FASCINATING FEATURES BIG BILL TODAY

NEW CENTRAL THEATER OFFERS EXCEPTIONAL PROGRAM FOR ITS SATURDAY ENTERTAINMENT.

With an ever-better program the New Central today announces that it has secured the very best in motion pictures for the Saturday show, and considering the line-up of stars advertised, it promises to be a feature program for that day.

Ernest Maupin and Mabel Bardine are co-starred in "The Finish" an Essanay drama in two parts.

This is as clever a presentation of the surprise ending as has ever been produced upon the screen. A dramatic situation is built up smoothly and effectively acted. Then at the tensest moment the walls of the scene tumble down and the audience learns that it has been watching a play in a motion picture studio. This surprise is complete.

The story is as follows: Norman Jarret, a man of wealth, becomes suspicious of his wife's friendship for Robert Travis, a young clubman, and employs detectives to learn the truth in the affair. He learns of their intimacy and plots revenge. He announces that he is leaving the city. Returning home unexpectedly, he surprises his wife and the young man in each other's arms. He telephones for a newspaper reporter and gives the story to the public. When the early editions of the paper arrive, the wife learns that the man she loves has committed suicide because of the scandal. She prepares to follow his example.

Eulalie Jensen, William Dunn, Billie Billings and Brinsley Shaw appear in the thrilling dramatic feature, "Missing," produced by the General Film Company.

The Ford Weekly, "Happy Nat's Dilemma," and a new Christie comedy close the bill.

Absolutely no advance in prices today, 5 and 15 cents.

PARIS IN FEAR OF CRIME TRUST

Plot to Kidnap Beautiful Actress Clearly Shown in Seventh Noon Master Feature, Royal Today.

Today the Royal theater is showing for the first time in Arkansas that wonderful and much-talked-of feature, "The Seventh Noon." In this feature you will see where, not only war but other things are affronting civilization. You will see in this feature where vampires have taken the warring nations by storm. The lust for human blood and greed for wealth are predominating and continually day by day are growing stronger. Few, if any, features have ever been shown in Hot Springs where there is more realism and sensational scenes than in "The Seventh Noon." In many of the larger cities this wonderful feature has been shown continually day after day for several weeks. One of the noted critics expresses himself, saying that for the good of humanity and the welfare of future gen-

"I BEGAN TO TAKE CARDUI"

And Soon Saw That It Benefited Me. Writes This Kentucky Lady—Read Her Statement.

Clinton Mills, Ky.—Mrs. C. W. Woods of this place writes: "About five years ago I got in very bad health. I got thin, weighed only 91 lbs., and I am tall, too. I had dreadful pains in my left and right sides. . . I then had in attendance Dr. . . who gave me medicine for about a year, which did me no good. He then told me to take Cardui. He said he thought it would benefit me more than anything I could take.

"I would get so bad off I couldn't do my work at all, and I was confined to my bed part of the time, and suffered most of the time; sometimes awful. . . I then began to take Cardui and I soon began to see that it benefited me. It eased my pains and the enlargement went out of my . . . and I have been steadily getting better ever since.

"I am now in better health than I have been since I first took sick, am stout and can work all day long. . . I certainly am getting my former health back and I have a good color and feel better than since I got sick. I now weigh 113 1/2 lbs."

JOE WALSH, COMEDIAN AND AMATEURS TONIGHT

SMASHING BIG DOUBLE SHOW FOR THE WEEK END AT THE PRINCESS THEATER TODAY.

Here is the biggest and best Saturday show the Princess has ever offered for a weekend bill, a big five-part William Fox comedy, with no less a star than George Walsh, the "king of smiles," in the lead, supported by Doris Pawn, the beautiful little English actress, in a play that is filled with surprises and laughs, "High Finance."

Bones of every kind figure in the newest William Fox production in which George Walsh is starring, "High Finance."

In the first place there are the bones of extinct geological monsters, for which a lady with archaeological intentions is seeking. In the next place there are several old-fashioned boneheads. In the third place there are piles of "bones," in the slang sense—the kind which make the world go round.

Mr. Walsh plays the part of Preston employed servants with her. At night there will be two big amateur vaudeville shows, with some new talent, and a whole lot of the best of the old talent. Among the new ones you will see: Senorita, in Spanish songs; M. Savage Jr., in Vance Harris, who will surprise you; while of the old favorites there will be Baby Flesher, Jessamine Stevens, Ruth Barnhardt, Wilma Crane, Eddie Allen, Joe Walsh and others.

This is positively the greatest amateur vaudeville bill we have ever offered. Don't miss it.

The prices for Saturday are—afternoon, 5 and 15 cents; night, 10 and 15 cents.
