Death of Mrs. Andrewson and Her Child.

On January 24 I was called to Goodwin to conduct the funeral of Mrs. M. O. Andrewson.

Mrs. Andrewson was converted when a child under the preaching of a Methodist minister, but united with the Congregationalist church.

She was a comparative stranger in our State, but her good sense and good qualities soon endeared her to her new neighbors.

On January 19th I was called to conduct her funeral, and we laid the little form by its mother's side.
