall, as soon as practicable after the close of the present fiscal year, transmit to the Postmaster-General a statement of the aggregate amount of all money-orders which at the beginning of said year shall have remained unpaid for a period of seven years or more after the date of their issue; and as soon as practicable after the close of each fiscal year thereafter he shall transmit in like manner a statement of the aggregate amount of all money-orders and postal notes which at the commencement of such year shall have remained unpaid for less than eight and not less than seven years after the date of their issue; and the Postmaster-General shall cause the aggregate amount of such unpaid orders and postal notes as reported annually by the Auditor to be deposited in the Treasury, to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States, for the service of the Post-Office Department. But nothing contained in this act shall be so construed as to prevent the payment, out of current money-order funds, by duplicate issued under the authority of the Postmaster-General, of any lost or invalid money-order or of any invalid postal note more than seven years old, upon the presentation of satisfactory proof to the Postmaster-General of the ownership of such money-order or upon the production of such invalid postal note in accordance with the provisions of section one of this act; and the total amount of such lost or invalid money-orders and invalid postal notes more than seven years old paid during each year by duplicate shall be deducted from the aggregate amount of unpaid money-orders and postal notes to be deposited at the close thereof in the Treasury as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 6. That all laws or parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this act shall be void in so far as they may apply to cases which may arise under this act: Provided, That the provisions of this act shall be put into operation by the Postmaster-General within six months after the date of its approval by the President.

CHAP. 125.—An act to punish larceny from the person in the District of Columbia.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That whoever, in the District of Columbia, commits larceny from the person of another shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment not more than six years, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 2. That whoever, in the District of Columbia, attempts to commit larceny from the person of another by any overt act, done with the intent to commit a larceny, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction thereof, be punished in the police court of the District of Columbia by imprisonment in the District jail not more than one year, or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

CHAP. 126.—An act to confer upon the senior associate justice of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, in the absence or inability of the chief justice of said court, the powers and duties now conferred upon said chief justice, relative to the extradition of fugitives from justice.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the powers conferred upon and the duties prescribed for the chief justice of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, in relation to fugitives from justice, by section eight hundred and forty-three of an act entitled "An act to revise and consolidate the statutes of the United States, general and permanent in their nature, relative to the District of Columbia, in force on the first day of December, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and seventy-three," approved June twenty-second, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, shall, in case of his absence or disability, devolve upon and be discharged by the senior associate justice of said court who may be present in said District and able to act.

Sec. 2. That this act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Approved, March 3, 1883.

CHAP. 127.—An act for the relief of Edward Bellows.

Whereas, Edward Bellows, upon the eighteenth day of July, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and sixty six, was, by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, duly appointed and commissioned a paymaster in the Navy of the United States from the twentieth day of February, anno Domini eighteen hundred and sixty-six; and

Whereas, on the twenty eighth day of January, anno Domini eighteen hundred and sixty-nine, the Secretary of the Navy issued an order declaring that said Bellows was dismissed the Naval service, declared in such order of dismissal to be "in consequence of the facts appearing upon the record of the naval court martial before which he was tried, in November, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight;" and

Whereas, on the twenty-second day of January, anno Domini eighteen hundred and eighty, the President of the United States, through the Secretary of the Navy, after investigation of the facts in the case, determined and issued an order declaring that said order of dismissal was illegal and void, and annulled and revoked, because issued contrary to the provisions of section sixteen hundred and twenty-four, article thirty-six, page two hundred and eighty-two of the Revised Statutes of the United States, and the name of said Edward Bellows was thereupon, by order of the President, restored to the list of Paymasters on the Naval Register, next after that of Paymaster George A. Lyon, being the original relative position held by him on that list, and to which he is entitled by virtue of his commission, which position on said list the said Bellows has ever since held and now holds, and

Whereas, on the sixteenth day of March, anno Domini eighteen hundred and sixty-nine, while the said order of dismissal remained upon the records unrevoked, the President of the United States, under the mistaken belief that said order of dismissal was valid and according to law, and that the same caused a vacancy, by reason of said dismissal, in the list of paymasters, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate appointed Leonard A. Frailey paymaster in the Navy, declaring such appointment to be "vice Bellows, dismissed;" and

Whereas, by a recent decision and judgment of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Charles M. Blake versus the United States (thirteenth Otto, page two hundred and twenty-seven) said decision makes questionable the right of said Bellows to hold said office; and

Whereas, including the said Bellows, the present number of paymasters does not exceed the number now allowed by law: Therefore

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be, and he hereby is, authorized to nominate and, with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint the said Edward Bellows paymaster in the Navy of the United States, to take rank and position on the list of such paymasters in the position where his name now stands on the Register as above stated: Provided, That such appointment shall not entitle the said Edward Bellows to compensation during the time his name was not borne on said list, and during which he was not recognized as a paymaster in the service; Provided further, That after such appointment the said Edward Bellows shall be entitled to longevity pay upon his said commission of date February twentieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-six.

CHAP. 130.—An act prescribing regulations for the Soldiers' Home located at Washington, in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the board of commissioners of the Soldiers' Home shall every year report in writing to the Secretary of War, giving a full statement of all receipts and disbursements of money, of the manner in which the funds are invested of any changes in the investments and the reasons therefor, of all admissions and discharges, and generally of all facts that may be necessary to a full understanding of the condition and management of the Home. The Secretary of War shall have power to call for and require any omitted facts which in his judgment should be stated to be added. This annual report shall be, by the Secretary of War, together with the report of the inspecting officer hereinafter provided for, transmitted to Congress at the first session thereafter, and he shall also cause the same to be published in orders to the Army, a copy thereof to be deposited in each garrison and post library.

SEC. 2. That the Inspector General of the Army shall, in person, once in each year thoroughly inspect the Home, its records, accounts, management, discipline, and sanitary condition, and shall report thereon in writing, together with such suggestions as he desires to make.

SEC. 3. That no new buildings shall be erected or new grounds purchased, nor shall any expenditure of more than five thousand dollars be made, until the action of the board thereon shall be approved by the Secretary of War. All supplies that can be purchased upon contract shall be so purchased, after due notice by advertisement, of the lowest responsible bidder. Such bidder shall give bond, with proper security, for the performance of his contract.

SEC. 4. That any inmate of the Home who is receiving a pension from the government, and who has a child, wife, or parent living, shall be entitled, by filing with the pension agent from whom he receives his money a written direction to that effect, to have his pension, or any part of it, paid to such child, wife, or parent. The pensions of all who now are or shall hereafter become inmates of the Home, except such as shall be assigned as aforesaid, shall be paid to the treasurer of the Home. The money thus derived shall not become a part of the funds of the Home, but shall be held by the treasurer in trust for the pensioner to whom it would otherwise have been paid, and such part of it as shall not sooner have been paid to him shall be paid to him on his discharge from the institution. The board of commissioners may from time to time pay over to any inmate such part of his pension-money as they think best for his interest and consistent with the discipline and good order of the Home, but such pensioner shall not be entitled to demand or have the same so long as he remains an inmate of the Home. In case of the death of any pensioner, any pension money due him and remaining in the hands of the treasurer shall be paid to his legal heirs, if demand is made within three years; otherwise the same shall escheat to the Home.

SEC. 5. That a suitable uniform shall be furnished to every inmate of the Home, without cost to him.

SEC. 6. That the board of commissioners are authorized to aid persons who are entitled to admission to the Home, by out-door relief, in such manner and to such an extent as they may deem proper; but such relief shall not exceed the average cost of maintaining an inmate of the Home.

SEC. 7. That the Governor and all other officers of the Home shall be selected by the President of the United States, and the Treasurer of the Home shall be required to give a bond in the penal sum of twenty thousand dollars for the faithful performance of his duty.

SEC. 8. That all funds of the Home not needed for current use, and which are not now invested in United States registered bonds, shall, as soon as received, or as soon as present investments can be converted into money without loss, be deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the Home, as a permanent fund, and shall draw interest at the rate of three per centum per annum, which shall be paid quarterly to the treasurer of the Home; and the proceeds of such registered bonds, as they are paid, shall be deposited in like manner. No part of the principal sum so deposited shall be withdrawn for use except upon a resolution of the board of commissioners stating the necessity and approved by the Secretary of War.

SEC. 9. That no officers of the Home shall borrow any money on the credit of the Home for any purpose, nor shall any pledge of any of its property or securities for any purpose be valid.

SEC. 10. That the Board of Commissioners of the Soldiers’ Home shall hereafter consist of the General in Chief commanding the Army, the Surgeon General, the Commissary General, the Adjutant General, the Quartermaster General, the Judge Advocate General and the Governor of the Home, and the General in Chief shall be President of the Board, and any four of them shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

SEC. 11. That all laws and parts of laws relating to the Soldiers’ Home now in force and not inconsistent with this act are continued in force, and such as are inconsistent herewith are to that extent repealed.

SEC. 12. That the sum of ten thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated to be expended by the Secretary of the Treasury in the employment of additional clerical force to be used in adjusting the accounts in the Treasury Department of those funds which under the law belong to the Soldiers’ Home.

Approved, March 3, 1883.

CHAP. 131.—An act to amend sections six and seven of the act providing for the publication of the Revised Statutes and the laws of the United States, approved June twentieth, eighteen hundred and seventy-six.

Bo it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That an act approved June twentieth, eighteen hundred and seventy-six, be so amended as to inand bound copies of laws of U. S., authorized.

Mar. 3, 1883.

CHAP. 132.—An act making Saint Vincent, in the State of Minnesota, a port of entry in lieu of Pembina, in the Territory of Dakota.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Saint Vincent, in the State of Minnesota, be, and is hereby, created the port of entry for the collection district of Minnesota, in place of Pembina, in the Territory of Dakota; that from and after the date of the passage of this act Pembina shall cease to be a port of entry of the United States; that the collector of customs for the collection district of Minnesota shall reside at Saint Vincent; and section twenty-five hundred and ninety-five and twenty-five hundred and ninety six of the Revised Statutes are hereby amended accordingly.

Approved, March 3, 1883.

Mar. 3, 1883.

CHAP. 133.—An act to amend section four thousand two hundred and fourteen of the Revised Statutes, relating to yachts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section forty-two hundred and fourteen of the Revised Statutes of the United States be amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 4214. The Secretary of the Treasury may cause yachts used and employed exclusively as pleasure vessels or designed as models of naval architecture, if built and owned in compliance with the provisions of sections forty-one hundred and thirty-three to forty-one hundred and thirty-five, to be licensed on terms which will authorize them to proceed from port to port of the United States, and by sea to foreign ports, without entering or clearing at the custom house, such license shall be in such form as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. The owner of any such vessel, before taking out such license, shall give a bond in such form and for such amount as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, conditioned that the vessel shall not engage in any trade, nor in any way violate the revenue laws of the United States; and shall comply with the laws in all other respects. Such vessels, so enrolled and licensed, shall not be allowed to transport merchandise or carry passengers for pay. Such vessels shall have their name and port placed on some conspicuous portion of their hulls. Such vessels shall, in all respects, except as above, be subject to the laws of the United States, and shall be liable to seizure and forfeiture for any violation of the provisions of this title: Provided, That all charges for license and inspection fees for any pleasure vessel or yacht shall not exceed five dollars, and for admeasurement shall not exceed ten cents per ton."

Sec. 2.—That the said original section forty-two hundred and fourteen be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

Sec. 3.—That this act shall take effect from and after its passage

Approved, March 3, 1883.
CHAP. 134.—An act to amend section eighteen hundred and sixty of the Revised Statutes so as not to exclude retired Army officers from holding civil office in the Territories

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the fourth clause of section eighteen hundred and sixty of the revised statutes of the United States be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to read as follows:

"Fourth. No person belonging to the Army or Navy shall be elected to or hold any civil office or appointment in any Territory, except officers of the Army on the retired list."

Approved, March 3, 1883.

CHAP. 135.—An act to fix the salary of the Collector of Customs of the District of Chicago, Illinois

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That from and after the thirtieth day of June, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, the salary of the Collector of Customs of the District of Chicago, Illinois, shall be seven thousand dollars per annum, and the same shall be in place of all salary, commissions, fees, and charges now allowed by law as compensation of that officer: Provided, That all fees and emoluments now received by the said collector and applied to his compensation under the provisions of existing law shall from and after the thirtieth day of June eighteen hundred and eighty two, be accounted for and paid into the Treasury of the United States.

Approved, March 3, 1883.

CHAP. 136.—An act to authorize the construction of bridges over the Ogeechee, Oconee, Ocmulgee, Flint and Chattahoochee Rivers, in the State of Georgia

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Savannah and Pacific Short Line Railway Company be, and it is hereby, authorized to construct bridges over the Ogeechee River, in the county of Chatham; over the Oconee, in the county of Montgomery; over the Ocmulgee, in the county of Pulaski; over the Flint River, in the county of Dooly, and over the Chattahoochee River, in Stewart or Muscogee Counties, or such other county as said railroad company may desire or find most practicable in the final location of said road.

SEC. 2.—That said bridges shall be so constructed, either by draw, span, or otherwise, so that a free and unobstructed passage may be secured to all vessels and other water-craft navigating said rivers

SEC. 3.—That any bridge built under this act and subject to its limitations shall be a lawful structure, and shall be recognized and known as a post-route, upon which also no higher charge shall be made for the transmission over the same of the mails, the troops, and the munitions of war of the United States, or passengers or freight passing over said bridges, than the rate per mile paid for the transportation over the railroad or public highways leading to the said bridges; and it shall enjoy the rights and privileges of other post-roads in the United States.

SEC. 4.—That if any of the said bridges authorized to be constructed by this act shall be constructed as a draw-bridge, the draw shall be opened promptly upon reasonable signals for the passage of boats; and said company or corporation shall maintain, at its own expense, from sunset till sunrise, such lights or other signals on said bridge or bridges as the Light-House Board shall prescribe. No bridge shall be erected or maintained under the authority of this act which shall at any time... substantially or materially obstruct the free navigation of said river, and if any bridge erected under such authority shall be in the opinion of the Secretary of War, obstruct such navigation, he is hereby authorized to cause such change or alteration of said bridge to be made as will effectually obviate such obstruction; and all such obstructions shall be removed and alterations made at the expense of the owner or owners of said bridge: Provided, That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to repeal or modify any of the provisions of law now existing in reference to the protection of the navigation of rivers, or to exempt this bridge erected under this act, from the operations of the same.

SEC 5—That all railroad companies desiring the use of said bridge shall have and be entitled to equal rights and privileges relative to the passage of railway trains or cars over the same, and over the approaches thereto, upon the payment of a reasonable compensation for such use; and in case the owner or owners of said bridge and the several railroad companies, or any one of them, desiring such use, shall fail to agree upon the sum or sums, to be paid, and upon rules and conditions to which each shall conform in using said bridge, all matters at issue between them shall be decided by the Secretary of War, upon a hearing of the allegations and proofs of the parties.

SEC 6—That any bridge authorized to be constructed under this act shall be built and located under and subject to such regulations for the security of navigation of said rivers as the Secretary of War shall prescribe; and to secure that object said company or corporation shall submit to the Secretary of War a design and drawings of said bridges to be erected, for his examination and approval, and a map of its location, and shall furnish such other information as may be required for a full and satisfactory understanding of the subject, and in all things shall be subject to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War; and until said plan and location of said bridge or bridges are approved by the Secretary of War, said bridge or bridges shall not be built; and should any change be made in the plan of any bridge authorized to be constructed by this act, during the progress of the work of construction, such change shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of War.

SEC 7—That the right to alter, amend, or repeal this act is hereby expressly reserved; and the right to require any changes in said structures, or their entire removal, at the expense of the owners thereof, whenever Congress shall decide that the public interest requires it is also expressly reserved.

Approved, March 3, 1883.

CHAP. 133.—An act to levy an assessment of the real estate in the District of Columbia in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-three, and every third year thereafter, for purposes of taxation.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all real property, except as hereinafter provided, shall be assessed in the name of the owner, trustees, or guardian thereof. All undivided real property of a deceased person may be assessed in the name of such deceased person until the same is divided according to law, or has otherwise passed into the possession of some other person. And real property, the ownership of which is unknown, shall be assessed as "owner unknown."

SEC. 2. That real property shall be assessed and valued in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-three, and every third year thereafter, as herein provided.

SEC. 3. That the Commissioners shall, on the second Monday of March, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and every third year thereafter, divide the District into not exceeding twelve subdistricts, and shall appoint one assessor to each subdistrict, who shall be a resident thereof. Each person so appointed shall, within ten days after receiving notice thereof, file with said Commissioners his bond, payable to the United States, with sufficient surety to the acceptance of said Commissioners, in the sum of two thousand dollars, conditioned that he will faithfully, diligently, and impartially perform all and singular the duties enjoined upon him by law. And he shall, moreover, take and subscribe an oath of office. If any such appointee shall fail to qualify as aforesaid within the time prescribed, or shall fail to enter upon the discharge of his duties within five days after such qualification, the appointment shall be void, and the Commissioners shall forthwith appoint another suitable person, who shall qualify as above provided.

SEC. 4. That the Commissioners shall furnish each of said assessors a map and field-book of the respective subdistricts which he is appointed to assess and value, which shall contain an accurate list of each tract, together with a pertinent description of the real property situate therein, and, as far as may be known, the owner thereof, and also such blanks, forms, books, surveys, and plats as may be necessary for a systematic statement of the property to be assessed. Upon the completion of the assessment, each assessor shall deposit with the assessor of the district all maps, field-books, surveys, and plats, and all his notes and memoranda thereof.

SEC. 5. That real estate in Washington or Georgetown, except such as is now or may hereafter be exempt by law from taxation, shall be assessed according to the number of the squares and lots thereof, or parts of lots, and upon the number of square or superficial feet in each square or lot, or parts of a lot, and in the county the agricultural lands shall be assessed by the acre, and suburban lots by the square foot, as in the city of Washington.

SEC. 6. That each assessor shall, in all cases, from actual view, and from the best sources of information in his reach, determine, as nearly as practicable, the true value of each separate tract or lot of real property in his district in lawful money, and he shall separately estimate the value of all improvements on any tract or lot, and shall note the same in his field-book, which shall be carried out as part of the value of such tract or lot, and he shall also return the dimensions to each tract or lot.

SEC. 7. That each assessor shall, on or before the first Monday of June, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, and every third year thereafter, make out and deliver to the Commissioners, a return in tabular form, contained in a book to be furnished him by said Commissioners, of the ownership, amount, description, and value of the real property subject to be listed for taxation in his district. He shall also enter in a separate list a pertinent description of all property exempt from taxation under the provisions of existing law, together with the ownership and use of the same, and shall estimate and return the true value thereof. All real property, the ownership of which is not known, shall be returned, as to ownership, "unknown."

SEC. 8. That every assessor who shall refuse or knowingly neglect to perform any duty enjoined on him by law, or who shall consent to, or connive at, any evasion of the provisions of this chapter, whereby any property required to be assessed shall be unlawfully exempt, or the valuation thereof entered at less than its true value, shall, on conviction thereof, be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars for each offense, which may be collected from his bond aforesaid.

SEC. 9. That the assessor of the District and the assessors herein provided for shall compose a board of equalization of the real property, and they shall convene at an office, to be provided by the Commissioners, on the first Monday of June, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, and every third year thereafter. They shall each take an oath fairly and impartially to equalize the value of the real property according to law. Any seven of them shall constitute a quorum and a clerk appointed by the Commissioners shall keep a full and accurate account of their proceedings and orders. They shall immediately proceed to equalize the valuation made as aforesaid by the assessors, so that each lot and tract, and the improvements thereon, shall be entered upon the tax-list at their true value in money; and for this purpose they shall hear such complaints as may be made in respect of said assessment, and in determining them they may raise the valuations of such tracts or lot as, in their opinion, may have been returned below their true value, and reduce the valuation of such as they may believe to have been returned above their true value to such sum as, in their opinion may be the true value thereof; but they shall not reduce the aggregate value of the real property below the aggregate value thereof as made and returned by said assessors. All assessments and equalizations made pursuant to the provisions of this act shall be finally completed and be reported to the Commissioners of the District on or before the first Monday of August of each year in which an assessment is made.

SEC. 10. That each assessor shall be entitled to receive for each day necessarily employed in the performance of his duties the sum of five dollars, for a period not exceeding one hundred and fifty days.

SEC. 11. That the valuation of the real property made and equalized as aforesaid shall constitute the basis of taxation for the next succeeding period of three years, and until another valuation is made according to law.

SEC. 12. That annually, on or prior to July first, the assessor of the District shall take a list of all real property which shall have become subject to taxation, and is not on the tax-list, and affix a value thereon, according to the rules prescribed for assessing real estate; and he shall make return of all new structures and additions to or improvements of old structures of over one hundred dollars in value, the value of which shall not have been included in the valuation of the land on which such structures have been erected, specifying the tract or lot of land on which each of such structures has been erected, and the value which has been added to any such lot or tract by reason of such structure, and the assessor shall add such valuation to the assessment made on such tract or lot; and in the case of the destruction of any structure from any cause, of over one hundred dollars in value, the value of which has been included in any former valuation of the tract or lot on which it is situate, the assessor shall determine and make return how much less valuable such lot or tract is by reason of such destruction, and the assessor shall deduct the same from the valuation of such tract or lot as it stands upon the list: Provided, That the assessor of the District of Columbia shall hear such complaints as may be made in respect of said assessments and determine the same between the first and third Monday of July of the same year, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of the District.

SEC. 13. That if the assessor of the District shall learn that any property liable to taxation has been omitted from the assessment for any previous year or years, or has been so assessed that the assessment was void, it shall be his duty at once to assess such property for each and every year after the passage of this act for which it has escaped assessment and taxation, and report the same to the collector of taxes, who shall at once proceed to collect the taxes so in arrears as other taxes are collected: Provided, That no property which has escaped taxation shall be liable to assessment and taxation under this section for a period of more than three years prior to such assessment.

SEC. 14. That the assessor of the District, in the discharge of any of the duties devolved upon him or the board of equalization, by any provisions of this act, may administer all necessary oaths or affirmations. He shall have power to summon the attendance of any person before said board, or himself, to be examined under oath touching such matters and things as they or he may deem advisable in the discharge of their said duties; and any member of the Metropolitan Police force or constable of the District may serve subpoenas in this behalf. Such fees shall be allowed witnesses so examined, to be paid out of the contingent fund of the Commissioners, as are allowed in civil actions before justices of the peace. Any person who shall knowingly make false oath or affirmation shall be guilty of perjury, and, upon conviction thereof, be punished according to laws in force for the punishment of perjury.

Sec. 15. That this act shall be in force from and after its passage; and all laws and parts of laws inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed, as also all laws allowing any deduction of taxes assessed against any person because of payment thereof within a period of thirty days after receiving notice that the collector of taxes is ready to receive the taxes assessed.

Approved, March 3, 1883.

CHAP. 138.—An act to establish a railway bridge across the Illinois River, extending from a point within five miles of Columbiana in Greene County, to a point within five miles of Farrowtown, in Calhoun County, in the State of Illinois.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Litchfield, Carrollton and Western Railroad Company, its successors and assigns, are hereby authorized and empowered to erect, establish, and maintain a railway bridge across the Illinois River, extending from a point, to be by them selected, within five miles of Columbiana, in Greene County, to a point, to be selected by them, within five miles of Farrowtown, in Calhoun County, in the State of Illinois; and that said bridge shall not interfere with the free navigation of said river beyond what is necessary in order to carry into effect the rights and privileges hereby granted; and in case of any litigation arising from any obstruction or alleged obstruction to the free navigation of said river, the cause may be tried before the district court of the United States for the southern district of the State of Illinois.

SEC. 2. That any bridge built under the provisions of this act may, at the option of the company building the same, be built as a draw bridge, with a pivot or other form of draw, or with unbroken or continuous spans; Provided, That if the said bridge shall be built with unbroken or continuous spans, it shall not be of less elevation in any case than fifty feet above extreme high water mark, as understood at the point of location, to the bottom chord of the bridge, nor shall the spans of said bridge be less than two hundred and fifty feet in length; and the piers of said bridge shall be parallel with the current of said river, and the main span shall be over the main channel of the river, and not less than three hundred feet in length: And provided also, That if any bridge built under this act shall be constructed as a pivot draw bridge, with a draw over the main channel of the river at an accessible and navigable point, and with spans of not less than one hundred and sixty feet in length in the clear on each side of the central or pivot pier of the draw; and the next adjoining spans to the draw shall not be less than two hundred and fifty feet, and said spans shall not be less than thirty feet above low water mark and not less than ten feet above extreme high water mark, measuring to the bottom chord of the bridge; and the piers of said bridge shall be parallel with the current of the river where said bridge may be erected: And provided also, That said draw shall be opened promptly, upon reasonable signal, for the passage of boats.

SEC. 3. That any bridge constructed under this act and according to its limitations shall be a lawful structure, and shall be known and recognized as a post-route, and the same is hereby declared to be a post-route, upon which also no higher charge shall be made for the transmission over the same of the mails, the troops, and the munitions of war of the United States, or for passenger or freight passing over said bridge, than the rate per mile paid for their transportation over the railroads and public highways leading to the said bridge; and the United States shall have the right of way for a postal telegraph across said bridge.

SEC. 4. That all railway companies desiring to use said bridge shall have and be entitled to equal rights and privileges in the passage of the same, and in the use of the machinery and fixtures thereof, and of all the approaches thereto, under and upon such terms and conditions as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of War, upon hearing the allegations and proofs of the parties, in case they shall not agree.

SEC. 5. That the structure herein authorized shall be built and located under and subject to such regulations for the security of navigation of said river as the Secretary of War shall prescribe; and to secure that object the said company or corporation shall submit to the Secretary of War, for his examination and approval, a design and drawings of said bridge, and a map of the location, giving, for the space of one mile above and one mile below the proposed location, the topography of the banks of the river, the shore lines at high and low water, the direction and strength of the current at all stages, and the soundings, accurately showing the bed of the stream, the location of any other bridge or bridges, and shall furnish such other information as may be required for a full and satisfactory understanding of the subject; and until the said plan and location of the bridge are approved by the Secretary of War the bridge shall not be built; and should any change be made in the plan of said bridge during the process of construction, such change shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of War. And the said structure shall be at all times so managed and kept as to offer reasonable and proper means for the passage of vessels through or under said bridge; and to secure the safe passage of vessels at night there shall be displayed on said bridge, from the hour of sunset to that of sunrise, such lights as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War; and the said structure shall be changed, at the cost and expense of the owners thereof, from time to time, as Congress may direct, so as to preserve the free and convenient navigation of said river; and the authority to erect and continue said bridge shall be subject to revocation and modification by law, whenever the public good shall in the judgment of Congress so require, without any expense or charge to the United States.

SEC. 6. That the right to alter, amend, or repeal this act is hereby expressly reserved.

SEC. 7. That this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Sec. 5.— It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Navy to cause to be appraised, in such manner as may seem best, all vessels of the Navy which have been stricken from the Navy Register under the provisions of the act making appropriations for the naval service for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, and for other purposes, approved August fifth, eighteen hundred and eighty-two. And if the said Secretary shall deem it for the best interest of the United States to sell any such vessel or vessels, he shall, after such appraisal, advertise for sealed proposals for the purchase of the same, for a period not less than three months, in such newspapers as other naval advertisements are published, setting forth the name and location and the appraised value of such vessel, and that the same will be sold, for cash, to the person or persons or corporation or corporations offering the highest price therefor above the appraised value thereof; and such proposals shall be opened on a day and hour and at a place named in said advertisement, and record thereof shall be made. The Secretary of the Navy shall require to accompany each bid or proposal a deposit in cash of not less than ten per centum of the amount of the offer or proposal, and also a bond, with two or more sureties to be approved by him, conditioned for the payment of the remaining ninety per centum of the amount of such offer or proposal within the time fixed in the advertisement. And in case default is made in the payment of the remaining ninety per centum, or any part thereof, the Secretary, within the prescribed time thereof, shall advertise and resell said vessel under the provisions of this act. And in that event said cash deposit of ten per centum shall be considered as forfeited to the government, and shall be applied, first, to the payment of all costs and expenditures attending the advertisement and resale of said vessel; second, to the payment of the difference; if any, between the first and last sale of said vessel; and the balance, if any, shall be covered into the Treasury: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent a suit upon said bond for breach of any of its conditions. Any vessel sold under the foregoing provisions shall be delivered to the purchaser upon the full payment to the Secretary of the Navy of the amount of such proposal or offer; and the net proceeds of such sale shall be covered into the Treasury. But no vessel of the Navy shall hereafter be sold in any other manner than herein provided, or for less than such appraised value, unless the President of the United States shall otherwise direct in writing. In case any vessel now in process of construction in any navy yard has been or shall be found to be unworthy of being completed, and has been and shall be condemned under the provisions of said act, and cannot properly be sold, and it becomes necessary to remove the same, the cost of such removal shall be paid out of the net proceeds derived from the sale of other vessels hereby authorized to be sold.

Approved, March 3, 1883.

Mar. 3, 1883.

[No. 22.] Joint resolution providing for the termination of articles numbered eighteen to twenty-five, inclusive, and article numbered thirty of the treaty between the United States of America and Her Britannic Majesty, concluded at Washington, May eighth, eighteen hundred and seventy-one.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in the judgment of Congress the provisions of articles numbered eighteen to twenty-five, inclusive, and of article thirty of the treaty between the United States and Her Britannic Majesty, for an amicable settlement of all causes of difference between the two countries, concluded at Washington on the eighth day of May, anno Domini eighteen hundred and seventy-one, ought to be terminated at the earliest possible time, and be no longer in force; and to this end the President be, and he hereby is, directed to give notice to the Government of Her Britannic Majesty that the provisions of each and every of the articles aforesaid will terminate and be of no force on the expiration of two years next after the time of giving such notice.

Sec. 2. That the President be, and he hereby is, directed to give and communicate to the Government of Her Britannic Majesty such notice of such termination on the first day of July, anno Domini eighteen hundred and eighty-three, or as soon thereafter as may be.

Sec. 3. That on and after the expiration of the two years' time required by said treaty, each and every of said articles shall be deemed and held to have expired and be of no force and effect, and that every department of the Government of the United States shall execute the laws of the United States (in the premises) in the same manner and to the same effect as if said articles had never been in force; and the act of Congress approved March first, anno Domini eighteen hundred and seventy-three, entitled "An act to carry into effect the provisions of the treaty between the United States and Great Britain, signed in the city of Washington the eighth day of May, eighteen hundred and seventy-one, relating to the fisheries," so far as it relates to the articles of said treaty so to be terminated shall be and stand repealed and be of no force on and after the time of the expiration of said two years.

Approved, March 3, 1883.

[No. 28.] Joint resolution providing for a new mixed Commission in accordance with the treaty of April twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, with the United States of Venezuela.

Whereas, since the dissolution of the mixed Commission appointed under the treaty of April twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, with the United States of Venezuela, serious charges, impeaching the validity and integrity of its proceedings, have been made by the Government of the United States of Venezuela, and also charges of a like character by divers citizens of the United States of America, who presented claims for adjudication before that tribunal; and

Whereas, the evidence to be found in the record of the proceedings of said Commission, and in the testimony taken before committees of the House of Representatives in the matter, tends to show that such charges are not without foundation; and

Whereas, it is desirable that the matter be finally disposed of in a manner that shall satisfy any just complaints against the validity and integrity of the first Commission, and provide a tribunal under said treaty constructed and conducted so as not to give cause for just suspicion; and

Whereas, all evidence before said late Commission was presented in writing and is now in the archives of the State Department; and

Whereas, the President of the United States has, in a recent communication to Congress, solicited its advisory action in this matter: Therefore

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President be, and he hereby is, requested to open diplomatic correspondence with the Government of the United States of Venezuela, with a view to the revival of the general stipulations of the treaty of April twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, with said government, and the appointment thereunder of a new Commission, to sit in the city of Washington, which Commission shall be authorized to consider all the evidence presented before the former Commission in respect to claims brought before it, together with such other and further evidence as the claimants, may offer; and from the awards that may be made to claimants, any moneys hereofore paid by the Department of State, upon certificates issued to them, respectively, upon awards made by the former Commission, shall be deducted, and such certificates deemed canceled; and the moneys now in the Department of State received from the Government of Veneruela on account of said awards, and all moneys that may hereafter be paid under said treaty, shall be distributed pro rata in payment of such awards as may be made by the Commission to be appointed in accordance with this resolution.

Mar. 3, 1883. [No. 29.] Joint resolution to pay the Capitol Police one month's extra pay.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Clerk of the House be, and is hereby, authorized and directed to pay to all those of the Capitol Police on the roll July first, eighteen hundred and eighty two, one month's extra pay, at the same compensation now paid them by law; and an amount sufficient to pay the same is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the same to be made immediately available.
Approved, March 3, 1883.

Mar. 3, 1883. [No. 30.] Joint resolution validating certain contracts executed by the Postmaster General.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the contracts executed by the Postmaster General for routes numbered sixty-seven hundred and seventy-two, in the State of New York, under advertisement of February tenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-one; thirty-two hundred and sixty-six, in the State of Massachusetts, under advertisement of February tenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-one; twenty-three thousand five hundred and thirty-two, in the State of Illinois, under advertisement of June twentieth, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine; ten thousand two hundred and ninety-five, in the District of Columbia, under advertisement of March tenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, are hereby validated and declared to be in full force and effect, any omission in said contracts to conform to the requirements of the statutes notwithstanding.

Mar. 3, 1883.

CHAP. 106.—An act for the relief of certain owners of the Steamer Jackson,

Whereas, the United States, on the eighteenth day of June, eighteen hundred and sixty five, chartered the steamboat Jackson to run on the Chattahoochee River in the service of the United States, and while so employed it was wholly destroyed by fire caused by unavoidable accident; and

Whereas the Secretary of the Treasury, on the application of Aaron Barnett and Daniel Fry for payment to them, as alleged owners of said steamboat, of the value of the same, adjudged and decided "that the Steamer Jackson was lost by unavoidable accident while in the military service of the United States by contract, and that the owners thereof were entitled to the payment of the value thereof under acts of March third, eighteen hundred and forty nine, and March third, eighteen hundred and sixty three"; and

Whereas the value of said Steamer was duly ascertained by the Treasury Department to be thirty six thousand one hundred and twenty five dollars, which was paid to the said Barnett and Fry, on the execution of the bond of said Barnett as principal and Louis G. Schiffer and Gabriel H. Schiffer as sureties, in the sum of twenty six thousand dollars, payable to the United States, and "conditioned that if the above bounden obligors their heirs, executors, administrators, or any of them, shall and do well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto any person or persons who shall establish a valid claim to any of the five fourteenth of the steamer Jackson the full amounts as paid by the United States to the said Barnett and Fry, or shall pay or cause to be paid unto the United States, or their assigns, the full amounts paid by the United States on account of said five fourteenth of the said steamer Jackson, with the legal costs and interest on such sum, without any defalcation or delay, then the said bond to be void," and so forth; and

Whereas John R. Ely, John B. Lockey, A. R. Godwin, S. and J. Irwin, Thomas M. White, surviving partner of T. and J. M. White, and Ellison and Hughes, partners or joint owners, claim that they are the owners of said five fourteenth of said steamer Jackson, in different number of shares, and entitled to their pro rata share of said thirty six thousand one hundred and twenty five dollars, amounting to twelve thousand nine hundred and one dollars and seventy eight cents, and have demanded payment of the same from the United States; and

Whereas Barnett and Fry deny the ownership of said claimants of said five fourteenth, and also claim that they (Barnett and Fry) have made payments and advances of large sums of money for and on account of repairs and materials for repairs of said steamer Jackson, which they are entitled to have deducted from any sum for which they may be liable on said bond, or on account of said payment to them of the said twelve thousand nine hundred and one dollars and seventy eight cents; Therefore for the purpose of having the real owners of said five fourteenth of said steamer Jackson legally ascertained, and to enable the said Barnett and Fry, in the event that said claimants, or any of them, shall establish their right to said five fourteenth or any part thereof, to show by legal proof what, if any, advances or payments they, or either of them, have made for and on account of any repairs of the said steamer, and legally chargeable against all the owners thereof.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That John R. Ely, John B. Lockey, A. R. Godwin, S. and J. Irwin, partners or joint owners, and Thomas M. White, surviving partner of T and J. M. White, and Ellison and Hughes partners or joint owners, be, and they are hereby authorized within six months and not thereafter, after the passage of this act to bring suit in their joint names in the Court of Claims against the United States, and that said Court of Claims shall have jurisdiction of said suit to hear and determine the same for the purposes aforesaid, and to try all issues joined between the parties thereto in relation to the ownership of the five fourteenths of the said steamer Jackson, and determine the right of the said plaintiffs, or any of them, thereto, and to the said twelve thousand nine hundred and one dollars and seventy eight cents, the value thereof, and also to try and determine all issues in relation to any payments or advances made by Barnett and Fry, or either of them, for and on account of any debt legally created against said steamer Jackson, for repairs, material, clerk hire, or work and labor, for which the said steamer was liable in law or equity; and should the said plaintiffs, or any of them, establish their right to said five fourteenths, or the said value thereof, or any portion of the same, and should it be shown by legal proof that said Barnett and Fry, or either of them, have made payments or advances for repairs, materials, clerk hire, or work and labor, for which said steamer was chargeable in law or equity, the said Court shall render judgment against the United States and in favor of each of said claimants for so much of said twelve thousand nine hundred and one dollars and seventy eight cents as the proof may show each to be entitled, less the amount the proof may show the said Barnett and Fry, or either of them, have paid or advanced for and on account of said steamer as aforesaid; and the said Court shall cause notice in writing to be served in person upon said Aaron Barnett and Daniel Fry, in which shall be stated the commencement of said suit by said plaintiffs, and the cause thereof, and requiring them to appear at said court and establish, if they can, by legal proof, their ownership of said five fourteenths of said steamer Jackson, and also what payments or advances they, or either of them, have made, for and on account of repairs, material, or work and labor, for which said steamer was liable.

