THE SAN SIMON VALLEY

Said to be the Rendezvous of the Robbers.

It is stated on good authority that the band of highwaymen that have been boldly riding the country ever since their attempted robbery of the Nogales bank, taking in postoffices, railroad stations and helping themselves to whatever pleased their fancy, in defiance of both the law and officers, are at present camped at or near the ranch of Fred Ruch, about eight miles north-west of San Simon Station in the San Simon valley. The officers have been notified of this fact but up to this time they have not routed them. The bandits have the advantage in this that they can climb to the top of Ruch's windmill and by the aid of a field glass could see any moving object miles away, so long as the sun shines they are able to discern and avoid any person coming their way; thus it will be seen that the officers have but one show and that is to surprise them at night. These men are bold, they are brave, they are desperate, and when they are brought to bay some body is sure to be hurt; the officers know this, and while they are brave as the average of mankind, they must out general these desperate men or be maimed for life or worse. Still the country must be rid of the outlaws whatever the cost. Word received states that the robbers have become more defiant, and the Southern Pacific have taken the matter in hand and secured a posse in Tucson who, with the forces of the United States marshal, left that city early this morning for Bowie and an attack on the robbers is looked for tonight. Should a battle ensue bloodshed will surely follow. Notices were posted at the Homestead Mills, of the Carnegie company, Pittsburg, Pa., of a readjustment of wages, to take effect Jan. 1897. Under the agreement with the workmen, each side is required to give a 90 days' notice of any change in the wages paid. While delivering a political speech at Hoehne, Colo., the other night, Senator Casimiro was shot at five times by a man named John Hoyt, who stood immediately outside the hall and fired through a crack in the building. One of the balls took effect in the senator's left jaw and he fell to the floor, though not seriously wounded. The funeral of Mrs. J. D. Noriega took place this afternoon from the Catholic church. A large number of sympathizing friends being present to hear the last solemn requiem services were also held at the cemetery Rev. Besenat officiating and the last mortal remains of a devoted mother was consigned to everlasting rest.

AN OBSEPEROUS DRUNK.

Attacks a Jailer and is Laid Out with a Bunch of Keys.

Handcuffed and howling with rage, maddened by excessive drink, J. C. Dennis was brought to the police station yesterday from Boyle Heights, where he had been arrested for drunkenness. On arrival at the police station he was placed in one of the dungeons, as he fought and kicked like a demon. Once inside the cell Dennis tore around like a mad bull and kicked at the iron door until the whole jail resounded with the clamor. Twice the cell door was opened and he was warned to be quiet, and for a few moments subsided, only to renew his kicking and roaring as soon as left alone. The third time Jailer Ben Robbins opened the door to speak to the infuriated man. As he did so Dennis jumped forward out of the darkness, struck the jailer in the eye with his fist and grappled with him, clawing tooth and nail. Robbins tried to shake him off but could not. In his right hand the jailer carried his bunch of huge heavy keys fastened on a chain. Seeing there was nothing else to be done he smashed the drink-arazed man over the head with them, laying him out cold. The blood poured from a gash in the scalp inflicted by the sharp wards of the keys and Dennis taken to the receiving hospital for treatment. The blow and loss of blood had sobered him up considerably and after the wound had been stitched up he was glad enough to behave himself and go to sleep in a cell and forego any further experience in the dungeons. Dennis came here from Bisbee and Tombstone, Arizona, recently and is a miner.—L. A. Herald.

GLADNESS COMES

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists. If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.
