PRIZE STORY CONTEST DECIDED WITH ISSUE OF GASTINEAU BREEZE

Prizes for the best Christmas stories to be published in the Gastineau Breeze which appeared in the third issue here yesterday were awarded to Elsie Edmiston, first; and Rita McCormick second.

The first prize story is entitled: "The Spirit of Christmas," and the second, "The Sunflower of Christmas." Both are well deserving of their grade.

The Breeze with each forthcoming issue is becoming better and better and evinces greater interest on the part of the students and advisory staff than ever before.

Six pages headed with a cut of Douglas and Gastineau Channel are amongst the features of the present issue.

Santa Claus Is Approaching Nearer to Juneau

Santa Claus is in Spokane, Wash., according to the following cablegram to Bill Fry received today:

"Dear Bill:
"I am getting nearer Juneau every day and I have everything fixed now so that I will sure be there on the 26th at Elks Hall. I have a present for every youngster that comes to see me. I want all the kids on Gastineau Channel there on that night.

"I am getting all excited over seeing the Juneau children again. How are they all getting along? How is Tom Tatters, Jimmie, Sonny Gray, Arthur, Chuckie, Seymour, Weston, Branch and Duncan? If there are any I have not named it is because I have run out of ink, and will get some more tomorrow. Don't forget the 26th; Whoop-ee!

"Yours,
"SANTA CLAUS."
R. G. Datson, wife and daughter left on the Chichagoff last night for the mine. Mr. Datson will be the bookkeeper for the new company at Chichagof.
