ACT JUNE 27, 1942, CH. 453

801. Free importation of personal and household effects brought into the United States under Government orders.
802. Effective date.

RES. JUNE 27, 1942, CH. 455, 56 STAT. 461

§ 791. Free importation of articles for members of the armed forces of other United Nations.

All articles imported into the United States, its Territories or possessions, including the Canal Zone and the Virgin Islands, consigned or addressed to members of the armed forces of the United Nations, other than those of the United States, who are on duty therein, which articles are intended for their personal or official use, shall be admitted free of all duties and internal-revenue taxes imposed upon or by reason of importation and all customs charges and exactions: Provided, however, That if the Secretary of the Treasury shall find that any of the other United Nations does not accord similar treatment to members of the armed forces of the United States, the privileges herein granted shall, after collectors of customs have been officially advised of such findings, be accorded to members of the armed forces of such nation only to the extent that similar treatment is accorded to members of the armed forces of the United States. (June 27, 1942, ch. 455, § 1, 56 Stat. 461.)

§ 792. Free importation of articles for enemy prisoners and internees.

In order to implement the provisions of article 38 of The Convention Between the United States of America and Other Powers, relating to the Treatment of prisoners of war, signed at Geneva on July 27, 1929, ratified by the President on January 16, 1932, and proclaimed on August 4, 1932 (47 Stat. (part 2) 2021, 2043), all articles consigned or addressed to enemy prisoners of war and enemy civilian internees and detainees in the United States, its Territories or possessions, including the Canal Zone and the Virgin Islands, shall be admitted free of all duties and internal revenue taxes imposed upon or by reason of importation and all customs charges and exactions. (June 27, 1942, ch. 455, § 2, 56 Stat. 462.)

§ 793. Free importation of articles made by members of armed forces of United Nations while interned as prisoners.

All articles made by members of the armed forces of the United Nations interned or detained as prisoners of war by any enemy country or made by nationals of the United States interned or detained by any enemy country as enemy nationals shall, when imported into the United States, its Territories or possessions, including the Canal Zone and the Virgin Islands, be admitted free of all duties and internal revenue taxes imposed upon or by reason of importation and all customs charges and exactions. (June 27, 1942, ch. 455, § 3, 56 Stat. 462.)

§ 794. Regulations by the Secretary of the Treasury.

The exemptions from duties, taxes, charges, and exactions provided for by this joint resolution shall be subject to compliance with such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe. (June 27, 1942, ch. 455, § 4, 56 Stat. 462.)

§ 795. Effective date.

This joint resolution shall be effective as to articles entered for consumption or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption on or after the date of its enactment and before the expiration of six months after the termination of the unlimited national emergency proclaimed by the President on May 27, 1941. (June 27, 1942, ch. 455, § 5, 56 Stat. 462.)

ACT JUNE 27, 1942, CH. 453, 56 STAT. 461

§ 801. Free importation of personal and household effects brought into the United States under Government orders.

Under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, the personal and household effects of any person in the service of the United States, or of his family, or of any person evacuated to the United States under Government orders, may be brought into the United States or any of its possessions, pursuant to Government orders or instructions, without the payment of any duty or tax imposed upon, or by reason of, importation. (June 27, 1942, ch. 453, § 1, 56 Stat. 461.)

§ 802. Effective date.

This Act shall be effective with respect to articles entered for consumption or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption on or after December 8, 1941, and shall have no force or effect on or after the day following the proclamation of peace by the President. The free entry herein authorized shall apply to any effects described in section 1 (section 801 of this Appendix) which are in customs custody on the effective date of this Act, notwithstanding the provisions of sections 490 and 491 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (sections 1490 and 1491 of Title 19). (June 27, 1942, ch. 453, § 2, 56 Stat. 461.)
