

Fred Woodeman was able to leave Seward General hospital Tuesday and stopped in Moose Pass en route to his cabin at Mile 41.

The penuche tournament being played by Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Laubscher is now nearing an end, the women playing against the men. The men are ahead. One of the men players reports that the men intend to win in the tournament. Pride goeth before a fall and at a gathering to be held tonight with the Harry L. Smiths the women expect to leap toward victory by thousands.

Miss Anna Smith, who is receptionist in Dr. A. R. Roberts' office in Seward, spent Monday night in Moose Pass with Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Smith.

The Valentine Dance at Lawing Roadhouse last Saturday night was well attended and proved to be a highly enjoyable affair. The music by Miss Mary Stafford playing piano accordion, John L. Nelson, saxophone and Gus Manthey, drums, was excellent.

A skating party on Lake Kenai Tuesday night included Mrs. Alice Ebing, Harry Conkey, Miss Mary Stafford, Charles Clements and Mrs. Ray Stafford.

Cynthia and Jacqueline Witt and Geraldine Griest have enrolled in Moose Pass school. The children are walking five miles each way in order to attend school. Of such material are heroines made.

Big dance this Saturday night at Hielo's Roadhouse. This is the last dance under Mrs. Ebing's management as the roadhouse will be taken over March 1 by Mr. and Mrs. Will Estes.
