Chapter 7.—COOPERATION WITH OTHER AGENCIES

§ 147. Department of Commerce.

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

The Weather Bureau of the Department of Commerce was consolidated with the Coast and Geodetic Survey to form a new agency in the Department of Commerce to be known as the Environmental Science Services Administration and the office of Chief of the Weather Bureau was abolished by Reorg. Plan No. 2 of 1965, eff. July 13, 1965, 30 F.R. 8819, 79 Stat. 1318, set out in the Appendix to Title 5, Government Organization and Employees.

Chapter 9.—COAST GUARD ACADEMY

§ 182. Cadets; number, appointment, obligation to serve.

The number of cadets appointed annually to the Academy shall be as determined by the Secretary but the number appointed in any one year shall not exceed four hundred. Appointments to cadetships shall be made under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, who shall determine age limits, methods of selection of applicants, term of service as a cadet before graduation, and all other matters affecting such appointments. The Secretary may summarily dismiss from the Coast Guard any cadet who, during his cadetship, is found unsatisfactory in either studies or conduct, or may be deemed not adapted for a career in the Coast Guard. Previous to his admission each cadet shall obligate himself, in such manner as the Secretary shall prescribe, to serve at least five years as an officer in the Coast Guard after graduation, if his service be so long required. Cadets shall be subject to rules governing discipline prescribed by the Commandant. (As amended June 9, 1966, Pub. L. 89-444, § 1(8), 80 Stat. 195.)

AMENDMENTS

1966—Pub. L. 80-444 raised from three hundred to four hundred the maximum number of cadets who may be appointed annually to the Academy.

§ 186. Civilian teaching staff.

(a) The Secretary may appoint in the Coast Guard such number of civilian faculty members at the Academy as the needs of the Service may require. They shall have such titles and perform duties as prescribed by the Secretary. Leaves of absence and hours of work for such personnel shall be governed by regulations issued by the Secretary of the Treasury, without regard to section 84, chapter 18, subchapter IV of chapter 21, sections 1112, 1113, and 1121-1125, and chapter 23 of title 5.

(b) The compensation of persons employed under this section is as prescribed by the Secretary. (As amended June 9, 1966, Pub. L. 89-444, § 1(9), 80 Stat. 195.)

SECTION REFERRED TO IN OTHER SECTIONS

This section is referred to in title 5 section 5102.

§ 190. Retirement of permanent commissioned teaching staff.

Professors, associate professors, assistant professors, and instructors in the Coast Guard shall be subject to retirement or discharge from active service for any cause on the same basis as other commissioned officers of the Coast Guard, except that they shall not be required to retire from active service under the provisions of section 288 of this title, nor shall they be subject to the provisions of section 289 of this title. The Secretary may retire any member of the permanent commissioned teaching staff who has completed thirty years' active service. Service as a civilian member of the teaching staff at the Academy in addition to creditable service authorized by any other law in any of the military services rendered prior to an appointment as a professor, associate professor, assistant professor, or instructor shall be credited in computing length of service for retirement purposes. The provisions of law relating to retirement for disability in line of duty shall not apply in the case of a
