

MOOSE PASS MINER

By L. H. Allen

12 issues for $2.00 paid in advance
Single copy 25¢

(Continued from front page)

appropriation required for all of the construction set out in the authorization act. Kodiak being our next door neighbor, so to speak, we assume that the estimated costs items are interesting to MINER readers in that they contain several hints as to the number of men with which it is expected to man the projection which, no doubt, Alaskans will be favored for employment.

KODIAK NAVAL AIR BASE

Dredging, including channel	$ 500,000
Bulkhead, grading and fill	400,000
Two seaplane hangars	900,000
Three ramps	225,000
Parking area for 3 V.P. squadrons, 80,000 sq.yds.	302,000
Barracks, mess hall, and bakery for 580	580,000
Quarters for officers(12)	145,000
Quarters for officers (36)	450,000
Quarters for bachelor officers(60)	240,000
Quarters for married enlisted men (35)	280,000
Recreational facilities, enlisted men	250,000
Recreational facilities, officers	150,000
Administration building	150,000
Engine, overhaul and aircraft maintenance building	400,000
Motor test stands (2)	90,000
Dispensary	350,000
Radio transmission building, towers, etc.,	80,000
Laundry and equipment	65,000
General and aircraft storehouse	600,000
Squadron's storehouse	70,000
Paint and oil storage building	15,000
Gasoline storage and distribution(700,000 gal.)in underground storage	250,000
Power plant and equipment	350,000
Fuel oil storage(80,000 bbls.,) underground	150,000
Electrical distribution system	200,000
Water supply and fire protection system	300,000
Sewerage system	250,000
Roads and walks	100,000
Small boat pier and boathouse	50,000
Pier for tankers and tenders	300,000
Gatehouse and fence	30,000
Magazines (7),underground	50,000
Firehouse and garage	40,000
Station and maintenance building	40,000
Cold storage and commissary	100,000
Machine-gun range	1,000
Heat distribution system	150,000
Bombsite workshop and storage	10,000
Telephone system	80,000
Torpedo workshop and storage	30,000
Total	$8,741,000

JORENE SMITH WINS SCHOLARSHIP

A scholarship award of two years at the University of Alaska was won by Miss Jorene Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Smith of Moose Pass, for highest scholastic standing in the class of '39 in Seward High School.

Miss Smith, who is 15 years old, is also the youngest member of her class.

In connection with the dance tomorrow night at Hielo's Roadhouse, a skit will be put on by the Purl One and Knit Two club. This promises a lot of fun and anyone who misses it will be sorry.

Mrs. Bill Irwin of Seward has taken the Moose Pass store cabin for the summer and with her three young sons, Jack, Billy and Bobbie and their dog, Scottie, will occupy the cabin most of the time until school begins.

Mrs. Ralph Reid drove to Seward with Mrs. Erwin yesterday.

Gus Manthey, Blackie Floyd and Fred Colby of Seward, were fishing in Russian River Wednesday.

E. L. Robbins and Roy Thurston drove to Cooper's Landing Friday, taking their fishing tackle along.

A big snowslide occurred at Mile 21 Friday. The Harry L. Smiths were returning from Seward and report that the slide obligingly came to a halt at the edge of the highway.

Bill Estes sprained his wrist (right) during the night Tuesday night. The injury was so painful all day Wednesday that he regarded with a bilious eye any gibes about it.

Workmen are now installing furniture and other equipment at the new government hotel at Mount McKinley Park. The management hopes to have the hotel open by June 1, in time to entertain the Seattle Chamber of Commerce goodwill tour visitors.

The cottages and other equipment of Camp Savage at Mount McKinley Park are being moved to Mile 66 where a new camp will be established and will be called Camp Eielson.

Thirty four students were graduated from the University of Alaska last Monday.

Judge Simon Hellenthal has been re-nominated for the Federal Judgeship of the Third (this) Judicial District.

This year's ice break-up was the second earliest on record. The earliest break-up on record was April 26, 1925.

Secretary Ickes has named Frank T. Bean, associated park naturalist at Sequoia national park, to be superintendent at Mount McKinley park, succeeding Harold Liek.