1st. Verse.

Now since prohibition began,
Women have been pestering man,
They soon became suffragettes,
Want us to quit our cigarettas,
First it was that, and now it is this,
Next it will be our sweetheart's kiss,

2nd. Verse.

Women seem so awfully bold,
All they do is just simply scold,
We can love them just the same,
Though they don't play a good fair game,
If cigarettes should be no more,
Then we'll feel mighty blue wether sure.

Chorus.

Please, oh please, dear little suffrageete
Don't take away our cigarettas,
Life without love will never, never do,
Leave us our cigarettes and we'll love you,
A woman's a woman, a good cigar's a smoke,
And if we don't have them, why we will surely croke, Please, oh please, dear little suffragette , please don't take away our cigarettes.
