FIENDISH ATTEMPT.
Some One Tries to Destroy Life With Dynamite.
At 9:40 p. m. yesterday, says the Courier, Prescott was shaken up by an explosion which was followed in a few moments by fire alarm, which brought a large crowd of people out who soon congregated in and around the Cabinet saloon building, owned by Bolcher & Smith where an explosion had taken place under the floor, wrecking the rear end of the building. No one had any idea how the explosive got under the floor, or who put them there, but that it was done with malice aforethought and murderous intent is certain.
The Cabinet is a double frame building 100x50 feet, combining kitchen, rear dining rooms and side store room for liquors and large saloon and gambling hall. The back porch, rear dining room and kitchen are completely wrecked. In the rear of the saloon room proper tables were over-turned, the floor torn up, a thousand pound stove turned over and holes torn through the floor at different points. The front windows were shattered to atoms, the clock on the wall was broken, the hands stopping 20 minutes to 10, showing the exact time of the explosion.
About $300 worth of bottled imported liquors in the wine room were lost by the bottles being broken, also a new $40 chandelier. The loss will probably reach $1000. The floor of the passage way between the Cabinet and the adjoining building on the north was also torn up. For some time before the explosion a smell of something burning was remarked on. There was probably no less than 25 pounds of dynamite exploded. There was two woman in the rear dining room when it was so badly wrecked, and two on the porch, but, wonderful to relate, they received no damage beyond a few rents in their garments. A Chinaman was hurt in the leg. The building was full of people at the time of the explosion and the fact that no one was killed or maimed seems miraculous.
Later—a man has just been arrested. He is the husband of one of the women who was in the wrecked room. He has been heard to threaten to kill her several times lately. Supposition from the first was that the attempt was to kill one of the women.
