MAKING DOUGLAS BEAUTIFUL. In the spring campaign of cleanliness, you will need ready mixed house paints, floor paint, Jap-a-lac, lead and oil, brushes of all kinds, or it may be a can of Black Diamond Roof and Boat paint. Jensen, the Second street hardware man, can supply them all.

Elmer E. Smith returned on the Dolphin from the States. Mrs. Smith underwent an operation on October 3rd at the St. Francis hospital at San Francisco from which she rallied nicely and at last accounts was doing fine. It is hoped that she has been able to leave the hospital by this time. However, she will remain in California for several months yet, or until she thoroughly regains her health and strength.

The two men who lost their lives in the Mexican shaft last Wednesday were Steve Vagianen, a native of Greece, aged 35 years, and Stanley Metz, a native of Russia, aged 23 years. The funerals were held on Friday afternoon, that of Vagianen from the Servian church at 1 o'clock, and Metz from the Catholic church at 2 o'clock. The hoist man lost control of the skip, but succeeded in stopping it just as it reached the 1400-level. The two men who lost their lives jumped from the skip. The others received only a few slight bruises.

TREADWELL TOPICS

Last Tuesday the train with a load of empty sulphuret cars ran off the track near the Mexican mill and one of the crew, named Carlson, had the misfortune to break his leg. He was taken to the hospital and is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mrs. James Stoodly and daughter left on the Georgia for Sitka, where they will join Mr. Stoodly and return with him in about three weeks time.
