Chapter 227.—SENTENCE, JUDGMENT, AND EXECUTION

Sec. 3568. Effective date of sentence; credit for time in custody prior to imposition of sentence.

AMENDMENTS

1960—Pub. L. 86-691, § 1(b), Sept. 2, 1960, 74 Stat. 738, included credit for time in custody prior to imposition of sentence in item 3568.

§ 3568. Effective date of sentence; credit for time in custody prior to the imposition of sentence.

The sentence of imprisonment of any person convicted of an offense in a court of the United States shall commence to run from the date on which such person is received at the penitentiary, reformatory, or jail for service of said sentence: Provided, That the Attorney General shall give any such person credit toward service of his sentence for any days spent in custody prior to the imposition of sentence by the sentencing court for want of bail set for the offense under which sentence was imposed where the statute requires the imposition of a minimum mandatory sentence.

If any such person shall be committed to a jail or other place of detention to await transportation to the place at which his sentence is to be served, his sentence shall commence to run from the date on which he is received at such jail or other place of detention.

No sentence shall prescribe any other method of computing the term. (As amended Sept. 2, 1960, Pub. L. 86-691, § 1(a), 74 Stat. 738.)

AMENDMENTS

1960—Pub. L. 86-691 included credit for time in custody prior to the imposition of sentence in the catchline, and inserted proviso requiring the Attorney General to give any such person credit toward service of his sentence for any days spent in custody prior to the imposition of sentence by the sentencing court for want of bail set for the offense under which sentence was imposed where the statute requires the imposition of a minimum mandatory sentence.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1960 AMENDMENT

Section 2 of Pub. L. 86-691 provided that: "The amendments made by the first section of this Act [amending this section and the analysis preceding section 3561 of this title] shall be effective only with respect to persons sentenced to imprisonment on or after the thirtieth day after the date of enactment of this Act [Sept. 2, 1960]."

Chapter 237.—RULES OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

§ 3771. Procedure to and including verdict.

The Supreme Court of the United States shall have the power to prescribe, from time to time, rules of pleading, practice, and procedure with respect to any or all proceedings prior to and including verdict, or finding of guilty or not guilty by the court if a jury has been waived, or plea of guilty, in criminal cases and proceedings to punish for criminal contempt of court in the United States district courts, in the district courts for the District of the Canal Zone and the Virgin Islands, in the Supreme Court of Puerto Rico, and in proceedings before United States commissioners. Such rules shall not take effect until they have been reported to Congress by the Chief Justice at or after the beginning of a regular session thereof but not later than the first day of May, and until the expiration of ninety days after they have been thus reported. All laws in conflict with such rules shall be of no further force or effect after such rules have taken effect.
