There will be general regret because of the early departure of C. L. Andrews, deputy collector of customs, from Skagway. Mr. Andrews has been one of the most popular and efficient officials in the north. For more than five years he has been at the head of the United States customs force in this city, and during that time there has not been a breath of scandal connected with it. In addition to being a popular official, Mr. Andrews has been a good citizen of Skagway, always taking a lively interest in everything that counts for the city's progress and the general welfare.

One would think from the attention the divorce question is attracting at the present time that the legal separation was the rule rather than the exception with married people, but such is not the fact. Statistics show that less than one per cent. of those married in the United States resort to the divorce courts. The figures, to be exact, show that three couples in every thousand that get married in the United States get divorced at some time during their married life. These figures are based upon the record of 1900. It is bad enough, it is true, but not so bad as many are lead to believe.

The "Stroller column," which for years has been a popular feature with which ever Dawson paper E. J. White was connected with for the time, will be introduced on the Whitehorse Star, of which paper Mr. White is now the editor. The innovation cannot fail to add to the popularity of the paper.

The peace officers of Skagway will get all the assistance required from the citizens in their efforts to prevent the location of a gang of crooks in this city. There is no room in Skagway for criminals.

DO NOT KILL

Grouse Are Protected By Game Law

With the opening of spring, the blue grouse have begun hooting on the hills in the neighborhood of Skagway, and this has raised the question as to whether or not these favorite game birds can be killed without violating the law. Under the Alaska game law grouse are included among the game birds that are protected during the closed season, and that will continue until August 15. The penalty for violating the game law is the confiscation of the gun or other implement used for the killing of the game, the confiscation of the game killed, and a fine not to exceed $200 or imprisonment not to exceed three months, or both such fine and imprisonment.

The United States marshal and deputy marshals, the collector of customs and deputy collectors are made special game wardens, and as such may make arrests without warrants.

Mosquitoes in the Air

The ubiquitous Alaskan mosquito has made his first appearance for the spring. While he is rather shy yet it is believed he will soon recover his natural audacity.

A COMMON ERROR

The Same Mistake Is Made By Many Alaska People

It's a common error To plaster the aching back, To rub with liniment rheumatic joints.

When the trouble comes from the kidneys, Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

C. A. Gilson, switchman in the R. R. yards, of 1215 Jackson street, Red Bluff, Cal., says: "For six months I knew my kidneys were in some way upset, probably weakened from the contraction of a cold which settled over the loins or perhaps excited from overexertion. Be that as it may, when my back was aching I asked Mrs. Gilson to go to the drug store one day for Doan's Kidney Pills and I took a course of the treatment. It stopped the backache. Up to date there has not been a symptom of a recurrence, thus proving to me conclusively that Doan's Kidney Pills act as represented."
