Angus McKay, of Treadwell was on the sick list last week. The Frank Bach surprise party done him up.

We regret to say that Mrs. Frank Bach was on the sick list last week. The surprise party at the Bach residence the week before was the direct cause.

Ernst Beihl, the popular grocer, and William Schick, have just completed their large new brewery building near Ohman's Hall. They expect to commence the manufacture of beer about the first of March. This plant is one of the very best in all Alaska, and we bespeak for the proprietors a good business. Mr. Schick is a practical brewer and a good one too. Mr. Beihl is one of our best business men and knows that any investment in Douglas City is all right.

Mr. James Winters and wife, Miss Louise Wendall and Joseph Wendall, brother and sister of Mrs. Winters, were passengers for Skaguay on the Dirigo. They are on their way to Dawson City and will make the trip in as soon as possible. The party has an eight dog team with which to make the trip. Mr. Winters is a Seattle man with whom the writer has been acquainted for a number of years. Mr. Winters has some valuable properties in the Klondike country.

People in Douglas are not lacking in public spiritedness, and when called on for anything for the good of the town are quick to respond, generally, but there are some who have not caught the Alaska spirit of enterprise. Everyone should labor for the good of the town even though intending to remain but a few weeks or months, for, as Rev. Wirt said some months ago in a sermon at Juneau, the most of you are here for gold, perhaps to beautify some home, or to make a new one back in the states; that is all right too, but you should realize the fact that some of you will be here five years from now, some of you ten years from now, some of you will die here. Hence everyone should help improve and beautify and in every way make this town a desirable place in which to live. The man who comes here for a day may become a permanent settler, and the man who comes to locate may move away to-morrow. Make yourself at home and perform your share of the public duties, be they social, educational, municipal or religious.

Wants a Wife.

While at Wrangell last week we were asked if there were any marriageable young girls in Douglas City, by a good looking young man who is in search of a wife. Of course our reply was that we are well supplied with beautiful young girls, but whether or not they wish to get married we were unable to say. We would like some information on this subject.

Anna Mabel's Dress.

Little Anna Mabel O'Brien gave a Calico ball at the Opera House in Juneau last Wednesday evening, which was well attended. Anna Mabel is a prime favorite in Juneau. Everybody was supposed to wear a calico dress, but there were some failures in that respect. Anna is but thirteen years old and she made her own dress, but we do think she is a better singer and jig dancer than a dress maker.

A Planing Mill for Douglas City.

The Kerry Lumber Co. of this city will put up a building 24x40 feet on the water front near the Star brewery as soon as the work can be done, and which will be used by the company for a planing mill and the manufacture of moulding. General shop work will also be done. It was the intention of the company to first put up a saw mill, but this has been put off until after the planing mill is in running order. Mr. Kerry went to Seattle to buy the necessary machinery for this new enterprise. This enterprising company will also put in a first-class wood yard in connection with the planing mill and will furnish a better grade of fuel than has ever before been sold in this city.