Approved, March 3, 1883.

TREATIES AND CONVENTIONS

CONCLUDED BY THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

WITH FOREIGN NATIONS.

TREATIES, CONVENTIONS, AND AGREEMENTS.

Convention between the United States of America and Japan, providing for the reimbursement of shipwreck expenses. Concluded May 17, 1880; ratification advised by the Senate March 23, 1881; ratified by the President April 7, 1881; ratified by the Emperor of Japan June 5, 1880; ratification exchanged June 16, 1881; proclaimed October 3, 1881.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas a Convention between the United States of America and the Empire of Japan, providing for the reimbursement of certain specified expenses which may be incurred by either country in consequence of the shipwreck on its coast of the vessels of the other, was concluded and signed by their respective Plenipotentiaries at the city of Tokio, Japan, on the seventeenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty, the English text of which Convention is, word for word as follows:

The United States of America and the Empire of Japan being desirous of concluding an agreement providing for the reimbursement of certain specified expenses which may be incurred by either country in consequence of the shipwreck on its coast of the vessels of the other, have resolved to conclude a special convention for this purpose, and have named as their Plenipotentiaries:

The President of the United States of America, John A. Bingham, their Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to His Imperial Majesty, and His Majesty the Emperor of Japan, Inouye Kaoru Shoshibi, Minister for Foreign Affairs and decorated with the 1st class of the order of the Rising Sun, who after reciprocal communication of their full powers found in good and due form, have agreed as follows:

All expenses incurred by the Government of the United States for the rescue, clothing, maintenance and travelling of needily shipwrecked Japanese subjects, for the recovery of the bodies of the drowned, for the medical treatment of the sick and injured, unable to pay for such treatment, and for the burial of the dead, shall be repaid to the Government of the United States by that of Japan. And a similar course of procedure to the above shall be observed by the Government of the United States in the case of assistance being given by that of Japan to shipwrecked citizens of the United States.

But neither the Government of the United States nor that of Japan shall be responsible for the repayment of the expenses incurred in the recovery or preservation of a wrecked vessel or the property on board. All such expenses shall be a charge upon the property saved, and shall be repaid by the parties interested therein upon receiving delivery of the same.

No charge shall be made by the Government of the United States nor by that of Japan for the expenses of the Government officers, police or local functionaries who shall proceed to the wreck, for the travelling expenses of officers escorting the shipwrecked men, nor for the expenses incurred in recovering the shipwrecked hands, nor for the expenses of the Jenkins, of the National Cemetery.

Who, in virtue of their full powers, recognized as being in good and due form, have agreed upon the following articles:

ARTICLE 1.

The conditions under which protection may be conceded are those established in the British and Spanish treaties with the Government of Morocco, and in the convention made between that Government, France and other powers in 1863, with the modifications introduced by the present convention.

ARTICLE 2.

Foreign Representatives at the head of a Legation may select their interpreters and employees from among the subjects of Morocco or others.

These protected persons shall be subject to no duty, impost or tax whatever, other than those stipulated in articles 12 and 13.

ARTICLE 3.

Consuls, Vice-consuls or Consular Agents having charge of a post, and residing within the territory of the Sultan of Morocco, shall be

Sa Majesté le Sultan du Maroc, le Taleb Sid Mohammed Vargas, son Ministre des Affaires Étrangères et Ambassadeur Extraordinaire;

Sa Majesté le Roi des Pays-Bas, Monsieur le Jonkheer Maurice de Heldewier, Commandeur de l’Ordre Royal du Lion Néerlandais, Chevalier de l’Ordre de la Couronne de Chêne de Luxembourg, etc., etc., son Ministre Résident près Sa Majesté Catholique;

Sa Majesté le Roi de Portugal et des Algarves, Monsieur le Comte de Casal Ribeiro, Pair du Royaume, Grande-Croix de l’Ordre du Christ, etc., etc., son Envoyé Extraordinaire et Ministre Plénipotentiaire près Sa Majesté Catholique;

Sa Majesté le Roi de Suède et de Norvège, Monsieur Henri Akerman, Commandeur de première classe de l’Ordre de Wasa, etc., etc., son Ministre Résident près Sa Majesté Catholique;

Lesquels, en vertu de leurs pleins pouvoirs, reconnus en bonne et due forme, ont arrêté les dispositions suivantes:

ARTICLE PREMIER.

Les conditions dans lesquelles la protection peut être accordée sont celles qui sont stipulées dans les Traités britannique et espagnol avec le Gouvernement Marocain et dans la Convention survenue entre ce Gouvernement, la France et d’autres Puissances en 1863, sauf les modifications qui y sont apportées par la présente Convention.

ARTICLE 2.

Les Représentants étrangers Chefs de Mission, pourront choisir leurs interprètes et employés parmi les sujets marocains ou autres.

Ces protégés ne seront soumis à aucun droit, impôt ou taxe quelconque, en dehors de ce qui est stipulé aux articles 12 et 13.

ARTICLE 3.

Les Consuls, Vice-Consuls ou Agents consulaires Chefs de poste qui résident dans les États du Sultan du Maroc, ne pourront choisir Consuls, &c., allowed to select and employ native assistants, &c.
allowed to select but one interpreter, one soldier and two servants from among the subjects of the Sultan, unless they may require a native secretary.

These protected persons shall, in like manner, be subject to no duty, impost or tax whatever, other than those stipulated in articles 12 and 13.

Article 4.

If a Representative shall appoint a subject of the Sultan to the office of Consular Agent in a town on the coast, such agent shall be respected and honored, as shall the members of his family occupying the same dwelling with him, and they, like him shall be subject to no duty, impost or tax whatever, other than those stipulated in articles 12 and 13; but he shall not have the right to protect any subjects of the Sultan other than the members of his own family.

He may, however, for the exercise of his functions, have a protected soldier.

Officers in acting charge of Vice Consulates being subjects of the Sultan, shall, during the exercise of their functions, enjoy the same rights as Consular Agents who are subjects of the Sultan.

Article 5.

The Government of Morocco recognizes the right of Ministers, Chargés d’Affaires and other Representatives, which is granted to them by treaties, to select the persons whom they employ, either in their own service or that of their governments, unless such persons shall be sheiks or other employees of the Government of Morocco, such as soldiers of the line or of the cavalry, in addition to the Maghazis in command of their guard. In like manner they shall not be permitted to employ any subject of Morocco who is under prosecution.

It is understood that civil suits commenced before protection, shall be terminated before the courts which have instituted such proceedings. The execution of the sentence shall suffer no hindrance. Nevertheless, the local authorities qu’un interprète, un soldat et deux domestiques parmi les sujets du Sultan, à moins qu’ils n’aient besoin d’un secrétaire indigène.

Ces protégés ne seront soumis non plus à aucun droit, impôt ou taxe quelconque, en dehors de ce qui est stipulé aux articles 12 et 13.

Article 4.

Si un Représentant nomme un sujet du Sultan à un poste d’Agent consulaire dans une ville de la côte, cet Agent sera respecté et honoré, ainsi que sa famille habitant sous le même toit, laquelle, comme lui-même, ne sera soumise à aucun droit, impôt ou taxe quelconque en dehors de ce qui est stipulé aux articles 12 et 13; mais il n’aura pas le droit de protéger d’autres sujets du Sultan en dehors de sa famille.

Il pourra, toutefois, pour l’exercice de ses fonctions, avoir un soldat protégé.

Les Gérants des Vice-consulats, sujets du Sultan, jauront, pendant l’exercice de leur fonctions, des mêmes droits que les Agents consulaires sujets du Sultan.

Article 5.

Le Gouvernement Marocain reconnaît aux Ministres, Chargés d’Affaires et autre Représentants le droit, qui leur est accordé par les Traités, de choisir les personnes qu’ils emploient, soit à leur service personnel, soit à celui de leurs Gouvernements, à moins, toutefois, que ce ne soient des Cheiks ou autres employés du Gouvernement marocain, tels que les soldats de ligne ou de cavalerie, en dehors des Maghazis préposés à leur garde. De même, ils ne pourront employer aucun sujet marocain sous le coup de poursuites.

Il reste entendu que les procès civils engagés avant la protection se termineront devant les Tribunaux qui en auront entamé la procédure.

L’exécution de la sentence ne rencontrera pas d’empêchement.
of Morocco shall take care to communicate, without delay, the sentence pronounced, to the Legation, Consulate or Consular Agency upon which the protected person is dependent.

As to those persons formerly protected, who may have a suit which was commenced before protection was withdrawn from them, their case shall be tried by the court before which it was brought.

The right of protection shall not be exercised towards persons under prosecution for an offense or crime, before they have been tried by the authorities of the country, or before their sentence, if any has been pronounced, has been executed.

Article 6.

Protection shall extend to the family of the person protected. His dwelling shall be respected.

It is understood that the family is to consist only of the wife, the children, and the minor relatives dwelling under the same roof.

Protection shall not be hereditary. A single exception, which was established by the convention of 1863, but which is not to create a precedent, shall be maintained in favor of the Benchimol family.

Nevertheless, if the Sultan of Morocco shall grant another exception, each of the contracting powers shall be entitled to claim a similar concession.

Article 7.

Foreign representatives shall inform the Sultan's Minister of Foreign Affairs, in writing, of any selections of an employee made by them.

They shall furnish annually to the said Minister a list of the names of the persons protected by them or by their Agents throughout the States of the Sultan of Morocco.

This list shall be transmitted to the local authorities, who shall consider as persons enjoying protection only those whose names are contained therein.

Article 8.

Consular officers shall transmit each year to the authorities of the Toutefois, l'autorité locale marocaine aura soin de communiquer immédiatement la sentence rendue à la Légation, Consulat ou Agence consulaire dont relève le protégé.

Quand aux ex-protégés qui auraient un procès commencé avant que la protection eût cessé pour eux, leur affaire sera jugée par le Tribunal qui en était saisi.

Le droit de protection ne pourra être exercé à l'égard des personnes poursuivies pour un délit ou un crime avant qu'elles n'aient été jugées par les Autorités du pays, et qu'elles n'aient, s'il y a lieu, accompli leur peine.

Article 6.

Protection s'étend sur la famille du protégé. Sa demeure est respectée.

Il est entendu que la famille ne se compose que de la femme, des enfants et des parents mineurs qui habitent sous le même toit.

La protection n'est pas héréditaire. Une seule exception, déjà établie par la Convention de 1863, et qui ne saurait créer un précédent, est maintenue en faveur de la famille Benchimol.

Cependant, si le Sultan du Maroc accordait une autre exception, chacune des Puissances contractantes aurait le droit de réclamer une concession semblable.

Article 7.

Les Représentants étrangers informeront par écrit le Ministre des Affaires Étrangères du Sultan du choix qu'ils auront fait d'un employé.

Ils communiqueront chaque année au dit Ministre une liste nominative des personnes qu'il protégent ou qui sont protégés par leurs Agents dans les États du Sultan du Maroc.

Cette liste sera transmise aux Autorités locales, qui ne considéreront comme protégés que ceux qui y sont inscrits.

Article 8.

Les Agents consulaires remettront chaque année à l'Autorité du district in which they reside a list, bearing their seal, of the persons protected by them. These authorities shall transmit it to the Minister of Foreign Affairs, to the end that, if it be not conformable to the regulations, the Representatives at Tangier may be informed of the fact.

A consular officer shall be required to give immediate information of any changes that may have taken place among the persons protected by his Consulate.

ARTICLE 9.

Servants, farmers and other native employees of native secretaries and interpreters shall not enjoy protection. The same shall be the case with Moorish employees or servants of foreign subjects.

Nevertheless, the local authorities shall not arrest an employee or servant of a native officer in the service of a Legation or Consulate, or of a foreign subject or protected person, without having notified the authority upon which he is dependent.

If a subject of Morocco in the service of a foreign subject shall kill or wound any person, or violate his domicile, he shall be arrested immediately, but the diplomatic or consular authority under which he is shall be notified without delay.

ARTICLE 10.

Nothing is changed with regard to the situation of brokers, as established by the treaties and by the convention of 1863, except what is stipulated, relative to taxes, in the following articles.

ARTICLE 11.

The right to hold property is recognized in Morocco as belonging to all foreigners.

The purchase of property must take place with the previous consent of the Government, and the title of such property shall be subject to the forms prescribed by the laws of the country.

Any question that may arise concerning this right shall be decided in the courts of the country.

The right to hold property is recognized in Morocco as belonging to all foreigners.

The purchase of property must take place with the previous consent of the Government, and the title of such property shall be subject to the forms prescribed by the laws of the country.

Any question that may arise concerning this right shall be decided in the courts of the country.

L'Officier consulaire sera tenu d'annoncer immédiatement les changements survenus dans le personnel protégé de son Consulat.

ARTICLE 9.

Les domestiques, fermiers et autres employés indigènes des secrétaires et interprètes indigènes ne jouissent pas de la protection. Il en est de même pour les employés ou domestiques marocains des sujets étrangers.

Toutefois, les Autorités locales ne pourront arrêter un employé ou domestique d’un fonctionnaire indigène au service d’une Légation ou d’un Consulat, ou d’un sujet ou protégé étranger, sans en avoir prévenu l’Autorité dont il dépend.

Si un sujet marocain au service d’un sujet étranger venait à tuer quelqu’un, à le blesser ou à violer son domicile, il serait immédiatement arrêté, mais l’Autorité diplomatique ou consulaire sous laquelle il est placé serait avertie sans retard.

ARTICLE 10.

Il n’est rien changé à la situation des censaux telle qu’elle a été établie par les Traités et par la Convention de 1863, sauf ce qui est stipulé, relativement aux impôts, dans les articles suivants.

ARTICLE 11.

Le droit de propriété au Maroc est reconnu pour tous les étrangers.

L’acte de propriétés devra être effectué avec le consentement préalable du Gouvernement, et les titres de ces propriétés seront soumis aux formes prescrites par les lois du pays.

Toute question qui pourrait survenir sur ce droit sera décidée cided according to the same laws, with the privilege of appeal to the Minister of Foreign Affairs stipulated in the treaties.

ARTICLE 12.

Foreigners and protected persons who are the owners or tenants of cultivated land, as well as brokers engaged in agriculture, shall pay the agricultural tax. They shall send to their Consul annually, an exact statement of what they possess delivering into his hands the amount of the tax.

The nature, method, date and apportionment of this tax shall form the subject of a special regulation between the Representatives of the Powers and the Minister of Foreign Affairs of His Sherifian Majesty.

ARTICLE 13.

Foreigners, protected persons and brokers owning beasts of burden shall pay what is called the gate-tax. The apportionment and the manner of collecting this tax which is paid alike by foreigners and natives, shall likewise form the subject of a special regulation between the Representatives of the Powers and the Minister of Foreign Affairs of His Sherifian Majesty.

The said tax shall not be increased without a new agreement with the Representatives of the Powers.

ARTICLE 14.

The mediation of interpreters, native secretaries or soldiers of the different Legations or Consulates, when persons are concerned who are under the protection of the Legation or Consulate, shall be permitted only when they are the bearers of a document signed by the head of a mission or by the consular authority.

ARTICLE 12.

Les étrangers et les protégés propriétaires ou locataires de terrains cultivés, ainsi que les cen-saux adonnés à l'agriculture, paieront l'impôt agricole. Ils remettront chaque année à leur Consul la note exacte de ce qu'ils possèdent en acquittant entre ses mains le montant de l'impôt.

Celui qui fera une fausse déclara-tion paiera, à titre d'amende, le double de l'impôt qu'il aurait dû régulièrement verser pour les biens non déclarés. En cas de récidive cette amende sera doublée.

ARTICLE 13.

Les étrangers, les protégés et les cen-saux propriétaires de bêtes de somme paieront la taxe dite des portes. La quotité et le mode de perception de cette taxe, commune aux étrangers et aux indigènes, seeront également l'objet d'un Règlement spécial entre les Représentants des Puissances et le Ministre des Affaires Étrangères de Sa Majesté Sherifienne.

La dite taxe ne pourra être aug-mentée sans un nouvel accord avec les Représentants des Puissances.

ARTICLE 14.

La médiation des interprètes, se-crétaires indigènes ou soldats des différentes Légations ou Consulats, lors qu'il s'agira de personnes non placées sous la protection de la Légation ou du Consulat, ne sera ad-mise qu'autant qu'ils seront porteurs d'un document signé par le Chef de Mission ou par l'Authorité consulaire.
ARTICLE 15.

Any subject of Morocco who has been naturalized in a foreign country, and who shall return to Morocco, shall after having remained for a length of time equal to that which shall have been regularly necessary for him to obtain such naturalization, choose between entire submission to the laws of the Empire and the obligation to quit Morocco, unless it shall be proved that his naturalization in a foreign country was obtained with the consent of the Government of Morocco.

Foreign naturalization herefore acquired by subjects of Morocco according to the rules established by the laws of each country, shall be continued to them as regards all its effects, without any restriction.

ARTICLE 16.

No irregular or unofficial protection shall be granted in future. The authorities of Morocco will recognize no protection, of any kind whatever, save such as is expressly provided for in this convention.

Nevertheless, the exercise of the customary right of protection shall be reserved for those cases only in which it may be desired to reward signal services rendered by a native of Morocco to a foreign power, or for other altogether exceptional reasons.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs at Tangier shall be previously informed of the nature of the services, and notified of the intention to reward them, in order that he may, if need be, present his observations thereon; yet the final decision shall be reserved for the Government to which the service shall have been rendered.

The number of persons thus protected shall not exceed twelve for each power, and this number is fixed as the maximum unless the consent of the Sultan shall be obtained.

The status of persons who have obtained protection in virtue of the custom which is henceforth to be

ARTICLE 15.

Tout sujet marocain naturalisé à l'étranger, qui reviendra au Maroc, devra, après un temps de séjour égal à celui qui lui aura été régulièrement nécessaire pour obtenir la naturalisation, opter entre sa soumission entière aux lois de l'Empire et l'obligation de quitter le Maroc, à moins qu'il ne soit constaté que la naturalisation étrangère a été obtenue avec l'assentiment du Gouvernement marocain.

La naturalisation étrangère acquise jusqu'à ce jour par des sujets marocains suivant les règles établies par les lois de chaque pays, leur est maintenue pour tous ses effets, sans restriction aucune.

ARTICLE 16.

Aucune protection irrégulière ni officielle ne pourra être accordée à l'avenir. Les Autorités marocaines ne reconnaîtront jamais d'autres protections, quelle que soit leur nature, que celles qui sont expressément arrêtées dans cette Convention.

Cependant, l'exercice du droit consûtudinaire de protection sera réservé aux seuls cas où il s'agirait de récompenser des services signalés rendus par un marocain à une Puissance étrangère, ou pour d'autres motifs tout-à-fait exceptionnels.

La nature des services et l'intention de les récompenser par la protection seront préalablement notifiées au Ministre des Affaires Étrangères à Tanger, afin qu'il puisse au besoin présenter ses observations; la résolution définitive restera néanmoins réservée au Gouvernement auquel le service aura été rendu.

Le nombre de ces protégés ne pourra dépasser celui de douze par Puissance, qui reste fixé comme maximum, à moins d'obtenir l'assentiment du Sultan.

La situation des protégés qui ont obtenu la protection en vertu de la coutume désormais réglée par la regulated by this stipulation shall be without limitation of the number of persons belonging to this class and now so protected, the same for themselves and their families as that which is established for other protected persons.

ARTICLE 17.

The right to the treatment of the most favored nation is recognized by Morocco as belonging to all the powers represented at the Madrid conference.

ARTICLE 18.

This convention shall be ratified. The ratifications shall be exchanged at Tangier with as little delay as possible.

By exceptional consent of the high contracting parties the stipulations of this convention shall take effect on the day on which it is signed at Madrid.

In faith whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed this convention, and have thereunto affixed the seals of their arms.

November 17, 1880.  Treaty between the United States and China, concerning immigration. Concluded November 17, 1880; ratification advised by the Senate May 5, 1881; ratified by the President May 9, 1881; ratifications exchanged July 19, 1881; proclaimed October 5, 1881.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas a Treaty between the United States of America and China, for the modification of the existing treaties between the two countries, by providing for the future regulation of Chinese immigration into the United States, was concluded and signed at Peking in the English and Chinese languages, on the seventeenth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty, the original of the English text of which Treaty is word for word as follows:

Whereas, in the eighth year of Hsien Feng, Anno Domini 1858, a treaty of peace and friendship was concluded between the United States of America and China, and to which were added, in the seventh year of Tung Chih, Anno Domini 1868, certain supplementary articles to the advantage of both parties, which supplementary articles were to be perpetually observed and obeyed:—and

Whereas the Government of the United States, because of the constantly increasing immigration of Chinese laborers to the territory of the United States, and the embarrassments consequent upon such immigration, now desires to negotiate a modification of the existing Treaties which shall not be in direct contravention of their spirit:—

Now, therefore, the President of the United States of America has appointed James B. Angell, of Michigan, John F. Swift, of California, and William Henry Trescot, of South Carolina as his Commissioners Plenipotentiary; and His Imperial Majesty, the Emperor of China, has appointed Pao Chih, a member of His Imperial Majesty's Privy Council, and Superintendent of the Board of Civil Office; and Li Hungtsao, a member of His Imperial Majesty's Privy Council, as his Commissioners Plenipotentiary; and the said Commissioners Plenipotentiary, having conjointly examined their full powers, and having discussed the points of possible modification in existing Treaties, have agreed upon the following articles in modification.

ARTICLE I.

Whenever in the opinion of the Government of the United States, the coming of Chinese laborers to the United States, or their residence therein, affects or threatens to affect the interests of that country, or to endanger the good order of the said country or of any locality within the territory thereof, the Government of China agrees that the Government of the United States may regulate, limit, or suspend such coming or residence, but may not absolutely prohibit it. The limitation or suspension shall be reasonable and shall apply only to Chinese who may go to the United States as laborers, other classes not being included in the limitations. Legislation taken in regard to Chinese laborers will be of such a character only as is necessary to enforce the regulation, limitation, or suspension of immigration, and immigrants shall not be subject to personal maltreatment or abuse.
TREATY—CHINA. NOVEMBER 17, 1880.

ARTICLE II.

Chinese subjects, whether proceeding to the United States as teachers, students, merchants or from curiosity, together with their body and household servants, and Chinese laborers who are now in the United States shall be allowed to go and come of their own free will and accord, and shall be accorded all the rights, privileges, immunities, and exemptions which are accorded to the citizens and subjects of the most favored nation.

ARTICLE III.

If Chinese laborers, or Chinese of any other class, now either permanently or temporarily residing in the territory of the United States, meet with ill treatment at the hands of any other persons, the Government of the United States will exert all its power to devise measures for their protection and to secure to them the same rights, privileges, immunities, and exemptions as may be enjoyed by the citizens or subjects of the most favored nation, and to which they are entitled by treaty.

ARTICLE IV.

The high contracting Powers having agreed upon the foregoing articles, whenever the Government of the United States shall adopt legislative measures in accordance therewith, such measures will be communicated to the Government of China. If the measures so enacted are found to work hardship upon the subjects of China, the Chinese Minister at Washington may bring the matter to the notice of the Secretary of State of the United States, who will consider the subject with him; and the Chinese Foreign Office may also bring the matter to the notice of the United States Minister at Peking and consider the subject with him, to the end that mutual and unqualified benefit may result.

In faith whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed and sealed the foregoing at Peking, in English and Chinese being three originals of each text of even tenor and date, the ratifications of which shall be exchanged at Peking within one year from date of its execution.

Supplemental treaty between the United States and China, concerning commercial intercourse and judicial procedure. Concluded November 17, 1880; ratification advised by the Senate, May 5, 1881; ratified by the President, May 9, 1881; ratifications exchanged, July 19, 1881; proclaimed October 5, 1881.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas a supplemental treaty between the United States of America and China, for supplying certain points of incompleteness in the existing treaties between the two governments in the matter of commercial intercourse and of judicial procedure, was concluded and signed at Peking, in the English and Chinese languages, on the seventeenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty, the original of the English text of which treaty is word for word as follows:

The President of the United States of America and His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of China, because of certain points of incompleteness in the existing treaties between the two governments, have named as their commissioners plenipotentiary, that is to say:

The President of the United States, James B. Angell of Michigan, John F. Swift of California, and William Henry Trescot of South Carolina;

His Imperial Majesty, the Emperor of China, Pao Chün, a member of His Imperial Majesty's privy council and superintendent of the board of civil office, and Li Hungtsao, a member of His Imperial Majesty's privy council, who have agreed upon and concluded the following additional articles:

ARTICLE I.

The Governments of the United States and China, recognizing the benefits of their past commercial relations, and in order still further to promote such relations between the citizens and subjects of the two powers, mutually agree to give the most careful and favorable attention to the representations of either as to such special extension of commercial intercourse as either may desire.

ARTICLE II.

The Governments of China and of the United States mutually agree and undertake that Chinese subjects shall not be permitted to import opium into any of the ports of the United States; and citizens of the United States shall not be permitted to import opium into any of the open ports of China; to transport it from one open port to any other open port; or to buy and sell opium in any of the open ports of China. This absolute prohibition, which extends to vessels owned by the citizens or subjects of either power, to foreign vessels employed by them, or to vessels owned by the citizens or subjects of either power and employed by other persons for the transportation of opium, shall be enforced by appropriate legislation on the part of China and the United States; and the benefits of the favored nation clause in existing treaties shall not be claimed by the citizens or subjects of either power as against the provisions of this article.
ARTICLE III.

His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of China hereby promises and agrees that no other kind or higher rate of tonnage dues, or duties for imports or exports, or coastwise trade shall be imposed or levyied in the open ports of China upon vessels wholly belonging to citizens of the United States; or upon the produce, manufactures or merchandise imported in the same from the United States; or from any foreign country; or upon the produce, manufactures, or merchandise exported in the same to the United States or to any foreign country; or transported in the same from one open port of China to another, than are imposed or levyied on vessels or cargoes of any other nation or on those of Chinese subjects.

The United States hereby promise and agree that no other kind or higher rate of tonnage dues or duties for imports shall be imposed or levied in the ports of the United States upon vessels wholly belonging to the subjects of His Imperial Majesty and coming either directly or by way of any foreign port, from any of the ports of China which are open to foreign trade, to the ports of the United States; or returning therefrom either directly or by way of any foreign port, to any of the open ports of China; or upon the produce, manufactures or merchandise imported in the same from China or from any foreign country, than are imposed or levyied on vessels of other nations which make no discrimination against the United States in tonnage dues or duties on imports, exports, or coastwise trade; or than are imposed or levyied on vessels and cargoes of citizens of the United States.

ARTICLE IV.

When controversies arise in the Chinese Empire between citizens of the United States and subjects of His Imperial Majesty, which need to be examined and decided by the public officers of the two nations, it is agreed between the Governments of the United States and China that such cases shall be tried by the proper official of the nationality of the defendant. The properly authorized official of the plaintiff’s nationality shall be freely permitted to attend the trial and shall be treated with the courtesy due to his position. He shall be granted all proper facilities for watching the proceedings in the interests of justice. If he so desires, he shall have the right to present, to examine, and to cross-examine witnesses. If he is dissatisfied with the proceedings, he shall be permitted to protest against them in detail. The law administered will be the law of the nationality of the officer trying the case.

In faith whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed and sealed the foregoing at Peking in English and Chinese, being three originals of each text, of even tenor and date, the ratifications of which shall be exchanged at Peking within one year from the date of its execution.

Supplemental convention between the United States and the Kingdom of Italy, concerning the rights, privileges, and immunities of consular officers. Concluded February 24, 1881; ratification advised by the Senate May 5, 1881; ratified by the President May 10, 1881; ratified by the King of Italy May 8, 1881; ratifications exchanged June 18, 1881; proclaimed June 29, 1881.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas a Convention supplementary to the Consular Convention of May 8, 1878, between the United States and Italy, was concluded between the two Governments and signed by their respective Plenipotentiaries at Washington, on the twenty-fourth day of February, in the year one thousand, eight hundred and eighty-one, which Convention is word for word as follows:

Convenzione Supplementare alla Convenzione Consolare dell' 8 Maggio 1878, fra gli Stati Uniti di America e Sua Maestà il Re d'Italia.

Whereas question has arisen at divers times between the government of the United States of America and the government of His Majesty the King of Italy, touching the interpretation of the eleventh article of the Convention between the two countries, concerning the rights, privileges and immunities of Consular Officers, signed at Washington on the eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and especially with respect to so much of said article as defines and limits the jurisdiction of the authorities of the country and of the Consular Officers, with regard to offenses and disturbances on shipboard, while in port; and whereas the high contracting parties, have deemed it expedient to remove for the future all ground of question in the premises, by substituting a new article in place of the said eleventh article of that Convention; the United States of America and His Majesty the King of Italy, have resolved to conclude a special supplementary Convention to that end and have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries:

Divario di opinioni essendosi manifestato fra il Governo degli Stati Uniti d'America ed il Governo di Sua Maestà il Re d'Italia, riguardo alla interpretazione da darsi all' articolo undecimo della Convenzione concernente i diritti, privilegi ed immunità degli Ufficiali Consolari dei due paesi, firmata a Washington il giorno otto del mese di Maggio dell' anno mille otto cento e settanta otto, ed in special modo riguardo a quella parte di detto articolo che definisce e limita la giurisdizione delle autorità locali e degli Ufficiali Consolari rispetto a disordini o delitti a bordo delle navi mercantili dell' uno Stato mentre [si trovano] nelle acque territoriali dell' altro; ed avendo le alte parti contraenti ritenuto utile di eliminare per l' avvenire ogni motivo di dubbio riguardo a queste questioni, sostituendo un altro articolo a quello undecimo della convenzione predetta; gli Stati Uniti di America e Sua Maestà il Re d'Italia hanno deliberato di stipulare una speciale convenzione supplementare a questo scopo, ed hanno nominato loro Plenipotentiari:
Contracting parties.

The President of the United States: William Maxwell Evarts, Secretary of State of the United States, and His Majesty the King of Italy: Paul Beccadelli Bologna, Prince of Camporeale, his Chargé d'Affaires in the United States of America; who, after communicating to each other their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following articles:

ARTICLE I.

The eleventh article of the Consular Convention of May 8, 1878, between the United States of America and Italy, is hereby annulled, and in its place the following article is substituted, namely:

Consuls General, Consuls, Vice-Consuls and Consular Agents shall have exclusive charge of the internal order of the merchant vessels of their nation and shall alone take cognizance of differences which may arise either at sea or in port between the captains, officers and crews, without exception, particularly in reference to the adjustment of wages and the execution of contracts. In case any disorder should happen on board of vessels of either party, in the territorial waters of the other, neither the Federal, State or Municipal Authorities or Courts in the United States nor any Court or Authority in Italy, shall on any pretext interfere except when the said disorders are of such a nature as to cause or be likely to cause a breach of the peace or serious trouble in the port or on shore; or when, in such trouble or breach of the peace, a person or persons shall be implicated, not forming a part of the crew. In any other case, said Federal, State or Municipal Authorities or Courts in the United States, or Courts or Authority in Italy, shall not interfere but shall render forcible aid to Consular Officers, when they may ask it, to search, arrest and imprison all persons composing the crew, whom they may deem it necessary to confine. Those persons shall be arrested at the sole request of the Consuls addressed in writing to either the Federal, State or Municipal Courts or Authorities in the United States, or to any Court or

Il Presidente degli Stati Uniti d'America: l'onorevole William Maxwell Evarts, Segretario di Stato degli Stati Uniti d'America; e Suo Maestà il Re d'Italia: Il Cavaliere Paolo Beccadelli Bologna, Principe di Camporeale, Suo Incaricato d’Affari negli Stati Uniti d’America; i quali, dopo aver scambiato i loro pieni-poteri, trovati in buona e debita forma, hanno convenuto negli articoli seguenti:

ARTICOLO I.

L’articolo undecimo della Convenzione Consolare dell’8 Maggio 1878, fra gli Stati Uniti d’America e l’Italia, si dichiara annullato, e vi è sostituito l’articolo seguente:

I Consoli Generali, Consoli, Vice Consoli, ed Agenti Consolari, saranno esclusivamente incaricati di mantenere l’ordine interno a bordo delle navi mercantili di loro nazione, e conosceranno soli delle questioni di qualunque genere che potranno insorgere sì in mare che nei porti, fra il capitano, gli ufficiali ed i marinai, senza eccezione, e segnatamente di quelle relative al soldo, ed all’adempimento degli accordi reciprocamente convenuti. Nel caso che accadono disordini a bordo delle navi di uno dei due Stati nelle acque territoriali dell’altro, le corti o Autorità Federali, di Stato o municipalì degli Stati Uniti, o i Tribunali e altre autorità in Italia, non potranno sotto alcun pretesto intervenire, salvo che i disordini fossero tali da aver turbato o da poter turbare la tranquillità o l’ordine pubblico a terra o nel porto, ovvero quando vi fosse impagato una o più persone non facenti parte dell’equipaggio. In ogni altro caso le corti od Autorità Federali, di Stato o municipalì negli Stati Uniti ed i Tribunali e le Autorità in Italia non potranno intervenire; ma dovranno prestare man-forte agli Ufficiali Consolari, quando essi lo richiedano, affine di ricercare, arrestare ed imprigionare qualunque individuo facente parte dell’equipaggio, cui ripetue conveniente di porre sotto custodia. Questi individui saranno arrestati sulla sola domanda degli Ufficiali Consolari, fatta per iscritto alle Corti od Autorità Federali, di Stato o Mu-Authority in Italy, and supported by an official extract from the register of the ship or the list of the crew, and the prisoners shall be held during the whole time of their stay, in the port at the disposal of the Consular Officers. Their release shall be granted at the mere request of such officers made in writing. The expenses of the arrest and detention of those persons, shall be paid by the Consular Officers.

ARTICLE II.

This supplementary Convention shall be ratified in conformity with the laws of the respective countries, and the ratifications thereof shall be exchanged at Washington, as soon as possible after the date hereof, and immediately upon such exchange, the foregoing form of the said article XI. shall become effective and have the same force as the other articles of the Convention of the eighth day of May of the year 1878 and the same duration.

In faith whereof, the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed this Convention and have thereunto affixed their seals.

Done in duplicate at Washington, the twenty-fourth day of February, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

[SEAL.] CAMPOBRALE.

And whereas the said Convention has been duly ratified on both parts, and the ratifications of the two governments were exchanged in the city of Washington on the eighteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one;

Now therefore be it known, that I, James A. Garfield, President of the United States of America, have caused the said Convention to be made public, to the end that the same and every clause and article thereof may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States and the citizens thereof.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this twenty-ninth day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, and of the Independence of the United States, the one hundred and fifth.

Ratifications.
Convention between the Post Office Department of the United States of America and the General Post Office of the Colony of Victoria, Australia, concerning the exchange of money-orders. Done in duplicate and signed in Washington December 9, 1881; and in Melbourne October 5, 1881.

Contracting parties.

The Post Office Department of the United States of America and the General Post Office of the Colony of Victoria, Australia, being desirous of establishing a system of exchange of money-orders between the two countries, the undersigned, duly authorized for that purpose, have agreed upon the following Articles:

ARTICLE 1.

Exchange of postal money orders. The maximum of each order is fixed at £10 sterling, when issued in Victoria, and, when issued in the United States, at the equivalent, in sterling money, of $50 in the money of the latter country, converted at the rate fixed by Article 13 of the present Convention.

Maximum of orders.

No money-order shall include a fractional part of a penny, or, of a cent.

Fractions excluded.

The amount of each order, whether issued in the United States or in Victoria, must be expressed in letters in British money, and the equivalent in the money of the United States must also be shown in figures.

ARTICLE 2.

Commissions. The Victoria Post Office shall have power to fix the rates of commission on all money-orders issued in Victoria, and the Post Office Department of the United States shall have the same power in regard to all money-orders issued in the United States.

Rate of charges.

Each Office shall communicate to the other its tariff of charges, or rates of commission, which shall be established under this Convention, and these rates shall, in all cases, be payable in advance by the remitters, and shall not be repayable.

Exchange, suspension of.

It is understood, moreover, that each Office is authorized to suspend, temporarily, the exchange of money-orders in case the course of exchange, or any other circumstance should give rise to abuses, or, cause detriment to the postal revenue.

ARTICLE 3.

Commissions, disposition and payment of. Each country shall keep the commission charged on all money-orders within its jurisdiction, but shall pay to the other country three-fourths of one per cent. on the amount of such orders.

ARTICLE 4.

Designation of offices of exchange. The service of the Postal money-order system between the two countries, shall be performed exclusively by the agency of Offices of Exchange. On the part of the United States the Office of Exchange shall be San Francisco, California, and on the part of Victoria, Melbourne.

Orders drawn on offices of exchange only. Orders shall be drawn only on the authorized money-order offices of the respective countries; and each Postal Administration shall furnish to the other a List of such offices, and shall, from time to time, notify any addition to, or change in such list. Every order and advice must contain the name of the office and of the country of destination, and if relating to an order payable in the United States, the name of the State in which such office is situated.

Article 5.

No money-order shall be issued unless the applicant furnish the name and address of the person to whom the amount is to be paid, and his own name and address; or, the name of the firm, or company who are the remitters or payees, together with the addresses of each.

The money-orders, issued in either country, shall be forwarded by the remitters to the payees, at their own expense.

Article 6.

