

Chapter 18.—TRANSPORTATION OF FIREARMS

Sec.

910. Relief from disabilities resulting from conviction; application; public interest; publication in Federal Register [New].

§ 910. Relief from disabilities resulting from conviction; application; public interest; publication in Federal Register.

A person who has been convicted of a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year (other than a crime involving the use of a firearm or other weapon or a violation of this chapter or of the National Firearms Act) may make application to the Secretary of the Treasury for relief from the disabilities under this chapter incurred by reason of such conviction, and the Secretary of the Treasury may grant such relief if it is established to his satisfaction that the circumstances regarding the conviction, and the applicant's record and reputation, are such that the applicant will not be likely to conduct his operations in an unlawful manner, and that the granting of the relief would not be contrary to the public interest. A licensee conducting operations under this chapter, who makes application for relief from the disabilities incurred under this chapter by reason of such a conviction, shall not be barred by such conviction from further operations under his license pending final action on an application for relief filed pursuant to this section. Whenever the Secretary of the Treasury grants relief to any person pursuant to this section, he shall promptly publish in the Federal Register notice of such action, together with the reasons therefor. (June 30, 1938, ch. 850, § 10, as added Sept. 15, 1965, Pub. L. 89-184, 79 Stat. 788.)
