MINNESOTA BRINGS THREE MILLION BY SALE IN THE EAST

According to advices received from Seattle on the Mariposa, the Great Northern liner Minnesota has been sold to C. W. Morse of New York, representing powerful interests on the east coast for $3,000,000. The big craft sailed from Seattle for London November 14, and put back to San Francisco December 14 in distress. The contract for sixteen new boilers was let January 19 to the Union Iron Works and the cargo taken aboard in Seattle sold. The Minnesota is still at San Francisco, where the repairs were completed September 15th.

JUNEAU MAN WILL BE MARRIED IN SEATTLE

Rufe W. Lindsay, well known mining engineer of Juneau and Treadwell and at present associated with the Speel River Project, is now a married man, according to word received in Juneau. The wedding took place in Seattle last week and the bride was Miss Catherine Maloney, who last year was a member of the Douglas school teaching staff. She is a sister of Miss Ann Maloney of the nurses staff of the St. Ann hospital at Douglas. The young couple have many friends on Gastineau Channel and they are expected to arrive from the south on an early boat. They will make their future home in Juneau.

OLE FOSSE PASSING OUT THE CIGARS ON ACCOUNT OF A BABY

Ole Fosse is smiling broadly and passing out the cigars. Stork Devigne went around to Fosse's home at Tenth and Willoughby and now Mrs. Fosse is cuddling an eight-and-a-half-pound boy baby. Mr. Fosse is one of the employees of George K. Gilbert, the plumber.

ALAMEDA BRINGS GOOD ORE CARGO SOUTHBOUND

With a cargo of approximately 1500 tons of copper ore from La-Touche and Cordova, the steamer Alameda sailed southbound this afternoon. The following passengers left for the south on her: Bertha E. Jones, Nels Johnson, Jennie Isaacson, Axel Isaacson, Mary Bessacel, Mrs. Marie Kokich and two children, Mrs. F. L. Boynton, D. N. Mitchell, John Smith, Frank Rose, E. C. Stroup for Seattle; Mrs. L. A. Green, J. W. Bell, J. E. Reagan, W. W. Casoy, Jr., H. A. Bishop, Mrs. C. Z. Denny, Harvey Dupree, H. S. Smith, Bea Kettle, W. J. Wright, James Newman and wife, Judge R. W. Jennings, James A. Smiser and John T. Reed for Ketchikan.

The steamer Alameda, which arrived from the westward this morning, brought the following passengers for Juneau: Herb Conway, H. Shipman, C. J. Johns, C. Fordino, A. Shyman, Mrs. Pat Lynch, A. Greenbaum, L. Labbe, J. D. Pasa, Mike Botch, A. B. Cooper, and Gust Arneson.

MARIPOSA ARRIVED FROM SOUTH SUNDAY AFTERNOON

The steamer Mariposa arrived from the south yesterday afternoon and remained here unloading freight until eight o'clock last evening. The steamer had a small passenger list but brought 136 tons of freight for Juneau and 61 tons for Thane.

The Juneau arrivals on the Mariposa were Fred V. Berger and wife, N. Brown, Lotta Osborne, Mrs. C. Ostrom, Evelyn Thompson, James K. Poe, L. Sumnerline, G. A. Edwards, A. R. Edwards, F. M. Jardine, George Underhill, W. T. Todd, Mrs. J. W. Fountain and three children, Thomas Phillips, Miss G. Mandel, Mrs. P. A. Hall, Mrs. C. W. Hawksworth, E. Erickson, H. Jorgen and F. A. Case.

JUNEAU MAN INSANE.

Henry Hart, who was arrested Friday night charged with being insane on the question of religion, was tried late Saturday afternoon in the Commissioner's court and was found to be insane. The jury was composed of A. C. Babbage, Arthur Baldwin, M. C. Stewart, W. P. Pendergraft, F. P. Cook and John E. Winn.

SISTER WANTS WORD OF HER MISSING BROTHER

The Governor's Office is in receipt of a letter from W. J. Lindenberg, Room 220, Knessler Building, Manila, P. I., in which he asks for news of his sister, Miss Catherine Lindenberg, who presumably left San Francisco about August 1st for Alaska. Miss Lindenberg is a trained nurse and 28 years of age.

Anyone knowing anything as to Miss Lindenberg's whereabouts, is requested to communicate with her brother, at the above address, or with the Governor's office. Other newspapers please copy.

MISS WALLEN WANTED

The Governor's office is in receipt of a request for information concerning Miss Charlotte Wallen, who is supposed to be in Juneau or vicinity. If this item comes to her attention, it is requested that she kindly communicate with the Governor's office.

AL-KI SOUTHBOUND TOMORROW.

The steamer Al-Ki of the Border Line, is scheduled to return from Sitka and sail southbound tomorrow morning.

JUNEAU BANKER WILL LEAVE.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Behrends expect to leave for the south on the steamer Admiral Evans. They will spend several weeks in the States, enjoying a vacation.
