SONG

C. MORTIMER WISKE.

1. Some deem it but a lit - tle thing To tri - fle with an - other's love; ..... To
2. Some deem it but a lit - tle thing To pass their humble brother by; ..... Nor
3. Some deem it but a lit - tle thing To se - ver Friend ship's sacred chord, ..... And gain the heart's best of - fer - ing, And then to oth - er ob - jects rove; But deign to yield the joys that spring From outstretch'd hand and friendly eye; But rude - ly snap the ties that cling Around the heart, by some false word; But it has caus'd full many a smart, Which years a - lone can e'er al - lay, And it has caus'd this lit - tle deed, Full many a seald - ing tear to roll, And it has caus'd a world of strife, Where love and peace were wont to reign, And bro - ken many a faithful heart, Which might have thrill'd with love to - day.

many an aching heart to bleed, And un - told an - guish of the soul.
many a year of af - ter life Made doub - ly des - o - late by pain.

CHORUS.

Soprano.

Take heed how ye in future deal, Nor rudely strike affection's string, For Alto.

Tenor.

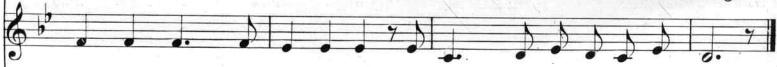

Take heed how ye in future deal, Nor rudely strike affection's string, For

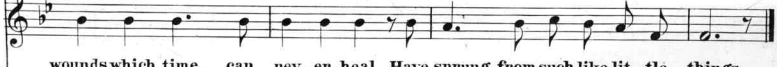

Bass.

PIANO.

wounds which time can never heal Have sprung from such like little things.
