OFFICIAL PAPER OF APACHE COUNTY

DECEMBER 27, 1917.

Writing to James H. Stewart, state commissioner of Agriculture, Mrs. Jemima Brown, of Summers county, a farmer's wife, declares that she has received during the summer "not less than five hundred pounds of paper, all appealing to the housewife, with an under-current indicting her for waste" and she intimated that she was getting tired of it.

"Propagandists have been here, always coming to the house with literature for the 'woman,'" she said "until my husband has come to believe that I am wasteful, though I have turned out the canary bird over a year ago and the cat actually starved to death this spring.

"Two young men riding in a polished six-cylinder automobile drove up to our place, each smoking a ten-cent cigar, and asked me to sign a pledge to save. Why, I couldn't save another mouthful unless I began to trim down the pancakes fed to those young solicitors, but they do seem so hungry.

Mrs. Brown then made some economy suggestions for the men, the first of which was, "send those big automobiles to France for service. The price of those cigars will furnish the gasoline to run the automobiles. The total would mean millions. Send the solicitors to the front as soldiers. It will leave more food producers on the farm."

Mrs. Brown declared "we farm women know there is a war and what it means and what to do. Our mothers didn't need this advice during our Civil war. We know what they went through. We are just as loyal as our mothers were, and we will send our last son and our last dollar away with a smile. We can read, we can think, we know and we can make ourselves heard occasionally, depending on the courtesy extended to us by the press."—Ex.

An exchange says: We are learning to do without so many things during the war that when peace comes we are not likely to resume the use of many. And that will be a distinct gain in more ways than one.

NO REASON FOR IT
You Are Shown a Way Out.

There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the word of a resident of this locality who has found relief. The following is convincing proof of merit. Rev. Paul Figueroa, 452 S. Stone Ave. Tucson, Ariz., says: "About eight years ago my kidneys were bothering me and it seemed as though the pains in my back would never stop. My kidneys did not act regularly. I usually felt languid and tired and I suffered with frequent headaches. I used four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and they completely and permanently cured me."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that cured Rev. Figueroa. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