The advices of all money-orders issued upon Victoria by the post offices in the United States shall be sent to the Office of Exchange at San Francisco, where they shall be impressed with a dated stamp (Form “A”) showing the amount to be paid in Sterling money, and transmitted, by the next direct mail, to the Exchange Office at Melbourne, accompanied by a List, in duplicate, drawn upon the model of Form “B.”

The advices, on their arrival in Melbourne, shall be compared with the entries in the List, and, afterwards dispatched to the paying offices.

In like manner the advices of money-orders, drawn on the United States by postmasters in Victoria, shall be sent to the Exchange Office at Melbourne, shall there be impressed with a dated stamp (Form “A”) showing the amount to be paid in United States money, and be dispatched accompanied by a List, in duplicate (Form “C”) to the Office of Exchange at San Francisco by the next direct mail.

The advices, on their receipt at San Francisco, shall be compared with the entries in the List, and afterwards dispatched to the paying offices.

The advices of orders issued in the United States in the month of June, which may arrive at the Office of Exchange at San Francisco in the earlier days of the following month, shall be entered on Lists supplementary to that of the last day of the month of June, and in like manner, the advices of orders issued in Victoria in the month of June, which may arrive at the Exchange Office at Melbourne in the earlier days of the following month, shall be entered on Lists supplementary to that of the last day of the month of June.

Each Exchange Office shall certify its orders to the other in amounts designated in the denominations of the money both of the dispatching and receiving country, at the rate of conversion established by Article 13 of this Convention. The amounts, so converted, shall be checked at the receiving Office of Exchange.

Each Administration hereby undertakes and agrees to suspend the issue of money-orders a sufficient length of time before the sailing of each steamer which carries the Exchange Lists and advices, at those post offices in its own territory where such suspension may be necessary, in order to prevent the issue of orders which could be dispatched by the outgoing mail while the corresponding advices could not be certified by the Exchange Office in time to be conveyed by that mail.

The Exchange Lists and the accompanying advices shall invariably be sent by such steamers as carry the mails directly from San Francisco to Sydney, or from Sydney to San Francisco, as the case may be, and not via Loudon in any event.

Article 7.

The Lists, dispatched from each Office of Exchange, shall be numbered consecutively, commencing with No. 1 at the beginning of the month of July in each year; and the entries in these Lists shall also have consecutive numbers.
CONVENTION—VICTORIA. October 5, December 9, 1881.

Duplicates of lists to be kept. Of each List dispatched a duplicate shall be sent, which duplicate, after being verified by the receiving Office of Exchange, shall be returned to the dispatching Office of Exchange.

Corrections and errors. Each Office of Exchange shall promptly communicate to the other the correction of any simple error, which it may discover in the verification of the Lists.

Irregularities. When the Lists shall show irregularities, which the receiving Exchange Office shall not be able to rectify, that Office shall apply for an explanation to the dispatching Exchange Office, and such explanation shall be afforded without delay.

Duplicate lists to be furnished, when. Should any List fail to be received in due course, the dispatching Exchange Office, on receiving information to that effect, shall transmit, without delay, a duplicate of the List, duly certified as such.

Duplicate orders, issue of. Duplicate orders shall only be issued by the Postal Administration of the country, on which the original orders were drawn, and in conformity with the regulations established, or, to be established in that country.

Regulations governing payment. The orders, issued by each country on the other, shall be subject, as regards payment, to the regulations which govern the payment of inland orders of the country, on which they were drawn.

Possession of paid orders. The paid orders shall remain in the possession of the country of payment.

Repayment to remitters, how made. Repayment of orders to remitters shall not be made until an authorization for such repayment shall first have been obtained by the country of issue from the country where such orders are payable, and the amounts of the repaid orders shall be duly credited to the former country in the quarterly account. (Article 12.)

It is the province of each Postal Administration to determine the manner in which repayment to the remitters is to be made.

Unpaid orders for twelve months' void. Orders which shall not have been paid within twelve calendar months from the month of issue, shall become void, and the sums received shall accrue to, and be at the disposal of the country of origin.

The Victoria Office shall, therefore, enter to the credit of the United States, in the quarterly account, all money-orders entered in the Lists received from the United States, which remain unpaid at the end of the period specified. (Article 12.)

On the other hand the Post Office Department of the United States shall, at the close of each month, transmit to the Victoria Office, for entry in the quarterly account, a detailed statement of all orders, included in the Lists dispatched from the latter Office, which under this Article become void.

Quarterly accounts to be rendered. At the close of each quarter an account shall be prepared at the General Post Office of Victoria, showing in detail the totals of the Lists, containing the particulars of orders issued in either country during the quarter, and the balance resulting from such transactions.

Three copies of this account shall be transmitted to the Post Office Department of the United States, at Washington, and the balance, after proper verification, shall, if due by the General Post Office of Victoria, be paid to the General Post Office at London, to the credit of the Post.
Office Department of the United States on account of the exchange of money-orders between the United States and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; if due by the Post Office Department of the United States the balance shall likewise be paid to the General Post Office at London, to the credit of the General Post Office of Victoria.

If pending the settlement of an account, one of the two Postal Administrations shall ascertain that it owes the other a balance exceeding five hundred pounds (£500) sterling, the indebted Administrations shall promptly remit the approximate amount of such balance to the credit of the other.

This account shall be in accordance with the forms "D," "E," "F," and "G," annexed to this Convention.

ARTICLE 13.

Until the two Postal Administrations shall consent to an alteration, it is agreed that in all matters of account, relative to money-orders, which shall result from the execution of the present Convention, the pound sterling of Great Britain shall be considered as equivalent to four dollars eighty-seven cents of the money of the United States.

ARTICLE 14.

The Postal Administration in each country shall be authorized to adopt any additional rules, (if not repugnant to the foregoing,) for the greater security against fraud, or, for the better working of the system generally.

All such additional rules, however, must be promptly communicated to the Post Office of the other country.

ARTICLE 15.

This present Convention shall take effect on the first day of January, 1882, and shall continue in force until twelve months after either of the contracting parties shall have notified to the other its intention to terminate it.

Done in duplicate and signed in Washington on the ninth day of December, in the year of our Lord 1881, and in Melbourne on the fifth day of October, in the year of our Lord 1881.

THOMAS L. JAMES,
Postmaster General of the United States.

HENRY BOLTON,
Postmaster General of Victoria.

I hereby approve the foregoing convention, and in testimony thereof, I have caused the seal of the United States to be hereto affixed.

Auditor of the Treasury for the Post-Office Department.
Convention between the Post-Office Department of the United States of America and the Post-Office Department of the Colony of New Zealand, concerning the exchange of money-orders. Done in duplicate and signed in Washington December 6, 1881; and in Wellington October 8, 1881.

The Post-Office Department of the United States of America and the Post-Office Department of the Colony of New Zealand, being desirous of establishing a system of exchange of money-orders between the two countries, the undersigned, duly authorized for that purpose, have agreed upon the following articles:

ARTICLE 1.

There shall be a regular exchange of money-orders between the two countries.

The maximum of each order is fixed at £10 sterling, when issued in New Zealand, and, when issued in the United States, at the equivalent, in sterling money, of $50 in the money of the latter country, converted at the rate fixed by article 13 of the present Convention.

No money-order shall include a fractional part of a penny, or, of a cent.

The amount of each order, whether issued in the United States or in New Zealand, must be expressed in letters in British money, and the equivalent in the money of the United States must also be shown in figures.

ARTICLE 2.

The New Zealand Post-Office Department shall have power to fix the rates of commission on all money-orders issued in New Zealand, and the Post-Office Department of the United States shall have the same power in regard to all money-orders issued in the United States.

Each office shall communicate to the other its tariff of charges, or rates of commission, which shall be established under this Convention, and these rates shall, in all cases, be payable in advance by the remitters, and shall not be repayable.

It is understood, moreover, that each office is authorized to suspend, temporarily, the exchange of money-orders, in case the course of exchange, or any other circumstance should give rise to abuses, or, cause detriment to the postal revenue.

ARTICLE 3.

Each country shall keep the commission charged on all money-orders within its jurisdiction, but shall pay to the other country three fourths of one per cent. on the amount of such orders.

ARTICLE 4.

The service of the postal money-order system between the two countries, shall be performed exclusively by the agency of Offices of Exchange. On the part of the United States the Office of Exchange shall be San Francisco, California, and on the part of New Zealand, Auckland.

Orders shall be drawn only on the authorized money-order offices of the respective countries; and each Postal Administration shall furnish to the other a list of such offices, and shall, from time to time, notify any addition to, or change in such list. Every order and advice must contain the name of the office and of the country of destination, and if relating to an order payable in the United States, the name of the State in which such office is situated.
ARTICLE 5.

No money-order shall be issued unless the applicant furnish the name and address of the person to whom the amount is to be paid, and his own name and address; or the name of the firm or company who are the remitters or payees, together with the addresses of each.

The money-orders, issued in either country, shall be forwarded by the remitters to the payees, at their own expense.

ARTICLE 6.

The advices of all money-orders issued upon New Zealand by the post-offices in the United States shall be sent to the Office of Exchange at San Francisco, where they shall be impressed with a dated stamp (Form "A") showing the amount to be paid in sterling money, and transmitted, by the next direct mail, to the Exchange Office at Auckland, accompanied by a List, in duplicate, drawn upon the model of Form "B."

The advices, on their arrival in Auckland, shall be compared with the entries in the List, and, afterwards dispatched to the paying offices.

In like manner the advices of money-orders, drawn on the United States by postmasters in New Zealand, shall be sent to the Exchange Office at Auckland, shall there be impressed with a dated stamp (Form "A") showing the amount to be paid in United States money, and be dispatched accompanied by a List, in duplicate, (Form "C") to the Office of Exchange at San Francisco by the next direct mail.

The advices, on their receipt at San Francisco, shall be compared with the entries in the List, and, afterwards dispatched to the paying offices.

The advices of orders issued in the United States in the month of June, which may arrive at the Office of Exchange at San Francisco in the earlier days of the following month, shall be entered on Lists supplementary to that of the last day of the month of June, and in like manner, the advices of orders issued in New Zealand in the month of June, which may arrive at the Exchange Office at Auckland in the earlier days of the following month shall be entered on Lists supplementary to that of the last day of the month of June.

Each Exchange Office shall certify its orders to the other in amounts designated in the denominations of the money, both of the dispatching and receiving country, at the rate of conversion established by Article 13 of this Convention. The amounts, so converted, shall be checked at the receiving Office of Exchange.

Each Administration hereby undertakes and agrees to suspend the issue of money-orders a sufficient length of time before the sailing of each steamer which carries the Exchange Lists and advices, at those post-offices in its own territory where such suspension may be necessary, in order to prevent the issue of orders which could be dispatched by the outgoing mail while the corresponding advices could not be certified by the Exchange Office in time to be conveyed by that mail.

The Exchange Lists and the accompanying advices shall invariably be sent by such steamers as carry the mails directly from San Francisco to Auckland, or from Auckland to San Francisco, as the case may be, and not via London in any event.

ARTICLE 7.

The Lists dispatched from each Office of Exchange, shall be numbered consecutively, commencing with No. 1 at the beginning of the month of July in each year; and the entries in these Lists shall also have consecutive numbers.

Of each List dispatched a duplicate shall be sent, which duplicate, after being verified by the receiving Office of Exchange, shall be returned to the dispatching Office of Exchange.
Each Office of Exchange shall promptly communicate to the other the correction of any simple error, which it may discover in the verification of the Lists.

When the Lists shall show irregularities, which the receiving Exchange Office shall not be able to rectify, that office shall apply for an explanation to the dispatching Exchange Office, and such explanation shall be afforded without delay.

Should any List fail to be received in due course, the dispatching Exchange Office, on receiving information to that effect shall transmit, without delay, a duplicate of the List, duly certified as such.

ARTICLE 8.

Duplicate orders shall only be issued by the Postal Administration of the country, on which the original orders were drawn, and in conformity with the regulations established, or, to be established in that country.

ARTICLE 9.

The orders, issued by each country on the other, shall be subject, as regards payment, to the regulations which govern the payment of inland orders of the country on which they were drawn. The paid orders shall remain in the possession of the country of payment.

ARTICLE 10.

Repayment of orders to remitters shall not be made until an authorization for such repayment shall first have been obtained by the country of issue from the country where such orders are payable, and the amounts of the repaid orders shall be duly credited to the former country in the quarterly account (Article 12.)

It is the province of each Postal Administration to determine the manner in which repayment to the remitters is to be made.

ARTICLE 11.

Orders which shall not have been paid within twelve calendar months from the month of issue shall become void, and the sums received shall accrue to, and be at the disposal of the country of origin.

The New Zealand Office shall, therefore, enter to the credit of the United States, in the quarterly account, all money-orders entered in the Lists received from the United States, which remain unpaid at the end of the period specified. (Article 12.)

On the other hand the Post-Office Department of the United States shall, at the close of each month, transmit to the New Zealand Office, for entry in the quarterly account, a detailed statement of all orders, included in the Lists dispatched from the latter Office, which under this Article become void.

ARTICLE 12.

At the close of each quarter an account shall be prepared at the Postmaster-General's Office, Wellington, showing in detail the totals of the Lists, containing the particulars of orders issued in either country during the quarter, and the balance resulting from such transactions.

Three copies of this account shall be transmitted to the Post-Office Department of the United States, at Washington, and the balance, after proper verification, shall, if due by the Post-Office Department of New Zealand, be paid to the General Post-Office at London, to the credit of the Post-Office Department of the United States on account of the exchange of money-orders between the United States and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; if due by the Post-Office Department of the United States, the balance shall likewise be paid to the General Post-Office at London, to the credit of the Post-Office Department of New Zealand.

If pending the settlement of an account, one of the two Postal Administrations shall ascertain that it owes the other a balance exceeding five hundred pounds (£500) sterling, the indebted Administration shall promptly remit the approximate amount of such balance to the credit of the other.

This account shall be in accordance with the forms "D," "E," "F," and "G," annexed to this Convention.

ARTICLE 13.

Until the two Postal Administrations shall consent to an alteration, it is agreed that in all matters of account relative to money-orders which shall result from the execution of the present Convention the pound sterling of Great Britain shall be considered as equivalent to four dollars, eighty-seven cents of the money of the United States.

ARTICLE 14.

The Postal Administration in each country shall be authorized to adopt any additional rules, (if not repugnant to the foregoing), for the greater security against fraud, or, for the better working of the system, generally. All such additional rules, however, must be promptly communicated to the Post Office of the other country.

ARTICLE 15.

This present Convention shall take effect on the first day of January, 1882, and shall continue in force until twelve months after either of the contracting parties shall have notified to the other its intention to terminate it.

Done in duplicate and signed in Washington on the sixth day of December, in the year of our Lord, 1881, and in Wellington on the eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord, 1881.

Auditor of the Treasury for the Post-Office Department.
Oct. 11, 1881.

Convention between the Post-Office Department of the United States of America and the General Post-Office of the Island of Jamaica, concerning an Exchange of money-orders. Done in duplicate and signed in Washington, October 26, 1881; and in Kingston, October 11, 1881.

Contracting parties.

The Post-Office Department of the United States of America and the General Post-Office of the Island of Jamaica being desirous of establishing a system of exchange of money-orders between the two countries, the undersigned, duly authorized for that purpose, have agreed upon the following articles:

ARTICLE 1.

Exchange of Postal money-orders.

Maximum.

The maximum of each order is fixed at Ten pounds (£10) sterling when issued in Jamaica; and when issued in the United States at Fifty dollars ($50) in the money of the latter country.

Fractions excluded.

No money-order shall include a fractional part of a penny, or of a cent.

Amounts, how expressed.

The amount of each order must be expressed in letters in the money of the country in which payment is to be made, and the equivalent in the money of the issuing country must also be shown in figures, at the rate of conversion fixed by Article 13 of the present convention.

ARTICLE 2.

Commissions, how rated.

The Jamaica Post-Office shall have power to fix the rates of commission on all money-orders issued in Jamaica, and the Post-Office Department of the United States shall have the same power in regard to all money-orders issued in the United States.

Each office shall communicate from time to time to the other its tariff of charges, or rates of commission, which shall be established under this convention, and these rates shall, in all cases, be payable in advance by the remitters and shall not be repayable.

Suspension of issue authorized.

It is understood, moreover, that each office is authorized to suspend, temporarily, the exchange of money-orders, in case the course of exchange, or any other circumstance should give rise to abuses or cause detriment to the postal revenue.

ARTICLE 3.

Commissions, disposition and payment of.

Each country shall keep the commission charged on all money-orders within its jurisdiction, but shall pay to the other country three-fourths of one per cent. on the amount of such orders.

ARTICLE 4.

Exchange offices designated.

The service of the Postal money-order system between the two countries, shall be performed exclusively by the agency of Offices of Exchange. On the part of the United States the Office of Exchange shall be New York, and on the part of Jamaica, Kingston.

Orders, how drawn.

Orders shall be drawn only on the authorized money-order offices of the respective countries, and each Postal Administration shall furnish to the other a List of such offices, and shall, from time to time, notify any addition to or change in such list.

Advices.

Every order and advice must contain the name of the Office and of the country of destination, and, if relating to an order payable in the United States, the name of the State in which such office is situated.
CONVENTION—JAMAICA. OCTOBER 11, 26, 1881. 861

ARTICLE 5.

No money-order shall be issued, unless the applicant furnish the name and address of the person to whom the amount is to be paid, and his own name and address, or the name of the firm, or company, who are the remitters or payees, together with the addresses of each.

The money-orders issued in either country shall be forwarded by the remitters to the payees at their own expense.

ARTICLE 6.

The advices of all money-orders issued upon Jamaica by the Post Offices in the United States shall be sent to the Office of Exchange at New York, where they shall be examined, and, if found correct, impressed with the dated stamp of that office, and transmitted, by the next mail, to the exchange office at Kingston, accompanied by a List, in duplicate, drawn upon the model of Form "A."

The advices, on their arrival at Kingston, shall be compared with the entries in the list, and afterwards, despatched to the paying offices.

In like manner the advices of money orders, drawn on the United States by Postmasters in Jamaica, shall be sent to the Exchange Office at Kingston, shall there be examined, and, if found correct, impressed with the dated stamp of that Office, and be despatched accompanied by a list, in duplicate, (Form "B") to the Office of Exchange at New York by the next mail.

The advices, on their receipt at New York, shall be compared with the entries in the list, and afterwards despatched to the paying offices.

The advices of orders issued in the United States in the month of September, which may arrive at the Office of Exchange at New York in the earlier days of the following month, shall be entered on lists supplementary to that of the last day of the month of September, and, in like manner, the advices of orders issued in Jamaica in the month of June, which may arrive at the Exchange Office at Kingston in the earlier days of the following month, shall be entered on lists supplementary to that of the last day of the month of June.

Each Exchange Office shall certify its orders to the other, on the lists in amounts designated in the denominations of the money both of the despatching and receiving country, at the rate of conversion established by Article 13 of this Convention. The amounts so converted shall be checked at the receiving office of Exchange.

ARTICLE 7.

The lists despatched from each office of Exchange shall be numbered consecutively, commencing with No. 1 at the beginning of the month of July in each year; and the entries in these lists shall also have consecutive numbers.

Of each list despatched a duplicate shall be sent, which duplicate, after being verified by the receiving Office of Exchange shall be returned to the despatching Office of Exchange.

Each Office of Exchange shall promptly communicate to the other, the correction of any simple error, which it may discover in the verification of the lists.

When the lists shall show irregularities, which the receiving Office of Exchange shall not be able to rectify, that office shall apply for an explanation to the despatching Exchange-Office, and such explanation shall be afforded without delay.

Should any list fail to be received in due course the despatching Exchange Office, on receiving information to that effect, shall transmit, without delay, a duplicate of the list, duly certified as such.
Duplicate orders, when issued.

Duplicate orders shall only be issued by the Postal Administration of the Country on which the original orders were drawn, and in conformity with the regulations established, or to be established in that Country.

Repayment to remitters, how made.

The orders, issued by each Country on the other, shall be subject, as regards payment, to the regulations which govern the payment of Money-Orders in the country on which they were drawn.

The paid orders shall remain in the possession of the Country of payment.

Orders unpaid for twelve months, void.

Repayment of orders to remitters shall not be made until an authorization for such repayment shall first have been obtained by the Country of issue from the Country where such orders are payable, and the amounts of the repaid orders shall be duly credited to the former country in the quarterly account. (Article 12.)

It is the province of each Postal Administration to determine the manner in which repayment to remitters is to be made.

Orders which shall not have been paid within twelve calendar months from the month of issue shall become void and the sums received shall accrue to, and be at the disposal of the country of origin.

The Jamaica Office shall, therefore, enter to the credit of the United States, in the quarterly account all money-orders entered in the lists received from the United States, which remain unpaid at the end of the period specified. (Article 12.)

On the other hand, the Post Office Department of the United States shall, at the close of each month transmit to the Jamaica Office, for entry in the quarterly account, a detailed statement of all orders, included in the lists despatched from the latter office, which, under this Article become void.

At the close of each quarter an account shall be prepared at the General Post Office of Jamaica, showing in detail the totals of the lists containing the particulars of orders issued in either Country during the quarter, and the balance resulting from such transactions.

Three copies of this account shall be transmitted to the Post Office Department of the United States at Washington, and the balance, after proper verification shall, if due by the Post Office Department of the United States, be paid at Kingston, but, if due by the Jamaica Post Office, it shall be paid at New York, and in the money of the country to which the payment is made.

Payments may also be made in Money, or by Drafts or by Bills of Exchange on points other than Kingston or New York, by mutual agreement between the two Departments.

If, pending the settlement of an account one of the two Postal Administrations shall ascertain that it owes the other a balance exceeding Five thousand dollars ($5,000) the indebted administration shall promptly remit the approximate amount of such balance to the credit of the other; but nothing herein contained shall prevent such administration from remitting a lesser amount than Five thousand dollars ($5,000) at discretion.

This account, and the letters which accompany such intermediate remittances, shall be in accordance with the forms "C," "D," "E," "F," "G." and "G" annexed to this Convention.
ARTICLE 13.

Until the two Postal Administrations shall consent to an alteration it shall be agreed that in all matters of account, relative to money-orders, which shall result from the execution of this convention, the pound sterling of Great Britain shall be considered as equivalent to four dollars, eighty-seven cents of the money of the United States.

ARTICLE 14.

The Postal Administration in each Country shall be authorized to adopt any additional rules (if not repugnant to the forgoing) for greater security against fraud, or for the better working of the system generally. All such additional rules, however, must be promptly communicated to the Post Office Department of the other Country.

ARTICLE 15.

This present convention shall take effect on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and shall continue in force until twelve months after either of the contracting parties shall have notified to the other its intention to terminate it.

Done in duplicate and signed in Washington on the twenty-sixth day of October in the year of our Lord 1881, and in Kingston on the eleventh day of October in the year of our Lord 1881.

(Sig.) THOMAS L. JAMES, Postmaster General of the United States.

(Sig.) A. MUSGRAVE, Governor of Jamaica.

I hereby approve the foregoing Convention and in testimony thereof I have caused the seal of the United States to be hereeto affixed.

(Sig.) CHESTER A. ARTHUR.

By the President:

(Sig.) JAMES G. BLAINE,

Secretary of State.

Superintendent Money Order System.
Convention for the Exchange of Postal Money Orders between the United States of America and Switzerland, concluded October 18, and November 30, 1881.

Convention concluded between the Post-Office Department of the United States of America and the Postal Administration of Switzerland, of the 18th October and 30th November, 1881.

The undersigned have concluded the following convention for the exchange of postal orders between the United States of America and Switzerland, subject to the ratification of proper authority, and in lieu of the Convention of the 12th of October, 1867, and of the Article additional thereto of the 23rd of February, 1872.

ARTICLE 1.

There is established between the United States of America and Switzerland a regular exchange of postal orders. This exchange is to be effected by the Exchange Offices which each of the two Administrations shall have designated for this purpose, and which Exchange Offices shall notify each other by means of lists of orders for payment.

ARTICLE 2.

The amount of the orders shall always be expressed in the money of the country where payment is to be made.

ARTICLE 3.

1. No order payable in the United States shall exceed the amount of fifty dollars, and no order payable in Switzerland shall exceed an amount in francs equivalent to that sum

2. Fractions of a cent or of a centime, are not to be introduced into the amount of an order.

ARTICLE 4.

Payment of the amount of orders is to be effected in money of metal.
lie value of the country of destination.
This payment can also be effected in either country in paper money which is a legal tender therein. In that event, account is always to be taken of the difference of value, if there be any.

ARTICLE 5.

1. Each of the two Administrations is at liberty to fix at any time the rate of conversion of the amounts, payment of which is to be made in the other country.
2. The two Administrations will communicate to each other the rate of exchange or of conversion fixed by them, as well as the changes which they may make therein.

ARTICLE 6.

1. Each of the two Administrations shall fix the fees charged upon orders issued in its own country and payable in the other.
2. They will communicate to each other the fees which they shall have established and the changes which they may subsequently make therein.

ARTICLE 7.

The Postal Administration by which the money orders are issued shall credit the Administration of the country of payment with the total amount of the orders which it has certified to the latter, in addition to three fourths of one per cent on the difference between the total amount of the orders certified and the amount of void and repaid orders.

ARTICLE 8.

1. The sums converted into postal orders are guaranteed to the remitters until they shall have been regularly paid to the payees or to their representatives of the latter, or shall have been refunded to the said remitters.
2. The sums received by each administration in exchange for postal orders, the amounts of which shall not have been claimed by the persons entitled to payment before the expiration of the periods fixed by the laws or the regulations of the country of origin, become the absolute property of the Administration which has issued the orders.

Article 9.

At the end of each quarter the Swiss Postal Administration shall prepare an account comprising all sums paid by the Offices of the two countries, and the credits to be given under each head in conformity with Article 7 above mentioned, as well as a statement of the orders refunded by each Administration.

Article 10.

1. The Postal Administration of the United States shall examine this account, correct it, if necessary, and if it is found to be the debtor, shall transmit the balance due within fifteen days, at the latest, after its receipt to the Administration of the Swiss Posts.

If the account shows a balance to the credit of the Administration of the United States of America the Postal Administration of Switzerland shall transmit the amount thereof to the former within fifteen days at the latest after receipt of notice of acceptance or of correction of the account.

2. The balance must always be paid in the money of metallic value of the country to which it is found due, by means of a bill of exchange on Basle, or on New York as the case may be.

3. The expenses which may result from the payment of balances, must always be borne by the Administration by which payment is made.

Article 11.

1. To ascertain the amount to be paid, the smaller credit is to be converted into the money of the country which has the larger credit, and is to be deducted from the latter credit. This conversion is to be effected according to the average rate of exchange at New York, during the quarter to which the account pertains, if the balance is par les lois et règlements du pays d'origine, deviennent la propriété absolue de l'Administration qui en a émis les mandats.

Article 9.

À la fin de chaque trimestre l'Administration des postes suisses dresse un compte comprenant toutes les sommes payées par les bureaux des deux pays, et les bonifications à effectuer de leur chef conformément à l'article 7 sus-mentionné, de même que l'état des mandats remboursés par chaque Administration.

Article 10.

1. L'Administration des postes des États-Unis examine ce compte, le rectifie s'il y a lieu, et si elle se trouve être débitrice, transmet le solde dû, dans le délai de quinze jours au plus tard, après la réception du compte à l'Administration des postes suisses.

Si le compte présente un solde en faveur de l'Administration des États-Unis de l'Amérique l'Administration des postes suisses en transmet le montant à la première dans le délai de quinze jours au plus tard, après réception de l'avis d'acceptation, soit de rectification du compte.

2. Le solde doit toujours être payé dans la monnaie métallique du pays au profit duquel il ressort, au moyen d'une lettre de change sur Bâle ou sur New-York, suivant le cas.

3. Les frais qui peuvent résulter du paiement des soldes sont toujours supportés par l'Administration qui effectue le paiement.
to the credit of Switzerland, and according to the average rate of exchange at Berne, during such quarter if the balance is to the credit of the Postal Administration of the United States.

2. The Administration which is to make payment shall transmit to the other Administration within five days, at the latest, after the expiration of the quarter a certified statement of the rate of exchange for every business day of the quarter.

ARTICLE 12.

Whenever, during the course of a quarter, it is found that the amount of orders drawn upon either of the two Administrations exceeds by five thousand dollars, or twenty-five thousand francs the amount of orders drawn upon the other Administration, the latter shall send to the former, the proximate amount of the ascertained difference, in a round sum, as a payment on account, by means of bills of exchange under the conditions prescribed in Article 10.

ARTICLE 13.

1. The form and the conditions of issue of postal orders in each country are subject to the regulations in force in the country of origin.

2. The form as well as the conditions for payment of postal orders, including those relating to the suspension of payment, the renewing of orders, the issue of duplicates, and other matters concerning payment are subject to the regulations in force in the country of destination.

ARTICLE 14.

1. Each Administration is authorized to suspend, temporarily the interchange of postal orders, whenever the course of exchange, or any other circumstance may give rise to abuses, or cause detriment to the revenues.

2. Notice of action of this nature must be communicated immediately to the other Administration, and, if deemed necessary by means of the telegraph.
ARTICLE 15.

The Postal Administrations of the two countries shall have power, by mutual agreement, to arrange detailed regulations for the execution of the present Convention, and to modify them, at any time, according to the requirements of the service.

ARTICLE 16.

1. The present Convention shall take effect on the first day of January 1882. It shall remain in force until the expiration of a period of one year after the date upon which one of the two contracting Administrations shall have notified the other of its intention to terminate it.

2. When the present Convention takes effect that of the 12th of October 1867, above mentioned as well as the Article of the 23d of February 1872, supplementary thereby shall be abrogated.

Execution in duplicate and signed at Berne on the eighteenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty one, and at Washington, on the thirtieth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty one.

(Sig) FRANK HATTON.

Acting Postmaster General of the United States.

[Seal of the Post Office Department of the United States.]

Ratified the present convention conformément à l'autorisation du Conseil fédéral, du 1. Novembre 1881.

Berne, le 4 Novembre 1881.

Le Conseiller fédéral Chef du Département des Postes et Chemins de fer.

(Sig) BAVIER.

I hereby approve the foregoing Convention, and in testimony thereof I have caused the seal of the United States to be hereto affixed.

(Sig) CHESTER A. ARTHUR.

By the President.

(Sig.) JAMES G. BLAINE

Secretary of State.

WASHINGTON, December 2nd, 1881.
Regulations of Detail, Forms, and Order for the execution of the Convention for the exchange of Postal Money Orders between the United States and Switzerland, concluded October 18, and November 30, 1881.

Detailed regulations, for the execution of the Convention concluded between the Postal Administration of the United States of America, and that of Switzerland, concerning the exchange of postal orders of the 18th of October and 30th of November 1881.

In pursuance of the terms of Article 15 of the Convention of the 18th of October and 30th of November, 1881, concerning the exchange of postal orders, and in lieu of the Regulation of the 2nd and 26th July 1869 and of the provisions supplementary thereto of the 23rd of February 1872, the undersigned have agreed upon the following rules of action:

ARTICLE 1.

In conformity with Article 1 of the Convention the money-order office at Basle is designated as the Exchange Office on the part of Switzerland, and the international money-order office at New York, as the Exchange Office on the part of the United States.

ARTICLE 2.

For the lists by means of which the Exchange Offices are, in accordance with Article 1 of the Convention to notify each other of the orders to be paid, the money-order office at Basle shall make use of form "A" hereto annexed, and the international money-order office at New York, of the form "B" hereto annexed.

ARTICLE 3.

1. The lists are to be filled out in accordance with their printed headings with copying ink, which is also to be used in completing the letter of transmittal upon the first page thereof, and they are to be transmitted in duplicate by each outgoing mail, that is to say, by all means of transmission that may be used for outgoing mail.

En exécution des dispositions de l’article 15 de la convention du 18 Octobre et 30 Novembre 1881, sur l’échange des mandats-poste, et en remplacement du règlement des 2 et 26 Juillet 1869 et des dispositions supplémentaires du 23 Février 1872, les soussignés sont convenus des mesures d’exécution suivantes:

ARTICLE 1er.

Conformément à l’article 1er de la Convention, le bureau des mandats de Bâle est désigné comme bureau d’échange de la part de la Suisse, et le bureau international des mandats de New York, comme bureau d’échange pour les États-Unis.

ARTICLE 2.

Pour les listes au moyen desquelles les bureaux d’échange, ont, à teneur de l’article 1er de la Convention à se communiquer réciproquement les mandats à payer, le bureau des mandats de Bâle se sert du formulaire "A," ci-annexé, et le bureau international des mandats de New York du formulaire "B" également ci-annexé.

ARTICLE 3.

1. Les listes sont remplies conformément aux indications imprimées, au moyen d’encre à copier, dont on se servira également pour compléter la lettre de transmission qui se trouve à la première page, et elles sont transmises en duplicata par chaque dépêche partante, c'estmails fixed by schedule which are conveyed between the offices of Basle and of New York. Should it happen, at the time of dispatching any mail that there are no money-orders to be certified for payment, a list must, nevertheless be sent in that mail. But in such event the dispatching Exchange Office will write across the list, the words: "No money-orders."

2. The lists shall bear consecutive numbers, commencing with the calendar year and ending with it.

3. The orders inscribed in the lists shall also be consecutively numbered, the series of numbers to commence with each month on the part of Switzerland, and with each calendar year on the part of the United States.

4. The orders issued in the United States during the Quarter ending June 30th of each year, which may arrive at the Office of Exchange at New York in the following quarter, shall be entered on lists supplementary to the last list of the month of June, and, in like manner, the orders issued in Switzerland during the quarter ending June 30th of each year which may arrive at the Exchange Office of Basle in the following quarter shall be entered on lists supplementary to the last list of the month of June.

ARTICLE 4.

Each list is to be carefully examined by the receiving office, and, if the latter finds that it contains manifest errors it will correct them with red ink. That office will then fill up the columns intended for its use and return one of the copies of the list to the sending office. In the letter of transmittal of the next list which it has to send, the receiving office above mentioned will acknowledge the receipt of the list in question to the office which sent it. The corrections made are always to be mentioned with explanations at the end of the letter of transmittal.
ARTICLE 5.

When the list contains errors or irregularities which cannot be corrected without consultation with the Exchange Office of the country of origin, the Exchange office of the country of destination shall request explanations from the sending Exchange Office at the same time that it acknowledges the receipt of the list. The explanations requested are to be furnished as promptly as possible. Meantime the payment of orders in regard to which errors have been discovered is to be suspended.

ARTICLE 6.

If it appears from the number of the list received that the preceding list has failed to arrive, the receiving office shall apply for such list by the first mail. The sending office, as soon as it is informed of the matter shall send, forthwith a duplicate of the missing list.

ARTICLE 7.

For the orders entered in the lists, the two Exchange Offices shall issue inland postal orders in accordance with the regulations in force in the premises in the country of destination, and with the provisions of Article 13 of the Convention.

ARTICLE 8.

1. For the quarterly account provided for by Article 9 of the Convention the Swiss Postal Administration shall make use of form "C" hereto annexed.

2. This account is to be made out upon the basis of the lists accepted or corrected by the receiving Offices of Exchange. It is always to be prepared promptly, and transmitted to the Postal Administration of the United States as soon as all the lists from the international money-order office of New York bearing date of the quarter to which it pertains shall have reached the money-order office of Basle, and all the duplicates of the lists of the same quarter dispatched by the latter office, shall have been returned to it from New York. If it be possi-
Notice of payment to be given.

1. The Postal Administration of the country of origin shall be duly notified of all orders which shall not have been paid to the respective payees in the country of destination, within one year after the date of the receipt of the list, and, after an agreement shall have been reached in regard to these orders they shall be entered in the quarterly accounts, in order that the amounts thereof may be restored to the remitters in conformity with Article 9 of the Convention.

2. In like manner, there shall be embraced in this account, postal orders, application for repayment of which has been made to, and permission therefor received from, the country of destination in conformity with Article 9 of the Convention.

Triplicate accounts.

1. The quarterly account is always to be transmitted in triplicate to the Postal Administration of the United States. If this account shows a balance in favor of the Swiss Postal Administration two copies shall be returned to the latter, bearing an acknowledgment of the acceptance of the balance. In case the balance is in favor of the Postal Administration of the United States, the latter will retain two copies, and send back but one.

2. When the balance, found to be due the Swiss Postal Administration shall have been paid, the latter will affix its acknowledgment of receipt to one of the two copies, which have been returned to it, and will send it back as a voucher to the Postal Administration of the United States of America.

3. In case the balance is in favor of the latter, it will, on receipt of the amount of such balance, affix its acknowledgment of receipt to one of the two copies of the account, which it has retained, and will transmit the same, as a voucher, to the Swiss Office.

Payment of balances to be acknowledged.

1. L'Administration des postes du pays d'origine est dûment avisée de tous les mandats qui n'ont pas été payés à leur bénéficiaire, dans le pays de destination, dans le délai d'un an à partir du jour de la réception de la liste. Après que les deux Administrations se sont mises d'accord à leur égard, ces mandats sont compris dans les comptes trimestriels, afin que leur montant soit restitué à leur expéditeur, conformément à ce que prescrit l'article 9, de la convention.

2. De même, on comprend dans ce compte les mandats dont la restitution a été réclamée et autorisée par le pays de destination, conformément à ce que prescrit l'article 9 de la convention.

1. Le compte trimestriel doit toujours être transmis en triple expédition à l'Administration des postes des États-Unis. Si ce compte présente un solde en faveur de l'Administration des postes suisses, il en est renvoyé à celle-ci deux expéditions, munies de l'acceptation du résultat. Dans le cas où le solde est en faveur de l'Administration des postes des États-Unis, celle-ci retient deux expéditions et n'en renvoie qu'une seule.

