Sec.

01. Literary and scientific collections accessible to investigators and students.
 02. Admissions to marine biological station for pursuit of investigations.
 03. Sale of machine tools to trade, technical, and public schools and universities; conditions.

Section 91. Literary and scientific collections accessible to investigators and students.—The facilities for study research and illustration in the Government departments and in the following and any other governmental collections now existing or hereafter to be established in the city of Washington for the promotion of knowledge shall be accessible, under such rules and restrictions as the officers in charge of each department or collection may prescribe, subject to such authority as is now or may hereafter be permitted by law, to the scientific investigators and to duly qualified individuals, students and graduates of any institution of learning in the several States and Territories and the District of Columbia, to wit:

- One. Of the Library of Congress.
- Two. Of the National Museum.
- Three. Of the Patent Office.
- Four. Of the Bureau of Education.
- Five. Of the Bureau of Ethnology.
- Six. Of the Army Medical Museum.
- Seven. Of the Department of Agriculture.
- Eight. Of the Bureau of Fisheries.
- Nine. Of the Botanic Gardens.
- Ten. Of the Coast and Geodetic Survey.
- Eleven. Of the Geological Survey.
- Twelve. Of the Naval Observatory.
- Thirteen. Of the Zoological Park. (Apr. 12, 1892, No. 8, 27 Stat. 395; Mar. 3, 1901, c. 831, 31 Stat. 1039.)

92. Admissions to marine biological station for pursuit of investigations.—The professors, instructors, and students of the several land-grant, agricultural, and mechanical colleges of the United States shall be admitted to the marine biological station on the Gulf of Mexico on the coast of Florida, to pursue such investigation in fish culture and biology as may be practicable, without cost to the Government, under such rules and regulations as may be from time to time prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce. (Mar. 1, 1911, c. 189, §§ 1, 2, 36 Stat. 964; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 730; Aug. 1, 1914, c. 223, § 1, 38 Stat. 665.)

93. Sale of machine tools to trade, technical, and public schools and universities; conditions.—The Secretary of War is authorized, under such regulations as he may prescribe, to sell at 15 per centum of their cost to trade, technical, and public schools and universities, and other recognized educational institutions, upon application in writing, such machine tools as are suitable for their use owned by the United States of America and under the control of the War Department and not needed for Government purposes. The money realized from the sale may be used by the Secretary of War to defray expenses, except cost of transportation, incident to distribution of the tools, and the balance shall be turned into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. In the event any such material is offered for sale by said institutions without the consent in writing of the Secretary of War, title thereto shall revert to the United States. (Nov. 10, 1910, c. 118, 41 Stat. 360.)

101. Permanent trust fund; annual appropriation.
 102. Same; application of appropriation.
     (1) Purposes and method of expenditure.
     (2) Buildings.
     (3) Sales of books and apparatus at cost.
     (4) Income withheld when not properly used.
     (5) Bond of treasurer.
     (6) Ex officio trustees.
 103. Publications for National Library for the Blind.
 104. Annual reports by trustees.
 105. Books for Library of Congress.

Section 101. Permanent trust fund; annual appropriation.—The sum of $250,000, set apart as a perpetual trust fund for the purpose of aiding the education of the blind in the United States, through the American Printing House for the Blind, shall be credited on the books of the Treasury Department as a perpetual trust fund for that purpose, to be held, invested, and reinvested, by the Secretary of the Treasury in United States interest-bearing bonds; and the sum of $10,000, being equivalent to 4 per centum on the principal of said trust fund, is appropriated, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and such appropriation shall be deemed a permanent annual appropriation and shall be expended in the manner and for the purposes authorized by this chapter. In addition to the permanent appropriation of $10,000, made in this section, there is authorized to be appropriated annually to the American Printing House for the Blind the sum of $10,000, which sum shall be expended in accordance with the requirements of this chapter. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 186, §§ 1, 2, 20 Stat. 468; June 25, 1906, c. 3536, 34 Stat. 460; Aug. 4, 1919, c. 31, 41 Stat. 272.)

102. Same; application of appropriation.—The Secretary of the Treasury of the United States is hereby authorized to pay over semiannually, to the trustees of the American Printing House for the Blind, located in Louisville, Kentucky, and chartered in 1858 by the Legislature of Kentucky, upon the requisition of their president, countersigned by their treasurer, one-half of such permanent annual appropriation upon the following conditions:

(1) Purposes and method of expenditure.—First. Such appropriation shall be expended by the trustees of the American Printing House for the Blind each year in manufacturing and furnishing embossed books for the blind and tangible apparatus for their instruction; and the total amount of such books and apparatus so manufactured and furnished by such appropriation shall each year be distributed among all the public institutions for the education of the blind in the States and Territories of the United States and the District of Columbia, upon the requisition of the superintendent of each, duly certified by its board of trustees. The basis of such distribution shall be the total number of pupils in all the public institutions for the education of the blind, to be authenticated in such manner and as often as the trustees of the said American Printing House for the Blind shall require; and each institution shall receive, in books and apparatus, that portion of the appropriation as is shown by the ratio between the number of pupils in that institution for the education of the blind and the total number of pupils in all the public institutions for the education of the blind, which ratio shall be computed upon the first Monday in January of each year.

