SPORTSMEN ATTENTION!

The Territorial Game Commission at Juneau, Alaska, has appointed three game wardens for this section whose duties it will be to arrest and prosecute any persons shooting ptarmigans between now and the opening of the season September 1. Having these birds in one's possession will be sufficient evidence for conviction. The penalty therefor is imprisonment and a fine of $25 for each bird found in one's possession. Northwestern Alaska Fur, Fish And Game Protective A

NOTICE TO PUBLIC

A committee appointed at the Roosevelt Democratic Club meeting, held August 23, 1934 at the City Hall to investigate the status of the Club from the date of organization, have obtained through the minutes of the club that the Nome Democratic Club was re-organized in the year 1928, and that from that year on has been an active and intact body. A Meeting was held on Feb. 4, 1934 at which all club members were requested to attend. The name of Roosevelt Democratic Club was adopted, after having been duly discussed and voted upon.

Upon investigation the minutes from time of organization of the club, no other change of material importance has gone into effect. This change in the name of the club was duly published in the local paper.