2. Lorsque le solde dû à l'Administration des postes suisses a été payé, celle-ci appose son accusé de réception sur l'une des deux expéditions qui lui ont été renvoyées et la renvoie à titre de quittance à l'Administration des postes des États-Unis d'Amérique.

3. Dans le cas où le solde est en faveur de cette dernière, elle joint dès qu'elle a reçu le montant que comporte ce solde, son accusé de réception à l'une des deux expéditions du compte qu'elle a retenues, et la transmet, comme quittance, à l'Administration Suisse.
ARTICLE 11.

Les paiements de soldes et d’acomptes prévus par les articles 10 et 12 de la Convention sont effectués au moyen de lettres de change, qui, lorsque le solde est en faveur de l’Administration des postes suisses sont tirées sur Bâle payables au Directeur Général des postes à Berne. Lorsque le solde est au crédit de l’Administration des postes des États Unis, les lettres de change sont tirées sur New York, payable au Maitre Général des postes à Washington.

PAYMENT ON ACCOUNT PENDING SETTLEMENTS.

ARTICLE 12.

1. Pour obtenir le solde du compte trimestriel, la conversion d’une monnaie d’uns l’autre se fait conformément aux dispositions de l’article 11 de la Convention. À cet effet l’Administration débitrice transmet à l’Administration créditrice un état tabulaire certifié des cours du change à Berne ou à New York, suivant le cas, cotés pendant tous les jours ouvrables du trimestre précédent.

On établira le cours moyen du trimestre qui servira de base pour la conversion de la somme moins élevée dans la monnaie de l’autre Administration, en divisant le total, tant des offres que des demandes par le nombre des annotations; en suite on additionnera les deux moyennes obtenues et on prendra la moitié du total qui représentera ainsi le cours moyen du trimestre.

ARTICLE 12.

1. For the purpose of balancing the quarterly account the conversion of one money into the other shall be made in compliance with the terms of Article 11 of the Convention. To that end the debtor Administration shall forward to the creditor Administration a certified tabular statement of the rates of exchange at Berne or at New York, as the case may be, quoted each business day during the preceding quarter.

2. For the said “Tabular Statement” the Swiss Office will use form “D” hereunto annexed, entering thereon the quotations of Bid and Asked made at Berne for “sight” exchange on New York as published by the “Union of Bernese Banks.” The Office of the United States of America will use form “E” hereunto annexed, stating thereon the lowest and highest quotations made at New York for “sight” exchange on Switzerland and published by the “New York Journal of Commerce.”

3. The average rate for the quarter shall then be established and serve as a basis for the conversion of the smaller sum into money of the other Administration by dividing the totals of the columns headed “Bid” and “Asked” and the totals of the columns headed “Lowest” and “Highest” by the number of quotations; the two averages thus obtained are then to be added and the half of this sum shall represent the average rate for the quarter.

ARTICLE 11.

Payments of balances and payments on account made in pursuance of Articles 10 and 12 of the Convention, are to be effected by means of bills of exchange, which, when the balance is in favor of the Swiss Postal Administration, are to be drawn on Basle, payable to the Director General of Posts at Berne. When the balance is to the credit of the Postal Administration of the United States, the bills of exchange are to be drawn upon New York, payable to the Postmaster General at Washington.
CONVENTION—SWITZERLAND. Oct. 18, Nov. 30, 1881.

ARTICLE 13.

The Swiss Postal Administration undertakes to serve as intermediary for the exchange of postal orders from the United States to be paid in any European Country with which that Administration maintains an exchange of Postal orders, and with which the postal Administration of the United States does not have such exchange, as well as for the exchange of orders from any such European country destined for payment in the United States.

ARTICLE 14.

Orders from the United States of America for the countries in question are to be entered by the international money-order office of New York upon the lists of Basle with an exact statement of names and localities, in the same manner as if they were destined for Switzerland, and the Exchange Office at Basle will issue for them international orders, in the same manner as if they had originated at Basle, but under the condition of a deduction from the amounts entered in the lists of the ordinary fee for such orders. A list of the fees charged in such cases shall be furnished to the Postal Administration of the United States.

ARTICLE 15.

As regards the orders in transit through Switzerland from other Countries for the United States of America, these orders are to be entered upon the lists for New York in the same manner as if they had been issued in Switzerland, and the Exchange Office of New York will treat them in the same manner as Swiss orders.

ARTICLE 16.

In addition to the claims mentioned in article 9 concerning the repayment of orders, the two Administrations agree to take charge of other claims in relation to orders exchanged between Switzerland and the United States; for example, in regard to changes of name, places of payment, requests.
CONVENTION—SWITZERLAND. Oct. 18, Nov. 30, 1881.

for information concerning payments which have been made, etc., and to dispose of them in accordance with the regulations in force in each country respectively.

ARTICLE 17.

1. The present Detailed Regulations shall take effect at the same time as the Convention of the 18th of October and 30th of November 1881, and shall continue in force as long as the latter.

2. When these Regulations shall take effect, those of the 2nd and 26th July 1869, as well as the Articles supplementary thereto of the 23rd February 1872, shall be abrogated.

Done in duplicate and signed at Berne the eighteenth day of October 1881, and at Washington the thirtieth day of November 1881.

Convention between the Post Office Department of the United States of America and the General Post Office of the Colony of New South Wales, Australia, concerning the exchange of money orders. Done in duplicate and signed in Washington December 6, 1881, and in Sidney October 29, 1881.

The Post Office Department of the United States of America and the General Post Office of the Colony of New South Wales, Australia, being desirous of establishing a system of exchange of money-orders between the two countries, the undersigned, duly authorized for that purpose, have agreed upon the following Articles:

ARTICLE 1.

There shall be a regular exchange of money orders between the two countries.

The maximum of each order is fixed at £10 sterling, when issued in New South Wales, and when issued in the United States, at the equivalent, in sterling money, of $50 in the money of the latter country, converted at the rate fixed by Article 13 of the present Convention.

No money order shall include a fractional part of a penny, or, of a cent.

The amount of each order, whether issued in the United States or in New South Wales, must be expressed in letters in British money, and the equivalent in the money of the United States must also be shown in figures.

ARTICLE 2.

The New South Wales Post Office shall have power to fix the rates of commission on all money orders issued in New South Wales, and the Post-Office Department of the United States shall have the same power in regard to all money orders issued in the United States.

Each Office shall communicate to the other its tariff of charges, or rates of commission, which shall be established under this Convention, and these rates shall, in all cases, be payable in advance by the remitters, and shall not be repayable.

It is understood, moreover, that each Office is authorized to suspend, temporarily, the exchange of money orders, in case the course of exchange, or any other circumstance should give rise to abuses, or, cause detriment to the postal revenue.

ARTICLE 3.

Each country shall keep the commission charged on all money orders within its jurisdiction, but shall pay to the other country three fourths of one per cent. on the amount of such orders.

ARTICLE 4.

The service of the Postal money order system between the two countries, shall be performed exclusively by the agency of Offices of Exchange. On the part of the United States the Office of Exchange shall be San Francisco, California, and on the part of New South Wales, Sydney.

Orders shall be drawn only on the authorized money order offices of the respective countries; and each Postal Administration shall furnish to the other a List of such offices, and shall, from time to time, notify any addition to, or change in such list. Every order and advice must contain the name of the office and of the country of destination, and if relating to an order payable in the United States, the name of the State in which each office is situated.

Article 5.

No money-order shall be issued unless the applicant furnish the name and address of the person to whom the amount is to be paid and his own name and address; or the name of the firm, or company who are the remitters or payees, together with the addresses of each.

The money-orders issued in either country, shall be forwarded by the remitters to the payees at their own expense.

Article 6.

The advices of all money-orders issued upon New South Wales by the post offices in the United States shall be sent to the Office of Exchange at San Francisco, where they shall be impressed with a dated stamp (Form "A") showing the amount to be paid in Sterling money, and transmitted, by the next direct mail, to the Exchange Office at Sydney, accompanied by a List, in duplicate, drawn upon the model of Form "B."

The advices, on their arrival in Sydney, shall be compared with the entries in the List, and, afterwards dispatched to the paying offices.

In like manner the advices of money-orders, drawn on the United States by postmasters in New South Wales, shall be sent to the Exchange Office at Sydney, shall there be impressed with a dated stamp (Form "A") showing the amount to be paid in United States money, and be dispatched accompanied by a List, in duplicate, (Form "C") to the Office of Exchange at San Francisco by the next direct mail.

The advices, on their receipt at San Francisco, shall be compared with the entries in the List, and afterwards dispatched to the paying offices.

The advices of orders issued in the United States in the month of June, which may arrive at the Office of Exchange at San Francisco in the earlier days of the following month, shall be entered on Lists supplementary to that of the last day of the month of June, and in like manner, the advices of orders issued in New South Wales in the month of June, which may arrive at the Exchange Office at Sydney in the earlier days of the following month, shall be entered on Lists supplementary to that of the last day of the month of June.

Each Exchange Office shall certify its orders to the other in amounts designated in the denominations of the money both of the dispatching and receiving country, at the rate of conversion established by Article 13 of this Convention. The amounts, so converted, shall be checked at the receiving office of Exchange.

Each Administration hereby undertakes and agrees to suspend the issue of money-orders a sufficient length of time before the sailing of each steamer which carries the Exchange Lists and advices, at those post offices in its own territory where such suspension may be necessary, in order to prevent the issue of orders which could be dispatched by the outgoing mail while the corresponding advices could not be certified by the Exchange Office in time to be conveyed by that mail.

The Exchange Lists and the accompanying advices shall invariably be sent by such steamers as carry the mails directly from San Francisco to Sydney, or from Sydney to San Francisco, as the case may be, and not via London in any event.

Article 7.

The Lists, dispatched from each Office of Exchange, shall be numbered consecutively, commencing with No. 1 at the beginning of the month of July in each year; and the entries in these Lists shall also have consecutive numbers.
CONVENTION—NEW SOUTH WALES. Oct. 9, Dec. 6, 1881.

Duplicates of list.

Of each List dispatched a duplicate shall be sent, which duplicate, after being verified by the receiving Office of Exchange, shall be returned to the dispatching Office of Exchange.

Each Office of Exchange shall promptly communicate to the other the correction of any simple error, which it may discover in the verification of the Lists.

When the Lists shall show irregularities, which the receiving Exchange Office shall not be able to rectify, that Office shall apply for an explanation to the dispatching Exchange Office, and such explanation shall be afforded without delay.

Should any List fail to be received in due course, the dispatching Exchange Office, on receiving information to that effect, shall transmit, without delay, a duplicate of the List, duly certified as such.

ARTICLE 8.

Duplicate orders shall only be issued by the Postal Administration of the country, on which the original orders were drawn, and in conformity with the regulations established, or, to be established, in that country.

ARTICLE 9.

The orders, issued by each country on the other, shall be subject, as regards payment, to the regulations which govern the payment of inland orders of the country, on which they were drawn.

The paid orders shall remain in the possession of the country of payment.

ARTICLE 10.

Repayment of orders to remitters shall not be made until an authorization for such repayment shall first have been obtained by the country of issue from the country where such orders are payable and the amounts of the repaid orders shall be duly credited to the former country in the quarterly account. (Article 12.)

It is the province of each Postal Administration to determine the manner in which repayment to the remitters is to be made.

ARTICLE 11.

Orders which shall not have been paid within twelve calendar months from the month of issue, shall become void, and the sums received shall accrue to, and be at the disposal of the country of origin.

The New South Wales Office shall, therefore, enter to the credit of the United States, in the quarterly account, all money-orders entered in the Lists received from the United States, which remain unpaid at the end of the period specified. (Article 12.)

On the other hand the Post Office Department of the United States shall, at the close of each month, transmit to the New South Wales Office, for entry in the quarterly account, a detailed statement of all orders, included in the Lists dispatched from the latter Office, which under this Article become void.

ARTICLE 12.

At the close of each quarter an account shall be prepared at the General Post Office of New South Wales, showing in detail the totals of the Lists, containing the particulars of orders issued in either country during the quarter, and the balance resulting from such transactions.

Three copies of this account shall be transmitted to the Post Office Department of the United States at Washington, and the balance, after proper verification, shall, if due by the General Post Office of New South Wales, be paid to the General Post Office at London, to the credit of the Post Office Department of the United States on account of the exchange of money orders between the United States and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; if due by the Post Office Department of the United States, the balance shall likewise be paid to the General Post Office at London, to the credit of the General Post Office of New South Wales.
If pending the settlement of an account, one of the two Postal Administrations shall ascertain that it owes the other a balance exceeding five hundred pounds (£500) sterling, the indebted Administration shall promptly remit the approximate amount of such balance to the credit of the other.
This account shall be in accordance with the forms "D," "E," "F," and "G," annexed to this Convention.

ARTICLE 13.

Until the two Postal Administrations shall consent to an alteration, it is agreed that in all matters of account, relative to money-orders, which shall result from the execution of the present Convention, the pound sterling of Great Britain shall be considered as equivalent to four dollars, eighty seven cents of the money of the United States.

ARTICLE 14.

The Postal Administration in each country shall be authorized to adopt any additional rules, (if not repugnant to the foregoing,) for the greater security against fraud, or, for the better working of the system generally.
All such additional rules, however, must be promptly communicated to the Post Office of the other country.

ARTICLE 15.

The present Convention shall take effect on the first day of January, 1882, and shall continue in force until twelve months after either of the contracting parties shall have notified to the other its intention to terminate it.
Done in duplicate and signed in Washington on the sixth day of De-November, in the year of our Lord, 1881, and in Sydney on the twenty ninth day of October, in the year of our Lord, 1881.

THOMAS L. JAMES,
Postmaster General of the United States.
F. B. SUTTER
Postmaster General of New South Wales.

I hereby approve the foregoing convention, and in testimony thereof,
I have caused the seal of the United States to be hereto affixed.

Auditor of the Treasury for the Post Office Department.
Agreement between the United States and Belgium for increasing the limits of weight and the dimensions of packets of patterns of merchandise exchanged through the post between the two countries. Signed at Washington, February 7th, 1882.

The Post Office Department of the United States and the Postal Administration of Belgium, desiring to facilitate the postal relations between the two countries, and in exercise of the power given to them under Article XV of the Convention of the Universal Postal Union concluded in Paris on the 1st June 1878, the undersigned, duly authorized by their respective Governments,

Have agreed as follows:

The limits of weight and the dimensions of packets of patterns of merchandise exchanged through the post between Belgium, on the one part, and the United States, on the other part, may be increased by the Postal Administration of the country of origin beyond those which have been fixed by Article V of the International Convention of the 1st June 1878, under the express reservation that such limits shall not exceed the following:

In weight ....... 350 grammes.

\begin{align*}
& \text{30 centimetres length.} \\
& \text{20 centimetres breadth.} \\
& \text{10 centimetres depth.}
\end{align*}

The present Agreement shall take effect on the first day of April 1882.

In witness whereof they have signed the present Agreement, and affixed their respective seals.

WASHINGTON, February 7th, 1882.

Amended Article to replace Article 2 of the Additional Articles of Agreement of April 28 and May 3, 1881, between the United States of America and the Dominion of Canada.

In order to effectively protect the postal revenues of the United States from the evasive practices of persons or firms who seek to elude the postal laws and regulations of the United States by posting their publications in Canada, the undersigned, duly authorized by their respective governments, have agreed to replace Article 2 of the additional articles of agreement of April 28, 1881, by the following:

ARTICLE:

When newspapers, periodicals, and other printed matter, published or originating in the United States, or purporting to be published in the United States, or circulated on behalf of a person or firm doing business in the United States are posted in Canada for destinations in the United States, apparently to evade the postage rates or regulations applicable to such matter in the United States, the Canada Post Office may require prepayment of the same to be made at a rate equivalent to the domestic postage chargeable thereon by the laws of the United States.

The present Article takes effect immediately.

In witness whereof the Postmaster General of the United States, and the Postmaster General of Canada have hereunto set their hands and affixed their seals at the date set opposite to each, respectively.

By the President:

FREDK. T. FEELINGHUYSSEN, Secretary of State.

WASHINGTON, February 16th, 1882.
Protocol of a conference between the Secretary of State and the Spanish Minister for prolonging the term of the Spanish-American Claims Commission until January 1, 1883; signed and exchanged at Washington, May 6, 1882.

Protocol of a conference between the Honorable Frederick T. Frelinghuysen, Secretary of State of the United States, and His Excellency Francisco Barca, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of His Majesty the King of Spain, held at the Department of State in Washington on the sixth day of May, eighteen hundred and eighty two.

Mr. Frelinghuysen handed to Mr. Barca the following paper, entitled "Article IX." and said that it embodied the results of several preliminary conferences between himself and Mr. Barca relating to the prolongation of the Spanish-American Claims Commission until the first day of January next.

ARTICLE IX.

It being impossible for the Commission, in consequence of the death of the Arbitrator and of the Advocate on the part of the United States, to examine and decide within one year from the 12th of May, 1881, each and every claim which has been presented, it is agreed that the term aforesaid be extended to the 1st of January, 1883, for the sole purpose of permitting the commission to examine and decide the claims actually pending. And it is further agreed to this end 1st That no evidence in any case shall be received after the 15th day of June next.

2nd That no printed or written brief or argument before the Arbitrators shall be filed on behalf of any claimant after the 15th day of July 1882.

3rd That no printed or written

Protocolo de una conferencia entre el Honorable Frederick T. Frelinghuysen, Secretario de Estado de los Estados Unidos, y el Exmo. Señor Don Francisco Barca, Enviado Extraordinario y Ministro Plenipotenciario de S. M. el Rey de España, celebrada en el Departamento de Estado en Washington á seis de Mayo de mil ochocientos ochenta y dos.

Mr. Frelinghuysen entregó al Señor Barca el siguiente documento, titulado "Artículo IX." y dijo que en él se hallaba comprendido el resultado de varias conversaciones preliminares que habían mediado entre él y el Señor Barca respecto de la proroga de la comisión de Arbitrage hispano-americana, hasta el 1° de Enero de 1883.

ARTÍCULO IX.

Siendo imposible que la comision, á consecuencia del fallecimiento del Árbitro y del Alegato por parte de los Estados Unidos, examine y decida, en un año, á contar desde el 12 de Mayo de 1881, todas y cada una de las reclamaciones que han sido presentadas; se conviene en que el término citado se prorogue hasta el 1° de Enero de 1883 con el solo objeto de que la comision pueda examinar y decidir las reclamaciones que actualmente se hallan pendientes; y, con este fin, se conviene además en que:

1° No se recibirá prueba alguna en ningún caso, después del 15 de Junio próximo.

2° Ningun argumento ó alegato, impreso ó escrito, dirigido á los Arbitros, será registrado por parte de reclamante alguno, después del 15 de Julio de 1882.

3° No podrá ser registrado, como brief or argument shall be filed in reply on behalf of Spain after the 15th day of September 1882.

4th That no oral arguments shall be heard by the Arbitrators after the 1st day of November 1882.

5th That no arguments either written or oral shall be made before the Umpire except on his written request addressed to the Commission, specifying the time within which he will hear or receive said arguments.

6th That the Arbitrators may establish in accordance with the preceding stipulations convenient rules for the better and more rapid despatch of the business of the Commission, and any disagreement which may arise between them as to those rules or their interpretation, shall be decided by the Umpire.

Decisions of arbitrators to be given before December 15, 1882.

Decisions in every pending case shall be given by both Arbitrators before the 15th day of December next: jointly if they agree, separately when they disagree.

All cases in which on that day the two Arbitrators shall not have agreed, or in which neither Arbitrator shall have rendered a decision, shall go to the Umpire.

Allowance and rejection of claims to be in the form, etc.

All cases in which the American Arbitrator shall have failed to give a decision shall be rejected or allowed, as the case may be, in the form determined by the decision of the Spanish Arbitrator, which has been given a decision: and vice versa all cases in which the Spanish Arbitrator shall have failed to give a decision shall be allowed or rejected, as the case may be, in the form determined by the decision of the American Arbitrator if the American Arbitrator shall have given a decision: it being the purpose of both parties to have the work of the Arbitrators finished before December 15, 1882.

The Umpire is requested to render decisions before January 1, 1883, in all cases submitted to him in order that the work of the Commission may cease on that day. But if the Umpire fails to comply contestacion por parte de España, ningún alegato ó argumento, escrito ó impreso, después del 15 de Setiembre de 1882.

4° Ningun argumento verbal será oído por los Arbitros después del 1° de Noviembre de 1882.

5° No se hará ningún argumento tanto verbal como por escrito, ante el Tercero en discordia, excepto á petición escrita del mismo, dirigida á la Comisión, especificando el tiempo dentro del cual oirá ó recibirá dichos argumentos.

6° Los Arbitros pueden establecer, de acuerdo con las estipulaciones precedentes, reglas convenientes para el mejor y más rápido despacho de los negocios de la Comisión; y cualquier desacuerdo que entre ellos se suscite sobre estas reglas ó su interpretación, será decidido por el Tercero en discordia.

Las decisiones en todos los casos pendientes, serán dadas por los dos Arbitros antes del 15 de Diciembre próximo: juntamente, si se hallan de acuerdo, y por separado, si hay desacuerdo.

Todos los casos en los cuales, en el día citado, no haya acuerdo entre los arbitros, así como todos aquellos en que ninguno de los Arbitros haya dado una decisión, pasará el mismo día 15 de Diciembre, al Tercero en discordia.

Todos los casos en los cuales el Árbitro americano no haya dado decisión, serán rechazados ó admitidos, según sea el caso, en la forma determinada por la decisión del Árbitro de España, si éste hubiese dado una decisión: y vice versa, todos los casos en los cuales el Árbitro por España no haya dado decisión, serán admitidos ó rechazados, según sea el caso, en la forma determinada por la decisión del Árbitro de los Estados Unidos, si éste hubiese dado una decisión: siendo el propósito de ambas partes el de que los trabajos de los Arbitros hayan terminado antes del 15 de Diciembre de 1882.

El Tercero en discordia es regado para que en todos los casos que se le someten, dé sus decisiones antes del 1° de Enero de 1883, á fin de que los trabajos de la Comisión cesen ese día; pero si el Tercero en with this request, decisions rendered by him after that day shall be respected by both parties, notwithstanding that the Commission shall be deemed to be terminated and dissolved after the 1st day of January, 1883.

Mr. Barca observed that the article as reduced embodied correctly the understanding between himself and Mr. Frelinghuysen.

In testimony whereof we have interchangeably signed this protocol.

The Government of the Republic of the United States of America and the Government of his Majesty the King of Portugal and of the Algarves, being desirous of facilitating the exchange of sums of money between the two countries by making use of postal orders and availing themselves of the authority granted by Articles 13 and 15 of the Convention of the Universal Postal Union concluded at Paris on the 1st of June, 1878, the undersigned, Timothy O. Howe, Postmaster General of the United States of America, in virtue of the powers vested in him by law, and Viscount das Neugieras, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of his Majesty the King of Portugal, in the name of his Government, and by virtue of the powers which he has formally presented to this effect, have agreed upon the following convention.

ARTICLE 1.

SEC. 1. There shall be a regular exchange of sums of money by means of postal orders between Portugal and the United States of America.

SEC. 2. All the stipulations which are contained in this Convention with regard to Portugal are to be understood as applicable also to the Azores and to the Madeira Islands.

SEC. 3. The Postal Administration of each of the two countries shall determine in regard to its own territory—

a. — The localities where the orders in question can be issued.

b. — The localities where such orders can be paid.

ARTICLE 2.

SEC. 1. The amount of the orders shall be collected from the remitters and paid to the beneficiaries in gold coin or in other lawful money of equal value. Each one of the Postal Administrations may however receive for the issue and employ for the payment of money-orders any money of less value which is a legal tender in its own country, provided account be taken of the difference of value, when occasion arises.

SEC. 2. The amount of each order shall not exceed—

a. — Fifty milreis when issued in the United States for payment in Portugal.

b. — Fifty dollars when issued in Portugal for payment in the United States.

The Postal Administrations of the two countries may however, by mutual agreement, increase this maximum to ninety milreis and to one hundred dollars.

SEC. 3. The amount of each order shall be expressed in the metallic money of the country in which payment is to be made. For this purpose, the Postal Administration of the country of origin shall fix the rate of conversion of its own money into metallic money of the country of payment.

SEC. 4. The right is reserved to each of the two contracting countries to declare transferable, within its territory, by means of endorsement, the ownership of postal orders originating in the other.
ARTICLE 3.

Sec. 1. Each of the two contracting countries shall fix the rate of fees to be collected from the remitters of money-orders issued therein for payment in the other country. This rate of fees shall not exceed one and one half per cent. upon the amounts constituting the divisions in the schedule of fees.

Sec. 2. In addition to the fee mentioned in this Article no other charge, tax, commission, or impost shall be collected for the issue, transmission, distribution, or payment of money-orders, provided for in this Convention.

Sec. 3. The country which issues the orders shall pay to the country on which they are drawn three quarters of one per cent. computed upon the total value of those orders.

ARTICLE 4.

Orders issued in Portugal for payment in the United States shall not contain a fraction of a cent, and those which are issued in the United States for payment in Portugal shall not contain a fraction of ten reis.

ARTICLE 5.

The service of the postal money-order system between the two countries shall be performed exclusively by the agency of offices of exchange. These offices shall be—a.—Lisbon, on the part of Portugal.

b.—New York, on the part of the United States.

ARTICLE 6.

Sec. 1. Each Office of Exchange shall send, by every mail, to the other, a certified List, in duplicate, of the money-orders issued in its own country, since the last previous transmission, for payment in the other.

Sec. 2. At the close of each Quarter, or, at the latest, within two months after the expiration thereof, an account, in duplicate, shall be prepared and transmitted by the Administration of Mails, Telegraphs, and Lighthouses of Portugal to the Postal Administration of the United States. This account, having been accepted, shall be paid in the metallic money of the creditor country by the indebted Postal Administration, within a limited time to be determined by mutual agreement.

Sec. 3. For this purpose the smaller credit shall be converted into the money of the larger credit.

Sec. 4. In case of the non-payment of the balance of an account within the time specified, the amount of such balance shall be chargeable with interest from the date of the expiration of the stipulated period until the day of the transmission of the amount due. Such interest shall be computed at the rate of five per cent. per annum; and is to be entered in the accounts as a debit against the dilatory Administration.

ARTICLE 7.

Sec. 1. The sums received for the issue of money-orders remain the property of the remitters until they shall have been duly paid to the beneficiaries or to the representatives of the latter.

Sec. 2. Postal orders accrue to the country of origin when the amounts thereof have not been claimed by the payees within a period of time fixed by mutual agreement.

Sec. 3. Repayment of orders to remitters shall not be made until an authorization for such repayment shall first have been obtained by the country of issue from the country where such orders are payable, and the amounts of the repaid orders shall be duly credited to the former country in the quarterly account. It is the province of each Postal Administration to determine the manner in which repayment to the remitters is to be made. Under no circumstances can the fees paid for money-orders be refunded to the remitters thereof.

Duplicate orders. Sec. 4. Duplicate orders shall only be issued by the Postal Administration of the country on which the original orders were drawn, and in conformity with the regulations established, or, to be established, in that country.

Suspension. Each Administration is authorized, in extraordinary circumstances that would justify the measure, to suspend temporarily the money-order service, in whole or in part, upon condition of giving notice of such suspension immediately to the other country, and, if deemed necessary, by means of the telegraph.

Regulations to be provided. The General Administration of Mails, Telegraphs, and Light-Houses, of Portugal, and the General Postal Administration of the United States are authorized to adopt by mutual agreement all measures, and to arrange all matters of detail, necessary to secure the execution of all the stipulations of the present Convention.

Commencement. The present Convention shall take effect on the first day of January, 1883, and shall continue in force until twelve months after either of the contracting parties shall have notified to the other its intention to terminate it.

Termination. Ratification. The ratifications of the present Convention shall be exchanged prior to the first day of December, 1882.
In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Convention and have affixed thereto their seals.

Date. Executed in duplicate and signed at Washington the fifteenth day of July, 1882.

By the President. FREDK T. FRELINGHUYSEN,
[Seal of the United States.] Secretary of State.

WASHINGTON, July 15th, 1882.
Regulations of detail, forms and order for the execution of the Convention for the exchange of Postal Money Orders between the United States and Portugal, concluded at Washington, July 15, 1882.

DETAILED REGULATIONS.

The undersigned, in pursuance of Article 9 of the Convention concluded between the United States and Portugal, on the fifteenth day of July, 1882, for the exchange of sums of money by means of postal orders, have by mutual agreement, decided to adopt the following Regulations:

ARTICLE 1.

The Postal Administrations of the two countries shall communicate to each other the tables of conversion which they shall have adopted for the conversion of money in pursuance of the provisions of the third section of Article 2 of the Convention, and also all alterations which may be made therein.

ARTICLE 2.

Any person in the United States desiring to remit to any part of Portugal a sum of money within the limits prescribed by the second section of Article 2 of the Convention, may pay it into any post-office of the former country authorized to receive sums payable in Portugal, and to pay orders for sums remitted from that country.

The remitter shall give to the postmaster at such post-office the name and exact address of the person to whom the amount is to be paid in the country of destination, and also his own name and address.

Any person in Portugal desiring to remit to the United States a sum of money within the limits prescribed by the second section of Article 2 of the Convention, may pay it into any post office of the former country authorized to receive sums payable in the United States, giving at the same time his own name and address, and the name and exact address of the person to whom the amount is to be paid in the United States.

The receiving post office in either country shall transmit, in accordance with the rules established by its postal administration, due notice of such payment, by an internal money-order, or otherwise, to the dispatching exchange office.

ARTICLE 3.

SEC. 1. The lists by means of which the Exchange Office of New York shall communicate to the Exchange Office of Lisbon the amounts deposited in the United States to be paid in Portugal, shall be in conformity with the model "A" annexed to the present Regulations. The lists by means of which the Exchange Office of Lisbon shall communicate to that of New York the amounts deposited in Portugal to be paid in the United States, shall follow the pattern "B" hereto annexed.

SEC. 2. The lists described in this Article shall be regularly transmitted by every mail, even when there are no deposits to be communicated for payment. In such cases, the words "No Money Orders," are to be written transversely across the lists.

SEC. 3. The lists transmitted by each of the two countries shall be consecutively numbered each year, commencing with Number 1, at the first of January, and terminating at the close of December. The entries in the lists shall also be consecutively numbered, commencing with Number 1 on the first of July in each year.

SEC. 4. The orders issued in the United States during the quarter ending June 30th of each year, which may arrive at the Office of Ex. change at New York in the following quarter, shall be entered on lists supplementary to the last list of the month of June, and in like manner the orders issued in Portugal during the quarter ending June 30th of each year, which may arrive at the Exchange Office of Lisbon in the following quarter, shall be entered on lists supplementary to the last list of the month of June.

Article 4.

Errors and corrections.

SEC. 1. The Exchange Office, upon receipt of the lists shall proceed to verify them. Should errors be found the necessary corrections are to be made in red ink.

Inland postal-orders.

SEC. 2. For the orders entered in the lists, the two Exchange Offices shall issue inland postal orders in accordance with the regulations in force, in the premises, in the country of destination.

Receipt of lists to be acknowledged.

SEC. 3. By the first mail forwarded after the receipt of the lists, one of them shall be transmitted to the dispatching office of exchange with a duly executed acknowledgment of receipt.

Irregularities, adjustment of.

SEC. 4. When the lists shall show irregularities which the receiving exchange office shall not be able to rectify, that office shall demand an explanation from the dispatching exchange office, which shall give such explanation with as little delay as possible. Pending the receipt of the explanation, the issue of inland money orders of payment relating to the entries found to be erroneous in the list should be suspended.

Article 5.

Orders to be valid twelve months.

Orders shall be valid during a period of twelve months after the date of the issue thereof.

Article 6.

Void orders.

SEC. 1. Orders which shall not have been paid within a period of twelve months from the date of the issue thereof shall be considered void, and the amount thereof shall be placed to the credit of the country of origin in the Quarterly Account. (Model "C")

Form "C."

SEC. 2. For the execution of this stipulation, each of the two contracting countries shall make out a monthly statement (Model "D") of orders originating in the other country, to which the provisions of this Article are applicable.

This statement shall include orders of which repayment shall have been reclaimed by the remitters.

Article 7.

Quarterly account, Form "C," prescribed for.

SEC. 1. For the Quarterly Account required by Article 6 of the Convention a form shall be used in exact conformity with the pattern "C," hereto annexed.

Basis for exchange of values.

SEC. 2. For the purpose of balancing this account, when the larger credit is in favor of Portugal the conversion mentioned in Section 3 of Article 6 of the Convention shall be made in accordance with the average rate of exchange in New York during the quarter to which the account pertains. When the larger credit is in favor of the United States, the conversion shall be made in accordance with the average rate of exchange at Lisbon, during the same period.

Statement of rates of exchange.

SEC. 3. For this purpose the debtor Postal Administration shall send to the creditor Administration within ten days after the expiration of each quarter, a statement of the changes in the rates of exchange during that quarter.

Limit for return of verified account.

SEC. 4. The Postal Administration of the United States shall return to Portugal a copy of the account in question, duly verified, within fifteen days, at the latest, after the receipt of the said account.

Balances, remittance of.

SEC. 5. If the ascertained balance of the account is in favor of Portugal, the Postal Administration of the United States, when it returns CONVENTION—PORTUGAL. JULY 15, 1882.

The duplicate of that account, shall remit the amount of such balance by a bill of exchange upon Lisbon, to the order of the Director General of Mails, Telegraphs, and Light-houses. If the balance is in favor of the United States, the administration of Mails, Telegraphs, and Light-houses, of Portugal shall remit the amount thereof by letter of exchange on New York to the order of the Postmaster General of the United States, fifteen days, at the latest, after the receipt of the account, with a verification of the account, made by the United States.

Sec. 6. Whenever, in the interval between the quarterly statements, it is found that one of the two countries owes the other a balance exceeding four thousand five hundred milreis, or five thousand dollars, the Postal Administration of the debtor country shall transmit, without delay, in a letter of exchange, the approximate amount of such balance.

Sec. 7. All expenses attending the remittance of bills of exchange shall be at the charge of the debtor country.

ARTICLE 8.

The present Detailed Regulations shall take effect at the same time as the Convention of the fifteenth of July, 1882, and shall continue in force as long as the latter.

Done in duplicate, and signed at Washington, the fifteenth day of July, 1882.

Agreement between the United States and Mexico establishing the reciprocal right to pursue savage Indians across the boundary line; concluded, signed, and exchanged at Washington July 29, 1882.

Memorandum of an agreement entered into in behalf of their respective Governments, by Frederick T. Frelinghuysen, Secretary of State of the United States of America, and Matias Romero, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the Republic of Mexico, providing for the reciprocal crossing of the international boundary line by the troops of the respective Governments in pursuit of savage Indians, under the conditions hereinafter stated.

ARTICLE I.

It is agreed that the regular federal troops of the two Republics may reciprocally cross the boundary line of the two countries, when they are in close pursuit of a band of savage Indians, upon the conditions stated in the following articles.

ARTICLE II.

The reciprocal crossing agreed upon in Article I shall only occur in the unpopulated or desert parts of said boundary line. For the purposes of this agreement the unpopulated or desert parts are defined to be all those points which are at least two leagues distant from any encampment or town of either country.

ARTICLE III.

No crossing of troops of either country shall take place from Capitan Leal, a town on the Mexican side of the Rio Bravo, twenty Mexican leagues (52 English miles) above Piedras Negras, to the mouth of the Rio Grande.

ARTICLE IV.

The Commander of the troops which cross the frontier in pursuit.

Memorandum de un convenio celebrado en nombre de sus respectivos Gobiernos, por Frederick T. Frelinghuysen, Secretario de Estado de los Estados Unidos de America, y Matias Romero, Enviado Extraordinario y Ministro Plenipotenciario de la Republica Mexicana, autorizando el paso recíproco de la línea divisoria internacional, de tropas de los respectivos Gobiernos, en persecución de indios salvajes, con arreglo a las condiciones que se expresan mas adelante.

ARTÍCULO I.

Se conviene en que las tropas federales regulares de las dos Republicas pasen recíprocamente la línea divisoria entre los dos países cuando vayan persiguiendo de cerca una partida de indios salvajes, con arreglo a las condiciones que se expresan en los artículos siguientes:

ARTÍCULO II.

El paso recíproco convenido en el artículo I no podrá hacerse sino por la parte despoblada y desierta de dicha línea divisoria. Para los efectos de este convenio se entienden por partes despobladas ó desiertas todos aquellos puntos distantes por lo menos dos leguas de cualquier campamento ó poblacion de ambos países.

ARTÍCULO III.

El paso de tropas de uno ó otro país no podrá tener lugar desde Capitan Leal, poblacion en el lado mexicano del Rio Bravo—a veinte legnas mexicanas (cincuenta y dos millas inglesas) rio arriba de Piedras Negras hasta la embocadura del Rio Grande.

ARTÍCULO IV.

El Gefe de las fuerzas que pasen la frontera en persecucion de inof Indians, shall, at the time of crossing or before if possible, give notice of his march to the nearest military commander or civil authority of the country whose territory he enters.

ARTICLE V.

The pursuing force shall retire to its own territory as soon as it shall have fought the band of which it is in pursuit or have lost its trail. In no case shall the forces of the two countries, respectively, establish themselves or remain in the foreign territory for any time longer than is necessary to make the pursuit of the band whose trail they follow.

ARTICLE VI.

The abuses which may be committed by the forces which cross into the territory of the other nation shall be punished by the Government to which the forces belong, according to the gravity of the offense and in conformity to its laws, as if the abuses had been committed in its own territory, the said Government being further under obligation to withdraw the guilty parties from the frontier.

ARTICLE VII.

