OFFICIAL PAPER
Cochise County.

THE Epitaph gloats over the increase of the business of Solomon & Wickersham of Bowie, "thanks to the Indian outbreak."

THE Chinese are fast leaving this city and we hope inside of a month to chronicle the departure of the last one.

THIRTY Chinamen arrived in San Francisco on Saturday last, being the last of the Chinese residents of Humboldt county, California.

IT will not long before the Epitaph will be advertised out of its new and comfortable quarters on Fourth street, as that institution belongs to the estate of J. W. Baldridge.

THE Epitaph will publish a religious controversy to-morrow, and on the day following will have its columns filled with blasphemy about some member of the Anti-Chinese League.

THE Epitaph office and building was sold by the Sheriff yesterday for the sum of $200. People in this neighborhood don't seem to have much faith in the value of our esteemed contemporary.

THE Mexican government claim that the people of the United States are boycotting the Mexican dollar by discounting the same, and they propose to boycott American goods and get even.

FIVE Chinese wash houses have closed up since the Anti Chinese League was established, and we have been informed by an agent of the Water Company that two more have ordered their water cut off on the first of the month, as they intend to quit business. Let the good work go on.

WE are in receipt of the Kansas City Sunday Journal, containing twenty pages of well edited and neatly printed matter. This is a noticeable stroke of enterprise for a journal in the far West, and its patrons and the people of Kansas City should be proud of it, and also of its editors and proprietors.

JOHN I. GINN, editor of the Nogales Frontier, who has been one of the most bitter writers in the Territory against Crook and his policy, and at whom other newspapers in the pay of Crook cast their darts of spleen, has taken the field against the Apaches with powder and lead, and at the same time is using his paper bullets as may be seen by an article in another column.

THE Police department as illustration in this week's issue of the wealth of the people of Tombstone in getting rid of Chinese. Our Contemporary can now see the harm being done our town by such irresponsible papers as the Epitaph, by the publication of such lying reports as have appeared in its columns of late for the past six weeks, and to further lying reports of Hoey Kook, one of the same ones who telegraphs the news from this city to the San Francisco Chronicle.

From the Front.

CALABASAS April 28—Great excitement still continues to prevail here. It is believed the Apaches have divided into two bands one is heading for Salero and he other for Oro Blanco. Great fears are entertained for safety in these districts. There is no less than thirty hostiles. Captain Davis with a troop of cavalry arrived to-day from Mescal Springs. Peck who escaped from the hostiles says Geronimo spoke to him told him who he was. This leaves no doubt this is Geronimos band.

The Apaches.

CALABASAS April 28—The hostiles were run out of their stronghold twenty miles south of Nogales yesterday morning. They swept across the head of the Santa Cruz neircling Nogales and leaving a bloody trail. They attacked Williams ranch this morning but were driven off. They swept across by Calabasas at five wounding one man and sweeping stock. They were pursued by eight men whom they drove back and thirty to forty are having a big feast in the rocks two miles north. There are enough here from Nogales to hold the fort but not to attack.

A Later Report.

NOGALES April 28—About forty apaches passed up the Santa Cruz valley early this morning killing several Mexicans and Americans. They passed Calabasas about seven this morning capturing some of Sykes at Atkinson's stock and shooting a Mexican in the arm.

In answer to a call for help about forty volunteers well armed left here at 8 o'clock on a special train reaching Calabasas in twenty minutes. Scouting parties were organized and the hostiles were discovered in a camp about two miles north of Calabasas. A second train of volunteers left at 10 o'clock and word was shortly received that the hostiles were being corralled and would be held for the arrival of troops At noon a detachment of the Tenth cavalry under Captain Lebo passed here for the scene of action. A company of cavalry also passed Crittenden about 11 o'clock headed for Calabasas. About sixty volunteers from Nogales are in the field, A third train has just left here with provisions canteens and supplies. There has been quite excitement in town all day and business is practically suspended.

The Pink and White Tea given at the residence of Mrs. Cheyney last evening for the benefit of the Rectory Fund of the Episcopal Church was a very successful affair, and netted quite a sum to the fund for which it was given. The ladies getting up the entertainment are deserving of a great deal of credit for the successful termination of the affair.
