RECRUITING FOR U. S. GUARD IS SUSPENDED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18. — Suspension of recruiting for the United States Guard, the special federal force authorized by the war department for police and watch duty, was announced today by Secretary Baker in orders to all recruiting agents. Men already enrolled will be used, but no more will be used and no more will be accepted for the present.

IDOLATRY IS THE EVIL OF GERMANY MORALITY IS GONE

SEWARD SNAPSHOTS

The weather forecast for tonight and tomorrow is fair with fresh winds.

Delegate Sulzer has asked for an appropriation of $200,000 to construct a hospital for the insane of Alaska, in the north, according to advices received in Seward today, from Washington.

Charles G. Hubbard came in last night from the Primrose mine and is registered at the Hotel Sexton.

G. Miller, of Anchorage, is registered at the Sexton on his way to the outside by the first steamer.

Five hundred barrels are ready for shipment to Kachemak Bay on the first steamer sailing to the westward. The barrels will be used for herring.

B. F. Bullock and E. E. Charlton, both of Anchorage, are registered at the Overland. They will go to the states on the next steamer.

Sherman Haynes, formerly of the Palace, accompanied by his wife, will leave on the Admiral Evans for the states.

Two expert seal skimmers from New Foundland and two sealskin specialists from St. Louis, are to be stationed by the United States government on the Pribiloff islands to instruct the natives according to recent advices received in Seward.

The Bridge Club meets tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. John Nelson at her home on Third Avenue.

J. A. Johnson, C. Lunberg and Oscar Swanson, all connected with the A. E. C., at Kern Creek, are registered at the Hotel Seward, having arrived on last night's train.

Today is wheatless day and it is being observed in the restaurants and cafes of Seward as well as in the homes.

The train leaves for Mile 52 tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

W. M. Sauers, owing to extra business, was unable to make the four minute talk at the Empress theatre last night but announced today that he would fill in on some other night.

Steamer Dora sailed from Kodiak this forenoon at 10 o'clock and is expected here early Sunday morning.

Many blanket men came in last night on the train. The majority will remain here until railroad work resumes, which will be in a couple of months.

Anchorage mail arrived on last night's train, the greater part being for outside points.

One five dollar bill and one ten dollar slipped from a man's pockets yesterday in Seward. He is wondering if the money has been found by an honest man. If left at the Gateway office, it will be turned over to the stranger in the city who lost it.

COURT MARTIAL SET

PARIS, Jan. 18. — Bolo Pasha's court martial is set to begin February 4th. Bolo Pasha is the official of the Central Powers who circulated a propaganda in America and France and is also alleged to have spent large sums of money to influence lawmakers to vote against war.

BISHOP DECIDES TO REDUCE CHURCHES AS WAR MEASURE

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 18. — That Denver has too many churches and that fewer would serve the purpose during the war was the reason advanced by Irving P. Johnson, bishop coadjutor of Colorado, in calling a meeting of members of the Episcopal churches in the city to consider a plan to abolish all but four of the nine churches and four chapels of that denomination in the city.

DYNAMITE IN COAL

MEMPHIS, Jan. 18. — Dynamite in coal shoveled into the fire box of a locomotive on a freight train exploded here this afternoon and the fireman and engineers are dying as a result. It is believed that the dynamite was placed in the coal by German spies.

LONDON, Jan. 18. — "The fundamental evil of Germany today is idolatry," said Lord Robert Cecil in a statement for the Associated Press today. "They have set up for themselves a graven image, just as truly as did the worshippers of Baal against whom the prophets of the Bible preached."

"Germany's idol is the state. They place the state above religion, above morality, above all laws of God or Man. They believe that any act is justified which advances the interests of the German State, however base that act may be, however, immoral, however inconsiderate of the lawful rights of others."

"Otto Kahn, himself a German by origin, has defined this State-idolatry as 'the demagogical obsession of power-worship and world-dominion.'"

"This idolatry is at the bottom of our whole fight against Germany. It is the secret of the whole revolting list of outrages and atrocities which Germany has committed against the civilized world. The violation of Belgium, the Armenian atrocities, the unspeakable horrors of submarine warfare,—all these are the outcome of a creed which holds that no laws of morality are binding when the defense of the state-idol is at stake."

"The results of this violating of the foundations of morality by Germany are bound to be colossal and far-reaching. They mean the degeneracy of the whole German structure, and the effects are already seen in the wave of crime and immorality which is sweeping over Germany. So long as the governing classes are infected with this doctrine there is no limit to the wickedness and cruelty which will be put into execution. It means the undermining ultimately of the whole fabric of their civilization. This is what President Wilson has foreseen. This is a reason for the determination of President Wilson and the leaders of the Allies on both sides of the water to carry this war through, whatever the cost, in order that the world may be a fit world to live in."

"The Lansdowne letter has been thought by some to indicate some weakening of determination on the part of this country, some change of attitude. I believe any such impression is a profound delusion. I know it is a delusion as far as the actual government of England is concerned, and I believe that the British people as a whole, including Lord Lansdowne himself, are more determined than ever to bring the war to a victorious conclusion."

"I see that it is being alleged with a certain degree of plausibility that there are many points in which Lord Lansdowne is in agreement with President Wilson's message. That may be so. But in the case of the President's message there breathes through every line not only determination to win—for in that there is no difference between the two men—but also a certainty of victory. President Wilson's message has an inspiration of leadership which Lansdowne's letter lacks."

ALASKANS ARE DESERVING OF CHEAP FARES

SEATTLE, Jan. 18. — Hardy pioneers who go to Alaska to develop its lands should be given special inducements by the government, asserts Professor C. C. Gorgeason, who is in charge of the government's agricultural experiment stations in the northern territory. "They should by all means have reduced rates of transportation," he said while here recently, because it costs as much to take the necessary farm inland in Alaska as it does to purchase a small sized farm in the states outside."

SOMEBODY HAS MONEY IN GERMANY TO SPEND FOR THE ART TREASURES

BERLIN, Jan. 18. — Frenzied bidding at recent art auctions here has prompted the Prussian chamber by unanimous vote to authorize the Government to enact a law prohibiting or impeding the sale abroad of art objects or paintings of old masters now owned in Germany.
