

The Miner.

J. H. Stinson, Editor. There is not a town, village, military post, farming or mining settlement in Arizona in which the MINER does not circulate...

THE LATEST.

Early this week, we published the substance of a special dispatch to the MINER from Tucson, saying that army officers lately in command of Indian reservations had demanded of the Interior department...

MINES AND MINING.—The space at our disposal, this Friday, will not admit of any lengthy remarks on this subject, but we point with satisfaction to the accounts scattered here and there...

BE CAREFUL.—The spring fires have started in California. Let us of Arizona look well to our stoves, fire places, etc., and avert conflagrations that would be ruinous to us.

INTERNAL REVENUE.—Mr. Thomas Cordis, collector of Internal revenue, district of Arizona, has a notice under the head of new advertisements...

ANOTHER MINE.—Mr. John Smith, of Camp McDowell, Maricopa county, informs us by letter that a party of prospectors had just discovered what he said was a very rich silver mine...

The New York World made a respectable bull, when it said that "with one hand, Gen. Howard would put one Apache in the front of christianity, and with the other hand, take a dozen out."

Eight hundred wickets, is the number recently counted by citizens of Florence, who went with Lieut Ward's command, after Apaches.

Gov. Safford has favored us with about a dozen copies of his admirable pamphlet on Arizona and its resources.

Not being able to crowd all the reading matter into the Weekly, we again accompany the edition with a supplement, containing very good reading matter.

We presume it is all right, that paroling of Wiley, by the Governor. Vide Tucson dispatch. But, that school apportionment appears to us a little mysterious.

Auction.—To-morrow (Saturday) at 11 a. m., J. L. Fisher, auctioneer, will commence to sell, at his rooms in the old capital building...

"Uncle" Sanders, of Miller valley, comes to town almost every day and carries on with the boys, just as if the frosts of about seventy winters had not whitened his well-behaved head.

PROCEEDINGS IN JUSTICE'S COURT.—Yesterday, Justice J. C. Otis transacted business as follows:

John Chart, bound over until next term of court. Jos Wilkins pleaded guilty to having stolen a watch from Mr. Rhodes and was fined $25. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Mr. Donahugh of Williamson valley...

We hope that the time is not far distant when the Government will have to pay citizens for property stolen and destroyed by marauding Indians, as by such thieves thousands of frontier people have been ruined and other thousands crippled and bound to poverty for many years.

The village assessment roll foots up $248,672.00.

Fred Williams has a new advertisement in to-day's MINER.

Our new chief justice, Judge Dunne, is said to be a very able man. He has resided in Washington for several years past, practicing as a lawyer before the American and Mexican claims commission.

The Board of Supervisors of the several counties will meet in regular session on the first Monday of next month.

Col Thomas Scott finds the Texas Pacific a rough and rugged road to travel.

Los Angeles, California, talks of establishing a savings bank.

The Arizona Citizen, of Tucson, dated March 28, reached us yesterday. The number contains Dr. Tonner's letter and lengthy remarks thereon, which do not give the Dr. credit for fairness, honesty, or the right sort of love for humane principles.

The "Chick" is devoted to telling what the editor knows and has read about Judge E. F. Dunne, the gentleman who is to succeed Judge Titus as chief Justice of the Territory.

Delegate McCormick tells Mr. E. M. Pearce, in a letter, that he (McC.) was working hard for such a reduction of the White Mountain Indian reservation as would disconnect it from mining districts now opened.

Gen Crook informed somebody that he had just made a thorough investigation of San Carlos Indian affairs, and failed to discover that words or acts of any white man caused the Apaches to leave there.

E. N. Fish & Co., of Tucson, had received 30,000 lbs the new goods.

Rich ore was found in its way to Tucson, from men and mines in Papago district.

A new district, "Silver Mountain," had been found. It is west of Tucson.

TELEGRAPHIC. Washington, April 2.—Senator Jones surprised the Senate yesterday, by his argument against inflicting disciplinary censure upon the Hon. J. P. Nathan...

Thomson, of the Senate committee on private land claims, says the plan of the bill proposed to confirm the St. James Catholic mission title to four acres of land covering site of town of Vancouver, Washington Territory...

New York, April 2.—Roosevelt was nearly destroyed by fire yesterday. Last accounts fire still rages. Philadelphia, April 2.—Erie Railroad strikers at Susquehanna depot have quieted down. Troops removed to-day.

San Francisco, April 1.—The Police Commission this afternoon investigated the charges preferred by R. P. Nathan against Detective D. W. Lewis...

London, March 2.—Advices from Australia state that the bark "Santal" arrived at Melbourne on the 28th inst. The bark "Santal" arrived at Melbourne on the 28th inst.

Another Mine.—Mr. Wm. Polster came to town from upper Lyma creek this forenoon, with the bad news that in the night of Saturday last, some thief or thieves robbed his prospects of about $1,000...

The 23d Infantry Band will play the following selections on the 10th inst. at 7 p. m. to-morrow: 1. Quickstep—Warrior's Return.

WEATHER REPORTS.—The following shows the state of the weather at the places named, at 8 P. M. to-day: Maricopa Wells—Clear and pleasant.

Mr. William Ellison, telegraph operator, starts for his new station, Wickburg, by to-morrow's back-track.

MAIL SERVICE AGAIN. We have just received a letter from Delegate McCormick, enclosing a letter to him from the second assistant postmaster-general...

To this we have to say, for the people who wish the route established, that the country between the two points is fast filling up with miners, farmers and others...

Mr. Houghton, Congressman from Southern California, does not, we presume, favor the route, because it does not run through Los Angeles and San Bernardino.

Private advices from Mohave report Capt Burns' physical condition much improved by the warm climate of that point.

By telegram, yesterday, we heard that the H. S. committee was in favor of allowing New Mexico to enter the Union as a State.

Mr. M. K. Leroy, formerly of this county, was at Denver, Colorado, on the 14th inst., preparing to start, with his daughter, for California.

Two good officers are about to depart from the Territory, on sick leave—Gen Carr and Major Brown, of the 5th cavalry.

MONEY ITEMS.—Our fellow citizens who have the privilege of handling silver coin, once in awhile, or oftener, will be pleased should Congress pass the bill providing for coining 20 cent pieces.

Mr. Chas Pietz, assayer of Cerbat, in this Territory, is almost positive that he has discovered a great secret, one that will enable him to separate silver from lead and other base metals with much greater ease and rapidity than the work has ever before been accomplished.

MORAYE COUNTY.—INDIAN AND MINING AFFAIRS.

A Cerbat correspondent of the MINER sends the following: Lieut Thomas and party rested five days at Beale Springs, and two days after they had started out again Sherburn and 250 of the Hualpais returned to that post...

The four rascals who stole the horses from the Widows, and wounded the mail rider, are in the Beale Springs guard-house.

The success in bringing the Hualpais back without fighting them, is due, in a great measure to Capt Byrne's kind and just treatment, and his protecting them in all their troubles.
