BISBEE NEWS
Daily Happenings at the Great Copper Camp.
Budget of Interesting Items from our Regular Correspondent.
BISBEE, August 4, 1896.
COPPERINGS.

Mr. Fred Ingle has also moved into his small sized mansion in the same vicinity. Fatty always was right in it but he belongs to the upper 10 now, sure pop.
Mr. P. D. Cunningham and family have moved into their new house on Nob Hill. If you should happen to notice a light way up on the mountain side there at any time don't stop to ask what it is: you'll be perfectly safe in concluding that it is in Paddy's house.

Gus Peterson who has been working in the mine here for some months past, left for Denver this morning. Mr. Peterson thinks he has some valuable copper mines in Mexico and is trying to get some one with capital to take hold of them with him. He is going to Denver for that purpose, but if unsuccessful there will go still further east, presumably to St. Louis.

The advent of two newly married couples into the burg of Bisbee was too much for the youngsters' feelings last night. They were completely carried away with enthusiasm, and made an otherwise beautiful night altogether hideous with their continuous and imperturbable tin can serenades. We had the pleasure of trying to go to sleep near the house of one of the blissful couple and know what we're talking about. We think the town ought to establish a fund to buy the boys off in all such cases. All that would be necessary to make the plan a success would be a good person to do business with the boys. We think that either "Smoothy" Tyler or "Windy" Crouchy could fill this position very well and hope that some of our town philanthropists will take the matter in hand.

Harry Slater, one of our young friends from Tucson who has been taking in the town for a few days past, had a rather unfortunate accident befall him this morning. He was going out on the train but stopped to see some friends a moment too long and when he got to the round house, just below the depot, he found the train leaving and under quite a good headway. Not wishing to be left he tried to jump the train but in some way made a miscalculation and was thrown violently to the ground. He had a very narrow escape from being run over, and got off very lucky considering. His leg is so badly sprained though that it will be some time before he will have the use of it, but it is a great wonder to all that it was not broken. He was immediately taken to the house of a friend where he will receive the best of attention and he hopes to be able to make the trip to Tucson in the course of a few days.

We have learned since yesterday that a rising young Bisbeeite is one of the young gentlemen who intend to visit Tucson for educational purposes next month. We are in something of a quandary ourselves as to whether he is imbued with a longing for intellectual training, or is simply overcome with a desire to be near to see and to hear a certain young lady. This is a question which we are afraid can only be answered to our satisfaction by future events. Of one thing we are certain, however, and that is that, unless Ed charges his mind about going to Tucson, we will lose one of our shining lights in the field of journalism. That Mr. Alvan Howe will not allow himself to be outdone by any such scheme as this is without the shadow of a doubt, and therefore, unless Ed will compromise by staying at home, we may as well make our minds not to be disappointed if we lose one of our much respected editors.