In the case of offenses which may be committed by the inhabitants of the one country against the foreign forces which may be within its limits, the Government of said country shall only be responsible to the Government of the other for denial of justice in the punishment of the guilty.

ARTICLE VIII.

This agreement shall remain in force for two years, and may be terminated by either Government upon four months' notice to the other, to that effect.

ARTICLE IX.

As the Senate of the United States of Mexico has authorized the President of that Republic in accordance with paragraph III. letter B, dios, deberá, al cruzar la línea divisoria, ó antes si fuere posible, dar aviso de su marcha al gefe militar ó á la autoridad civil mas inmediata del país á cuyo territorio entra.

ARTÍCULO V.

La fuerza perseguidora se retirará á su país tan luego como haya batido la partida perseguida, ó perdido su huella. En ningún caso podrán las fuerzas de los dos países, respectivamente, establecerse en el territorio extranjero, ni permanecer en él mas tiempo que el necesario para hacer la persecución de la partida cuya huella sigan.

ARTÍCULO VI.

Los abusos que cométan las fuerzas que pasen al territorio de la otra nación, serán castigados, según la gravedad de la ofensa y con arreglo á sus leyes, por el Gobierno de quien dependan, como si fuesen cometidos en su propio suelo, quedando siempre comprometido el mismo Gobierno á retirar de la frontera á los culpables.

ARTÍCULO VII.

En los casos de delitos cometidos por los habitantes de un país contra la fuerza del otro que esté dentro de los límites del primero, el Gobierno de este país solo es responsable para con el otro Gobierno por denegación de justicia en el castigo de los culpables.

ARTÍCULO VIII.

Este convenio permanecerá en vigor por dos años y podrá terminarse por cualquiera de los dos Gobiernos mediante la notificación respectiva hecha al otro Gobierno, dada con cuatro meses de anticipación.

ARTÍCULO IX.

Como el Senado de los Estados Unidos Mexicanos ha autorizado al Presidente de esa República, de conformidad con el párrafo III., letra
Section III. of article 72nd of its Constitution, as modified on the 6th of November, 1874, to allow the passing of Mexican troops into the United States and of United States troops into Mexico, and the Constitution of the United States empowers the President of the United States to allow the passage without the consent of the Senate, this agreement does not require the sanction of the Senate of either country and will begin to take effect twenty days after this date.

In testimony of which we have interchangeably signed this memorandum this 29th day of July, 1882.

Agreement between the United States and Switzerland for increasing the limits of weight and the dimensions of packets of patterns of merchandise exchanged through the post between the two countries. Executed on the part of Switzerland August 31, 1882, and on the part of the United States September 19, 1882.

The Post Office Department of the United States and the Postal Administration of Switzerland, desiring to facilitate the postal relations between the two countries, and in exercise of the power given to them under Article XV. of the Convention of the Universal Postal Union concluded in Paris on the 1st June, 1878, the undersigned, duly authorized by their respective governments,

Have agreed as follows:

The limits of weight and the dimensions of packets of patterns of merchandise exchanged through the post between Switzerland, on the one part, and the United States, on the other part, may be increased by the Postal Administration of the country of origin beyond those which have been fixed by Article V. of the International Convention of the 1st June, 1878, under the express reservation that such limits shall not exceed the following:

In weight ....... 350 grammes.

\begin{array}{|c|c|}
\hline
\text{In dimensions} & \text{Weight} \\
\hline
\{ 30 \text{ centimetres,} & \{ 30 \text{ grammes,} \\
\text{length.} & \text{en longueur.} \\

\{ 10 \text{ centimetres,} & \{ 10 \text{ centimetres,} \\
\text{depth.} & \text{en epaisseur.} \\
\hline
\end{array}

The present Agreement shall take effect on the first day of October 1882, and shall be terminable at any time on a notice, by either office, of one year.

In witness whereof the undersigned have executed the present Agreement.

Done in duplicate at Berne on the 31st August, 1882, and at Washington on the 19th September, 1882.

[SEAL]
A. D. HAZEN,
Acting Postmaster General.

L’Office Général des Postes des États Unis et l’Administration des Postes de la Suisse, désirant faciliter les relations postales entre les deux pays, et usant de la faculté qui leur est laissée par l’Article XV. de la Convention de l’Union Postale Universelle conclue à Paris le 1er Juin, 1878, les soussignés, dûment autorisés à cet effet par leurs Gouvernements respectifs,

Sont convenus de ce qui suit:

Les limites de poids et de dimensions des paquets d’échantillons de marchandises échangés par la voie de la poste entre la Suisse, d’une part, et les États Unis, d’autre part, peuvent être portées par l’Administration des Postes du pays d’origine au delà de celles qui ont été fixées par l’Article V. de la Convention Internationale du 1er Juin, 1878, sous la réserve expresse que ces limites ne dépasseront pas, savoir:

Pour le poids ... 350 grammes.

\begin{array}{|c|c|}

\{ 20 \text{ centimetres,} & \{ 10 \text{ centimetres,} \\
\text{en largeur.} & \text{en epaisseur.} \\
\hline
\end{array}

Le présent Arrangement sera exécutoire à partir du premier Octobre 1882, et se terminera moyennant un avertissement donné une année à l’avance par l’un ou l’autre office.

En foi de quoi les soussignés ont exécuté le présent Arrangement.

Fait en double expédition à Berne le 31 Août, 1882, et à Washington le 19 Septembre, 1882.

Par autorisation supérieure, le Directeur Général des postes suisses, E. C. HÖHN.

Protocol of an Agreement modifying Article VIII. of the "Agreement between the United States and Mexico establishing the reciprocal right to pursue Indians across the boundary line of July 29, 1882;" signed and exchanged at Washington, September 21, 1882.

Protocol of an agreement entered into in behalf of their respective Governments, by Frederick T. Frelinghuyzen, Secretary of State of the United States of America, and Matias Romero, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the Republic of Mexico, modifying article VIII. of the agreement signed in Washington, on the 29th of July, 1882, providing for the reciprocal crossing, in the unpopulated or desert parts of the international boundary line, by the regular federal troops of the respective Governments, in pursuit of savage hostile Indians.

ONLY ARTICLE.

Article VIII of the agreement signed in the city of Washington, by the representatives of the United States of America and the United States of Mexico, on the 29th of July, 1882, providing for the reciprocal crossing, in the unpopulated or desert parts of the international boundary line by the regular federal troops of the respective Governments, in pursuit of savage hostile Indians, under the conditions stated in said agreement, is hereby modified in the following terms:

"ARTICLE VIII. This agreement shall remain in force for a year from the 18th of August 1882, and may be terminated by either Government, at any time upon four months' notice to the other to that effect."

In testimony of which, we have interchangeably signed this protocol this 21st day of September, 1882.

Who, after having exchanged their powers, and found them in good and due form, agree to the following articles:

ARTICLE I. Ambulances and military hospitals shall be acknowledged to be neutral, and, as such, shall be protected and respected by belligerents so long as any sick or wounded may be therein.

Such neutrality shall cease if the ambulances or hospitals should be held by a military force.

ART. II. Persons employed in hospitals and ambulances, comprising the staff for superintendence, medical service, administration, transport of wounded, as well as chaplains, shall participate in the benefit of neutrality, whilst so employed, and so long as there remain any wounded to bring in or to succor.

ART. III. The persons designated in the preceding article may, even after occupation by the enemy, continue to fulfill their duties in the hospital or ambulance which they serve, or may withdraw in order to rejoin the corps to which they belong.

Under such circumstances, when these persons shall cease from their functions, they shall be delivered by the occupying army to the outposts of the enemy.

ART. IV. As the equipment of military hospitals remains subject to the laws of war, persons attached to such hospitals cannot, in withdrawing, carry away any articles but such as are their private property.

Under the same circumstances an ambulance shall, on the contrary, retain its equipment.

ART. V. Inhabitants of the country who may bring help to the wounded shall be respected, and shall remain free. The generals of the belligerent Powers shall make it their care to inform the inhabitants of the appeal addressed to their humanity, and of the neutrality which will be the consequence of it.

Any wounded man entertained and taken care of in a house shall be considered as a protection logie, Membre de la Direction centrale et Royale pour les établissements de bienfaisance:

Lesquels, après avoir échangé leurs pouvoirs, trouvés en bonne et due forme, sont convenus des articles suivants:

ARTICLE I. Les ambulances et les hôpitaux militaires seront reconnus neutres, et, comme tels, protégés et respectés par les belligérants aussi longtemps qu’il s’y trouvera des malades ou des blessés.

La neutralité cesserait, si ces ambulances ou ces hôpitaux étaient gardés par une force militaire.

ART. II. Le personnel des hôpitaux et des ambulances, comprenant l’entendance, les services de santé, d’administration, de transport des blessés, ainsi que les au-môniers, participera au bénéfice de la neutralité lorsqu’il fonctionnera, et tant qu’il restera des blessés à relever ou à secourir.

ART. III. Les personnes désignées dans l’article précédent pourront, même après l’occupation par l’ennemi, continuer à remplir leurs fonctions dans l’hôpital ou l’ambulance qu’elles desservent, ou se retirer pour rejoindre le corps auquel elles appartiennent.

Dans ces circonstances, lorsque ces personnes cesseront leurs fonctions, elles seront remises aux autorités des puissances ennemies, par les soins de l’armée occupante.

ART. IV. Le matériel des hôpitaux militaires demeurant soumis aux lois de la guerre, les personnes attachées à ces hôpitaux ne pourront, en se retirant, emporter que les objets qui sont leur propriété particulière.

Dans les mêmes circonstances, au contraire, l’ambulance conservera son matériel.

ART. V. Les habitants du pays qui porteront secours aux blessés seront respectés, et demeureront libres. Les généraux des Puissances belligérantes auront pour mission de prévenir les habitants de l’appel fait à leur humanité, et de la neutralité qui en sera la conséquence.

Tout blessé recueilli et soigné dans une maison y servira de sauvegarde. L’habitant qui aura recueilli...
ART. VI. Wounded or sick soldiers shall be entertained and taken care of, to whatever nation they may belong. Commanders-in-chief shall have the power to deliver immediately to the outposts of the enemy soldiers who have been wounded in an engagement, when circumstances permit this to be done, and with the consent of both parties.

Those who are recognized, after their wounds are healed, as incapable of serving, shall be sent back to their country.

The others may also be sent back, on condition of not again bearing arms during the continuance of the war.

Evacuations, together with the persons under whose directions they take place, shall be protected by an absolute neutrality.

ART. VII. A distinctive and uniform flag shall be adopted for hospitals, ambulances and evacuations. It must, on every occasion, be accompanied by the national flag. An arm-badge (brassard) shall also be allowed for individuals neutralized, but the delivery thereof shall be left to military authority.

The flag and the arm-badge shall bear a red cross on a white ground.

ART. VIII. The details of execution of the present convention shall be regulated by the commanders-in-chief of belligerent armies, according to the instructions of their respective governments, and in conformity with the general principles laid down in this convention.

ART. IX. The high contracting Powers have agreed to communicate the present convention to those Governments which have not found it convenient to send plenipotentiaries to the International Conference at Geneva, with an invitation to accede thereto; the protocol is for that purpose left open.

ART. X. The present convention shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Berne, in four months, or sooner, if possible.
In faith whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed it and have affixed their seals thereto.

Done at Geneva, the twenty-second day of the month of August of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

ARTICLE I. The persons designated in Article II. of the Convention shall, after the occupation by the enemy, continue to fulfill their duties, according to their wants, to their sick and wounded in the ambulance or the hospital which they serve. When they request to withdraw, the commander of the occupying troops shall fix the time of departure, which he shall only be allowed to delay for a short time in case of necessity.

ART. II. Arrangements will have to be made by the belligerent powers to ensure to the neutralized person, fallen into the hands of the army of the enemy, the entire enjoyment of his salary.

S. M. le Roi des Pays-Bas, décoré des ordres militaire et civil et des croix et médailles continues.

de 1515, de 1530 Néerlandais et des campagnes de Java, Grand-Croix de l'ordre militaire du Christ et de celui de Tunis, Grand-Officier de l'ordre de Charles III. d'Espagne, Commandeur des ordres de St. Anne en diamant de Russie, de Léopold de Belgique et du Fagion de Saxe-Weimar, Chevalier de la Légion d'honneur, décoré de la médaille de St. Hélène; Le Sieur Bernhard Orniano Théodore Henri Westenberg, docteur en droit, Conseiller de Légation de S. M. le Roi des Pays-Bas, Commandeur de la Couronne de Chêne, Grand-Commandeur de l'ordre de St. Michel de Bavare, Chevalier de l'ordre de Charles III. d'Espagne, de la Couronne de Frasse, du Danebrog de Danemark et d'Adolphe de Nassau.

Lequels d'août autorisés à cet effet, sont convenus, sous réserve d'approbation de leurs Gouvernements, des dispositions suivantes:

ARTICLE I. Le personnel désigné dans l'article deux de la Convention continuera, après l'occupation par l'ennemi, à donner dans la mesure des besoins, ses soins aux malades et aux blessés de l'ambulance ou de l'hôpital qu'il les a dirigés. Lorsqu'il demandera à se retirer, le commandant des troupes occupantes fixera le moment de ce départ, qu'il ne pourra toujours différer que pour une courte durée en cas de nécessités militaires.

ART. II. Des dispositions devront être prises par les Puissances belligérantes, etc., etc., pour assurer au personnel neutralisé, enlevant ses mains, entre les mains de l'armée ennemie, la jouissance intégrale de son traitement.
ART. III. Under the conditions provided for in Articles I. and IV. of the Convention, the name "ambulance" applies to field hospitals and other temporary establishments, which follow the troops on the field of battle to receive the sick and wounded.

ART. IV. In conformity with the spirit of Article V. of the Convention, and to the reservations contained in the protocol of 1854, it is explained that for the appointment of the charges relative to the quartering of troops, and of the contributions of war, account only shall be taken in an equitable manner of the charitable zeal displayed by the inhabitants.

ART. V. In addition to Article VI. of the Convention, it is stipulated that, with the reservation of officers whose detention might be important to the fate of arms and within the limits fixed by the second paragraph of that article, the wounded fallen into the hands of the enemy shall be sent back to their country, after they are cured, or sooner if possible, on condition, nevertheless, of not again bearing arms during the continuance of the war.

ART. VI. The boats which, at their own risk and peril, during and after an engagement pick up the shipwrecked or wounded, or which having picked them up, convey them on board a neutral or hospital ship, shall enjoy, until the accomplishment of their mission, the character of neutrality, as far as the circumstances of the engagement and the position of the ships engaged will permit.

The appreciation of these circumstances is entrusted to the humanity of all the combatants. The wrecked and wounded thus picked and saved must not serve again during the continuance of the war.

ART. VII. The religious, medical, and hospital staff of any captured vessel are declared neutral, and, on leaving the ship, may remove the articles and surgical instruments which are their private property.

ART. VIII. The staff designated in the preceding article must continue to fulfil their functions in the captured ship, assisting in the removal of the wounded made by the victorious party; they will then be at liberty to return to their country, in conformity with the second paragraph of the first additional article.

The stipulations of the second additional article are applicable to the pay and allowance of the staff.

ART. IX. The military hospital ships remain under martial law in all that concerns their stores; they become the property of the savor, but the latter must not divert them from their special appropriation during the continuance of the war.

*NOTE.—In the published English text, from which this version of the Additional Articles is taken, the paragraph thus marked in brackets appears in continuation of CONVENTION—INTERNATIONAL. Aug. 22, 1864.

ART. X. Any merchantman, to whatever nation she may belong, charged exclusively with removal of sick and wounded, is protected by neutrality, but the mere fact, noted on the ship's books, of the vessel having been visited by an enemy's cruiser, renders the sick and wounded incapable of serving during the continuance of the war. The cruiser shall even have the right of putting on board an officer in order to accompany the convoy, and thus verify the good faith of the operation.

If the merchant ship also carries a cargo, her neutrality will still protect it, provided that such cargo is not of a nature to be confiscated by the belligerents.

The belligerents retain the right to interdict neutralized vessels from all communication, and from any course which they may be prejudicial to the secrecy of their operations. In urgent cases special conventions may be entered into between commanders-in-chief, in order to neutralize temporarily and in a special manner the vessels intended for the removal of the sick and wounded.

ART. XI. Wounded or sick sailors and soldiers, when embarked, to whatever nation they may belong, shall be protected and taken care of by their captors. Their return to their own country is subject to the provisions of Article VI. of the Convention, and of the additional Article V.

ART. XII. The distinctive flag to be used with the national flag, in order to indicate any vessel or boat which may claim the benefits of neutrality, in virtue of the principles of this Convention, is a white flag with a red cross. The belligerents may exercise in this respect any mode of verification which they may deem necessary.

Military hospital ships shall be distinguished by being painted white outside, with green stripe.

ART. XIII. The hospital ships which are equipped at the expense of the aid societies, recognized by the governments signing this Convention, and which are furnished with a commission emanating from the sovereign, who shall have given express authority for their being fitted out, and with a certificate from the proper naval authority that they have been placed under his control during their fitting out and on their final departure, and that they were then appropriated solely to the purpose of their mission, shall be considered neutral, as well as the whole of their staff. They shall be recognized and protected by the belligerents.

They shall make themselves known by hoisting, together with their national flag, the white flag with red cross. The distinctive mark of their staff, while performing hospital duty to be treated as neutral; visited by enemy's cruiser rendering sick and wounded incapable of serving pending the duration of the war. Le croiseur aura même le droit de mettre à bord un commissaire pour accompagner le convoi et vérifier ainsi la bonne foi de l'opération.

Si le bâtiment de commerce contenait en outre un chargement, la neutralité le couvrirait encore pourvu que ce chargement ne fût pas de nature à être confisqué par le belligérant.

Les belligérants conservent le droit d'interdire aux bâtiments neutralisés toute communication et toute direction qu'ils jugeraient nuisibles au secret de leurs opérations. Dans les cas urgents, des conventions particulières pourront être faites entre les commandants-en-chef pour neutraliser momentanément d'une manière spéciale les navires destinés à l'évacuation des blessés et des malades.

ART. XI. Les marins et les militaires embarqués, blessés ou malades, à quelque nation qu'ils appartiennent, seront protégés et soignés par les capitaines. Leur repatriement est soumis aux prescriptions de l'article six de la Convention et de l'article cinq additionnel.

ART. XII. Le drapeau distinctif à joint d'une partie pavillon national pour indiquer un navire ou une embarcation quelquefois qu'ici vertu des principes de cette Convention, est le pavillon blanc à croix rouge. Les belligérants exercent à cet égard toute vérification qu'ils jugent nécessaire.

Les bâtiments hôpitaux militaires seront distingués par une peinture extérieure blanche avec bateau vert, etc.

ART. XIII. Les navires hospitaliers, équipés aux frais des sociétés de secours reconnus par les Gouvernements signataires de cette Convention, peuvent être traités comme navires neutres.

Les navires de guerre, lorsque leur pavillon national est attaché à un pavillon neutre, seront considérés comme neutres tant que leur personnel est respecté et protégé par les belligérants.

Les navires de guerre, lorsque leur pavillon national est attaché à un pavillon neutre, seront considérés comme neutres tant que leur personnel est respecté et protégé par les belligérants.

Les navires de guerre, lorsque leur pavillon national est attaché à un pavillon neutre, seront considérés comme neutres tant que leur personnel est respecté et protégé par les belligérants.

Les navires de guerre, lorsque leur pavillon national est attaché à un pavillon neutre, seront considérés comme neutres tant que leur personnel est respecté et protégé par les belligérants.

Les navires de guerre, lorsque leur pavillon national est attaché à un pavillon neutre, seront considérés comme neutres tant que leur personnel est respecté et protégé par les belligérants.

Les navires de guerre, lorsque leur pavillon national est attaché à un pavillon neutre, seront considérés comme neutres tant que leur personnel est respecté et protégé par les belligérants.

Les navires de guerre, lorsque leur pavillon national est attaché à un pavillon neutre, seront considérés comme neutres tant que leur personnel est respecté et protégé par les belligérants.

Preamble.

And whereas the President of the United States of America, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, did, on the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, declare that the United States accede to the said Convention of the 22d of August, 1864, and also accede to the said Convention of October 20, 1868;

And whereas on the ninth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, the Federal Council of the Swiss Confederation, in virtue of the final provision of a certain minute of the exchange of the ratifications of the said Convention at Berne, December 22, 1864, did, by a formal declaration, accept the said adhesion of the United States of America, as well in the name of the Swiss Confederation as in that of the other contracting States;

And whereas, furthermore, the government of the Swiss Confederation has informed the Government of the United States that the exchange of the ratifications of the aforesaid additional articles of 20th October, 1868, to which the United States of America have in like manner adhered as aforesaid, has not yet taken place between the contracting parties, and that these articles cannot be regarded as a treaty in full force and effect:
Now, therefore, be it known that I, CHESTER A. ARTHUR, President of the United States of America, have caused the said Convention of August 22d, 1864, to be made public, to the end that the same and every article and clause thereof may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States and the citizens thereof: reserving, however, the promulgation of the hereinbefore mentioned additional articles of October 20, 1868, notwithstanding the accession of the United States of America thereto, until the exchange of the ratifications thereof between the several contracting States shall have been effected and the said additional articles shall have acquired full force and effect as an international treaty.
In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.
Done at the city of Washington, this twenty-sixth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and seventh.

CHESTER A. ARTHUR.

By the President:

FRED'K T. FREILINGHUYSEN,
Secretary of State.
May 13, 1881. Treaty between the United States of America and Madagascar of Peace, Friendship and Commerce. Concluded at Antananarivo May 13, 1881; ratification advised by the Senate February 27, 1883; ratified by the President March 10, 1883; ratified by the Ambassadors of the Queen of Madagascar March 12, 1883; ratifications exchanged at Washington March 12, 1883; proclaimed March 13, 1883.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

Preamble.
Whereas a treaty of peace, friendship and commerce between the United States of America and the Kingdom of Madagascar was concluded and signed by their respective plenipotentiaries at Antananarivo, on the 13th day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, which treaty in the English Malagasy languages is word for word as follows:

[The following is the English version:]

Preamble.
Whereas a treaty of friendship and commerce between the Government of Madagascar and the Government of the United States of America was concluded on the fourteenth of February, 1867, at Antananarivo, the capital of Madagascar, under which the most friendly relations between the two have existed up to the present time; and whereas Her Majesty Ranavalomanjaka, Queen of Madagascar, and his Excellency James A. Garfield, President of the United States of America, are both desirous, for the good and welfare of their respective countries, to maintain the present friendly relations, and to expand the commerce between the two countries; to prevent as far as possible complications and disputes between their respective subjects and citizens, and to provide more definitely the manner of executing the obligations of the treaty and the adjustments of disputes that may arise in the future, the following articles of revision and addition to the treaty of the fourteenth of February, 1867, have been mutually agreed to and signed by Ravaninahitriniarivo 15th Honor, Officer of the Palace, Chief Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, on the part of the Government of Madagascar; and W. W. Robinson, United States Consul for Madagascar, on the part of the Government of the United States of America, on the thirteenth day of May (seventeenth of Alakaosy), eighteen hundred and eighty-one.

ARTICLE I.

Friendship.
The high contracting parties solemnly declare that there shall continue to be a firm, inviolate peace, and a true and sincere friendship existing between them and their respective heirs and successors forever without war.

ARTICLE II.

Dominion and right of domicile.
1. The dominions of each contracting party, as well as the right of domicile of their inhabitants are sacred, and no forcible possession of territory shall ever take place in either of them by the other party, nor any domiciliary visits nor forcible entries be made to, or espionage of, the houses of either party against the will of the occupants, except as hereinafter provided in Article VI., sections 4 and 23.
2. The right of sovereignty shall in all cases be respected in the dominions of one government by the subjects or citizens of the other.

3. Citizens protégés of the United States of America will respect the Government of Ranavalomanjaka, and that of her heirs and successors, and will not interfere with the institutions of the country, nor meddle with affairs of Her Majesty’s Government, unless employed by Her Majesty.

4. The dominions of Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar shall be understood to mean the whole extent of Madagascar; and United States vessels and citizens shall not aid Her Majesty’s subjects in rebellion, nor sell munitions of war to them, nor bring them help in warfare, or teach the art of war to them; and the same shall apply to rebels against the heirs and successors of Her Majesty within the dominions of Madagascar.

5. Citizens and protégés of the United States of America, while in Madagascar, shall enjoy the privilege of free and unmolested exercise of their respective Christian religious opinions and customs; new places of worship, however, shall not be built by them without permission of the Government of Madagascar.

6. Citizens and protégés of the United States of America while in Madagascar shall enjoy full and complete protection and security for themselves and their property equally with the subjects of Madagascar.

ARTICLE III.

1. According to the laws of Madagascar from all time, Malagasy lands cannot be sold to foreigners, and, therefore, citizens and protégés of the United States of America are prohibited from purchasing lands in Madagascar; but still they shall be permitted to lease or rent lands, houses, or storehouses for a term of months or years, mutually agreed upon between the owners and United States citizens, not exceeding twenty-five years for one term; but the lessee, or owner of the lease, at the expiration of a term, may, if he should wish to do so, and can agree with the lessor (proprietor of the land), renew the lease by periods not exceeding twenty-five years for any one term; and the conditions agreed upon by the parties for such renewals are to be inserted in the lease.

However, every renewal must be acknowledged at the time of making it before the proper authorities, as hereinafter provided in section 9 of this article for executing leases for lands and houses; and the same fee may be exacted.

2. United States citizens and protégés shall be permitted to build houses and magazines, of any material desired, on land leased by them, according to the agreement made with the owner; and when the lease contains a condition permitting the lessee to remove the buildings and fixtures so constructed by him, the same shall be removed within three months after the final expiration of the lease; otherwise they shall become the property of the owner of the land.

3. This privilege of leasing lands and building thereon by United States citizens and protégés shall not be construed as a right to build fortifications of whatever nature, nor to mine on the lands; and should any minerals be accidentally found on such lands, they are to be left to the disposition of Her Majesty’s Government, and no agreement will be valid made between parties to avoid this clause relative to minerals.

4. United States citizens and protégés who wish to lease tracts of unappropriated lands in Madagascar may lease of the Malagasy Government, under the same rules as provided above in this article, sections 1-3, for leasing lands of Her Majesty’s subjects.

5. United States citizens and protégés shall be allowed to hire laborers, not soldiers, and, if slaves, not without the permission of their masters. And if such hired laborers should desire to leave, they shall be at liberty to do so, and be paid up to the time of leaving on giving one month's previous notice.

6. This notice, however, shall not be required from the Government of Madagascar, when Her Majesty the Queen shall have immediate and unexpected need of the services of such laborers; but the officers of the Government in taking such laborers for government service will avoid taking the skilled laborers—those who have become habituated to the special avocations in which they are employed—and the permanently employed servants, when the circumstances will admit. And the Queen calling such laborers for soldiers or other pressing Government service, shall be considered as the circumstances under which they may be taken without the notice, and paid up to the time of leaving.

The above restriction is intended to prevent the local authorities from taking such permanent laborers from their employers, but not to interfere with the right of Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar to call them to government service when needed.

7. Mail carriers, and bearers of dispatches, and bearers of freight, as well as the servants and bearers of travelers employed by United States citizens and protégés, and provided with passports from the Malagasy Government, will not be taken away while en route, but must be permitted to finish their journeys. Nevertheless, such persons, if transgressing the law, will not be exempt from arrest even while on the journey.

8. Slaves shall be allowed to engage themselves with United States citizens and protégés for short periods, where their masters are far away, or where it is not known whether they are slaves or not, but if they are demanded by their masters they shall be allowed to leave, and be paid up to the time of leaving, without giving the one month's previous notice.

9. Contracts for renting or leasing lands or houses, or hiring laborers, shall be executed by leases for lands and contracts for labor in writing which shall be executed before the United States consular officer and the governor of the district where such consular officer resides, or instead of said governor such officer as he may delegate for such duty, who, when satisfied that the parties have the right to make the contract, shall approve it in writing signed by them, and sealed with their official government seals.

10. And for such service a fee not exceeding two dollars ($2) may be exacted for each official seal. But when the period contracted for, for labor does exceed six months, procuring this official approval shall be optional with the parties.

11. And the United States consular officer, as well as the governor of the district where such officer resides, or any other local officer that may be designated by the governor for that purpose, shall approve the same without delay, unless it be in the case of some unavoidable preventing circumstances, or on a day when official business is stayed by the Queen of Madagascar.

12. On lands so leased by American citizens and protégés, the American lessee shall pay to Her Majesty an annual tax of two cents per English square acre upon lands for cultivation, and on town lands an annual tax of one-fourth cent per English square yard.

13. This tax shall not be considered as payment in whole or in part of other taxes which may be levied on such United States citizens and protégés, or the citizens and subjects of other nations residing in Madagascar and Malagasy subjects, not of any part of the export duty upon the productions of such lands, but as a special land tax.

14. This tax shall be paid once each year in the month which shall be fixed by the government for its payment; and the officer who shall be designated to receive such, shall upon reception of each tax give a receipt therefor, over his signature and official seal, mentioning the day, month and year on which it was received, and describing the land upon which the tax is paid, and for what year, as a proof of payment.
15. Such leases may be transferred; in which cases notice must be given to the government authority of Madagascar.

16. Citizens and protegés of the United States of America who come to Madagascar must present a passport from their government, or from some consul, certifying their nationality; otherwise they are liable to be prohibited from residing in Madagascar.

17. But after producing such passport, they shall be permitted to follow any occupation they wish; to print books or newspapers of a moral character, or any books or periodicals on literary, commercial, or scientific subjects, provided they are not of an unlawful character; but shall not be permitted to publish seditious criticisms upon Her Majesty's government.

18. United States citizens and protegés shall be permitted to pass with or without merchandise, with their bearers, baggage, carriers, and servants, through all parts of Madagascar which are under the control of a governor duly appointed by Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar, with the exception of Ambohimanga, and Ambohinianbola, and Amparafaravats, which places foreigners are not permitted to enter; and, in fact, be entitled to all privileges of commerce or other business, calling or profession granted to the most favored nation, so long as they do not infringe the laws of Madagascar.

19. The subjects of Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar shall enjoy the same privileges in the United States of America.

ARTICLE IV.

1. Commerce between the people of the United States of America and Madagascar shall be perfectly free, with all the privileges under which the most favored nations are now, or may hereafter be trading.

2. Citizens of the United States of America shall, however, pay a duty not exceeding ten per cent. on both exports and imports in Madagascar, to be regulated by a tariff to be mutually agreed upon.

3. No other duties, such as tonnage, pilotage, quarantine, or light-house dues shall be imposed in ports of either country on the vessels of the other, to which national vessels, or vessels of the most favored nations, shall not equally be liable.

4. Until Her Majesty the Queen shall decide to collect all duties in money, the import duty on American goods may be paid in money or in kind, on each kind of goods, at the option of the owner or consignee, and according to a tariff that shall be agreed upon, not exceeding ten per cent.

5. This tariff of customs duties shall be drawn up by the United States consul and an officer delegated by Her Majesty's Government for the purpose; within three months after the exchange of the ratification of this treaty, and shall be submitted to the two governments for approval; and the same shall be published within one year from the date of the exchange of the ratification of this treaty. And this tariff may be revised in the same way, in whole or upon any article or articles, at any time, upon the application of either government, should it be found rated too high or too low, in whole or upon any one article or articles of merchandise.

6. In case any article of import or export should be inadvertently omitted from such tariff, the duty levied on such article shall be ten per cent. ad valorem until the proper tariff on the same shall be agreed upon.

7. United States citizens and protegés are not allowed to import munitions of war into Madagascar, except on orders from Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar.

8. In regard to alcoholic liquors, the Malagasy Government may regulate the importation according to its pleasure; or prohibit the importation altogether; or limit the importation as required; may levy as high a duty as it may see fit, or make it a misdemeanor to sell or give such liquors to certain classes of its subjects.
9. And should it be found at any time that any other articles of an injurious nature, tending to the injury of the health or morals of Her Majesty's subjects, are being imported, Her Majesty's Government shall have the right to control, restrict or prohibit the importation in like manner; after giving due notice to the United States Government.
10. Prohibited from export by the laws of Madagascar are timber and cows. Timber, however, may be exported by Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar, or by her order.
11. Ports of Madagascar, where there is no military station under the control of a governor duly appointed by Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar, must not be entered by United States vessels for purposes of trade; should they do so, they will be treated as smugglers.
12. And Her Majesty's Government will not be responsible for damage by robbery of, or other malfeasance to United States citizens or protegés in districts where there are no governors, nor other officers or soldiers duly appointed by Her Majesty's Government, should such United States citizens go into such districts without special permits.
13. Goods which have been duly entered and duties paid thereon at a regular port of entry, may be carried to other ports in United States coasting vessels and landed without further payment, on presentation of invoices of the same, duly certified by the chief collector of customs at the port of entry, showing that the duties have been paid.
14. Vessels entering Malagasy ports which are not ports of entry for the purpose of trade, will be seized; the masters and crews will be treated as smugglers, and the vessel and cargo will be confiscated.
15. It is further agreed between the high contracting parties that the offering of a forged passport or one surreptitiously obtained, for entry of goods at any of Her Majesty's ports, or being in any manner knowingly concerned in such fraudulent passports or invoices, either by making, or buying, or selling the same, or by offering to enter goods by means of the same, shall be considered a felony, and the person or persons found guilty of such an offense, whether American or Malagasy, shall be punished by imprisonment or fine or both according to the aggravation of the offence, as hereinafter provided by Article VI.; and this in addition to the penalty for smuggling when goods have been smuggled, or attempt has been made to smuggle, by means of such fraudulent passports or invoice.
16. United States vessels of war shall be permitted to enter freely into the military ports, rivers, and creeks situated in the dominions of Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar, to make repairs and to provide themselves, at a fair and moderate price, such supplies, stores and provisions as they may from time to time need, including timber for necessary repairs, without payment of duty.
17. On account of Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar's desire to facilitate communications between the United States and Madagascar and thereby to advance commerce between the two countries, the United States Government and United States private steamship companies are hereby granted the privilege to land and deposit coal for the use of United States Government and private steamers at Tamatave or Mo-janga, or both, on land designated by the governor for that purpose, and to take the same away again from time to time for the use of such steamers, without payment of duties or harbor charges of any kind; but a nominal rent for five cents a ton shall be paid per annum as rent for the land on which it may be stored. This privilege shall continue until coal of Madagascar production in sufficient quantity for such steamers can be bought. But should any of the vessels bringing such coil, or any of the steamers taking the same away, bring goods to sell at such port, or take goods from the same, such vessel must pay the same duty and harbor charges as other merchant vessels except on the coal. And should any of such coal be sold in Madagascar, duty must be paid on the quantity so sold.

Article V.

1. The contracting parties may appoint consular officers of any or of all grades to reside in the dominions of the other, and such consular officers shall be granted all the rights and privileges granted to functionaries of like grades of the most favored nations, as witnesses of the good relations existing between the two nations, and to regulate and protect commerce.

2. The President of the United States of America may send a diplomatic officer of any grade to reside in Madagascar who shall enjoy the rights and privileges provided by international law for his grade.

3. The Queen of Madagascar shall have the like privilege of sending a diplomatic officer of any grade to the United States of America, and he shall enjoy there likewise all the rights and privileges of his grade established by international law.

Article VI.

1. Citizens and proteges of the United States of America, who enter Madagascar, and subjects of Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar, while sojourning in the United States of America, are subject to the laws of trade and commerce in the respective countries.

2. In regard to civil rights, whether of person or property, of citizens and proteges of the United States of America, where disputes or differences shall arise between them, or in cases of criminal offenses committed by them upon each other, they shall be under the exclusive civil and criminal jurisdiction of their own consuls, duly invested with the necessary powers.

3. Neither shall the Malagasy authorities interfere in differences or disputes between United States citizens and proteges and the citizens or subjects of any third power in Madagascar.

4. But the Malagasy police may, whenever a United States citizen or protege shall be discovered in the act of committing a crime against any person, of whatever nationality, or breach of the peace in any manner, whether by making unlawful disturbance in the streets and public places, or in any manner breaking the published laws of Madagascar, arrest such offender without process and take him immediately before the proper United States consular officer, who will take such action in the case as the circumstances, the laws of the two countries, and the stipulations of this treaty require.

5. The Malagasy Government will supply to each United States consular officer residing in Madagascar, within six months after the exchange of the ratification of this treaty, one or more printed copies of all laws, decrees, or customs having the force of law which affect in any way, directly or indirectly, foreigners sojourning in Madagascar, in their rights and privileges, either of person or property, for the information of United States citizens sojourning in Madagascar.

6. And in like manner, whenever any change shall be made in such laws or decrees, or new ones be promulgated, touching the interests of such persons, a like printed copy of the same shall be furnished to each said United States consular officers, at least one month before such change, or new law, or decree shall take effect; and when any such change, or new law, or decree, touches or changes the regulations of the custom-house, or duties to be paid, or the laws in regard to exports and imports, the said copies of such new laws and decrees shall be so furnished at least six months before taking effect against United States citizens.

7. All disputes and differences arising between citizens and proteges of the United States of America and subjects of Madagascar, and all citizens of both governments to be tried by "mixed courts."

criminal offences committed by such citizens and proteges against said subjects of Madagascar, and all criminal offences committed by the subjects of Madagascar against the citizens and proteges of the United States of America, as well as all infringement of the laws of Madagascar by the United States citizens and proteges, shall be investigated, tried, and adjudged by "mixed courts." as follows:

8. The chief United States diplomatic officer, when there shall be one in Madagascar, or when there is no such officer residing in the kingdom, the chief or senior United States consular officer, and a Malagasy officer, duly appointed by Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar for that purpose, shall constitute a "mixed superior court," which shall be "a court of record," and may hold its sittings at Antananarivo, the capital of Madagascar, or at Tamatave, according as the circumstances of the business of the court may require.

