BISHOP MOORE TO PREACH IN THE METHODIST CHURCH

The presence of Bishop D. H. Moore, D. D., LL. D., in the town affords all an unusual opportunity to meet and hear a speaker of international reputation. He spent several years in the Orient; and because of extensive travel is in the closet touch with the world wide church work.

He will conduct Communion Services in the local Methodist Church at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. This will be followed by Sunday School under the direction of Mrs. L. H. Pedersen, the superintendent. At 8 o'clock in evening Bishop Moore will preach.

A most cordial invitation is extended to every individual in Seward to attend and participate in every one of tomorrow's services.

Owing to the presence of the bishop, the Fourth Quarterly Conference, the last business meeting of the closing church year, will be held in the church tonight at 8:30 o'clock. Every person in Seward who is interested in any local church work and the moral advancement of the town is welcome to the business meeting, and is invited.

While the presence of a bishop is frequently made the occasion of raising money for a debt, or building, etc., this is not the case at present—the only collections will be those customary at the regular services.

L. H. Pedersen, pastor.

Bishop Moore is one of the older bishops of the Methodist church and at present has supervision of the Alaska missions as part of his episcopal work. His present trip is to visit the churches of the southern coast. Incidentally he comes to bring Mrs. Moore, who is an invalid, for a northern sea voyage. His daughter and another lady are also in his party.

Does Not Know a Good Thing

The Gateway outfit were much pained to receive the following letter from Newhall, California, on the last boat from a man whose name by some means had found its way upon the subscription list:

"Your card of May 1 noted. never subscribe for you paper. and dont want it. never have red one verse in it. notified you once before not to send that paper to my adress. now drop it and oblige
