ARIZONA NEWS.

Territorial Items Gleaned From Our Exchanges and Condensed for Our Busy Patrons.

Fifteen arrests were made in Prescott in February.

A young Men's Gospel union has been organized in Phenix.

A society of the Unitarian church has been organized at Phenix.

The fines collected in Prescott during February amounted to $170.

It is reported that Fort Huachuca will soon be made a division headquarters.

There was a balance in the city treasury of Prescott on March 1, of $4,706.36.

William Gwyn, of the S. F., P. & P. railroad, has resigned and gone to Mexico.

A Sunday school convention was held in Prescott on Wednesday and Thursday.

Twenty-five tons of copper bullion were shipped from Tucson one day last week.

Prescott is in darkness at night, and efforts are being made to have the city lighted.

The new Episcopal church at Tucson was recently dedicated by Bishop Kendrick.

The license tax collected in Prescott for the second month of this year was $648.25.

Hon. Thomas Hughes has announced himself as a candidate for postmaster at Tucson.

Tom Armer, Indian farmer at the San Carlos reservation, has resigned and gone to Globe to reside.

One hundred Japanese laborers have been imported to Phenix to work for the Canaigree company.

It is said that over one-half the silver produced in Arizona last year came from the county of Mohave.

Augustin Garcia committed suicide near San Jose on Feb. 27, by shooting himself in the head with a pistol.

H. M. Abbott has a force of men at work developing the X Y Z copper claim, adjoining the United Verde mine.

D. Markham has purchased 3,000 head of New Mexican long horn cattle and will put them on his range near Tucson.

The Arizona & Southeastern railroad last week received an engine recently purchased from the G. R. & I. railroad.

Prof. Blandy has made a careful compilation of the copper output for Arizona and finds it foots a total of 63,323,788 pounds.

Good reports continue to come from the Bald Butte mine, in which a nine-foot ledge of rich gold rock has just been exposed.

The smelter of the Detroit Copper company at Morenci shut down last Friday. They will be shut down about ten days.—Bulletin.

William Bell and Charles Cator have begun work on their Little Harry mine. They intend to drive a 100-foot tunnel.—Jerome Reporter.

The Saginaw Lumber company have added six feet to the top of their dam in Wash cañon, making the total height of the dam forty-five feet.

Seeds of the Australian salt bush are again being distributed by the Arizona Experiment station to such residents of the territory as care to experiment in growing it.

Another gold strike has been made below town on the old soldier, says the Kingman Miner. The ledge is several feet in width and runs several ounces to the ton.

A holdup at Flagstaff last week failing to secure any booty, accepted an invitation from his victim to adjourn to a near-by saloon and have a drink, and was arrested.

D. B. Gillette, a California mining man, recently made the statement at Tucson, that there was more mining going on in Yavapai county than in any other part of the territory.

Mecario Acosta and Bergino Gonzales, both sent to Yuma from Graham county for one year for grand larceny, have been discharged on account of expiration of sentence.

During the past few days Brigham & Hicks have dehorned over seven hundred head of cattle. Wolf Sachs will commence dehorning his herd some time next week.—Tempe News.

En-Dess-Do-Day, an Apache Indian from Graham county, serving a life sentence for murder, died at Yuma a few days since of consumption, thus completing the full measure of his sentence.

The United Globe Mines have purchased the Maudie mining claim from James P. Faull and partner for $2,000, and the remaining interest of W. T. McNelly in the McGinty claim, for $1,200.

Governor Franklin pardoned Frank Woodson from the Yuma prison that he could be taken to Cassia county, Idaho, and tried for murder. Woodson was sent from Yavapai county in 1896, for aggravated assault.

C. B. Genugn and sons, who are working an extension of the Levathan mine, near Stanton, struck a body of ore recently which goes $100 per ton in gold. They are working it with an astra, and are realizing excellent results.

The testing mill which was recently purchased by the Commonwealth Mining company of Pearce, has been received and will be placed in position as soon as the excavations for same have been completed, which will be in a few days.

The governor sent the following appointments to the council last week: James Coyle, assistant superintendent at the prison; Harry W. McKeen, secretary; T. H. Sabin, physician; Emery Kays, member of live stock sanitary commission.

Information is wanted of J. H. Jackson, better known as Harry J. Jackson, who lived in Globe in 1881. Persons knowing anything about him or his whereabouts, will confer a favor by writing to George R. Jackson, Church street, Halifax, N. S.

Recent snows in the mountains of Arizona assure the farmer that there will be plenty of water this season. In the Bradshaws, the San Francisco and Four Peaks countries snow is much deeper than usual and will last till the summer rains come.