9. This superior court shall have both original and appellate jurisdiction; that is, actions may be commenced and decided in it, and it may also try cases appealed from the inferior courts herein provided for, as follows:

10. There shall be one inferior mixed court in each United States consular and each United States consular agent's district in Madagascar. Such courts shall consist of the United States consular officer of the district and a Malagasy officer appointed by Her Majesty's Government for the purpose, for each district.

11. The inferior courts shall have original jurisdiction of civil cases where the sum claimed does not exceed five hundred dollars ($500) or imprisonment for more than one year, or both, as will be more fully explained in the "Code of Rules" of proceedings for the mixed courts, hereinafter provided for.

12. Appeals from the superior mixed courts may be taken to either of the two governments, at the option of the party appealing, in the manner provided in said "Code of Rules."

13. In the trial of actions in these courts, the native judge shall preside and have the prevailing voice in the decisions when United States citizens or proteges are the plaintiffs, and vice versa when they are defendants, that is, when subjects of the Queen are the plaintiffs the United States (consular or diplomatic) officer, as the case may be, shall preside and have the prevailing voice in the decisions.

14. But the presiding judge shall in every case counsel with and give due weight to the opinions of the associate judge before giving decisions.

15. It is agreed by the high contracting parties that any attempt to influence the decision of these judges, or any one of them, in a case on trial, or to be decided by them, except by arguments in open court, shall be considered a misdemeanor; and that the offering a bribe to any one of them in money or other object of value or favor, for the purpose of influencing his decision, shall be considered a felony, and that the person proved guilty of either of these offences shall be punished by the government to which he belongs, according to the grade of his crime. And if it shall be proved that a judge of these courts, of either nationality, shall have received a bribe to influence his decision in any case, he shall be dismissed from his office of judge, and otherwise punished according to the laws of his own nation for such malfeasance.

16. It is further agreed that within six months after the exchange of the ratification of this treaty, that the chief diplomatic or consular officer of the United States, who shall be at the time residing in Madagascar, and one or more officers to be selected by Her Majesty's Government, shall meet and together draw up a "Code of Rules" of proceedings for these mixed courts, which code, when so drawn and signed by said officers, shall be forwarded by them to their respective governments for approval; and when approved by both governments shall be considered a part of this treaty, duly ratified as such. And this treaty, including said code of rules, together with international law, and the laws of the TREATY—MADAGASCAR. MAY 13, 1881.

United States of America and of Madagascar, in so far as the latter can be made to harmonize, shall govern proceedings in these courts.

17. It is agreed that the said "Code of Rules" shall follow, in so far as the laws and present status of things in Madagascar will admit, the rules of proceedings in United States consular courts in Madagascar; that all attestations in the proceedings shall be made under the judicial oath or affirmation of civilized nations; and that the said code of rules shall define how actions shall be commenced and be conducted, the grades of offences and their punishments, under what circumstances arrests may be made, and the amount and manner of bail to be taken, the disposition to be made of fines collected, when, how, and to whom appeals may be taken, and all other matters necessary for the intelligent working of such courts. And shall also contain forms for writs and other processes, and a tariff of fees.

18. In all cases of arrest permitted by this treaty now, and to be provided for the "Code of Rules", the prisoner shall be, during their detention, treated with all the humanity consonant with the laws of civilized nations. Her Majesty's Government will see that they are supplied with wholesome food and drink in sufficient quantity, and detained in healthy quarters, and that they are brought to trial in the shortest time possible consonant with the convenience of the prisoner.

19. In cases of arrest of American citizens or protegés in the absence of a United States consular officer, or where no such officer resides, the authority causing the arrest shall immediately inform the nearest United States consular officer of the fact and of the circumstance of the case, and also cause the prisoner to be taken as soon as possible before the mixed court of which that nearest consular officer is a judge.

20. It shall be the duty of the court to encourage the settlement of controversies of a civil character by mutual agreement, or to submit the same to the decision of referees agreed upon by the parties. And in criminal cases, which are not of a heinous character, it shall be lawful for the parties aggrieved or concerned therein, with the assent of the court, to adjust the same among themselves upon pecuniary or other considerations.

21. Her Majesty's Government will render all assistance in its power to United States citizens and protegés toward collecting their legal claims against Her Majesty's subjects; and United States consular officers will likewise render every assistance in collecting legal claims against United States citizens and protegés.

22. Whenever it is known, or there is reason to believe, that transgressors against the laws, fugitives from justice are on the premises of United States citizens or protegés, such premises may be entered by the Malagasy police with the consent of the occupants, or against their consent in company with a United States Consular officer, or with his written order. In case of absence of such United States officers, or in places where no such officers reside, the police may make such entry by the order of the local authority, to look for the offender or stolen property; and the offender, if found, may be arrested, and all stolen property seized.

23. Murder and insurrection or rebellion against the Government of Madagascar with intent to subvert the same, shall be capital offence, and not bailable; and when a United States citizen shall be convicted by this court of either of those crimes he shall be banished the country and sent to the United States of America for a review of his trial and approval of his sentence and punishment. If a Malagasy subject be convicted by the court of the murder of a United States citizen or protegé he shall suffer such punishment as the Malagasy law awards for such crime when her Majesty, the Queen of Madagascar, shall have approved the judgment of the court.

24. When a United States citizen shall have been convicted of several minor offences, showing him to be a turbulent and intractable person, he shall, upon the request of the Government of Her Majesty the Queen, be banished the country.

ARTICLE VII.

1. No United States vessel shall have communication with the shore before receiving pratique from the local authorities of Madagascar and producing a "bill of health" from the port sailed from, signed by the Malagasy consul if there be one at that port; if none, then by the person duly authorized to give such bills of health.

2. Malagasy subjects shall not be permitted to embark on United States vessels without a passport from Her Majesty's Government.

3. In cases of mutiny on United States merchant vessels, or in cases of desertion from United States national or private vessels, the local authorities shall, on application, render all necessary assistance as far as is possible to the United States consular officer to bring back the deserter, or to restore discipline on board merchant vessels.

4. When a United States consular officer shall ask the local authorities to arrest a deserter from a vessel, the police shall be directed to do their utmost to arrest promptly such deserter in the district. And if the consular officer suggest other places where the deserter may have secreted himself, the authorities shall give a written notice to the governor of such district pointed out, who shall in his turn do his utmost to find and arrest the deserter. And the result of such efforts, whether successful or otherwise, shall be promptly reported to the governor, who shall report to the consular officer.

5. For the services required by this article for arresting deserters, if such deserters be arrested, a fee of three dollars ($3) may be exacted for each deserter arrested, and five cents per English mile for the distance actually travelled by the police, and also such necessary expenses as may be incurred for food, ferrying, and imprisonment of the deserter.

6. And if discovered that such police did not do their utmost they shall be punished by the governor; and if such police have done their utmost but without success, they will be none the less entitled to the expenses above stated, but not to the fee of three dollars ($3).

ARTICLE VIII.

1. In case of a shipwreck of a United States vessel on the coast of Madagascar, or if any such vessel should be attacked or plundered in the waters of Madagascar, adjacent to any military station, the governor will do his utmost to urge the people to save life and to secure property and to restore it to the owners or to the United States consul, and if there be no consul nor owner in such district, an inventory of the goods rescued shall be made and the goods shall be delivered to the nearest United States consular officer, who shall give the governor a receipt for the same.

2. The governor of the district shall take the names of the people engaged in saving such vessel, and designate those who rescue lives and those who save goods.

3. And if such vessel be an abandoned one, then one-fourth of vessel and goods may be claimed for salvage.

4. And if a vessel be in distress, and the captain or crew demand help, such help shall be rewarded at the rate of twenty-five cents a day for soldiers and laborers, and one dollar a day for officers who superintend such help.

5. And if any vessel be wrecked or in distress, and the captain or crew do not demand assistance, being in a situation to do so, and consequently the Malagasy do not save anything, the governor and people will not be responsible.

6. However, in case the captain or crew demand assistance, or are in a situation where making such a demand is impossible, and it is known that the governor did not do his utmost to move the people to save such vessel and cargo, he shall be punished according to the laws of Madagascar.

7. The same protection shall be granted to Malagasy vessels attacked or plundered in the waters of the United States of America.

ARTICLE IX.

1. American goods may be landed in bond to be reshipped to other ports without payment of duties, under the following rules:

2. When it may be desired to so land goods to be reshipped to other ports, the owner of the goods, or the consignee, or master of the vessel, as the case may be, shall present to the local governor, or to the collector of customs, as the governor may direct, a correct invoice or manifest of the goods so landed, showing values by detail when there are goods of different kinds, or of different values, and quantities of each and the total value.

3. The Malagasy customs officers shall verify by inspection the goods when landed with the invoice or manifest; then the owner, consignee, or master of the vessel, as the case may be, shall execute a bond payable to the governor or collector of customs, as may be directed by the local authority, conditioned to pay the established duties on such goods, or on such part of them as shall not have been reshipped within the period agreed upon, which period shall be mentioned in the bond as the date of its maturity. Then such goods may be stored on the premises of their owner or consignee, or in magazines rented by him for that purpose.

4. When he reships the goods, he will notify the party to whom this bond has been given to be present and again verify the goods with the invoice or manifest, when, if none are lacking, he will be entitled to the return of his bond, or if the goods or any part of them are lacking, he must pay the duty as established by Article IV. on such as are not found and reshipped, which will equally entitle him to receive back his bond.

ARTICLE X.

Her Majesty's Government desires the development of the dormant resources of the kingdom and the advancement of all the useful mechanical and agricultural industries therein, and thereby to promote the best interests of commerce and Christian civilization by adoption and application of such modern improvements and appliances as shall be suitable for such purposes and best adapted to the condition of Madagascar, and for the best interests of Her Majesty's people; and toward the accomplishment of these objects, should any United States citizens or proteges of good character, and possessing the requisite qualifications for the special business proposed, desire to engage in such industries in Madagascar by investment of capital or labor, or in teaching the people how to apply the modern improvements in the prosecution of the industries, their applications to the government will be favorably received and their propositions liberally entertained; and if they and the government can agree upon terms they will be permitted to engage in such avocations by contracts, grants, commissions or salaries.

ARTICLE XI.

1. It is agreed between the high contracting parties that the levy of taxes on United States citizens, as herein before provided for conditionally in Article III., section 13, shall never be at a higher rate than shall be levied upon Her Majesty's subjects for the same purposes and upon like values, except the special land tax hereinbefore provided for in Article III., section 12.

2. United States citizens and proteges shall not be deprived of any privileges relinquished by this treaty unless the same restrictions be placed upon the citizens and subjects of all other foreign nations residing in Madagascar, but shall enjoy all the privileges that may be granted to the most favored nations.

3. And her Majesty's subjects while sojourning in the United States of America shall enjoy all the privileges conceded by the United States Government to the citizens or subjects of the most favored nation.

ARTICLE XII.

1. The above articles of treaty made in good faith shall be submitted to both the Government of the United States of America and Her Majesty, the Queen of Madagascar, for ratification; and such ratification be exchanged within one year from date of ratification at Antananarivo.

2. Should it at any future time seem desirable in the interests of either of the contracting parties to alter or add to the present treaty, such alterations or additions shall be effected with the consent of both parties.

3. Duplicate originals of this treaty, with corresponding text in the English and Malagasy languages, which shall be both of equal authority, have been signed and sealed at Antananarivo, Madagascar, on this 13th day of May (seventeenth of Alakaosy), one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

TREATY—SERBIA—COMMERCIAL.  October 2–14, 1881.

Treaty between the United States and Serbia for facilitating and developing commercial relations, concluded at Belgrade October 14, 1881; ratification advised by the Senate July 5, 1882; ratified by the President July 14, 1882; ratified by the Prince of Serbia October 30, 1882; ratifications exchanged at Belgrade November 15, 1882; proclaimed December 27, 1882.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, a Treaty between the United States of America and His Highness the Prince of Serbia, for facilitating and developing the commercial relations established between the two countries, was concluded and signed at Belgrade by their respective plenipotentiaries on the 14th day of October, 1881, the original of which treaty, being in the English and Serbian languages, is word for word as follows:

[The following is the English version.]

TREATY OF COMMERCE BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND SERBIA.

The United States of America and His Highness the Prince of Serbia, animated by the desire of facilitating and developing the commercial relations established between the two countries, have determined with this object to conclude a treaty, and have named as their respective plenipotentiaries, viz:

The United States of America, Eugene Schuyler, their chargé d'affaires and consul-general at Bucarest;

His Highness the Prince of Serbia, Monsieur Ched. Mijatovitch, His Minister of Foreign Affairs, Grand Officer of His Order of Takova, &c., &c., &c.

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following articles:

ARTICLE I.

There shall be reciprocally full and entire liberty of commerce and navigation between the citizens and subjects of the two high contracting powers, who shall be at liberty to establish themselves freely in each other’s territory.

 Citizens of the United States in Serbia and Serbian subjects in the United States shall reciprocally, on conforming to the laws of the country, be at liberty freely to enter, travel or reside in any part of the respective territories, to carry on their business, and shall enjoy in this respect for their persons and property the same protection as that enjoyed by natives or by the subjects of the most favored nation.

They shall be at liberty to exercise their industry and trade, both by wholesale and by retail, in the whole extent of both territories, without being subjected as to their persons or property, or with regard to the exercise of their trade or business, to any taxes, whether general or local, or to any imposts or conditions of any kind other or more onerous than those which are or may be imposed upon natives or upon the subjects of the most favored nation.
Privileges, exemptions, immunities

In like manner in all that relates to local taxes, customs, formalities, brokerage, patterns or samples introduced by commercial travellers, and all other matters connected with trade, citizens of the United States in Serbia and Serbian subjects in the United States shall enjoy the treatment of the most favored nation, and all the rights, privileges, exemptions and immunities of any kind enjoyed with respect to commerce and industry by the citizens or subjects of the high contracting parties, or which are or may be hereafter conceded to the subjects of any third power, shall be extended to the citizens or subjects of the other.

ARTICLE II.

In all that concerns the right of acquiring, possessing or disposing of every kind of property, real or personal, citizens of the United States in Serbia and Serbian subjects in the United States, shall enjoy the rights which the respective laws grant or shall grant in each of these states to the subjects of the most favored nation.

Within these limits, and under the same conditions as the subjects of the most favored nation, they shall be at liberty to acquire and dispose of such property, whether by purchase, sale, donation, exchange, marriage contract, testament, inheritance, or in any other manner whatever, without being subject to any taxes, imposts or charges whatever, other or higher than those which are or shall be levied on natives or on the subjects of the most favored state.

They shall likewise be at liberty to export freely the proceeds of the sale of their property, and their goods in general, without being subject to pay any other or higher duties than those payable under similar circumstances by natives or by the subjects of the most favored state.

ARTICLE III.

Reciprocal liberty of citizens to transact business.

Merchants, manufacturers, and trades people in general of one of the two contracting countries travelling in the other, or sending thither their clerks and agents, whether with or without samples, in the exclusive interest of the commerce or industry that they carry on, and for the purpose of making purchases or sales, or receiving commissions, shall be treated with regard to their licenses, as the merchants, manufacturers and trades people of the most favored nation.

Laws regarding peddling and hawking to remain in force.

It is understood, however, that the preceding stipulations do not affect in any way the laws and regulations in force in each of the two countries applicable to all foreigners as respects peddling and hawking.

The citizens and subjects of the Contracting Parties shall be reciprocally treated as the natives of the country, or as the subjects of the most favored nation, when they shall go from one country to the other to visit fairs and markets for the purpose of exercising their commerce and selling their products.

No obstacle shall be placed in the way of the free movements of travellers, and the administrative formalities relative to travelling passports shall be restricted to the strict necessities of the public service on passing the frontiers.

ARTICLE IV.

Exemption from land and sea service.

Citizens of the United States in Serbia and Serbian subjects in the United States shall be reciprocally exempted from all personal service, whether in the army by land or by sea; whether in the national guard or militia; from billeting; from all contributions, whether pecuniary or in kind, destined as a compensation for personal service; from all forced loans, and from all military exactions or requisitions. The liabilities, however, arising out of the possession of real property, and for military loans and requisitions to which all the natives might be called upon to contribute as proprietors of real property or as farmers, shall be excepted.
They shall be equally exempted from all obligatory official, judicial, administrative or municipal functions whatever.

They shall have reciprocally free access to the courts of justice on conforming to the laws of the country, both for the prosecution and for the defence of their rights in all the degrees of jurisdiction established by the laws. They can employ in every case advocates, lawyers and agents of all classes authorized by the law of the country, and shall enjoy in this respect, as well as concerning domiciliary visits to their houses, manufactories, warehouses or shops, the same rights and advantages as are or shall be granted to the natives of the country, or to the subjects of the most favored nation.

It is understood that every favor or exemption which shall be subsequently granted in this matter to the subjects of a foreign country by one of the two contracting powers shall be immediately and by right extended to the citizens or subjects of the other party.

ARTICLE V.

Neither of the contracting parties shall establish a prohibition of importation, exportation or transit against the other which shall not be applicable at the same time to all other nations, except the special measures that the two countries reserve to themselves the right of establishing for a sanitary purpose, or in event of a war.

ARTICLE VI.

As to the amount, the guarantee and the collection of duties on imports and exports, as well as regards transit, re-exportation, warehousing, local dues and custom-house formalities, each of the two high contracting parties binds itself to give to the other the advantage of every favor, privilege or diminution in the tariffs on the import or export of the articles mentioned or not in the present convention, that it shall have granted to a third power. Also every favor or immunity which shall be later granted to a third power shall be immediately extended, and without condition, and by this very fact to the other contracting party.

ARTICLE VII.

The products of the soil or of the industry of Serbia which shall be imported into the United States of America, and the products of the soil or of the industry of the United States which shall be imported into Serbia, and which shall be destined for consumption in the country, for warehousing, for re-exportation or for transit, shall be subjected to the same treatment, and shall not be liable to other or higher duties than the products of the most favored nation.

ARTICLE VIII.

Merchandise of every kind coming from one of the two territories or going thither shall be reciprocally exempted in the other, from every transit duty, whether it pass directly through the country, or whether during the transit it shall be unloaded, stored and reloaded without prejudice to the special regulations which, conformably to Article V., may be established concerning gunpowder and arms of war.

ARTICLE IX.

As concerns the custom-house laws and regulations on goods subjected to ad valorem duty, the importers and the products of one of the two countries shall be in all respects treated in the other as the importers and products of the most favored country.
ARTICLE X.

The provisions of the preceding articles relative to the treatment in all respects like the subjects of the most favored state shall not affect the special facilities which have been or may be hereafter conceded on the part of one of the two states to neighboring states with respect to the local traffic between the conterminous frontier districts.

ARTICLE XI.

It is agreed that, as regards freight and all other facilities, goods of the United States, conveyed over Serbian railways, and Serbian goods conveyed over railways of the United States, shall be treated in exactly the same manner as the goods of any other nation the most favored in that respect.

ARTICLE XII.

The high contracting parties, desiring to secure complete and efficient protection to the manufacturing industry of their respective citizens and subjects, agree that any counterfeiting in one of the two countries of the trade-marks affixed in the other on merchandise to show its origin and quality shall be strictly prohibited and repressed and shall give ground for an action of damages in favor of the injured parties, to be prosecuted in the courts of the country in which the counterfeit shall be proven.

The trade-marks in which the citizens or subjects of one of the two countries may wish to secure the right of property in the other, must be registered exclusively, to wit: The marks of citizens of the United States in the Tribunal of Commerce at Belgrade, and the marks of Serbian subjects in the Patent Office at Washington, subject to the conditions and restrictions prescribed by the laws and regulations of the country in which the trade-marks are registered.

ARTICLE XIII.

Ships of the United States and their cargoes shall in Serbia, and Serbian ships and their cargoes shall in the United States, from whatsoever place arriving, and whatever may be the place of origin or destination of their cargoes, be treated in every respect as the ships and cargoes of the most favored state.

The preceding stipulation applies to local treatment, dues and charges in the ports, basins, docks, roadsteads, harbors and rivers of the two countries, pilotage, and generally to all matters connected with navigation.

Every favor or exemption in these respects, or any other privilege in matters of navigation which either of the contracting parties shall grant to a third power shall be extended immediately and unconditionally to the other party.

ARTICLE XIV.

The present treaty shall remain in force for ten years from the day of the exchange of ratifications, and if twelve months before the expiration of that period neither of the high contracting parties shall have announced to the other its intention to terminate the said treaty, it shall remain obligatory until the expiration of one year from the day when either of the high contracting parties shall have denounced it.

The preceding stipulations shall come into force in the two countries one month after the exchange of ratifications.

ARTICLE XV.

The present treaty shall be ratified by the President of the United States of America, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate thereof, and by His Highness the Prince of Serbia, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Belgrade as soon as possible.
TREATY—SERBIA—COMMERCIAL. October 2-14, 1881.

In faith whereof the plenipotentiaries of the two high contracting parties have signed the present treaty in duplicate in the English and Serbian languages, and thereto affixed their respective seals.

Done in duplicate at Belgrade this 2-14 day of October, 1881.

Convention between the United States of America and Serbia for defining the rights, immunities, and privileges of consular officers; concluded at Belgrade October 14, 1881; ratification advised by the Senate July 5, 1882; ratified by the President July 14, 1882; ratified by the Prince of Serbia October 30, 1882; ratifications exchanged at Belgrade November 3, 1882; proclaimed December 27, 1882.

By the President of the United States of America.

A Proclamation.

Whereas, a Convention between the United States of America and His Highness the Prince of Serbia, defining the rights, immunities and privileges of consular officers, was concluded and signed by their respective plenipotentiaries at Belgrade on the 14th day of October, 1881, the original of which Convention being in the English and Serbian languages is word for word as follows:

[The following is the English version.]

CONVENTION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND HIS HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF SERBIA, DEFINING THE RIGHTS, IMMUNITIES AND PRIVILEGES OF CONSULAR OFFICERS.

The President of the United States of America and His Highness the Prince of Serbia, being mutually desirous of defining the rights, privileges and immunities of consular officers in the two countries, as well as their functions and obligations, have resolved to conclude a consular convention, and have accordingly named as their plenipotentiaries:

The President of the United States, Eugene Schnyler, charged d' affaires and consul-general of the United States at Bucarest; His Highness the Prince of Serbia, Monsieur Ched. Mijatovitch, His Minister of Foreign Affairs, Grand Officer of His Order of Takova, &c., &c., &c.

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found to be in good and proper form, have agreed upon the following articles:

ARTICLE I.

Each of the high contracting parties agrees to receive from the other, consuls-general, consuls, vice-consuls and consular agents, in all its ports, cities and places, except those where it may not be convenient to recognize such officers. This reservation, however, shall not apply to one of the high contracting parties without also applying to every other power.

ARTICLE II.

The consuls-general, consuls, vice-consuls and consular agents of the two high contracting parties shall enjoy reciprocally, in the states of the other, all the privileges, exemptions and immunities that are enjoyed by officers of the same rank and quality of the most favored nation. The said officers, before being admitted to the exercise of their functions and the enjoyment of the immunities thereto pertaining, shall present their commissions in the forms established in their respective countries. The government of each of the two high contracting powers shall furnish them the necessary exequatur free of charge, and, on the exhibition of this instrument, they shall be permitted to enjoy the rights, privileges and immunities granted by this convention.
ARTICLE III.

Consuls-general, consuls, vice-consuls and consular agents, citizens of the State by which they are appointed, shall be exempt from preliminary arrest, except in the case of offences which the local legislation qualifies as crimes and punishes as such; they shall be exempt from military billetings, from service in the regular army or navy, in the militia, or in the national guard; they shall likewise be exempt from all direct taxes, national, state or municipal, imposed upon persons, either in the nature of capitation tax or in respect to their property, unless such taxes become due on account of the possession of real estate, or for interest on capital invested in the country where the said officers exercise their functions. This exemption shall not, however, apply to consuls-general, consuls, vice-consuls or consular agents engaged in any profession, business or trade; but said officers shall in such case be subject to the payment of the same taxes that would be paid by any other foreigner under the like circumstances.

ARTICLE IV.

When a court of one of the two countries shall desire to receive the judicial declaration or deposition of a consul-general, consul, vice-consul or consular agent, who is a citizen of the State which appointed him, and who is engaged in no commercial business, it shall request him, in writing, to appear before it; and in case of his inability to do so, it shall request him to give his testimony in writing, or shall visit his residence or office to obtain it orally.

It shall be the duty of such officer to comply with this request with as little delay as possible.

In all criminal cases, contemplated by the sixth article of the Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, whereby the right is secured to persons charged with crimes to obtain witnesses in their favor, the appearance in court of said consular officer shall be demanded, with all possible regard to the consular dignity and to the duties of his office. A similar treatment shall also be extended to the consuls of the United States in Serbia, in the like cases.

ARTICLE V.

Consuls-general, consuls, vice-consuls and consular agents may place over the outer door of their offices the arms of their nation, with this inscription: Consulate-General, or Consulate, or Vice-Consulate, or Consular Agency of the United States or of Serbia. They may also raise the flag of their country on their offices, except in the capital of the country when there is a legation there. They may in like manner, raise the flag of their country over the boat employed by them in the port for the exercise of their functions.

ARTICLE VI.

The consular offices shall at all times be inviolable. The local authorities shall not, under any pretext, invade them. In no case shall they examine or seize the papers there deposited. In no case shall those offices be used as places of asylum. When a consular officer is engaged in other business, the papers relating to the consulate shall be kept separate.

ARTICLE VII.

In the event of the death, incapacity or absence of consuls-general, consuls, vice-consuls and consular agents, their chancellors or secretaries, whose official character may have previously been made known to the Department of State at Washington or to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Serbia, may temporarily exercise their functions, and while thus acting they shall enjoy all the rights, prerogatives and immunities granted to the incumbents.

ARTICLE VIII.

Consuls-general and consuls may, so far as the laws of their country allow, with the approbation of their respective governments, appoint vice-consuls and consular agents in the cities, ports and places within their consular jurisdiction.

These agents may be selected from among citizens of the United States or of Serbia, or those of other countries. They shall be furnished with a regular commission, and shall enjoy the privileges stipulated for consular officers in this convention, subject to the exceptions specified in Articles 3 and 4.

ARTICLE IX.

Consuls-general, consuls, vice-consuls and consular agents shall have the right to address the administrative and judicial authorities, whether in the United States of the Union, the States or the municipalities, or in Serbia, of the State or the Commune, throughout the whole extent of their consular jurisdiction, in order to complain of any infraction of the treaties and conventions between the United States and Serbia, and for the purpose of protecting the rights and interests of their countrymen. If the complaint should not be satisfactorily redressed, the consular officers aforesaid, in the absence of a diplomatic agent of their country, may apply directly to the government of the country where they exercise their functions.

ARTICLE X.

Consuls-general, consuls, vice-consuls and consular agents may take at their offices, at their private residence, at the residence of the parties, or on board ship the depositions of the captains and crews of vessels of their own country, of passengers on board of them, and of any other citizen of their nation. They may also receive at their offices, conformably to the laws and regulations of their country, all contracts between the citizens of their country and the citizens or other inhabitants of the country where they reside, and even all contracts between the latter, provided they relate to property situated, or to business to be transacted, in the territory of the nation to which the said consular officer may belong.

Such papers and official documents of every kind, whether in the original, in copies or in translation, duly authenticated and legalized by the consuls-general, consuls, vice-consuls and consular agents, and sealed with their official seal, shall be received as legal documents in courts of justice throughout the United States and Serbia.

ARTICLE XI.

In the case of the death of any citizen of the United States in Serbia, or of a Serbian subject in the United States, without having any known heirs or testamentary executors by him appointed, the competent local authorities shall give information of the circumstance to the consuls or consular agents of the nation to which the deceased belongs, in order that the necessary information may be immediately forwarded to the parties interested.

Consuls-general, consuls, vice-consuls and consular agents shall have the right to appear, personally or by delegate, in all proceedings on behalf of the absent or minor heirs or creditors until they are duly represented.
ARTICLE XII.

In consideration of the present convention the United States consent to surrender the privileges and immunities hitherto enjoyed by their citizens in Serbia, in virtue of the capitulations with the Ottoman Empire, granted and confirmed to the United States by their treaties of 1830 and 1862.

Provided always, and it is hereby agreed, that the said capitulations shall, as regards all judicial matters, except those affecting real estate in Serbia, remain in full force as far as they concern the mutual relations between citizens of the United States and the subjects of those other powers which, having a right to the privileges and immunities accorded by the aforesaid capitulations, shall not have abandoned them.

ARTICLE XIII.

The present convention shall remain in force for the space of ten years, counting from the day of the exchange of the ratifications, which shall be made in conformity with the respective constitutions of the two countries and exchanged at Belgrade as soon as possible.

In case neither party gives notice, twelve months before the expiration of the said period of ten years, of its intention not to renew this convention, it shall remain in force one year longer, and so on from year to year, until the expiration of a year from the day on which one of the parties shall have given such notice.

In faith whereof, the respective plenipotentiaries have signed this convention in duplicate, and have hereunto affixed their seals.

Done at Belgrade this \( \frac{1}{4} \) day of October, 1881.

A PROCLAMATION.

Preamble.

Whereas a Convention between the United States of America and His Majesty the King of the Belgians for the mutual extradition of criminals was concluded and signed by their respective plenipotentiaries at the city of Washington on the thirteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, which convention is word for word as follows:

The United States of America and his Majesty the King of the Belgians, having judged it expedient with a view to the better administration of justice and the prevention of crime within their respective territories and jurisdictions, that persons charged with or convicted of the crimes and offences hereinafter enumerated, and being fugitives from justice, should, under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up, have resolved to conclude a new Convention for that purpose, and have appointed, as their Plenipotentiaries: the President of the United States, Frederick T. Frelinghuysen, Secretary of State of the United States; and His Majesty the King of the Belgians, Mr. Théodore de Bounder de Melsbroeck, Commander of His Order of Léopold, etc., etc., His Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary near the government of the United States; who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following articles:

ARTICLE I.

Persons to be delivered up.

The Government of the United States and the Government of Belgium, mutually agree to deliver up persons who, having been charged, as principals or accessories, with crimes within their respective countries, shall have been found, and which are punishable under the laws of the said respective countries, in consequence of which persons being occasionally for the time being in the territory of the United States, they shall be delivered up to the authorities of the United States, and shall be tried and punished according to the laws of the said United States.

ARTICLE II.

The Government of the United States of America and the Government of Belgium do hereby agree, in pursuance of the foregoing articles, that persons, having been charged, as principals or accessories, with crimes within their respective countries, and which are punishable under the laws of the said respective countries, shall be delivered up, and tried and punished according to the laws of the said respective countries.
or convicted of any of the crimes and offences specified in the following article, committed within the jurisdiction of one of the contracting parties, shall seek an asylum, or be found within the territories of the other: Provided that this shall only be done upon such evidence of criminality as, according to the laws of the place where the fugitive or person so charged shall be found, would justify his or her apprehension and commitment for trial if the crime had been there committed.

Article II.

Persons shall be delivered up who shall have been convicted of or be charged, according to the provisions of this convention, with any of the following crimes:

1. Murder, comprehending the crimes designated in the Belgian penal code by the terms of parricide, assassination, poisoning and infanticide.
2. The attempt to commit murder.
3. Rape, or attempt to commit rape. Bigamy. Abortion.
4. Arson.
5. Piracy or mutiny on shipboard whenever the crew, or part thereof, shall have taken possession of the vessel by fraud or by violence against the commandant.
6. The crime of burglary, defined to be the act of breaking and entering by night into the house of another with the intent to commit felony; and the crime of robbery, defined to be the act of feloniously and forcibly taking from the person of another money or goods by violence or putting him in fear; and the corresponding crimes punished by the Belgian laws under the description of thefts committed in an inhabited house by night, and by breaking in by climbing or forcibly, and thefts committed with violence or by means of threats.

7. The crime of forgery, by which is understood the utterance of forged papers, and also the counterfeiting of public, sovereign, or governmental acts.

Anteurs ou complices, du chef de l'un des crimes et délits énumérés à l'article suivant, commis dans la juridiction de l'une des parties contractantes, chercheront un asile ou seront trouvées dans les territoires de l'autre partie: Toutefois, l'extradition n'aura lieu que dans le cas où l'existence de l'infraction sera constatée de telle manière que les lois du pays où le fugitif ou la personne poursuivie sera trouvée, justifieraient sa détention et sa mise en jugement si le fait y avait été commis.

Article II.

Seront livrés, en vertu des dispositions de la présente convention, les individus poursuivis ou condamnés du chef de l'un des crimes ou délits suivants:

1. Meurtre, (y compris les crimes qualifiés dans le code pénal belge de parricide, assassinat, empoisonnement, et infanticide).
2. Tentative de meurtre.
3. Viol, attentat à la pudeur commis avec violence, avortement, bigamie.
4. Incendie.
5. Piraterie ou rébellion à bord d'un navire, lorsque l'équipage ou partie de celui-ci aura pris possession du navire par fraude ou violence envers le commandant.
6. Crime de "Burglary", consistant dans l'action de s'introduire nuitamment et avec effraction ou escalade dans l'habitation d'autrui avec une intention criminelle; crime de "robbery", consistant dans l'enlèvement forcé et criminel, effectué sur la personne d'autrui, d'argent ou d'effets, d'une valeur quelconque, à l'aide de violence ou d'intimidation, et les crimes correspondants prévus et punis par la loi belge, sous la qualification de vols commis dans une maison habitée, avec les circonstances de la nuit et de l'escalade ou de l'effraction, et de vols commis avec violence ou menaces.
8. The fabrication or circulation of counterfeit money, either coin or paper, or of counterfeit public bonds, coupons of the public debt, bank notes, obligations, or in general, anything being a title or instrument of credit; the counterfeiting of seals and dies, impressions, stamps, and marks of state and public administrations, and the utterance thereof.

9. The embezzlement of public moneys committed within the jurisdiction of either party by public officers or depositaries.

10. Embezzlement by any person or persons, hired or salaried, to the detriment of their employers, when the crime is subject to punishment by the laws of the place where it was committed.

11. Wilful and unlawful destruction or obstruction of railroads which endangers human life.

12. Reception of articles obtained by means of one of the crimes or offences provided for by the present convention.

Extradition may also be granted for the attempt to commit any of the crimes above enumerated when such attempt is punishable by the laws of both contracting parties.

ARTICLE III.

A person surrendered under this convention, shall not be tried or punished in the country to which his extradition has been granted, nor given up to a third power for a crime or offence, not provided for by the present convention and committed previously to his extradition, until he shall have been allowed one month to leave the country after having been discharged; and, if he shall have been tried and condemned to punishment, he shall be allowed one month after having suffered his penalty or having been pardoned.

He shall moreover not be tried or punished for any crime or offence provided for by this convention committed previous to his extradition, other than that which gave rise to the extradition, without the consent of the Government.

ARTICLE III.

L'individu extradé ne pourra être poursuivi ni puni dans le pays auquel l'extradition a été accordée, ni extradé à un pays tiers pour un crime ou un délit quelconque non prévu par la présente convention et antérieur à l'extradition, à moins qu'il n'ait eu, dans l'un et l'autre cas, la liberté de quitter de nouveau le pays susdit pendant un mois après avoir été jugé, et, en cas de condamnation, après avoir subi sa peine ou après avoir été gracié. Il ne pourra pas non plus être poursuivi ni puni du chef d'un crime ou d'un délit prévu par la convention, antérieur à l'extradition, mais autre que celui qui a motivé l'extradition, sans le consentement du Gouvernement qui a livré l'extradé, et qui pourra, s'il le juge convenable, exiger la production de l'un des documents mentionnés... which surrendered him, which may, if it think proper, require the production of one of the documents mentioned in Article 7 of this convention.

The consent of that Government shall likewise be required for the extradition of the accused to a third country; nevertheless such consent shall not be necessary when the accused shall have asked of his own accord to be tried or to undergo his punishment, or when he shall not have left within the space of time above specified the territory of the country to which he has been surrendered.

ARTICLE IV.

The provisions of this convention shall not be applicable to persons guilty of any political crime or offence or of one connected with such a crime or offence. A person who has been surrendered on account of one of the common crimes or offences mentioned in Article II., shall consequently in no case be prosecuted and punished in the state to which his extradition has been granted on account of a political crime or offence committed by him previously to his extradition or on account of an act connected with such a political crime or offence, unless he has been at liberty to leave the country for one month after having been tried and, in case of condemnation, for one month after having suffered his punishment or having been pardoned.

An attempt against the life of the head of a foreign government, or against that of any member of his family when such attempt comprises the act either of murder or assassination, or of poisoning, shall not be considered a political offence or an act connected with such an offence.

ARTICLE V.

Neither of the contracting parties shall be bound to deliver up its own citizens or subjects under the stipulations of this convention.

ARTICLE VI.

If the person whose surrender may be claimed pursuant to the stipulations of the present treaty dans l'article 7 de la présente convention.

Le consentement de ce Gouvernement sera de même requis pour permettre l'extradition de l'inculpé à un pays tiers. Toutefois, ce consentement ne sera pas nécessaire lorsque l'inculpé aura demandé spontanément à être jugé ou à subir sa peine, ou lorsqu'il n'aura pas quitté, dans le délai fixé plus haut, le territoire du pays auquel il a été livré.

ARTICLE IV.

