There were interesting services at the Episcopal church last night.

W. C. Stewart left last night for Texas, where he will engage in railroading.

A. M. Nash, of Madison, spent Christmas day in town, and gave us a pleasant call.

Squire Nelson treated himself to a Christmas gift in the shape of a neat, commodious new barn.

John Brady and Tom Folbre, jr., went to Newbern, Tenn., yesterday morning to see their best girls.

Agent Bard, of the L. R. & M. R. R., sold tickets amounting to $928.10 from the 20th to the 25th of December.

A pleasant sociable was enjoyed last night by a large party of young people at the hospitable home of Mrs. May Hatcher.

Julier Hawkins feasted the prisoners in his care to a sumptuous Christmas dinner, which was greatly enjoyed by the unfortunates.

Father Wybel, of Jonesboro, held interesting services at the Catholic church in this place Christmas morning. A large congregation was present.

Mrs. B. F. McCrary left this morning for a visit with relatives and friends in Little Rock. Mr. McCrary will follow tonight to spend a few days in much-needed rest.

LOST—A pair of eye-glasses, brass nose piece, broken ring; in black case. Lost between the news stand and THE TIMES printing office. The finder will be rewarded by returning them to Ed Landvoigt, TIMES office.

Mr. Jeff Neely and Miss May Brookes were married at Wheatley last Sunday evening by Rev. N. B. Fizer. An extended notice will appear next week, particulars reaching us too late for publication in this paper.

Mrs. W. H. Izard and Miss Mary Izard are enjoying the genial hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Hoshall today at their home near Millbrook, the occasion is a Christmas dining, or in other words, a sort of family reunion.

A fine girl baby made her appearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sanders yesterday. All parties doing splendidly, including Grandpa Fizer, who is the happiest man in town, that smile of his being the most joy-inspiring thing we have seen during the holidays.

The young people had a most delightful time at a sociable tendered their last night at the home of W. J. Prude. The fun and frolic continued until midnight, when the happy participants departed with grateful feelings for the enjoyable time offered them by their host and hostess.

On the occasion of the meeting of the Southern branch of the National Educational association at Hot Springs on December 31 and January 1 and 2, the Little Rock & Memphis railroad will sell tickets to North Little Rock at one fare for the round trip. A number of our people contemplate attending this meeting.

A merchant in town forwarded $600 yesterday to headquarters of the Liberia Emigration Co., at Birmingham, Ala., for tickets for a lot of colored people who are preparing to leave for that so called land of Canaan. About as much more will be sent next week. The rate of passage to Liberia from Birmingham, Ala., is $40 for adults and $20 for children under 12 years of age.

Following are the officers elect of the Knights and Ladies of Honor for the ensuing term: R. J. Williams, Protector; Miss Mattie L. Moseley, Vice-Protectress; Mrs. L. E. Davenport, Past Protectress; Mrs. B. F. Thomas, Chaplain; W. P. Evans, Guide; Joe Beck, Sentinel; T. W. McClendon, Guard; Mrs. M. W. Izard, Secretary; C. L. Knight, Financial Secretary; L. Rollage, Treasurer.

B. F. Thomas, charged with being accessory to the murder of McGowan had a preliminary hearing before Justice Nelson Monday and was committed to prison without bail. A change of venue has been taken in the cases of Bill Williams and John Swartz (white) and Dave Williams (colored), implicated in the same crime, to Squire Raiford's court, where their preliminary examination will be held next Monday.

A. E. Kilpatrick, of Fillmore, Cal., had the misfortune to have his leg caught between a cart and a stone and badly bruised. Ordinarily he would have been laid up for a couple or three weeks, but says: "After using one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm I began to feel better, and in three days was entirely well. The peculiar soothing qualities which Chamberlain's Pain Balm possesses I have never noticed in any other liniment. I take pleasure in recommending it." This liniment is also of great value for rheumatism and lame back. For sale by John H. Tipton.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The Francis Jones company, in "Old Madrid," which will be presented at the Operahouse next Monday night, the 30th inst., play upon a guarantee—that is, the money will be refunded to anyone not thoroughly satisfied with the performance.

The popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the high esteem in which it is held lead us to believe it to be an article of great worth and merit. We have the pleasure of giving the experience of three prominent citizens of Redondo Beach, Cal., in the use of the remedy. Mr. A. V. Tudell says: "I have always received prompt relief when I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." Mr. James Orchard said: "I am satisfied that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured my cold." Mr. J. M. Hatcher says: "For three years I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family and its results have always been satisfactory." John H. Tipton.

