At that time the following unclaimed freight and baggage will be offered for sale: 27 cast iron grinding balls wt. 4363 lbs. marked Jewell Mining Syndicate. 7 steel balls, wt. 1890 lbs. marked Jewell Mining Syndicate. 1 box wash boiler, wt. 35 lbs. marked Anchor Bruen. 1 case paper shopping bags, marked Sanitary Grocery. 1 box garden seeds, wt. 140 lbs. marked F. E. Parker. 1 Mauser Rifle No. 6588, model 1926. 4 bundles personal effects, unmarked. 1 parcel personal effects unmarked. 2 bundles bedding, unmarked. 1 bundle personal effects, marked Henry Johnson, Bird Point. 1 pack sack personal effects, unmarked. 1 bag personal effects, marked O. C. Hogan. 1 bag bedding marked Fred Feakes. NOEL W. SMITH, general manager.

MINING MAN BACK

James Girdwood, prominent mining operator, is back north again to visit his extensive holdings near Girdwood, which town is named after him. Though reports have it that Mr. Girdwood is not in the best of health, his appearance belies this.

ATTENTION

There will be a special meeting of Seward Chapter No. 10 O. E. S. Monday evening July 11th. All officers and members are requested to attend.

The steamer Starr of the San Juan Fishing & Packing Company, Capt. O. A. Johansen, master, leaves port Monday for Bristol Bay and way ports. This is the third trip to Bristol Bay this season. The vessel leaves at 11 o'clock Monday night.

TRAIN PHOTOGRAPHED

Showing a good-sized photograph under the title "All Points North," a recent addition of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer carried a fine picture of the new electric train which arrived in Seward last week being loaded aboard the S. S. Oduna at Smith Cove. An excellent article also accompanied the photograph.

Cal M. Brosius, local business man, is making a brief trip to Nuka Bay.

NO LUTHERAN SERVICE

Rev. H. Kuring is holding services at Anchorage on Sunday so there will be no Lutheran service or Sunday school at Seward. He plans on combining Seward and Anchorage as a parish.

EVANGELICAL SERVICES FACTS FROM THE SCRIPTURE

Owing to the universal depravity of the human race, no one can enter the Kingdom of God unless born again. No reformation, morality of good works, religious observances or any other human efforts, can in any way help the sinner to be saved; a new life implanted by the Holy Spirit, thru the word of God, is absolutely essential to salvation. Rom. 5:12-19; John 3:3; Eph. 2:8-9.

Those born again thru faith in Christ, may be assured of their eternal salvation. This assurance is based wholly upon the written Word of God, and not upon any experience or faithfulness on their part. I. John 5:13.

Immersion, the only scriptural baptism should be administered to believers only, and is essential to a life of obedience, but not to salvation. Rom. 6:4.

By W. R. Macpherson,
Minister of the Gospel.

CHURCH SERVICES SUNDAY

Sunday school 10:30 A. M. in Odd-fellows Hall. Gospel service 7:30 P. M. will be held in Mr. W. R. Macpherson's home on Adams street across from the Episcopal church; all are invited.

Brown & Hawkins—Quality First.
