Chapter 3.—OFFENSES AGAINST NEUTRALITY

§ 31. Enforcement of neutrality; withholding clearance for or furnishing the money for, or who takes part in, any military or naval expedition or enterprise to be carried on from thence against the territory or dominion of any foreign prince or state, colony, district, or people, with whom the United States are at peace. (R. S. § 5289; Mar. 4, 1909, c. 321, § 14, 35 Stat. 1080.)

§ 27. (Criminal Code, section 15, amended.) Compelling foreign vessels to depart. It shall be lawful for the President to employ the land or naval forces of the United States, or of the militia thereof, for the purpose of taking possession of and detaining any such vessel, with her prizes, if any, in order to enforce the execution of the prohibitions and penalties of this chapter, and the restoring of such prizes in the cases in which restoration shall be adjudged; and also for the purpose of preventing the carrying on of any such expedition or enterprise from the territory or jurisdiction of the United States against the territory or dominion of any foreign prince or state, or of any colony, district, or people, with whom the United States are at peace. (R. S. § 5287; Mar. 4, 1909, c. 321, § 15, 35 Stat. 1090.)

§ 32. (Criminal Code, section 20.) Enforcing execution of neutrality. Any and all acts done by the President in carrying out the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed to be an exercise of the powers given to him by this chapter for enforcing neutrality. (R. S. § 5287; Mar. 4, 1909, c. 321, § 20, 35 Stat. 1090.)

§ 33. (Criminal Code, section 21.) Organizing military expedition against friendly power. Whoever, within the territory or jurisdiction of the United States or of any of its possessions, knowingly provides or sets on foot or provides or aids or procures or furnishes the money for, or who takes part in, any military or naval expedition or enterprise to be carried on from thence against the territory or dominion of any foreign prince or state, colony, district, or people, with whom the United States are at peace, shall be fined not more than $3,000 or imprisoned not more than three years, or both. (R. S. § 5289; Mar. 4, 1909, c. 321, § 13, 35 Stat. 1090; June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title V, § 49, 40 Stat. 223.)