J. Dan Grogan, of Memphis, spent Christmas with his mother and other relatives and friends in the city, and while here consulted the ladies of the Episcopal church with reference to a production of "Comrades" by his company, mention of which has been made in this paper. The probabilities are that the performance will be given on the night of January 10, 1896. In the event of their coming the opera house should be packed, for aside from the fact that it will be given for the benefit of the church, and that Dan is a Forrest City boy, who has a host of admiring friends, the play itself is meritorious and those who witness it will be highly pleased.

City Marshal Wolff certainly deserves credit for the able and energetic manner in which he has discharged his onerous duties during the past week. Perhaps he was the most thoroughly overworked man in town, being kept busy from morning until far into the night. To his efforts our people are indebted for the prevention of serious calamity in the shape of fire, for had he not watched so close the boys would undoubtedly have caused trouble by the carelessness with which they began handling fireworks during the first of the holidays. He struck a tough job when he undertook to keep the dense masses of humanity "moving" and the sidewalks passable, but he succeeded admirably, and his kindness, yet firmness, to the merry-makers is to be commended. Marshal Wolff has clearly demonstrated that he is a first-class officer—considerate, watchful and gentlemanly.

Henry Williams got himself in quite a pickle the early part of the week. He was in the barber shop, and when he left he inadvertently donned Price McDaniel's coat. His mental tribulation when he discovered his mistake can be better understood when it is explained that the coat he had thus carelessly left contained a marriage license authorizing the solemnization of the nuptial ceremony between himself and Miss Lulu Spear of L'Anguille township. After an energetic chase Price was finally rounded up and an exchange of garments effected, and we learn that the wedding took place without further contretemps at the home of the bride's father, J. L. Spear. THE TIMES wishes the contracting parties the utmost happiness, but cautions Mr. Williams against the careless handling of his raiment during Christmas times—especially when the custodian of a marriage license.

Christmas eve, about midnight, the night marshal had occasion to visit the western part of town, and on his return, met a lady in the middle of the road in a terrible state of trepidation. "Oh, Mr. Jennings," the lady exclaimed, "there's a robber in the house, playing the piano, and husband will be killed." The watchman on entering the house found the aforesaid husband, in flight attire, pulling at the trigger of an old needle gun, pointed at the wall of the room from whence proceeded the sound of piano music. "He's in there," exclaimed the valiant hubby, trembling like the aspen, either from fright or cold, "and if this gun had gone off, he'd been perforated like a sieve." Joining the watchman, a search was made, and the terrible robber was found to be a Thomas Cat, walking to and fro on the piano keyboard, inspecting what Santa Claus had left for the little ones. The frightened couple begged secrecy on the part of the guardian of the peace, but it was too good to keep, hence this item.

Squire D. Duncan, of Widener, was in town yesterday, and informed us that he had performed the marriage ceremony for Thomas Clark and Miss Maggie Houston at the home of the bride's father, Billie Houston, at Widener on Christmas day. The wedding party repaired to the home of the groom's mother, where a marriage feast was given in honor of the event. Later in the day Squire Duncan performed the same office for Hiram M. Houston and Mrs. McKinney at the residence of F. W. DeRossitt, the Rev. Gardner, who was summoned for this occasion, having another and previous engagement of the same nature. A sumptuous dinner was also spread at Mr. DeRossitt's and the best of good cheer prevailed. Squire Duncan says he has joined in wedlock thirteen couples since his induction into office, and stands ready to "set 'em up" to any country justice who can prove a better showing. He is rapidly winning distinction as the great matrimonial medicine man of Griggs township.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

START THE GIRL RIGHT.

When the girl comes to be a woman—look out. If she starts out in vigorous, womanly health then it is pretty safe to say she will be a healthy, attractive, beautiful woman. The beginning of womanhood is the real crisis in a woman's life. Nearly always something is wrong then in the distinctly feminine organs. Maybe it isn't very serious—no matter—the time to stop disease is when it starts.

McELREE'S WINE OF CARDUI

will bring girls safely through the crisis. Taken at the first indication of weakness, it never fails. It regulates the monthly periods with perfect precision. Its action is direct upon the feminine organs that above all others, ought to be strong and well. Start the girl right. Don't expose her to the dangers and tortures of dragging weakness, bearing down pains, nervous prostration and the debilitating drains so common to women. McElree's Wine of Cardui, is a home treatment. It does away entirely with abhorrent "local examinations."