(2) Buildings.—Second. No part of the appropriation shall be expended in the erection or leasing of buildings.

(3) Sales of books and apparatus at cost.—Third. No profit shall be put on any books or tangible apparatus for the instruction of the blind manufactured or furnished by the trustees of said American Printing House for the Blind, located in Louisville, Kentucky; and the price put upon each article so manufactured or furnished shall only be its actual cost.

(4) Income withheld when not properly used.—Fourth. The Secretary of the Treasury of the United States shall have the authority to withhold the appropriation whenever he shall receive satisfactory proof that the trustees of said American Printing House for the Blind, located in Louisville, Kentucky, are not using the appropriation for the benefit of the blind in the public institutions for the education of the blind in the United States.

(5) Bond of treasurer.—Fifth. Before any money be paid to the treasurer of the American Printing House for the Blind by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, the treasurer of the American Printing House for the Blind shall execute a bond, with two approved sureties, to the amount of $20,000, conditioned that the money so received shall be expended according to this law and all amendments thereto, which shall be held by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, and shall be renewed every two years.

(6) Ex officio trustees.—Sixth. The superintendents of the various public institutions for the education of the blind in the United States shall each, ex officio, be a member of the board of trustees of the American Printing House for the Blind, located in the city of Louisville, Kentucky. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 186, § 3, 20 Stat. 468.)

103. Publications for National Library for the Blind.—Two copies of each of the publications printed by the American Printing House for the Blind shall be furnished free of charge to the National Library for the Blind located at 1729 H Street Northwest, Washington, District of Columbia. (Nov. 4, 1919, c. 93, § 1, 41 Stat. 332.)

104. Annual reports by trustees.—The trustees of said American Printing House for the Blind shall annually make to the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States a report of the items of their expenditure of the appropriation aforesaid during the year preceding their report, and shall annually furnish him with a voucher from each public institution for the education of the blind, showing that the amount of books and tangible apparatus due has been received. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 186, § 4, 20 Stat. 469.)

105. Books for Library of Congress.—The distribution of embossed books manufactured by the American Printing House for the Blind at Louisville, Kentucky, out of the income of the fund provided by this chapter, shall include one copy of every book so manufactured to be deposited in the Library of Congress at Washington. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 112, § 1, 37 Stat. 748.)

Sec.

111. Study in certain schools of effect of alcoholic drinks and narcotics.
112. Enforcement of section 111.
113. Teachers' certificates dependent on passing examination on effect of alcoholic drinks and narcotics.

Section 111. Study in certain schools of effect of alcoholic drinks and narcotics.—The nature of alcoholic drinks and narcotics, and special instruction as to their effects upon the human system, in connection with the several divisions of the subject of physiology and hygiene, shall be included in the branches of study taught in the common or public schools, and in the military and naval schools, and shall be studied and taught as thoroughly and in the same manner as other like required branches are in said schools, by the use of textbooks in the hands of pupils where other branches are thus studied in said schools, and by all pupils in all said schools throughout the Territories, in the Military and Naval Academies of the United States, and in the District of Columbia, and in all Indian and colored schools in the Territories of the United States. (May 20, 1886, c. 362, § 1, 24 Stat. 69.)

112. Enforcement of section 111.—It shall be the duty of the proper officers in control of any school described in section 111 of this title to enforce the provisions of this chapter; and any such officer, school director, committee, superintendent, or teacher who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the requirements of this chapter, or shall neglect or fail to make proper provisions for the instruction required and in the manner specified by section 111 of this title, for all pupils in each and every school under his jurisdiction, shall be removed from office, and the vacancy filled as in other cases. (May 20, 1886, c. 362, § 2, 24 Stat. 69.)

113. Teachers' certificates dependent on passing examination on effect of alcoholic drinks and narcotics.—No certificate shall be granted to any person to teach in the public schools of the District of Columbia or Territories who has not passed a satisfactory examination in physiology and hygiene, with special reference to the nature and the effects of alcoholic drinks and other narcotics upon the human system. (May 20, 1886, c. 362, § 3, 24 Stat. 69.)

Chapter 8.—HOWARD UNIVERSITY.

Sec.

121. Annual report of president and directors.
122. Limitation on use of appropriations.

Section 121. Annual report of president and directors.—The president and directors of Howard University shall report to the Secretary of the Interior the condition of the institution on the 1st of July of each year, embracing therein the number of pupils received and discharged or leaving the same for any cause during the preceding year, and the number remaining; also, the branches of knowledge and industry taught and the progress made therein together with a statement showing the receipts of the institution and from what sources, and its disbursements, and for what objects. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 208, 27 Stat. 595; July 1, 1898, c. 546, 30 Stat. 624.)

122. Limitation on use of appropriations.—No part of the appropriations made by Congress for the Howard University shall be used, directly or indirectly, for the support of the theological department of said university, nor for the support of any sectarian, denominational, or religious instruction therein; and no part thereof shall be paid to said university until it shall accord to the Secretary of the Interior, or to his designated agent or agents, authority to visit and inspect such university and to control and supervise the expenditure therein of all moneys paid under said appropriations. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 424, 30 Stat. 1101.)
