BRIDGE LUNCHEON GIVEN BY MRS. CARL ORLANDER

One of the most prettily appointed bridge luncheons of the season was given by Mrs. Carl Orlander Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Thos. M. Ward and Mrs. Phillips, the color scheme being lavender, which was carried out to the minutest detail. Violet place cards with wee "sweet lavender" bugs attached, candle shades and lamps throwing out the violet ray about the room, lent a most artistic effect.

Beautiful favors were given the guests as they said au revoir.

IS GOING TO UNALASKA TO WED WIRELESS MAN

Miss Hazel Taylor, of Seattle, reached Seward on the Alameda and will be a passenger on the Dora for Unalaska. At the end of her trip she will wed the wireless operator at Unalaska and it is planned to have a regular navy wedding.

TRAVELING MEN HERE

The knights of the grip, J. J. Meherin, T. E. Jones, W. A. Hesse and D. G. Allen arrived in Seward on the Alameda and will remain here several days calling upon the merchants.

URBACH'S

ALAMEDA HAS GOOD LIST IN FOR SEWARD

Steamer Alameda arrived in port last night at 8 o'clock with 200 tons of freight and twenty-four passengers, not including thirteen passengers who connect with the Dora for westward points. The Alameda left Seattle with ninety-six passengers and was chock-a-block with freight. The steamer remained at Cordova twenty-six hours discharging, unloaded freight for five hours at Valdez and then called at Ellamar and Latouche. The Alameda sailed for Anchorage early this morning, calling on the way out at the San Juan Fish dock where forty tons of box shocks were unloaded.

The Seward passengers on the Alameda were as follows: C. E. Beecher, Mrs. Paul La Chambre, Mrs. C. M. Davis, Mrs. Stella Bowers, Miss Katharine Bowers, R. E. Kennedy, Elmer Friend, S. J. Horton, J. J. Meherin, T. E. Jones, W. A. Hesse, D. G. Allen, A. H. McDonald, H. C. Strassburger and ten steerage.

Passengers to connect with the Dora were, L. L. Bowers, Cold Bay; Miss Hazel Taylor, Unalaska; Miss Grace Pritchard, Unga; Mrs. E. M. Cassell, Mrs. A. Cassell and two children, Unalaska; H. McMicken, Dutch Harbor; E. M. Baumgartner and Col. A. G. Stewart for Unalaska. There were three steerage passengers.
