

shall include and apply to Hawaii, Alaska, Porto Rico, and the Canal Zone, and the militia of the Canal Zone shall be organized under such rules and regulations, not in conflict with the provisions of this title, as the President may prescribe.

This section, constituting § 62 of Act June 3, 1916, c. 131, 39 Stat. 108, was incompletely stated in the Code, in that it omitted the proviso set out above. The proviso should be added to the Code section at the end thereof, after a colon following the word "herein."

★122. Compliance with preceding section.—

"section 62" in last line of this section should read "said section."

Chapter 9.—NATIONAL GUARD RESERVE.

Section 131. Establishment and organization.—[Repealed.]—

Section 78 of Act June 3, 1916, c. 131, 39 Stat. 202, of which § 131 of this title is a part, was amended by Act June 4, 1920, c. 227, § 42, 41 Stat. 782 "by striking out the same and inserting" in lieu thereof the provisions which constitute section 182 of this title.

Chapter 10.—PAY AND ALLOWANCES.

Section 143a. Armory drill pay; basis of computation.—Armory drill pay shall be computed upon a fiscal year basis instead of calendar year.

New. This section constitutes a part of the War Department Appropriation Act of Apr. 15, 1926, c. 146, Title I, 44 Stat. 282.

145. Pay and allowances for attending instruction camps.—Officers and warrant officers of the National Guard attending assemblages provided for in section 64 of this title shall be entitled to pay, allowances, and transportation, and enlisted men to pay, transportation, and subsistence at the same rates as for encampments or maneuvers for field or coast-defense instruction.

The statutory provision constituting § 145 of this title was amended to read as above by a part of § 2 of Act May 28, 1926, c. 417, 44 Stat. 674, entitled "An Act to amend in certain particulars the National Defense Act of June 3, 1916, as amended, and for other purposes." Numerous changes.

146. Pay and allowances for attendance at service schools.—When any National Guard officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man is selected to attend and pursue a regular course of study at any military service school of the United States, except the United States Military Academy, or to be attached to an organization of the same arm, corps, or department to which such officer or enlisted man shall belong, for routine practical instruction at or near an Army post during a period of field training or other outdoor exercises, as provided for in section 65 of this title, such officer, or warrant officer, shall receive out of any National Guard allotment of funds available for the purpose, the pay and allowances provided in Title 37, for officers and warrant officers of the National Guard when authorized by law to receive Federal pay and the travel allowances provided in section 20 of said title, and any such enlisted man shall receive therefrom, except as otherwise provided in section 23 of said title, the same pay and allowances, including allowances for quarters, subsistence, and travel to which an enlisted man of the Regular Army of like grade would be entitled for attending such school, college, or practical course of instruction under orders from proper military authority, while in actual attendance at such school, college, or practical course of instruction, and for the necessary period of travel from and to his home station: Provided, That all pay and allowances accruing to any officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man, including that for the period of travel to home stations, may be paid prior to departure from the post or other place at which such service is performed: Provided further, That an officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man who becomes sick in line of duty while undergoing the training provided for by section 65 of this title or the training provided for by section 63 or section 64 of this title shall, while he is so sick during the period he is authorized to engage in such training, be entitled to pay and allowances the same as if he were actually participating in such training.

The statutory provision constituting § 140 of this title was amended to read as above by a part of § 3 of Act May 28, 1926, c. 417, 44 Stat. 674.

For title of Act see note to § 145.

★154. Pay of enlisted men of grades other than sixth and seventh.—

After "143" in line 2 of the second paragraph of this section add "and 148."

159. Payment of arrears.—Members of the National Guard, the Officers' Reserve Corps, and the Enlisted Reserve Corps who have or shall become entitled for a continuous period of less than one month to Federal pay at the rates fixed for the Regular Army, whether by virtue of a call by the President, of attendance at school or maneuver, or of any other cause, and whose accounts have not yet been settled, shall receive such pay for each day of such period, and the thirty-first day of a calendar month shall not be excluded from the computation.

* * *

The statutory provision of Act Sept. 14, 1922, c. 307, § 3, 42 Stat. 841, constituting the first sentence of § 159 of this title was amended to read as above by Act May 11, 1926, c. 288, 44 Stat. 531, entitled "An Act to amend section 3 of the Act approved September 14, 1922 (chapter 307, Forty-second Statutes at Large, part 1, pages 840 to 841)." Numerous changes.

The second sentence of the section as it appears in the Code being derived from Act Mar. 4, 1923, is unaffected by the amendment.

★162. Hospital treatment, pay, etc., in case of injury while engaged in flying prescribed under preceding section.—

"62" in next to last line of this section should read "'3."

Chapter 11.—MILITIA BUREAU.

★Section 172. Appointment and term of office of chief of bureau; rank, pay, and allowances; right to retirement.—

"8" in line 3 from end of this section should read "12."

Chapter 12.—RIFLE INSTRUCTION AND PRACTICE FOR CIVILIANS.

Section 181a. Promotion of rifle practice; appropriation.—For the purpose of furnishing a national trophy and medals and other prizes to be provided and contested for annually, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, said contest to be open to the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and the National Guard or Organized Militia of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, members of rifle clubs, and civilians, and for the cost of trophy, prizes, and medals herein provided for, and for the promotion of rifle practice throughout the United States, including the reimbursement of necessary expense of members of the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice to be expended for the purpose hereinbefore prescribed, under the direction of the Secretary of War, the sum of $7,500 is hereby authorized to be appropriated annually: Provided, That no competitor shall be entitled to commutation of rations in excess of $1.50 per day, and when meals are furnished no greater expense than that sum per man per day for the period the contest is in progress.

New. This section constitutes Act Feb. 14, 1927, c. 130, 44 Stat. 1095, entitled "An Act for the promotion of rifle practice throughout the United States."

Chapter 13.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.