Les dispositions du présent traité ne sont point applicables aux personnes qui se sont rendues coupables de quelque crime ou délit politique, ou connexe à un semblable crime ou délit. La personne qui a été extradée à raison de l'un des crimes ou délits communs mentionnés à l'Art. II. ne peut par conséquent, en aucun cas, être poursuivie et punie dans l'État auquel l'extradition a été accordée à raison d'un crime ou délit politique commis par elle avant l'extradition, ni à raison d'un fait connexe à un semblable crime ou délit politique, à moins qu'elle n'ait eu la liberté de quitter de nouveau le pays pendant un mois après avoir été jugée, et, en cas de condamnation, après avoir subi sa peine ou après avoir été graciée.

Ne sera pas réputé délit politique, ni fait connexe à un semblable délit l'attentat contre la personne du chef d'un gouvernement étranger ou contre celle des membres de sa famille, lorsque cet attentat constituera le fait soit de meurtre, soit d'assassinat, soit d'empoisonnement.

ARTICLE V.

Les parties contractantes ne seront point obligées de se livrer leurs propres citoyens ou sujets en vertu des stipulations de la présente convention.

ARTICLE VI.

Lorsque la personne dont l'extradition est réclamée aux termes du présent traité aura été arrêtée

Extradition to a third country; conditions of.

Political crimes and offenses excepted.

Exceptions.

Own citizens not to be delivered up.

Criminals by the laws of country of asylum.
shall have been arrested for the commission of offences in the country where he has sought an asylum, or shall have been convicted thereof, his extradition may be deferred until he shall have been acquitted, or have served the term of imprisonment to which he may have been sentenced.

ARTICLE VII.

Requisitions for the surrender of fugitives from justice shall be made by the respective diplomatic agents of the contracting parties, or, in the event of the absence of these from the country or its seat of government, they may be made by superior consular officers.

If the person whose extradition may be asked for shall have been convicted of a crime or offence, a copy of the sentence of the court in which he may have been convicted, authenticated under its seal, and attestation of the official character of the judge by the proper executive authority, and of the latter by the minister or consul of the United States or of Belgium, respectively, shall accompany the requisition. When, however, the fugitive shall have been merely charged with crime, a duly authenticated copy of the warrant for his arrest in the country where the crime may have been committed, and of the depositions upon which such warrant may have been issued, must accompany the requisition as aforesaid.

The President of the United States, or the proper executive authority in Belgium, may then issue a warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive, in order that he may be brought before the proper judicial authority for examination. If it should then be decided that, according to the law and the evidence, the extradition is due pursuant to the treaty, the fugitive may be given up according to the forms prescribed in such cases.

ARTICLE VIII.

The expenses of the arrest, detention, and transportation of the persons claimed shall be paid by the government in whose name the requisition has been made.
CONVENTION—BELGIUM—EXTRADITION. JUNE 13, 1882.

ARTICLE IX.

Extradition shall not be granted, in pursuance of the provisions of this convention, if legal proceedings or the enforcement of the penalty for the act committed by the person claimed, has become barred by limitation, according to the laws of the country to which the requisition is addressed.

ARTICLE X.

All articles found in the possession of the accused party and obtained through the commission of the act with which he is charged, or that may be used as evidence of the crime for which his extradition is demanded, shall be seized if the competent authority shall so order, and shall be surrendered with his person.

The rights of third parties to the articles so found shall nevertheless be respected.

ARTICLE XI.

The present convention shall take effect thirty days after the exchange of ratifications.

After it shall have taken effect, the convention of March 19, 1874, shall cease to be in force and shall be superseded by the present convention which shall continue to have binding force for six months after a desire for its termination shall have been expressed in due form by one of the two governments to the other.

It shall be ratified and its ratification shall be exchanged at Washington as soon as possible.

In witness whereof, the respective plenipotentiaries have signed the above articles, both in the English and French languages, and they have thereunto affixed their seals.

Done in duplicate, at the city of Washington, this 13th day of June, 1882.

THIÈRE DE BOUNDER DE MELSBOECK.

And whereas, the said convention has been duly ratified on both parts, and the ratifications of the two Governments were exchanged in the city of Washington on the 18th day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two:

ARTICLE IX.

L'extradition n'aura pas lieu, conformément aux dispositions de la présente convention, si la prescription de l'action ou de la peine est acquise en faveur de l'individu réclamé, d'après les lois du pays auquel la demande est adressée.

ARTICLE X.

Tous objets trouvés en la possession de l'individu réclamé et provenant du fait inculpé ou pouvant servir de preuve au fait pour lequel l'extradition est demandée, seront saisis si l'autorité compétente en a ainsi ordonné, pour être livrés avec sa personne.

Sont cependant réservés les droits des tiers sur les objets susmentionnés.

ARTICLE XI.

La présente convention sera exécutoire 30 jours après l'échange des ratifications.

À partir de sa mise à exécution, la convention du 19 mars 1874 cessera d'être en vigueur et sera remplacée par la présente convention, laquelle continuera à sortir ses effets pendant six mois après qu'elle aura été dénoncée par l'un des deux Gouvernements.

Elle sera ratifiée et les ratifications en seront échangées à Washington aussitôt que possible.

En foi de quoi, les plénipotentiaires respectifs ont signé les articles ci-dessus, dans les langues Anglaise et Française, et y ont apposé leurs sceaux.

Ainsi fait par duplicata, à Washington, ce 13 de Juin 1882.
Now, therefore, be it known that I, Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States of America, have caused the said Convention to be made public, to the end that the same and every article and clause thereof may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States of America and the citizens thereof.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this twentieth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and seventh.

AGREEMENT—PORTUGAL. JULY 15, 1882.

Agreement with reference to the Convention for the exchange of money by means of postal-orders between the United States and Portugal, concluded at Washington, July 15, 1882; executed December 14, 1882; approved by the President December 18, 1882.

Whereas Article 11 of the Convention for the exchange of money by means of postal-orders between the United States and Portugal, concluded at Washington, July 15, 1882, stipulates that "The ratifications of the present Convention shall be exchanged prior to the first day of December, 1882"; and

Whereas the said Convention, having been approved by the President of the United States on the 15th day of July, 1882, has thereby been duly ratified on the part of the United States, and one copy thereof, bearing such approval, has been transmitted to and received by the Government of Portugal; but

Whereas the Government of Portugal, through its Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary, has notified the Government of the United States that, in view of the stipulation contained in Article 3, section 2, of the said Convention, that, "in addition to the fee mentioned in this article no other charge, tax, commission, or impost shall be collected for the issue, transmission, distribution, or payment of money-orders provided for in this Convention," which stipulation exempts the receipts upon money-orders from any stamp tax whatsoever, it cannot put the said Convention into operation without parliamentary approval thereof, and that it will ask for such approval so soon as the Cortes shall convene:

Now, therefore, the undersigned, Timothy O. Howe, Postmaster-General of the United States of America, in virtue of the powers vested in him by law, and Viscount das Nogueiras, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of His Majesty the King of Portugal, in the name of his Government, and by virtue of the powers which he has formally presented to this effect, have agreed,

That in lieu of Article 10 of the said Convention, which is in these words: "The present Convention shall take effect on the first day of January, 1883, and shall continue in force until twelve months after either of the contracting parties shall have notified to the other its intention to terminate it," shall be substituted the following:

ARTICLE 10.

The present Convention shall take effect on the first day of July, 1883, and shall continue in force until twelve months after either of the contracting parties shall have notified to the other its intention to terminate it;

And have furthermore agreed that in lieu of Article 11 of the said Convention, which is in these words: "The ratifications of the present Convention shall be exchanged prior to the first day of December, 1882," shall be substituted the following:

ARTICLE 11.

The ratifications of the present Convention shall be exchanged prior to the first day of June, 1883.

This agreement shall be ratified before the first day of May, 1883.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present agreement and have affixed thereto their seals.
Executed in duplicate, and signed at Washington, the fourteenth day of December, 1882.

TIMO. O. HOWE,
The Postmaster-General of the United States.

VISCONDE DAS NOGUEIRAS,
Envoy Extraordinary and Minister
Plenipotentiary of Portugal to the United States.

I hereby approve the foregoing agreement, and in testimony thereof I have caused the seal of the United States to be hereto affixed.

WASHINGTON, December 18, 1882.
Convention between the United States of America and the French Republic for the extension of the term of the Claims Commission established under convention of January 15, 1880; concluded July 19, 1882; ratification advised by the Senate August 8, 1882; ratified by the President of the United States December 23, 1882; ratified by the President of the French Republic December 2, 1882; ratifications exchanged December 29, 1882; proclaimed December 29, 1882.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

Know ye, that whereas a supplementary convention, extending the term of the duration of the Commission organized under the Convention of January 15, 1880, for the settlement of the claims of citizens of either country against the government of the other, was concluded between the United States and the French Republic, and signed by their respective plenipotentiaries, on the 19th day of July, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, the original of which convention is word for word as follows:

The United States of America and the French Republic, being persuaded that the labors of the Commission for the settlement of the claims of citizens of either country against the government of the other, which was organized under the Convention between the two governments signed at Washington the 15th day of January, 1880, cannot be concluded within the term fixed by that convention, have deemed it expedient to conclude a supplementary convention extending the term of duration of said Commission for a further period, and have named as their respective plenipotentiaries to that end, as follows:

The President of the United States, Frederick T. Frelinghuysen, Secretary of State of the United States, and

The President of the French Republic, Théodore Justin Dominique Roustan, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of France at Washington, Commander of the National Order of the Legion of Honor, etc., etc.;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following article:

Le gouvernement des États-Unis d'Amérique et le gouvernement de la République Française, ayant acquis la conviction que les travaux de la Commission pour le règlement des réclamations des citoyens de chacun des deux pays contre le gouvernement de l'autre, qui a été instituée par la Convention entre les deux gouvernements signée à Washington le 15 Janvier 1880, ne peuvent être terminés au terme fixé par cet e convention, ont résolu de conclure une convention supplémentaire pour prolonger le terme de la durée de la dite Commission jusqu'à une époque ultérieure et ont nommé à cet effet pour leurs plénipotentiaires, savoir:

Le Président des États Unis, Mr. Frederick T. Frelinghuysen, Secrétaire d'État des États-Unis; et

Le Président de la République Française, Mr. Théodore-Justin Dominique Roustan, Envoyé Extraordinaire et Ministre plénipotentiaire de France à Washington, Commandeur de l'Ordre national de la Légion d'Honneur, etc., etc.;

Lesquels, après s'être communiqué leurs pleins pouvoirs, trouvés en bonne et due forme, sont convenus de l'article suivant:
SOLE ARTICLE.

The term of two years fixed by the second paragraph of Article VIII. of the Convention between the United States and the French Republic, concluded January 15, 1880, within which the Commissioners appointed thereunder shall be bound to examine and decide upon every claim presented to them, is hereby extended to July first, 1883.

Terms for presentation of claims, etc.

Nothing in this agreement contained shall extend or alter the terms fixed in the first paragraph of said Article VIII. for the presentation of claims, but the same shall remain as therein fixed.

Exception.

If the proceedings of the Commission shall be interrupted by the death, incapacity, retirement, or cessation of the functions of any one of the Commissioners, then the period for which the term of the Commission is hereby extended shall not be held to include the time during which such interruption may actually exist.

Ratifications.

The present convention shall be ratified and the ratifications exchanged at Washington at as early a day as may be practicable.

Signatures.

In testimony whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed the present Convention, in the English and French languages, in duplicate, and have hereunto affixed their respective seals.

Done at the city of Washington the 19th day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

FRED'K T. FRELINGHUYSEN. [SEAL.]
TH. ROUSTAN.

And whereas, the said convention has been duly ratified on both parts and the ratifications of the two governments were exchanged in the city of Washington on the twenty-eighth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two:

Proclamation.

Now, therefore, be it known that I, CHESTER A. ARTHUR, President of the United States of America, have caused the said Convention to be made public, to the end that the same and every article and clause thereof may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States and the citizens thereof.

In testimony whereof, I have caused the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

ARTICLE UNIQUE.

Le terme de deux ans fixé par le second paragraphe de l'art. VIII. de la Convention entre les États-Unis et la République Française, conclue le 15 Janvier 1880, dans lequel les Commissaires nommés plus bas sont astreints à examiner et à juger toute réclamation à eux présentée est prolongé par le présent acte jusqu'au premier Juillet 1883.

Cette disposition ne peut avoir aucun effet pour étendre ou modifier les délais fixés dans le 1er paragraphe du dit Article VIII. pour la présentation des réclamations, ces délais devant demeurer tels qu'ils ont été fixés.

Si les opérations de la Commission sont interrompues par le mort, l'incapacité de siéger, le départ ou la cessation des fonctions de l'un des Commissaires, dans ce cas le terme jusqu'auquel la durée de la Commission a été prolongée par la présente convention sera calculé défaillance faite du temps pendant lequel la cause de l'interruption aura subsisté.

La présente Convention sera ratifiée et les ratifications seront échangées à Washington dans le plus court délai possible.

En foi de quoi les plénipotentiaires respectifs ont signé la présente Convention en langues anglaise et française en duplicata et l'ont revêtue de leurs sceaux respectifs.

CONVENTION—FRANCE. JULY 19, 1882.

Convention between the United States of America and the United States of Mexico, providing for an international boundary survey to relocate the existing frontier line between the two countries west of the Rio Grande. Concluded, July 29, 1882; ratification advised by the Senate, August 8, 1882; ratified by the President of the United States of Mexico, November 7, 1882; ratified by the President of the United States of America, January 29, 1883; ratifications exchanged, March 3, 1883; proclaimed, March 5, 1883.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas a convention was concluded between the United States of America and the United States of Mexico for the purpose of defining the manner in which the monuments heretofore erected for the purpose of marking the boundary between the two countries, but which have been destroyed or displaced are to be restored to their proper places and new ones erected, if necessary; and whereas said convention was signed by the respective plenipotentiaries of the two countries at Washington on the twenty-ninth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, the original of which convention being in the English and Spanish languages, is, word for word, as follows:

The President of the United States of America on the one hand and the President of the United States of Mexico on the other, being desirous of putting an end to whatever difficulties arise from the destruction or displacement of some of the monuments erected for the purpose of marking the boundary between the two countries, have thought proper to conclude a convention with the object of defining the manner in which the said monuments are to be restored to their proper places and new ones erected, if necessary; to which end they have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries, to wit:

The President of the United States of America, Frederick T. Frelinghuysen, Esquire, Secretary of State of the United States of America; and the President of the United States of Mexico, Señor Don Matías Romero, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States of Mexico, in Washington;

Who, after reciprocal exhibition of their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following articles:

El Presidente de los Estados Unidos de América, por una parte, y el Presidente de los Estados Unidos Mexicanos, por la otra, deseando poner término á las dificultades á que da lugar la destrucción ó dislocación de algunos de los monumentos que se construyeron para marcar la línea divisoria entre ambos países, han creído oportuno celebrar una convención con el objeto de fijar la manera con que han de ser repuestos en sus lugares respectivos dichos monumentos y erijidos otros nuevos, si fuere necesario; y al efecto han nombrado sus Plenipotenciarios; á saber:

El Presidente de los Estados Unidos de América, al Sr. Frederick T. Frelinghuysen, Secretario de Estado de los Estados Unidos de América; y el Presidente de los Estados Unidos Mexicanos, al Señor Don Matías Romero, Enviado Extraordinario y Ministro Plenipotenciario de los Estados Unidos Mexicanos en Washington;

Quienes, después de haberse convenido sus respectivos plenos poderes y de encontrarse en buena y debida forma, han convenido en los artículos siguientes:
Article I.

With the object of ascertaining the present condition of the monuments marking the boundary line between the United States of America and the United States of Mexico, established by the treaties of February 2nd, 1848, and December 3rd, 1853, and for determining generally what monuments, if any, have been destroyed or removed and may require to be rebuilt or replaced, a preliminary reconnaissance of the frontier line shall be made by each government, within six months from the exchange of ratifications of this convention. These reconnaissances shall be made by parties under the control of officers of the regular army of the respective countries, and shall be effected in concert, in such manner as shall be agreed upon by the commanders of the respective parties. The expense of each reconnoitering party shall be borne by the government in whose behalf it operates.

These reconnaissance parties shall report to their respective governments, within eight months from the exchange of the ratifications of this convention:

(a) the condition of the present boundary monuments;

(b) the number of destroyed or displaced monuments;

(c) the places, settled or capable of eventual settlement, where it may be advisable to set the monuments closer together along the line than at present;

(d) the character of the new monuments required, whether of stone or iron; and their number, approximately, in each case.

Article II.

Pending the conclusion of the preliminary reconnaissances provided in Article I, each government shall appoint a surveying party, consisting of an Engineer-in-chief, two Associates, one of whom shall be a practical astronomer, and such number of assistant engineers and associates as it may deem proper.

Artículo I.

Con el objeto de conocer la actual condición de los monumentos que marcan la línea divisoria entre los Estados Unidos de América y los Estados Unidos Mexicanos, establecida conforme a los tratados de 2 de Febrero de 1848 y de 3 de Diciembre de 1853, y determinar en general, qué monumentos hayan sido destrozados o removidos de su lugar, en caso de que esto se haya verificado, y se necesite reconstruirlos ó volverlos á colocar, se hará un reconocimiento preliminar de la línea fronteriza por cada Gobierno, dentro de los seis meses siguientes al canje de ratificaciones de la presente convención. Estos reconocimientos se harán por secciones que funcionarán bajo la dirección de oficiales del ejército regular de los respectivos países, y se verificarán obrando dichas secciones de concierto y de la manera en que lo convinieren los jefes de ambas. Los gastos de cada sección de reconocimiento serán pagados por el gobierno en cuyo nombre funcionen. Estas secciones de reconocimiento presentarán á sus respectivos gobiernos dentro de ocho meses contados desde el canje de ratificaciones del presente tratado, un informe:

(a) del estado en que se hallan actualmente los monumentos que marcan los límites;

(b) del número de los monumentos destruidos ó dislocados;

(c) de los lugares habitados ó habitables en donde fuere conveniente colocar los monumentos más cerca entre sí en la línea divisoria, de como lo están ahora;

(d) de la clase de los nuevos monumentos que se requieran, ya sean de piedra ó de hierro, y de su número aproximado en cada caso.

Artículo II.

Antes de concluirse los reconocimientos preliminares estipulados en el Artículo I, cada gobierno nombrará una sección de reconocimiento compuesta de un Ingeniero en Jefe y dos asociados, uno de los cuales será astrónomo práctico, y del número de ingenieros auxiliares y adjuntos que cada uno considere.
The two parties so appointed shall meet at El Paso del Norte, or at any other convenient place to be agreed upon, within six months from the exchange of the ratifications hereof, and shall form, when combined, an "International Boundary Commission."

Article III.

The International Boundary Commission shall be required and have the power and authority to set in their proper places along the boundary line between the United States and Mexico, from the Pacific Ocean to the Rio Grande, the monuments heretofore placed there under existing treaties, whenever such monuments shall have become displaced; to erect new monuments on the site of former monuments when these shall have been destroyed; and to set new monuments at such points as may be necessary, and be chosen by joint accord between the two Commissioner Engineers-in-Chief. In rebuilding and replacing the old monuments and in providing for new ones, the respective reports of the reconnaissance parties, provided by Article I, may be consulted; provided, however, that the distance between two consecutive monuments shall never exceed eight thousand metres, and that this limit may be reduced on those parts of the line which are inhabited or capable of habitation.

Article IV.

Where stone shall be found in sufficient abundance the monuments may be of stone; and in other localities shall be of iron, in the form of a simple tapering four-sided shaft with pediment, rising above the ground to a height of six feet, and bearing suitable inscriptions on its sides. These monuments shall be at least two centimeters in thickness, and weigh not less than five hundred pounds each.

The approximate number thereof to be required may be determined from the reports of the preliminary reconnaissance-parties, and the sufficient. Las dos secciones así organizadas se reunirán en Paso del Norte o en algún otro lugar conveniente que se acuerde, dentro de seis meses contados desde el canje de las ratificaciones de esta convención; y formarán, cuando estén reunidas, la "Comisión Internacional de Límites."

Artículo III.

La Comisión Internacional de Límites tendrá la obligación y la facultad y autorización de colocar en sus respectivos lugares á lo largo de la línea divisoria entre los Estados Unidos y México, desde el Océano Pacífico hasta el Río Grande, los monumentos que hasta ahora habían estado situados en ella conforme á los tratados vigen tes, siempre que dichos monumentos hayan sido dislocados; para erigir nuevos monumentos en el sitio de los primitivos, si estos hubieren sido destruidos; y para establecer monumentos nuevos en los puntos en que sea necesario y sean designados de común acuerdo por los dos Comisionados Inge nieros en Jefe. Al reconstruir y reemplazar los antiguos monumentos y al proveer para el establecimiento de los nuevos, podrán consultarse los informes respectivos de las comisiones de reconocimiento estipulados en el Artículo I; con tal que la distancia entre dos monumentos contiguos nunca exceda de ocho mil metros y que este límite pueda reducirse en aquellas partes de la línea que están habi tadas ó sean habitables.

Artículo IV.

Cuando haya piedra en suficiente abundancia, podrán ser construidos los monumentos con piedra, y en las otras localidades con hierro, de la figura de una columna sencilla en forma de pirámide cuadrangular, con base que tenga seis pies de altura sobre el suelo, y con inscripciones adecuadas en sus lados. Estos monumentos tendrán cuando menos dos centímetros de espesor y un peso que no baje de quinien tas libras cada uno.

El número aproximado de los que sean necesarios podrá determinarse en vista de los informes de las comisiones de reconocimiento.
monuments, properly cast and finished, may be sent forward from time to time to such spots as the commission may select; to be set in place at the sites determined upon as the work progresses.

Article V.

The Engineers-in-Chief of both sections shall determine, by common consent, what scientific processes are to be adopted for the resetting of the old monuments and the erection of the new ones; and they shall be responsible for the proper performance of the work.

On commencing operations, each section shall report to its government the plan of operations upon which they shall have jointly agreed; and they shall from time to time submit reports of the progress made by them in the said operations; and finally they shall present a full report, accompanied by the necessary drawings, signed by the Engineer-in-Chief and the two Associate Engineers on each side, as the official record of the International Boundary Commission.

Article VI.

The expenses of each section shall be defrayed by the government which appointed it; but the cost of the monuments and of their transportation shall be equally shared by both governments.

Article VII.

Whenever the number of the monuments to be set up shall be approximately known as the result of the labors of the preliminary reconnaissance-parties, the Engineers-in-Chief shall prepare an estimate of their cost, conveyance and setting up; and when such estimate shall have been approved by both governments, the mode of making the payment of the part to be paid by Mexico shall be determined by a special arrangement between the two governments.

Article VIII.

The work of the International Boundary Commission shall be pushed forward with all expedi-

Article V.

Los Ingenieros en Jefe de ambas secciones determinarán de común acuerdo los procedimientos científicos que deban adoptarse para la reposición de los antiguos monumentos y la erección de los nuevos; y serán responsables de que la obra se haga debidamente.

Al comenzar los trabajos, cada sección informará á su respectivo gobierno del plan de operaciones en que ambas hayan convenido; y de tiempo en tiempo les someterán informes de los progresos que dichas secciones hagan en las operaciones; y finalmente presentarán un informe completo, acompañado de los diseños necesarios, firmado por el Ingeniero en Jefe y los dos Ingenieros Adjuntos de cada sección, que será el informe oficial de la Comisión Internacional de Límites.

Article VI.

Los gastos de cada sección serán pagados por el gobierno que la haya nombrado; pero el costo de los monumentos y su transporte serán pagados por partes iguales por ambos gobiernos.

Article VII.

Cuando sea conocido aproximadamente el número de los monumentos que deban ser colocados, como resultado de los trabajos de las secciones de reconocimiento preliminar, los Ingenieros en Jefe formarán un presupuesto de su costo, conducción y colocación; y cuando este presupuesto haya sido aprobado por ambos gobiernos, se determinará, por medio de un arreglo especial entre los dos Gobiernos, la manera con que México pague la parte que le corresponda.

Article VIII.

Los trabajos de la Comisión Internacional de Límites se proseguirán con la mayor prontitud;
tion; and the two governments hereby agree to regard the present convention as continuing in force until the conclusion of said work, provided that such time does not exceed four years and four months from the date of the exchange of the ratifications hereof.

ARTICLE IX.

The destruction or displacement of any of the monuments described herein, after the line shall have been located by the International Boundary Commission as aforesaid, is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor, punishable according to the justice of the country of the offender's nationality, if he be a citizen of either the United States or Mexico; and if the offender be of other nationality, then the misdemeanor shall be punishable according to the justice of either country where he may be apprehended.

This convention shall be ratified on both sides and the ratifications exchanged at Washington as soon as possible.

In testimony whereof we have signed this convention in duplicate, in the English and Spanish languages, and affixed hereunto the seals of our arms.

Done in the City of Washington this 29th day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

And whereas the said convention has been duly ratified on both parts, and the respective ratifications of the same were exchanged in the city of Washington on the third day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three:

Now therefore, be it known that I, CHESTER A. ARTHUR, President of the United States of America, have caused the said convention to be made public to the end that the same and every article and clause thereof may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States of America and the citizens thereof.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this fifth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and [SEAL.] of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventh.

CHESTER A. ARTHUR.

By the President:

FRED'K T. FRELINGHUYSEN,

Secretary of State.
Convention between the United States of America and the Kingdom of Spain, concerning extradition, supplementary. Concluded August 7, 1882; ratification advised by the Senate February 27, 1883; ratified by the President April 4, 1883; ratified by the King of Spain February 15, 1883; ratifications exchanged April 19, 1883; proclaimed April 19, 1883.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, a convention was concluded on the seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two between the United States of America and His Majesty the King of Spain, supplementary to the extradition convention concluded between the two countries on the fifth day of January [eighteen hundred and seventy-seven], the original of which as modified is word for word as follows:

The President of the United States of America and His Majesty the King of Spain, being satisfied of the propriety of adding some articles to the extradition convention concluded between the United States and Spain on the 5th day of January, 1877, with a view to the better administration of justice and the prevention of crime within their respective territories and jurisdictions, have resolved to conclude a supplementary convention for that purpose, and have appointed as their plenipotentiaries:

The President of the United States, Frederick T. Frelinghuy- sen, Esquire, Secretary of State of the United States; and His Majest y the King of Spain, His Excellency Don Francisco Barca, Knight Grand Cross of the Royal American Order of Isabel la Católica, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary near the Government of the United States;

Who, after having reciprocally exhibited their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following articles:

ARTICLE I.

Paragraph 5 of Article II. of the aforesaid Convention of January 5, 1877, is abrogated, and the following substituted:

47-2—12 TB
5. Crimes committed at sea:

(a) Piracy, as commonly known and defined by the law of nations.

(b) Destruction or loss of a vessel caused intentionally, or conspiracy and attempt to bring about such destruction or loss, when committed by any person or persons on board of said vessel, on the high seas.

(c) Mutiny or conspiracy by two or more members of the crew or other persons on board of a vessel on the high seas, for the purpose of rebelling against the authority of the captain or commander of such vessel, or by fraud or violence taking possession of such vessel.

Paragraph 12 of said Article II. is amended to read as follows:

12. The embezzlement or criminal malversation of public funds committed within the jurisdiction of one or the other party, by public officers or depositaries.

Paragraph 13 of said Article II. is likewise modified to read as follows:

13. Embezzlement by any person or persons hired, salaried or employed, to the detriment of their employers or principals, when the crime or offense is punishable by imprisonment or other corporal punishment by the laws of both countries.

Paragraph 14 of said Article II. is likewise modified to read as follows:

14. Kidnapping of minors or adults, defined to be the abduction or detention of a person or persons, in order to exact money from them or from their families, or for any other unlawful end.

ARTICLE II.

In continuation and as forming part of Article II. of the aforesaid Convention of January 5, 1877, shall be added the following paragraphs:

15. Obtaining by threats of injury, or false devices, money, valuables or other personal property, and the

(a) Piratería, tal como es ordinariamente conocida y la definen las leyes internacionales.

(b) Destrucción o pérdida de un buque causada intencionalmente, o conspiración y tentativa para conseguir dicha destrucción o pér- dida, cuando hubiesen sido inten- tadas por alguna ó algunas perso- nas, á bordo del dicho buque, en alta mar.

(c) Motín ó conspiración por dos ó mas individuos de la tripulación ó por otras personas, á bordo de un buque en alta mar, con el propósito de rebelarse contra la autoridad del Capitán ó Comandante del dicho buque, ó que por fraude ó violencia traten de apoderarse del mismo buque.

El párrafo 14º del mencionado artículo II. queda asimismo modificado y se entenderá [enterenderá] del modo siguiente:

ARTÍCULO II.

A continuación y formando parte del artículo II del expresado Convenio de 5 de Enero de 1877, se añadirán los párrafos siguientes:

15º Obtener por medio de ame- nazas de daño ó por medio de falsos artificios, dinero, valores ó otras purchase of the same with the knowledge that they have been so obtained, when the crimes or offenses are punishable by imprisonment or other corporal punishment by the laws of both countries.

16. Larceny, defined to be the theft of effects, personal property, or money, of the value of twenty-five dollars or more.

17. Slave-trade, according to the laws of each of the two countries respectively.

18. Complicity in any of the crimes or offenses enumerated in the Convention of January 5, 1877, as well as in these additional articles, provided that the persons charged with such complicity be subject as accessories to imprisonment or other corporal punishment by the laws of both countries.

Article III.

After Article XI. of the aforesaid Convention of January 5, 1877, shall be inserted the two following articles:

Article XII.

If, when a person accused shall have been arrested in virtue of the mandate or preliminary warrants of arrest, issued by the competent authority as provided in Article XI. hereof, and been brought before a judge or magistrate to the end of the evidence of his or her guilt being heard and examined as hereinbefore provided, it shall appear that the mandate or preliminary warrant of arrest has been issued in pursuance of a request or declaration received by telegraph from the government asking for the extradition, it shall be competent for the judge or magistrate at his discretion to hold the accused for a period not exceeding twenty-five days, so that the demanding government may have opportunity to lay before such judge or magistrate legal evidence of the guilt of the accused; and if, at the expiration of said period of twenty-five days, such legal evidence shall not have been produced before such judge or magistrate, the person arrested shall be released; propiedad personal, así como la compra de estos mismos efectos con conocimiento de como han sido obtenidos; cuando estos crímenes ó delitos estén penados con prisión ú otro castigo corporal por las leyes de los dos países.

16° Hurto, entendiéndose por tal la sustracción de efectos, bienes muebles, ó dinero, por valor de 25 duros ó más.

17° Trata de esclavos, con arreglo á las leyes de cada uno de los dos Estados respectivamente.

Artículo III.

Después del Artículo XI del ya citado Convenio de 5 de Enero de 1877, se insertarán los dos Artículos siguientes:

Artículo XII.

Cuando una persona acusada haya sido arrestada en virtud de mandamiento ú orden preventiva de arresto, dictada al efecto por autoridad competente en virtud de lo dispuesto en el Artículo XI, después que sea conducida ante el magistrado ó juez á fin de que la prueba de su criminalidad sea oída y examinada conforme á las prescripciones establecidas mas arriba; si apareciese que el mandamiento ú orden preventiva de arresto fué dictada á consecuencia de una petición ó declaración recibida por telégrafo de parte del Gobierno que pide la extradición, será de la competencia del juez ó magistrado, á su discreción, el mantener detenido al acusado por un período que no podrá exceder de 25 días, á fin de que el Gobierno que reclama la extradición pueda tener el tiempo necesario para presentar ante el mismo juez ó magistrado la prueba legal de la criminalidad del acusado; y si transcurrido el dicho período de los 25 días no hubiese sido pre-provided that the examination of the charges preferred against such accused person shall not be actually going on.

ARTICLE XIII.

In every case of a request made by either of the two contracting parties for the arrest, detention or extradition of fugitive criminals in pursuance of the convention of January 5, 1877, and of these additional articles, the legal officers or fiscal ministry of the country where the proceedings of extradition are had, shall assist the officers of the government demanding the extradition, before the respective judges and magistrates, by every legal means within their or its power; and no claim whatever for compensation for any of the services so rendered shall be made against the government demanding the extradition; provided however that any officer or officers of the surrendering government, so giving assistance, who shall, in the usual course of their duty, receive no salary or compensation other than specific fees for services performed, shall be entitled to receive from the government demanding the extradition the customary fees for the acts or services performed by them, in the same manner and to the same amount as though such acts or services had been performed in ordinary criminal proceedings under the laws of the country of which they are officers.

ARTICLE IV.

All the provisions of the aforesaid convention of the 5th of January, 1877, not abrogated by these additional articles, shall apply to these articles with the same force as to the said original Convention.

This additional Convention shall be ratified and the ratifications exchanged at Washington as soon as may be practicable; and upon the sentada la expresada prueba legal ante el dicho juez ó magistrado, la persona arrestada será puesta en libertad, á no ser que el exámen de los cargos que se formulen contra la misma persona se hallen en aquel momento en curso ó tramitación.

ARTÍCULO XIII.

En todos los casos de demanda hecha por cualquiera de las dos partes contratantes para el arresto, detencion ó extradicion de criminales fugitivos de conformidad con las prescripciones del Convenio de 5 de Enero de 1877 y los presentes artículos adicionales, los oficiales legales ó agentes del ministerio fiscal del país donde hayan de practicarse estas diligencias de arresto, detencion ó extradicion, ayudarán á los empleados del Gobierno que pida la extradicion, ante los respectivos jueces y magistrados, con todos los medios legales que estén á su alcance, sin que estos servicios les den derecho á reclamar honorarios al Gobierno que pida la extradicion como compensacion de los mismos servicios así prestados; á menos que el empleado ó empleados que hubiesen prestado la ayuda no fuesen de aquellos que en el ejercicio ordinario de sus funciones no reciban otro sueldo ó retribucion que la devengada por cada servicio prestado; en cuyo caso estos funcionarios especiales tendrán derecho á percibir del Gobierno que pida la extradicion los honorarios de costumbre, de la misma manera y por la misma suma que si esos servicios ó actos los hubiesen prestado en procedimientos criminales ordinarios bajo las leyes del país del cual dependen.

ARTÍCULO IV.

Todas las disposiciones del citado Convenio de 5 de Enero de 1877 no derogadas por estos artículos adicionales, se aplicarán á los presentes artículos con la misma fuerza que tienen en el dicho Convenio original.

Este Convenio adicional será ratificado y las ratificaciones serán concertadas en Washington tan pronto como sea posible; y seguidamente al

FRANco. BARCA. [SEAL.]

And whereas, the said convention has been duly ratified on both parts and the ratifications of the two Governments were exchanged in the city of Washington on the nineteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States of America, have caused the said Convention to be made public, to the end that the same and every article and clause thereof may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States of America and the citizens thereof;

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this nineteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three; [SEAL.] and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and seventh.

By the President,
FRDK. T. FRELINGHUYSEN,
Secretary of State.
Convention between the Post-Office Department of the United States of America, and the General Post-Office of the Colony of Tasmania, concerning the exchange of money-orders. Signed July 5 and November 20, 1882; approved by the President November 20, 1882.

The Post-Office Department of the United States of America and the General Post-Office of the Colony of Tasmania, being desirous of establishing a system of exchange of money-orders between the two countries, the undersigned, duly authorized for that purpose, have agreed upon the following articles:

ARTICLE 1.

There shall be a regular exchange of money-orders between the two countries.

Money orders.

The maximum of each order is fixed at £10 sterling when issued in Tasmania, and, when issued in the United States, at the equivalent, in sterling money, of $50 in the money of the latter country, converted at the rate fixed by article 13 of the present Convention.

Fractions.

No money-order shall include a fractional part of a penny, or, of a cent. The amount of each order, whether issued in the United States or in Tasmania, must be expressed in letters in British money, and the equivalent in the money of the United States must also be shown in figures.

ARTICLE 2.

The Tasmania Post-Office shall have power to fix the rates of commission on all money-orders issued in Tasmania, and the Post-Office Department of the United States shall have the same power in regard to all money-orders issued in the United States.

Tariff of charges.

Each office shall communicate to the other its tariff of charges or rates of commission, which shall be established under this Convention, and these rates shall, in all cases, be payable in advance by the remitters, and shall not be repayable.

Suspension of exchanges.

It is understood, moreover, that each office is authorized to suspend, temporarily, the exchange of money-orders in case the course of exchange, or any other circumstance, should give rise to abuses, or cause detriment to the postal revenue.

ARTICLE 3.

Each country shall keep the commission charged on all money-orders within its jurisdiction, but shall pay to the other country three-fourths of one per cent. on the amount of such orders.

ARTICLE 4.

The service of the postal money-order system between the two countries, shall be performed exclusively by the agency of Offices of Exchange. On the part of the United States the Office of Exchange shall be San Francisco, California, and on the part of Tasmania, Hobart.

Orders shall be drawn only on the authorized money-order offices of the respective countries; and each Postal Administration shall furnish to the other a List of such offices, and shall, from time to time, notify any addition to, or change in, such List. Every order and advice must contain the name of the office and of the country of destination, and if relating to an order payable in the United States, the name of the State in which such office is situated.
CONVENTION—TASMANIA. July 5, 1882, November 20, 1882.

ARTICLE 5.

No money-order shall be issued unless the applicant furnish the name and address of the person to whom the amount is to be paid, and his own name and address; or, the name of the firm, or company who are the remitters or payees, together with the addresses of each.

The money-orders, issued in either country, shall be forwarded by the remitters to the payees, at their own expense.

ARTICLE 6.

The advices of all money-orders issued upon Tasmania by the post-offices in the United States shall be sent to the Office of Exchange at San Francisco, where they shall be impressed with a dated stamp (Form "A") showing the amount to be paid in sterling money, and transmitted, by the next direct mail, to the Exchange Office at Hobart, accompanied by a List, in duplicate, drawn upon the model of Form "B7."

The advices, on their arrival at Hobart, shall be compared with the entries in the List, and, afterwards, dispatched to the paying offices.

