As appeared in the second issue of the "Democrat" the announcement of Stephen A. D. Upton for the office of Probate Judge. Mr. Upton is an old timer in this county and is a gentleman in every respect. Should Mr. Upton receive the nomination he will make a strong fight for the office.

Yours truly happened to drop into the company's store yesterday and on going up to the grocer's counter noticed the smiling countenance of Frank Johnson as he passed us, pushing us aside and saying get out of Papa's way. On investigation we were informed that Frank had become Papa of a bouncing baby girl.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS.
An old, well-tried remedy. Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggist in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

Grand Entertainment.
At Mining Exchange Hall on Friday evening, September 25th. The programme consists of music, reading, tableaux, etc. Do not miss the "Sign-on-One Tableau." This presentation will fan the silver sentiment into a blaze. The very moderate sum of 25 cents will be charged at the door. This covers the entertainment bout. In addition to the above, the ladies have provided stands where the thirty may buy lemonade, and also treat their favorites to choice candy. Ice cream and cake will be sold on the premises. A real good time is promised for all.

"We had an epidemic of dysentery in this vicinity last summer," says Samuel S. Fallick, of Briceford, Cal. "I was taken with it and suffered severely until some one called my attention to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I procured a bottle and felt better after the first dose. Before one-half of the bottle had been used I was well. I recommended it to my friends and their experience was the same. We all unite in saying it is the best." For sale by Druggists.