George Harris, a teamster, was killed yesterday between Prescott and the McCabe mine. He was engaged in freighting to the latter mine with an eight-mule team and his wagon upset, falling upon him and crushing out his life.—Journal-Miner.

All the ranch and cattle interests belonging to the Schoshusen brothers on the San Pedro, have been sold to Frank Burns, a Santa Barbara, Cal., stockman. Everything on the ranch, even to the kitchen utensils, were taken in the deed, and the place will be kept up.

By Collins has opened up a five-inch streak of copper ore, in the Blackfoot mine, that runs about $1000 in gold and 300 ounces in silver to the ton. The mine is opening up splendidly and Messrs. Collins and Bohne are assured of plenty of money in future.—Kingman Miner.

C. L. Schaar, manager of the Placerita company, recently made a clean-up of $3,000 from a fifteen days' run on ore from the Coral mine, one of the group owned by his company. A very rich schute of ore was recently struck in this mine. It assays as high as $92 per ton and plates $60 per ton.

That is a good suggestion of the Arizona Republican that some member of the legislature introduce a bill to have the people of Arizona vote on the prison removal question. Should this be done, the prison will certainly be removed, with bright prospects of its being removed to Prescott.—Courier.

A party who came through San Carlos a few days ago, informed us that some Indians engaged in a free fight amongst themselves about two weeks ago, on the Gila opposite San Carlos. During the fracas one Indian was shot in the back and killed, and his supposed slayer is now in the guard house at San Carlos.—Globe Silver Belt.

Kanab Uinkaret plateaus in northern Arizona are more heavily timbered than any portion of Arizona territory. Uinkaret mountains of northern Mohave county are covered by billions of feet of the finest pine timber to be found in the United States. The whole country resembles in appearance the San Francisco mountains.—Kingman Miner.

Governor Franklin has learned that there are three men in the territory who have not been appointed notaries public. He does not know their names or postoffice addresses, but he is desirous of learning, that he may forward them notarial commissions. He does not want it said when he retires from office that he has not treated one man as well as another.—Phenix Republican.

J. W. Power, chief engineer at the Arizona Lumber & Timber company's mill, was badly scalded Monday forenoon while at work, says the Flagstaff Sun-Democrat. The gasket, or packing of the piston became loosened and was forced out by the immense pressure of steam, which immediately shot out, striking Mr. Power, who was near, in the face and chest, scalding him terribly.

In blasting for the foundation of the mill of the Sundance company, on their Silver Trail mine near the head of the Hassayampa, a thirty-two-inch vein was encountered, the ore from which goes $16.58 per ton in free gold besides a small percentage in silver. The ledge is thought to be a continuation of one from which about $20,000 in gold was taken a few years ago.—Journal-Miner.

Now is the time to get to work on the Stockton Hill tunnel. Nowhere on the Pacific coast can greater bodies of ore be cut by a tunnel than at that point in the Cerbat range of mountains. The tunnel, as surveyed, will cut the ledges at a depth of 1,200 feet. All of the mines are now under water and cannot be worked without putting in costly machinery.—Mohave County Miner.

Daniel Drummond, a well-known surveyor, is reported missing. Some months ago he obtained a government contract in the northern part of the territory. This he completed and sent his notes to the surveyor general, and directed that all mail for him should be retained here pending his arrival. This was six weeks ago and nothing has since been heard of him. When he last wrote he was in Flagstaff, and fears are entertained here that some serious mishap has befallen him.—Tucson Citizen.

Last Wednesday morning Col. H. C. Hooker received from California by special car attached to the east bound passenger train, several thoroughbred stallions for his Sierra Bonita ranch. Parisee, a four-year-old horse, sired by Palo Alto, was of the number, and is certainly a beauty. He is such an animal as old judges of horse flesh love to see and admire, and will no doubt prove a valuable addition to Colonel Hooker's stud, which now includes seven of the best stallions in the southwest.—Wilcox News.

The Tent store was burglarized on Monday night during the absence of the owners, Mr. and Mrs. McNeil, who had gone to view the masquerade carnival. The robbers ransacked the premises in a search for money, which Mr. McNeil had prudently deposited. They went through the trunks, scattering the contents about, tore up the carpet and left everything in confusion, taking away a few boxes of cigars and some wearing apparel. They evidently meditated the destruction of the premises, as they placed the lamp on the floor against a curtain, which fortunately, did not ignite. The same night the saddle was stolen from the back of S. A. Russell's horse, which had been hitched on Broad street. The boldness of these thefts calls for renewed vigilance on the part of officers of the law to apprehend and rid the town of such miscreants.—Globe Silver Belt.