In like manner, the advices of money-orders, drawn on the United States by postmasters in Tasmania, shall be sent to the Exchange Office at Hobart, shall there be impressed with a dated stamp (Form "A") showing the amount to be paid in United States money, and be dispatched, accompanied by a List, in duplicate, (Form "C") to the Office of Exchange, at San Francisco, by the next direct mail.

The advices, on their receipt at San Francisco, shall be compared with the entries in the List, and afterwards dispatched to the paying offices.

The advices of orders issued in the United States in the month of June, which may arrive at the Office of Exchange at San Francisco in the earlier days of the following month, shall be entered on Lists supplementary to that of the last day of the month of June, and in like manner, the advices of orders issued in Tasmania in the month of June, which may arrive at the Exchange Office at Hobart in the earlier days of the following month, shall be entered on Lists supplementary to that of the last day of the month of June.

Each Exchange Office shall certify its orders to the other in amounts designated in the denominations of the money both of the dispatching and receiving country, at the rate of conversion established by article 13 of this Convention. The amounts, so converted, shall be checked at the receiving Office of Exchange.

Each Administration hereby undertakes and agrees to suspend the issue of money-orders a sufficient length of time before the sailing of each steamer which carries the Exchange Lists and advices, at those post-offices in its own territory where such suspension may be necessary, in order to prevent the issue of orders which could be dispatched by the outgoing mail while the corresponding advices could not be certified by the Exchange Office in time to be conveyed by that mail.

The Exchange Lists and the accompanying advices shall invariably be sent by such steamers as carry the mails directly from San Francisco to Sydney, or from Sydney to San Francisco, as the case may be, and not via London in any event.

ARTICLE 7.

The Lists dispatched from each Office of Exchange shall be numbered consecutively, commencing with No. 1 at the beginning of the month of July in each year; and the entries in these Lists shall have consecutive numbers.

Of each List dispatched a duplicate shall be sent, which duplicate, after being verified by the receiving Office of Exchange, shall be returned to the dispatching Office of Exchange.

Each Office of Exchange shall promptly communicate to the other the correction of any simple error which it may discover in the verification of the Lists.

Irregularities. When the Lists shall show irregularities, which the receiving Exchange Office shall not be able to rectify, that office shall apply for an explanation to the dispatching Exchange Office, and such explanation shall be afforded without delay.

Failure of lists. Should any List fail to be received in due course, the dispatching Exchange Office, on receiving information to that effect, shall transmit, without delay, a duplicate of the List, duly certified as such.

ARTICLE 8.

Duplicate orders. Duplicate orders shall only be issued by the Postal Administration of the country on which the original orders were drawn, and in conformity with the regulations established, or to be established, in that country.

ARTICLE 9.

Payment of orders. The orders issued by each country on the other, shall be subject, as regards payment, to the regulations which govern the payment of inland orders of the country, on which they were drawn.

The paid orders shall remain in the possession of the country of payment.

ARTICLE 10.

Repayment to remitters. Repayment of orders to remitters shall not be made until an authorization for such repayment shall first have been obtained by the country of issue from the country where such orders are payable, and the amounts of the repaid orders shall be duly credited to the former country in the quarterly account. (Article 12.)

It is the province of each Postal Administration to determine the manner in which repayment to the remitters is to be made.

ARTICLE 11.

Void orders. Orders which shall not have been paid within twelve calendar months from the month of issue, shall become void, and the sums received shall accrue to, and be at the disposal of, the country of origin.

The Tasmania Office shall, therefore, enter to the credit of the United States, in the quarterly account, all money-orders entered in the Lists received from the United States, which remain unpaid at the end of the period specified. (Article 12.)

On the other hand, the Post-Office Department of the United States shall, at the close of each month, transmit to the Tasmania Office, for entry in the quarterly account, a detailed statement of all orders included in the Lists dispatched from the latter office, which, under this Article, become void.

ARTICLE 12.

Accounts. At the close of each quarter an account shall be prepared at the General Post-Office of Tasmania, showing, in detail, the totals of the Lists, containing the particulars of orders issued in either country during the quarter, and the balance resulting from such transactions. Three copies of this account shall be transmitted to the Post-Office Department of the United States, at Washington, and the balance, after proper verification, shall, if due by the General Post-Office of Tasmania, be paid to the General Post-Office at London, to the credit of the Post-Office Department of the United States, on account of the exchange of money-orders between the United States and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; if due by the Post-Office Department of the United CONVENTION—TASMANIA. JULY 5, 1882, NOVEMBER 20, 1882.

States, the balance shall likewise be paid to the General Post-Office at London, to the credit of the General Post-Office of Tasmania.

If, pending the settlement of an account, one of the two Postal Administrations shall ascertain that it owes the other a balance exceeding five hundred pounds (£500) sterling, the indebted Administration shall promptly remit the approximate amount of such balance to the credit of the other.

This account shall be in accordance with the forms "D", "E", "F", and "G", annexed to this Convention.

ARTICLE 13.

Until the two Postal Administrations shall consent to an alteration, it is agreed, that, in all matters of account, relative to money-orders, which shall result from the execution of the present Convention, the pound sterling of Great Britain shall be considered as equivalent to four dollars, eighty-seven cents, of the money of the United States.

ARTICLE 14.

The Postal Administration in each country shall be authorized to adopt any additional rules (if not repugnant to the foregoing), for the greater security against fraud, or, for the better working of the system generally.

All such additional rules, however, must be promptly communicated to the Post-Office of the other country.

ARTICLE 15.

This present Convention shall take effect on the first day of January, 1883, and shall continue in force until twelve months after either of the contracting parties shall have notified to the other its intention to terminate it.

Done in duplicate, and signed in Washington, on the twentieth day of November, in the year of our Lord, 1882, and in Hobart, on the fifth day of July, in the year of our Lord, 1882.

TIMO. O. HOWE,
Postmaster General of the United States.
J. L. DODDS,
Postmaster General of Tasmania.

I hereby approve the foregoing convention, and in testimony thereof, I have caused the seal of the United States to be hereto affixed.

Auditor of the Treasury for the Post-Office Department.
Convention between the United States of America and Belgium, concerning the exchange of postal-orders. Signed at Washington November 20, 1882; approved by the President November 20, 1882; ratifications exchanged at Washington December 28, 1882.

Convention entre les États-Unis d'Amérique et la Belgique pour l'échange de mandats-poste.

The undersigned, Timothy O. Howe, Postmaster-General of the United States of America, in virtue of the powers vested in him by law, and Th. de Bounder de Melsbroeck, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from Belgium to the United States of America, &c., &c., in the name of his Government and by virtue of the powers which he has formally presented to this effect, have agreed upon the following Convention:

ARTICLE 1.

There is established between the United States of America and Belgium a regular exchange of postal-orders. This exchange is to be effected by the Exchange Offices which each of the two Administrations shall have designated for this purpose, and which Exchange Offices shall notify each other by means of lists of orders for payment.

ARTICLE 2.

The amount of the orders shall always be expressed in the money of the country where payment is to be made.

ARTICLE 3.

1. No order shall exceed the sum of fifty dollars, if it is payable in the United States, and two hundred and fifty francs if it is payable in Belgium. The two Administrations, however, may, by common agreement, increase this maximum to one hundred dollars or five hundred francs.

2. Fractions of a cent, or of a

Nov. 20, 1882.
Article 4.

Payment of orders in coin.

Payment of the amount of orders is to be effected in money of metallic value of the country of destination. This payment can also be effected in either country in paper money which is a legal tender therein. In that event, account is always to be taken of the difference of value, if there be any.

The administration of each of the two contracting countries reserves the right to declare transferable, within its territory, by means of endorsement, the ownership of orders originating in the other.

Article 5.

Rate of conversion.

1. Each of the two Administrations is at liberty to fix at any time the rate of conversion of the amounts, payment of which is to be made in the other country.

Rate of exchange.

2. The two Administrations will communicate to each other the rate of exchange or of conversion fixed by them, as well as the changes which they may make therein.

Article 6.

Fees.

1. Each of the two Administrations shall fix the fees charged upon orders issued in its own country and payable in the other.

Limit of fees.

2. This fee shall not, however, exceed one and one half per cent upon the amounts constituting the divisions in the schedule of fees.

3. The two Administrations will communicate to each other the fees which they shall have established and the changes which they may subsequently make therein.

Fees payable by remitters and payees.

4. The postal-orders and the receipts given upon such orders, as well as the receipts to be delivered to the remitters, shall not be subjected at the expense of the remitters or the payees of the amounts to any charge or tax whatsoever, in addition to the fees to be received by virtue of sections 1 and 2 above.

Article 7.

Mutual credits.

The Postal Administration by which the money-orders are issued l'établissement du montant des mandats, des fractions de demi décime ou de cent.

Article 4.

Le paiement du montant des mandats sera effectué en monnaie métallique du pays destinataire, ou en papier-monnaie ayant cours légal en ce pays, sous réserve, en ce dernier cas, qu'il sera tenu compte de la différence des cours.

Est réservé aux administrations de chacun des pays contractants le droit de déclarer transmissible par voie d'endorsement, sur son territoire la propriété des mandats-poste provenant de l'autre pays.

Article 5.

1. Chacune des deux Administrations aura le droit de fixer à toute époque le taux de conversion du montant des mandats, dans la monnaie de l'autre pays.

2. Les deux Administrations se communiqueront réciproquement le taux de change ou de conversion qu'elles auront adopté ainsi que toute modification qu'elles y apporterait ultérieurement.

Article 6.

1. Chacune des deux Administrations fixera de même les taxes à percevoir sur les mandats-poste qu'elle créera sur l'autre pays.

2. Cette taxe ne devra pas, toutefois, dépasser un et demi pour cent des sommes rouges qui forment les degrés de l'échelle de perception.

3. Les deux Administrations se donneront connaissance des taxes qu'elles auront établies et des changements qu'elles y apporteraient ultérieurement.

4. Les mandats-poste et les acquit dormis sur ces mandats de même que le recepissé à délivrer au déposant ne pourront être soumis à la charge des expéditeurs ou des destinataires des fonds à aucun droit ou taxe quelconque en sus des taxes à percevoir en vertu des § 1 et 2 ci-dessus.
shall credit the Administration of the country of payment with the total amount of the orders which it has certified to the latter, in addition to three-fourths of one per cent. on the difference between the total amount of the orders certified and the amount of void and repaid orders.

ARTICLE 8.

1. The sums converted into postal orders are guaranteed to the remitters, until they shall have been regularly paid to the payees, or to the representatives of the latter, or shall have been refunded to the remitters.

2. The sums received by each Administration in exchange for postal orders, the amounts of which shall not have been claimed by the persons entitled to payment before the expiration of the periods fixed by the laws or the regulations of the country of origin become the absolute property of the Administration which has issued the orders.

ARTICLE 9.

At the end of each quarter the Belgian Postal Administration shall prepare an account comprising all sums paid by the offices of the two countries and the credits to be given under each head, in conformity with Article 7, above mentioned, as well as a statement of the orders refunded by each Administration.

ARTICLE 10.

1. The Postal Administration of the United States shall examine this account, correct it, if necessary, and, if it is found to be the debtor, shall transmit the balance due within fifteen days, at the latest, after its receipt, to the Administration of the Belgian Posts.

If the account shows a balance to the credit of the Administration of the United States of America, the Postal Administration of Belgium shall transmit the amount thereof to the former within fifteen days, at the latest, after receipt of notice of acceptance, or of correction of the account.

2. Le paiement du solde devra toujours être effectué dans la monnaie métallique du pays créancier, au moyen d'une lettre de change tirée sur Bruxelles, ou sur New York, suivant le cas.

3. Les frais à résulter du paiement des soldes sont à la charge de l'administration qui effectue le paiement.

Article 11.

Pour établir le solde, la créance la plus faible est convertie dans la monnaie du pays dont la créance est la plus forte. Cette conversion a lieu d'après le taux moyen du change à New York pendant le trimestre auquel le compte se rapporte, quand le solde de ce compte est en faveur de la Belgique, et d'après le taux moyen du change à Anvers, pendant la même période, quand le solde du compte est en faveur de l'administration des postes des États-Unis.

Article 12.

Chaque fois que dans le cours d'un trimestre il est établi que le montant des mandats tirés sur une des deux administrations dépasse de cinq mille dollars ou vingt-cinq mille francs le montant des mandats tirés sur l'autre administration, celle-ci fait parvenir à la première le montant approximatif de la différence établie en chiffres ronds à titre d'acompte, au moyen de lettres de change et aux conditions indiquées à l'article 10.

Article 13.

1. La forme et les conditions d'émission des mandats dans chaque pays sont déterminées par les règlements en vigueur dans le pays d'origine.

2. Le mode et les conditions de paiement des mandats-poste, y compris ce qui concerne la suspension du paiement, le remplacement des titres, l'émission de duplicatas et toutes les autres formalités se rapportant, au paiement, sont régies par les dispositions en vigueur dans le pays de destination.

Balances payable in coin value by bill of exchange.

Ascertainment of balances.

Payment, account of apparent balances.

Regulations of the country of origin to control issue and form of orders.

Regulations of the country of destination to control payments.

2. The balance must always be paid in the money of metallic value of the country to which it is found due, by means of a bill of exchange on Brussels, or on New York, as the case may be.

3. The expenses which may result from the payment of balances must always be borne by the Administration by which payment is made.

Article 11.

To ascertain the amount to be paid, the smaller credit is to be converted into the money of the country which has the larger credit, and is to be deducted from the latter credit. This conversion is to be effected according to the average rate of exchange at New York, during the quarter to which the account pertains, if the balance is to the credit of Belgium, and according to the average rate of exchange at Antwerp, during such quarter, if the balance is to the credit of the Postal Administration of the United States.

Article 12.

Whenever, during the course of a quarter, it is found that the amount of orders drawn upon either of the two Administrations exceeds by five thousand dollars or twenty-five thousand francs the amount of orders drawn upon the other Administration, the latter shall send to the former, the proximate amount of the ascertained difference in a round sum, as a payment on account, by means of bills of exchange, under the conditions prescribed in Article 10.

Article 13.

1. The form and the conditions of issue of postal-orders in each country are subject to the regulations in force in the country of origin.

2. The form, as well as the conditions for payment of postal-orders, including those relating to the suspension of payment, the renewing of orders, the issue of duplicates, and other matters concerning payment, are subject to the regulations in force in the country of destination.
ARTICLE 14.

1. Each Administration is authorized to suspend, temporarily, the interchange of postal-orders whenever the course of exchange or any other circumstance may give rise to abuses or cause detriment to the revenues.

2. Notice of action of this nature must be communicated immediately to the other Administration, and, if deemed necessary, by means of the telegraph.

ARTICLE 15.

The Postal Administrations of the two countries shall have power, by mutual agreement, to arrange detailed regulations for the execution of the present Convention and to modify them at any time, according to the requirements of the service.

ARTICLE 16.

The present Convention shall take effect on the first day of January, 1883. It shall remain in force until the expiration of a period of one year after the date upon which one of the two contracting Administrations shall have notified the other of its intention to terminate it.

ARTICLE 17.

The ratifications of the present Convention shall be exchanged prior to the first day of January, 1883, if possible.

In witness whereof, the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Convention and have affixed thereto their seals.

Executed in duplicate and signed at Washington the twentieth day of November 1882.

[Seal of the United States.]

By the President

FREDK T. FREILINGHUYSEN,

Secretary of State.

WASHINGTON, November 20th, 1882.
Detailed regulations for the execution of the Convention concluded between the Postal Administration of the United States of America and that of Belgium, concerning the exchange of postal orders, of November 20, 1882; signed at Washington, December 26, 1883.

Detailed regulations for the execution of the Convention concluded between the Postal Administration of the United States of America and that of Belgium, concerning the exchange of postal orders, of the 20th day of November, 1882.

Preamble.

In pursuance of the terms of Article 15 of the Convention of the 20th of November, 1882, concerning the exchange of postal-orders, the undersigned have agreed upon the following rules of action:

ARTICLE 1.

In conformity with Article 1 of the Convention, the money-order office at Antwerp is designated as the exchange office on the part of Belgium, and the international money-order office at New York as the exchange office on the part of the United States.

ARTICLE 2.

For the lists by means of which the exchange offices are, in accordance with Article 1 of the Convention, to notify each other of the orders to be paid, the money-order office at Antwerp shall make use of Form "A" hereto annexed, and the international money-order office at New York of the Form "B" hereto annexed.

ARTICLE 3.

Lists, how filled. 1. The lists are to be filled out in accordance with their printed headings, with copying ink, which is also to be used in completing the letter of transmittal upon the first page thereof, and they are to be transmitted in duplicate by each outgoing mail, that is to say, by all mails fixed by schedule which are conveyed via Great Britain be-

ARTICLE 1.

Par l'application de l'Article 1er de la Convention le bureau des postes d'Anvers est désigné comme bureau d'échange du côté de la Belgique, et le bureau des mandats internationaux de New York, comme bureau d'échange du côté des États-Unis.

ARTICLE 2.

En ce qui concerne les listes au moyen desquelles les bureaux d'échange devront, en exécution de l'Article 1er de la Convention, se notifier l'un à l'autre les mandats à payer, le bureau des mandats à Anvers fera usage du formulaire "A" ci-annexé, et le bureau des mandats internationaux de New York, du formulaire "B" également ci-annexé.

ARTICLE 3.

1° Les listes seront établies avec de l'encre à copier, d'après les entêtes imprimées, il sera fait usage de même encre pour compléter la lettre d'envoi qui figure à la première page de ces formulaires. Elles seront transmises en double par chaque expédition, c'est à dire, par toutes les dépêches échangées par la voie de la Grande Bretagne between the offices of Antwerp and of New York. Should it happen, at the time of dispatching any mail that there are no money orders to be certified for payment, a list must nevertheless be sent in that mail. But, in such event, the dispatching exchange office will write across the list the words, "No money-orders."

2. The Lists shall bear consecutive numbers, commencing with the calendar year and ending with it.

3. The orders inscribed in the lists shall also be consecutively numbered, the series of numbers to commence with each month on the part of Belgium, and with each calendar year on the part of the United States.

4. The orders issued in the United States during the quarter ending June 30th of each year, which may arrive at the office of exchange at New York in the following quarter shall be entered on lists supplementary to the last list of the month of June, and, in like manner, the orders issued in Belgium during the quarter ending June 30th of each year which may arrive at the exchange office of Antwerp in the following quarter shall be entered on lists supplementary to the last list of the month of June.

Article 4.

Each list is to be carefully examined by the receiving office, and if the latter finds that it contains manifest errors, it will correct them with red ink. That office will then fill up the columns intended for its use, and return one of the copies of the list to the sending office. In the letter of transmittal of the next list which it has to send, the receiving office, above mentioned, will acknowledge the receipt of the list in question to the office which sent it.

The corrections made are always to be mentioned with explanations at the end of the letter of transmittal.

Article 5.

When the list contains errors or irregularities which cannot be corrected without consultation with... the exchange office of the country of origin, the exchange office of the country of destination shall request explanations from the sending exchange office at the same time that it acknowledges the receipt of the list. The explanations requested are to be furnished as promptly as possible. Meantime the payment of orders in regard to which errors have been discovered is to be suspended.

Article 6.

Failure of lists. If it appears from the number of the list received that the preceding list has failed to arrive, the receiving office shall apply for such list by the first mail. The sending office, as soon as it is informed of the matter, shall send forthwith a duplicate of the missing list.

Duplicate of failing lists.

Inland postal orders. For the orders entered in the lists the two exchange offices shall issue inland postal-orders in accordance with the regulations in force in the premises in the country of destination, and with the provisions of Article 13 of the Convention.

Article 7.

Quarterly account.

1. For the quarterly account provided for by Article 9 of the Convention, the Belgian Postal Administration shall make use of form “C” hereto annexed.

Form “C.”

2. This account is to be made upon the basis of the lists accepted or corrected by the receiving offices of exchange. It is always to be prepared promptly and transmitted to the Postal Administration of the United States as soon as all the lists from the international money-order office of New York bearing the date of the quarter to which it pertains shall have reached the money-order office of Antwerp, and all the duplicates of the lists of the same quarter dispatched by the latter office shall have been returned to it from New York. If it be possible, this account is to be transmitted by the intervention du bureau d’échange du pays d’origine, le bureau d’échange du pays de destination réclamera des explications au bureau d’échange expéditeur en même temps qu’Il lui accusera réception de la liste. Les explications réclamées seront fournies aussi promptement que possible. En attendant le payement des mandats entâchés d’erreurs sera différé.

Article 8.

2°. Ce compte sera dressé d’après les listes acceptées ou rectifiées par les bureaux d’échange destinataires. Il devra toujours être établi sans délai et être transmis à l’Administration des lettres des États-Unis dès que toutes les listes du bureau des mandats internationaux de New York datées du trimestre auquel le compte se rapporte, seront parvenues au bureau des mandats à Anvers, et que tous les duplicatas de listes du même trimestre transmis par ce dernier bureau lui auront été renvoyés par celui de New York. Autant que possible ce compte sera transmis par l’Administration des Postes.
Belgian Postal Administration to that of the United States, at the latest, within six weeks after the close of the quarter.

ARTICLE 9.

1. The Postal Administration of the country of origin shall be duly notified of all orders which shall not have been paid to the respective payees in the country of destination, within one year after the date of the receipt of the list, and, after an agreement shall have been reached in regard to these orders, they shall be entered in the quarterly accounts, in order that the amounts thereof may be restored to the remitters in conformity with Article 9 of the Convention.

2. In like manner, there shall be embraced in this account, postal orders, application for repayment of which has been made to, and permission therefor received from, the country of destination, in conformity with Article 9 of the Convention.

ARTICLE 10.

1. The quarterly account is always to be transmitted in triplicate to the Postal Administration of the United States. If this account shows a balance in favor of the Belgian Postal Administration two copies shall be returned to the latter, bearing an acknowledgment of the acceptance of the balance. In case the balance is in favor of the Postal Administration of the United States, the latter will retain two copies and send back but one.

2. When the balance found to be due the Belgian Postal Administration shall have been paid, the latter will affix its acknowledgment of receipt to one of the two copies which have been returned to it, and will send it back as a voucher to the Postal Administration of the United States of America.

3. In case the balance is in favor of the latter, it will, on receipt of the amount of such balance, affix its acknowledgment of receipt to one of the two copies of the account which it has retained, and will

ARTICLE 9.

1°. L'Administration des Postes du pays d'origine devra recevoir avis de tous les mandats qui n'auraient pas été payés à leurs bénéficiaires respectifs en dehors le délai d'une année après la réception de la liste. Dès que les deux Administrations se seront mises d'accord au sujet de ces mandats, et conformément à l'Article 9 de la Convention, ceux-ci feront l'objet d'un compte trimestriel pour que leur montant puisse être remboursé aux déposants.

2°. On comprendra de même dans ce compte les mandats dont le remboursement aurait été réclamé au pays de destination, et autorisé par celui-ci, en exécution de l'Article 9 de la Convention.

ARTICLE 10.

1°. Le compte trimestriel devra toujours être transmis en triple expédition à l'Administration des postes des États-Unis. Si le solde de ce compte est en faveur de l'Administration des postes de Belgique, deux expéditions seront renvoyées à cette Administration, approuvées pour le montant du solde. Si le solde est en faveur de l'Administration des postes des États-Unis, celle-ci retiendra deux expéditions du compte et n'en renverra qu'une.

3°. Si le solde est en faveur de cette dernière Administration, celle-ci, à la réception du montant de ce solde, en donnera quittance sur une des deux expéditions du compte quelle a retenues, et rentransmit the same as a voucher to the Belgian office.

ARTICLE 11.

Payments of balances and payments on account made in pursuance of Articles 10 and 12 of the Convention are to be effected by means of bills of exchange, which, when the balance is in favor of the Belgian Postal Administration, are to be drawn on Antwerp or on Brussels, payable to the Director General of Posts and Telegraphs at Brussels. When the balance is to the credit of the Postal Administration of the United States, the bills of exchange are to be drawn upon New York, payable to the Postmaster-General at Washington.

ARTICLE 12.

For the purpose of balancing the quarterly account, the conversion of one money into the other shall be made in compliance with the terms of Article 11 of the Convention. To that end the debtor Administration shall forward to the creditor Administration a certified tabular statement of the rate of exchange at Brussels, or at New York, as the case may be, quoted each business day during the preceding quarter.

ARTICLE 13.

In addition to the claims mentioned in Article 9 concerning the repayment of orders, the two Administrations agree to take charge of other claims in relation to orders exchanged between Belgium and the United States, for example, in regard to changes of name, places of payment, requests for information concerning payments which have been made, etc., and to dispose of them in accordance with the regulations in force in each country respectively.

ARTICLE 14.

The present detailed regulations shall take effect at the same time, and duration. The present detailed regulations shall take effect at the same time.

ARTICLE 11.

ARTICLE 12.

Pour établir la balance du compte trimestriel la conversion de l'une des monnaies dans l'autre sera faite, en conformité des dispositions de l’Article 11 de la Convention. A cette fin l'Administration débitrice transmettra à l'Administration créditrice un tableau certifié exact du cours du change coté chaque jour de Bourse à Bruxelles ou à New York, suivant le cas, pendant le trimestre précédent.

ARTICLE 13.

Outre les demandes dont il est question à l'Article 9, concernant le remboursement des mandats, les deux Administrations conviennent de donner suite aux demandes relatives aux mandats échangés entre la Belgique et les États-Unis, en ce qui touche, par exemple, les changements de noms, de lieux de paiement, les demandes de renseignements au sujet de paiements effectués, etc., et de traiter ces demandes conformément aux règlements en vigueur dans chaque pays respectivement.

ARTICLE 14.

Le présent règlement de détail sera mis à exécution en même time as the Convention of the 20th of November, 1882, and shall continue in force as long as the latter.

Done in duplicate and signed at Brussels the twelfth day of December, 1882, and at Washington the twentieth day of November, 1882.

We, Timothy O. Howe, Postmaster-General of the United States, and Th. de Bounder de Melsbroeck, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from Belgium to the United States, certify that on this date we have proceeded to perform the exchange of ratifications of the Convention between the United States of America and Belgium, concerning the exchange of postal orders, which was concluded at Washington, on the twentieth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

Done in duplicate and signed at Washington this twenty-eighth day of December, A. D. 1882.

T. O. Howe,
Postmaster-General of the United States.

Th. de Bounder de Melsbroeck,
Envoy Extraordinary and Minister
Plenipotentiary from Belgium to the United States.
PROCLAMATIONS

MADE BY THE

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.
PROCLAMATIONS.

No. 1.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. September 22, 1881

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas in His inscrutable wisdom it has pleased God to remove from us the illustrious head of the Nation, James A. Garfield, late President of the United States;

And, Whereas, it is fitting that the deep grief which fills all hearts, should manifest itself with one accord toward the throne of Infinite Grace, and that we should bow before the Almighty and seek from Him that consolation in our affliction and that sanctification of our loss which He is able and willing to vouchsafe;

Now, therefore, in obedience to sacred duty and in accordance with the desire of the People, I, Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States of America, do hereby appoint Monday, next, the twenty-sixth day of September—on which day the remains of our honored and beloved Dead will be consigned to their last resting place on earth—to be observed throughout the United States as a day of humiliation and mourning; and I earnestly recommend all the People to assemble on that day in their respective places of Divine Worship, there to render alike their tribute of sorrowful submission to the will of Almighty God and of reverence and love for the memory and character of our late Chief Magistrate.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, the twenty-second day of September, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and eighty-one and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixth.

[SEAL.]

By the President,

JAMES G. BLAINE
Secretary of State.

No. 2.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. September 23, 1881

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas objects of interest to the United States require that the Senate should be convened at an early day to receive and act upon such communications as may be made to it on the part of the Executive:

Now, therefore, I, Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States, have considered it to be my duty to issue this, my Proclamation, declar-
PROCLAMATIONS.

No. 4.
BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. May 3,1882.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas it is provided in the laws of the United States that "when ever, by reason of unlawful obstructions, combinations, or assemblages of persons, or rebellion against the authority of the Government of the United States, it shall become impracticable, in the judgment of the President, to enforce, by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings, the laws of the United States within any State or Territory, it shall be lawful for the President to call forth the militia of any or all the States, and to employ such parts of the land and naval forces of the United States as he may deem necessary to enforce the faithful execution of the laws of the United States, or to suppress such rebellion, in whatever State or Territory thereof the laws of the United States may be forcibly opposed or the execution thereof forcibly obstructed;"

And whereas it has been made to appear satisfactorily to me, by information received from the Governor of the Territory of Arizona, and from the General of the Army of the United States, and other reliable sources, that in consequence of unlawful combinations of evil disposed persons who are banded together to oppose and obstruct the execution of the laws, it has become impracticable to enforce, by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings, the laws of the United States within that Territory, and that the laws of the United States have been therein forcibly opposed and the execution thereof forcibly resisted;

And whereas the laws of the United States require that whenever it may be necessary, in the judgment of the President, to use the military forces for the purpose of enforcing the faithful execution of the laws of the United States, he shall forthwith, by proclamation, command such insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes, within a limited time:

Now, therefore, I, Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States, do hereby admonish all good citizens of the United States, and especially of the Territory of Arizona, against aiding, countenancing, abetting, or taking part in any such unlawful proceedings, and I do hereby warn all persons engaged in or connected with said obstruction of the laws, to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes on or before noon of the fifteenth day of May.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this third day of May, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and eighty-two, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and sixth.

[Seal]

CHESTER A. ARTHUR.

By the President:
FREDK. T. FRELINGHUYSEN,
Secretary of State.

Warning all persons to desist from violence in Arizona.
No. 5.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

In conformity with a custom the annual observance of which is justly held in honor by this people, I, Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States, do hereby set apart Thursday, the 30th day of November next as a day of public Thanksgiving.

The blessings demanding our gratitude are numerous and varied. For the peace and amity which subsist between this Republic and all the nations of the world; for the freedom from internal discord and violence; for the increasing friendship between the different sections of the land; for liberty, justice and constitutional government; for the devotion of the people to our free institutions and their cheerful obedience to mild laws; for the constantly increasing strength of the Republic while extending its privileges to fellow men who come to us; for the improved means of internal communication, and the increased facilities of intercourse with other Nations; for the general prevailing health of the year; for the prosperity of all our industries, the liberal return for the mechanic's toil affording a market for the abundant harvests of the husbandman; for the preservation of the national faith and credit; for wise and generous provision to effect the intellectual and moral education of our youth; for the influence upon the conscience of a restraining and transforming religion; and for the joys of home; for these, and for many other blessings, we should give thanks.

Wherefore, I do recommend that the day above designated be observed throughout the country as a Day of National Thanksgiving and Prayer, and that the people, ceasing from their daily labors and meeting in accordance with their several forms of worship, draw near to the throne of Almighty God, offering to Him praise and gratitude for the manifold goodness which He has vouchsafed to us, and praying that His blessings and His mercies may continue.

And I do further recommend that the day thus appointed be made a special occasion for deeds of kindness and charity to the suffering and the needy, so that all who dwell within the land may rejoice and be glad in this season of National Thanksgiving.

I, in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this twenty-fifth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and seventh.

CHESTER A. ARTHUR.

By the President:

FREDK. T. FRELINGHUYSEN,
Secretary of State.

PROCLAMATIONS.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

No. 1.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas in His inscrutable wisdom it has pleased God to remove from us the illustrious head of the Nation, James A. Garfield, late President of the United States;

And, Whereas, it is fitting that the deep grief which fills all hearts, should manifest itself with one accord toward the throne of Infinite Grace, and that we should bow before the Almighty and seek from Him that consolation in our affliction and that sanctification of our loss which He is able and willing to vouchsafe;

Now, therefore, in obedience to sacred duty and in accordance with the desire of the People, I, Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States of America, do hereby appoint Monday, next, the twenty-sixth day of September—on which day the remains of our honored and beloved Dead will be consigned to their last resting place on earth—to be observed throughout the United States as a day of humiliation and mourning; and I earnestly recommend all the People to assemble on that day in their respective places of Divine Worship, there to render alike their tribute of sorrowful submission to the will of Almighty God and of reverence and love for the memory and character of our late Chief Magistrate.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, the twenty-second day of September, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and eighty-one and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixth.

[SEAL.]

By the President,

JAMES G. BLAINE

Secretary of State.

No. 2.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas objects of interest to the United States require that the Senate should be convened at an early day to receive and act upon such communications as may be made to it on the part of the Executive:

Now, therefore, I, Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States, have considered it to be my duty to issue this, my Proclamation, declar-
PROCLAMATIONS.

Convening the Senate of the United States on October 10, 1881.

ing that an extraordinary occasion requires the Senate of the United States to convene for the transaction of business at the Capitol, in the City of Washington, on Monday the tenth day of October next, at twelve o'clock noon on that day, of which all who shall at that time be entitled to act as members of that body are hereby required to take notice.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the United States, at Washing-

By the President,

JAMES G. BLAINE

Secretary of State.

November 4, 1881.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

Preamble.

It has long been the pious custom of our people, with the closing of the year, to look back upon the blessings brought to them in the changing course of the seasons, and to return solemn thanks to the All-giving Source from Whom they flow. And although at this period, when the falling leaf admonishes us that the time of our sacred duty is at hand, our Nation still lies in the shadow of a great bereavement, and the mourning which has filled our hearts still finds its sorrowful expression toward the God before Whom we but lately bowed in grief and supplication, yet the countless benefits which have showered upon us during the past twelvemonth call for our fervent gratitude and make it fitting that we should rejoice with thankfulness that the Lord, in His infinite mercy has most signally favored our country and our people. Peace without and prosperity within have been vouchsafed to us, no pestilence has visited our shores, the abundant privileges of freedom which our fathers left us in their wisdom are still our increasing heritage,—and if, in parts of our vast domain, sore affliction has visited our brethren in their forest homes, yet even this calamity has been tempered and in a manner sanctified by the generous compassion for the sufferers which has been called forth throughout our land. For all these things, it is meet that the voice of the Nation should go up to God in devout homage.

Wherefore I, Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States, do recommend that all the people observe Thursday, the twenty-fourth day of November instant, as a day of National Thanksgiving and Prayer, by ceasing so far as may be from their secular labors, and meeting in their several places of worship, there to join in ascribing honor and praise to Almighty God, whose goodness has been so manifest in our history and in our lives, and offering earnest prayers that His bounties may continue to us and to our children.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this fourth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred & sixth.

[SEAL.]

By the President,

JAMES G. BLAINE

 Secretary of State.

Appointment of November 24, 1881, as a day of thanksgiving.
No. 4.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas it is provided in the laws of the United States that "when ever, by reason of unlawful obstructions, combinations, or assemblages of persons, or rebellion against the authority of the Government of the United States, it shall become impracticable, in the judgment of the President, to enforce, by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings, the laws of the United States within any State or Territory, it shall be lawful for the President to call forth the militia of any or all the States, and to employ such parts of the land and naval forces of the United States as he may deem necessary to enforce the faithful execution of the laws of the United States, or to suppress such rebellion, in whatever State or Territory thereof the laws of the United States may be forcibly opposed or the execution thereof forcibly obstructed;"

And whereas it has been made to appear satisfactorily to me, by information received from the Governor of the Territory of Arizona, and from the General of the Army of the United States, and other reliable sources, that in consequence of unlawful combinations of evil disposed persons who are banded together to oppose and obstruct the execution of the laws, it has become impracticable to enforce, by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings, the laws of the United States within that Territory, and that the laws of the United States have been therein forcibly opposed and the execution thereof forcibly resisted;

And whereas the laws of the United States require that whenever it may be necessary, in the judgment of the President, to use the military forces for the purpose of enforcing the faithful execution of the laws of the United States, he shall forthwith, by proclamation, command such insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes, within a limited time:

Now, therefore, I, Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States, do hereby admonish all good citizens of the United States, and especially of the Territory of Arizona, against aiding, countenancing, abetting, or taking part in any such unlawful proceedings, and I do hereby warn all persons engaged in or connected with said obstruction of the laws, to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes on or before noon of the fifteenth day of May.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this third day of May, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and eighty-two, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and sixth.

CHESTER A. ARTHUR.

By the President:

FREDK. T. FRELINGHUYSEN,
Secretary of State.
No. 5.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

In conformity with a custom the annual observance of which is justly held in honor by this people, I, Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States, do hereby set apart Thursday, the 30th day of November next as a day of public Thanksgiving.

The blessings demanding our gratitude are numerous and varied. For the peace and amity which subsist between this Republic and all the nations of the world; for the freedom from internal discord and violence; for the increasing friendship between the different sections of the land; for liberty, justice and constitutional government; for the devotion of the people to our free institutions and their cheerful obedience to mild laws; for the constantly increasing strength of the Republic while extending its privileges to fellow men who come to us; for the improved means of internal communication, and the increased facilities of intercourse with other Nations; for the general prevailing health of the year; for the prosperity of all our industries, the liberal return for the mechanic's toil affording a market for the abundant harvests of the husbandman; for the preservation of the national faith and credit; for wise and generous provision to effect the intellectual and moral education of our youth; for the influence upon the conscience of a restraining and transforming religion; and for the joys of home; for these, and for many other blessings, we should give thanks.

Wherefore, I do recommend that the day above designated be observed throughout the country as a Day of National Thanksgiving and Prayer, and that the people, ceasing from their daily labors and meeting in accordance with their several forms of worship, draw near to the throne of Almighty God, offering to Him praise and gratitude for the manifold goodness which He has vouchsafed to us, and praying that His blessings and His mercies may continue.

And I do further recommend that the day thus appointed be made a special occasion for deeds of kindness and charity to the suffering and the needy, so that all who dwell within the land may rejoice and be glad in this season of National Thanksgiving.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this twenty-fifth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and seventh.
