

MAR - 4 1934 WHITE EAGLE - Episode #10 - "The Cave of Peril"

©CIL 17592C

The chapter opens with the rescue of Ruth from the sea by Phil Stanton on the White Rider's yacht. One month later finds the entire party that sought the key to the mystery on the island of Siburo back at the Loomis Ranch. Phil tells the girl that he has to leave for San Mario on business, and departs. Hardly has he gone when the White Rider dashes up and informs Ruth that Stone Ear--the squaw who can decode the Wampum Belt with the aid of the amulet of Lane Elk, -- can be found at the old wigwam. Ruth foolishly tells this to Loomis, who sends Julia to see Stone Ear before the girl can get there.

Ruth decides to seek Stone Ear and dispatches Moonlight to bring Phil back from San Mario. Julia arrives at the old wigwam with a group of cowpunchers and shows the Wampum Belt that she had stolen from Ruth. The squaw says that she will not read the belt without first seeing the amulet and Julia is about to give up when she sees Ruth approaching. The cowpunchers attempt to seize the girl and secure the amulet, but the White Rider comes to her aid and carries her away to his secret cave. The cowpunchers mount their horses and follow close behind. In the cave, the mysterious horseman leaves Ruth for a moment and goes to some levers in a small room. Ruth, meanwhile, finds an outlet from the cave and explores it just as the White Rider pulls the levers causing a terrific explosion. Sand pours down upon Ruth and she is unable to escape.
